SUNFLOWER PLANT DESTINED TO BE GREAT ALBERTA STOCK FOOD, G. H. HUTTON DECLARES

ANIMAL HUSBANDRY EXPERT, AFTER EXHAUSTIVE EXPERIMENTS, REPORTS THAT IT HAS MORE MILK AND BUTTER FAT PRODUCING VALUE THAN PEAS, OATS OR CORN, AND ALSO FATTENS ANIMALS BETTER.

(From Calgary Herald.)

That the sunflower silage will double the carrying capacity of Alberta land was fully demonstrated to a party of business men and ranchers from Calgary and Southern Alberta, who visited the C.P.R. Supply Farm at Strathmore on Tuesday afternoon. The test was carried out with 46 Holstein cows who were rationed on corn, peas and oats and sunflower silage for a period of two weeks. The results were made known Tuesday afternoon, and the following is the results of these series of tests:

Sunflowers	27.24 lbs.	3.6	2 lbs. per day
Peas and Oats	25.88 lbs.	3.5	1 lb. per day
Corn	28.4 lbs.	3.4	1.85 lbs. per day

Each animal was supplied with 30 pounds of the silage a day during the test, besides being fed a certain amount of loose feed which was exactly the same for each cow.

A Superior Feed

This test undoubtedly shows that the sunflower as a silage for milk cows is better in every way than the corn or peas and oats. The results of the test with the same silage on beef cattle is not as yet available. The experiment is being tried on baby beef, and the cattlemen of the party were of the opinion that those on the sunflower silage are doing equally as well, if not better, than the others.

Big Sunflower Crop

The yield per acre of sunflowers on this farm last year was 34.6 tons, that of peas and oats 7 tons, and that of corn 14 tons per acre. It was only necessary to irrigate the sunflower crop once during last season, while the other two crops had to be irrigated twice. The sunflower does not need a great deal of moisture to grow. But a test has shown that the sunflower carries 88 per cent. moisture, while corn carries 78 per cent. and the peas and oats 63 per cent. This large amount of moisture in the sunflower does not decrease the feeding value, as was shown in the test when the same number of pounds per day were fed to each cow.

Animals Like It

While the party was at the farm Tuesday a number of the cows were fed the sunflower silage, and they relished it as much as any other kind of food.

Silo Treatment Needed

When the sunflower is cut it has a stalk as big as a man's wrist, and many people believe that it would be too coarse for feed. This is not the case, for when it is taken from the silo to be fed it is very fine and has just the right amount of moisture.

Substitute for Corn

The reason of this experiment, as told by Mr. George H. Hutton, the superintendent of the animal industry branch of the C. P. R. department of natural resources, who planned the trip to the farm, was to see if the sunflower would substitute as a silage for corn. Mr. Hutton said that corn could not be raised in this part of the country with any success, and that if some silage of equal value to corn could be found which is a product of this part that it would double the producing power of Alberta land and thereby double it in value. This experiment has proven beyond doubt that the sunflower as a silage can take the place of corn.

So Easily Grown

The sunflower seed is sown three feet apart in rows, and this can be done with an ordinary drill by plugging up some of the spouts. From 13 to 15 pounds of seed is sown to the acre. The crop at the experimental farm last year stood 14 feet high.

A Cleaning Crop

The sunflower serves as a cleaning crop for the land, and as they are inter-tilled, they leave the land in good condition for crops to follow.

The Silo Used

The style of silo used at the experimental farm is known as the stave silo, which is the one most generally in use. A good carpenter, assisted by three men, can erect a 20 by 40 foot silo of this type, with the exception of the roof, and after the concrete foundation has been laid, in four days. The last silo erected at the farm is equipped with a circular lip roof, which increases the capacity of the silo by 20 per cent.

Among the herd at the farm is a cow, Abby Lass De Kol, who gave 28,882 lbs. of milk last year and 869 lbs. of butter-fat, while another cow, a two-year-old, Zoss Wayne De Kol, gave 15,707.2 lbs. of milk and 683 lbs. of butter-fat last year. She took third money for heifers of this age for Canada last year. The prize was donated by the Dominion Breeders' Association. These cows are Holsteins. Many other cows of the herd have a record of 15,000 lbs. and over, and these records are official under Dominion Government supervision. This herd is the first in Alberta to qualify under the rules laid down by the Dominion Department of Agriculture for "Accredited Herds," which means that they have a certificate from the Dominion Government as being free from tuberculosis.

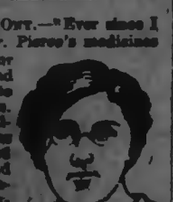
SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu, Thin, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(By Dr. Valentine Mott.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.



TILLSONBURG, ONT.—"Ever since I can remember Dr. Pierce's medicines were used in our family at home and they never failed to give good results. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' was good as a tonic and blood purifier and for bronchial trouble and it proved excellent. I have personally taken it for bronchial trouble and the 'Favorite Prescription' to build me up when I was run-down and they were both very beneficial."—Miss. OLIVEROSE MITCHELL.

MILLBROOK NEWS

It was somewhat different from the regular session, being "A Musical Evening" in charge of Mrs. G. W. Sayles, Superintendent of the Missionary Department. The program was really excellent. The meeting opened with singing and prayer after which piano duets by Misses Stella Hetherington and Ella Elson were skilfully rendered. A vocal duet by Misses May Byam and Phyllis Richards was also well received. Miss Hampton then favoured the audience with two splendid readings A solo by Miss Kathleen Lancashire was given in her usual sweet voice. Mr. Ben Newman gave two violin solos with piano accompaniment by Miss Fanny Newman, which also delighted all. Miss Stella Hetherington followed with a piano instrumental. ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM BRIDGENORTH

NEW COTTAGES GOING UP IN THE PARK—MUSKRAT SEASON OVER.

BRIDGENORTH, April 23.—Mr. Alex. Elliott has a number of men underbrushing and cleaning up Chemong Park which will make quite an improvement.

Cottage Opened.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckle returned to their cottage about ten days ago. Mr. Eckle has seen a lot of the world but says there is no place like Chemong Park. This will be his third season.

The Muskrats.

The muskrat season has about come to an end. There has not been as many rats caught for they are getting searcer every year on account of so many trappers. It is also rumored by some who know that there are too many rats killed in the Fall after the rats commence to build there houses for the Winter which is against the law.

Returning Home.

Mrs. Thomas McCall has returned home to-day from the Nichols Hospital after undergoing a very serious operation some weeks ago.

Mail Carrier.

Mr. A. Jobe, local postmaster, is also mail carrier on account of the Chemong bridge being wrecked by ice the Lakehurst mail has to go around by Fowler's Corners.

Chemong Bridge.

The ice on Chemong lake was all off the lake on the 16th. It was twelve days from it commenced to move until the lake was clear and it has done considerable damage. The Chemong bridge has been broken up very badly and traffic has not passed over it for some time. On account of bad weather and scarcity of labor there is not much progress. It is a great inconvenience for the farmers of Ennismore for they have to go around by Fowler's Corners to get to the city or stay at home.

Telephone Line Down.

The telephone line has not been in operation since the bridge was broken as it was strung on the railing of the bridge instead of being in a cable and laid in the bottom of the lake so Ennismore has neither highway nor telephone service.

Lath Cutting.

Mr. George Bell is about ready to commence lath cutting which will be a great convenience for the public as lath has got to be a very scarce article and very high in price. Lath which some years ago sold for 125 cents a bunch is now over 75 cents a bunch.

Shingle Cutting.

Mr. J. Brady is busy cutting shingles for the farmers around the vicinity but labor is scarce and hard to get.

New Cottage.

Mr. S. R. Pearson has commenced to build another new cottage in the park having disposed of the one he built last Fall to a party in Toronto.

Cotage Completed.

Mr. Redman's new cottage is now completed and ready for him to move in. This is one of the finest cottages in Chemong Park.

STORE OPENS 9 A.M. The CRESSMAN Company Limited CLOSES SATURDAY 9.30 P.M.

Y.W.C.A. AND Y.M.C.A. EXHIBITION

Trained to a fine degree of perfection, the young people of the Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. gave a splendid closing exhibition at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium last evening, which not only proved most entertaining, but reflected unlimited credit upon the directors, Miss Edith Pryce and Mr. D. A. Loomis.

The evening was opened by Mr. G. O. Cameron, who, in a brief address, referred to the fact that this is the first year in the history of the Y.W.C.A. that a local girl has been Physical Directress, and the installation of Miss Pryce in this important position bespeaks of the development of the institution. Speaking of some of the many attractions and good points of the Y.W.C.A., Mr. Cameron said that the swimming tank, which is one of the best in Ontario, presents a golden opportunity to every girl and woman, and that after witnessing some of the feats of Miss Payne, swimming instructress, in the water at Stoney Lake, he could assure all that they need have no hesitancy in learning to swim under her instruction. In closing, Mr. Cameron said: "Of the Y.M.C.A., there are too many good points, Mr. J. H. Burnham to the contrary, to enlarge on any."

The Programme.

The programme opened with a processional march, in which the massed classes, led by the tiniest pupil of all, Miss Margaret Wyllie, clad in gym suits and carrying a Union Jack, marched in a dizzying maze about the gymnasium. In the dumbell exercises by the Saturday Juniors, the wand exercises by the Thursday Juniors, the single club exercises by the Athena and Beginners' Class, the Swedish exercises by the Seniors, Beginners and Athena Classes, the club swinging exercises by the Senior Girls and Seniors, the pupils taking part proved the splendid training they have received and the progress which has been made by all during the past year. Each girl kept remarkably good time, and not a single mistake was made during the difficult exercises.

The Features.

Features in the girls' part of the programme were the "Dance of the Witches," in which the Saturday Juniors, each dressed appropriately as witches, took part; the Nursery Rhymes by the Little Tots' Class, which was especially charming. In this about twenty-five little children, ranging from four to six years of age, and presenting a pictures forcibly reminded of the family of the "Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe," sang and acted some of the old fashioned nursery rhymes. The character dance, "Little Miss Muffett," was a pretty contribution, in which the Junior School Girls presented a "song without words," presenting the action of the nursery rhyme in motion. The folk dance, Swedish Schottische, by the Senior School Girls, the Beginners and Athena Classes, was a very graceful exhibition, and the "Dance of the Clowns," by the Junior School Girls, given in costume, was very attractive. One exceptionally pretty item was the French Baby character dance by the Senior Girls. In this the girls, dressed with Dresden like daintiness, were very charming. "In Time of Roses," by the Advanced Class, and the Classic Dance, "Aubade Printaniere," by the Special Classes, each in costume, were very graceful and attractive features.

The Y.M.C.A. Programme.

The muscular development, agility and general athletic ability displayed by the boys of the Y.M.C.A. taking part was remarkably fine. The games of the Y.M.C.A. Beginners were most amusing, and "long horse" by the Y.M.C.A. Seniors, a display of athletic prowess, which was comparable with Doug. Fairbank's feats in the movies. "High bar" by H. Young, T. Pogue and R. Pogue was very clever, which the ring exercises by the Y.M.C.A. Seniors was circus like in the thrills it provided. The marching of the Y.M.C.A. Juniors bespoke the future excellence of Canada's army.

The Accompanists.

Miss Edna Stewart and Miss Isabel Baird made very able accompanists.

During the evening Miss Pryce was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers by Miss Doris Skinner, on behalf of the pupils of the Gymnasium.

RALPH DE PALMA HAS NEW FRENCH SPEEDER

RACING STAR FORSAKES PACKARD AND GERMAN MOUNT.

INDIANAPOLIS—Ralph de Palma, undoubtedly the most popular automobile racing driver in history, has signed to drive in the eighth annual 500-mile race to be held at the Indianapolis speedway, May 31.

Ralph will pilot a Ballot, a product of the famous Ballot Moteurs, Paris, France, and there is no little mystery surrounding the mount the winner of the 1915 classic will drive. His team mates in the big race are not announced, nor are any details of his car except that it will be of 180 cubic inches piston displacement, three cubic inches inside the limit specified, and that it will be a 1920 model.

Last year de Palma drove a 12-cylinder Packard and despite persistent engine and tire trouble finished sixth. This year he is riding a Ballot—"because he wanted something distinctive," as he put it.

Little is known of the Ballot car, as last year was the first time it appeared in racing competition. In the 1919 sweepstakes four Ballots were entered—Albert Guyot finished fourth, Rene Thomas eleventh, while Louis Wagner and Paul Bablot, other members of the Ballot team, were forced out of the race because of broken wheels.

However, Rene Thomas, speeding a Ballot, travelled the fastest lap ever turned at the Speedway, when in the speed trials he was caught by the timers in 1.25.89, or an average of 104.78 miles per hour. The nearest approach to this record made by an American driver in a Yankee-made car was by Louis Chevrolet in a Frontenac, 103.15 miles per hour or 1.27.37 for 2½ miles.

De Palma first raced in a Ballot at the Los Angeles Speedway this year. He finished eighth and in the meantime changed 18 tires. The car that de Palma will drive here in May is still under construction in France at the Ballot plant. It is rumored that it will be of 8-cylinders-in-line type, a racing sensation.

Ralph, of the sunny disposition and ever present smile, firmly imbedded himself in the memory of the thousands of race enthusiasts in the 1912 sweepstakes. With but two laps to go, de Palma and his flying Mercedes, which had kept the stands on its feet throughout the thrilling race by its daring performance under de Palma's guidance, was leading the vanguard of racers with Joe Dawson, the nearest competitor, 8 laps or 20 miles behind.

It looked like an easy win for the favorite of the day, but a connecting rod broke, tossed him out of the $20,00 prize for first place out of his hands. De Palma jumped from his car and pushed it down the home stretch to its pit amid the cheers of the excited thousands. When Joe Dawson in Number 8, a National, whizzed by him, de Palma waved him on to victory,—and kept on pushing his disabled car—smiling.

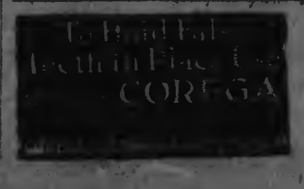
De Palma has never blamed "hard luck" for his racing misfortunes. He merely tells what happened to the car, giving no alibis. His clean sportsmanship has won for him a place in the racing hall of fame—there never was a more popular driver.

In 1915 he came back and won the sweepstakes, driving a Mercedes.



REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

A new mystery play, that is bound to meet public favor opens its engagement of two days at the Grand Opera House, starting with a matinee Tuesday, April 27. The plot of the play is based on the vital subject of "Marriage and Divorce," truly a vital and important subject and much discussed. It is called a play of mystery, and fully carries out the author's idea, for one is greatly puzzled until the final drop of the curtain. In order to have a play meet with public fancy, it must contain fears and comedy. This, "The Revelations of a Wife" has in abundance. Mystery plays like "The Unknown Purple," "The Woman in Room Thirteen," "Three Faces East," "The Invisible Foe," are now having a very successful run at Broadway, New York houses, and this new play appears like another one ready to follow the above successes. A cast of unusual excellence and a production, far above the average theatre-goer, can look forward to a real theatrical event, and the already demand for reservations looks like a tremendous week, financially, at the Grand Opera House. Daily matinees for ladies only will be given, but the evening performances are for everybody over sixteen years of age.

MOTORIST FINED IN POLICE COURT

COLLISION AIRED IN POLICE COURT THIS MORNING.

Before Magistrate Dumble this morning, W. G. Clancy, a local taxi proprietor, was charged with, on Wednesday, April 21, driving a motor vehicle on Charlotte Street recklessly, or at a speed in a manner which was dangerous to the public, contrary to the Motor Vehicles Act.

The one-ton truck of Ed. Cooney, driven by Malcolm Vincent, was standing in front of Juby's grocery. Vincent went to turn, and when a little over half-way around, saw Clancy about one hundred feet up the street. He stopped, and, instead of Clancy turning around, he cut in front of Vincent, smashing the front of the car and damaging it considerbly. Clancy was driving a touring car.

Mr. G. N. Gordon appeared for W. G. Clancy, and Mr. S. T. Medd for Ed. Cooney.

The Evidence.

The first witness called was Vincent, the driver for Cooney, who swore that he did not see Clancy till he was one hundred feet away, coming down the south side of Charlotte Street. The truck's hind wheels were just over the south track of the street railway. Vincent stopped his car. Clancy came on and tried to cut the corner into the station, with the collision resulting.

In his cross-examination, Mr. Gordon held that both drivers were to blame, the driver for Cooney being equally negligent.

Vincent admitted that he did not look when turning, because he had his hand out until his hind wheels were over the south track.

Garnet Fleetwood, a driver for Pulkinghorn, was put in the box. He was on the G.T.R. Station, and saw only the collision take place about half-way between the tracks and the sidewalk. He thought Clancy was to blame.

Mr. Gordon, in examining the witness, tried to show a rivalry between Fleetwood and Clancy, and a friendliness to Vincent. The counsel for the plaintiff objected to the questions of Mr. Gordon, and a heated argument between the counsels provided a little diversion to the court. The witness said there was lots of room for Clancy to go around Cooney's truck.

William Lytle, in the box, corroborated the evidence of Fleetwood, that there was plenty of room for Clancy to go around the truck. Clancy was on the wrong side of the road he said.

W. G. Clancy, in the witness box, gave evidence for the defence. He stated he saw the truck standing in front of the store. Just as he was in the act of passing, the motor truck started to turn around to the south. "He gave no warning to me whether he was going to turn or go ahead." He was driving on the north side of the tracks, he said. "Vincent never held out his hand. He was driving about 12 miles an hour. The collision occurred at the entrance to the G.T.R. Clancy stated the was not going to the station, but turned to the left to avoid the collision."

Clancy, to Mr. Medd, disclaimed having many accidents since he had been in business.

The Magistrate contended that Clancy should have gone around the truck. "He turned deliberately to the south and the collision resulted."

Mr. S. T. Medd pointed out to His Worship that the information had been laid by the police to endeavour to put a stop to the Motor Vehicles Act contravention.

The Magistrate set the fine at $5, and $5.35 costs. G. N. Gordon intimated that he would appeal the case, since Cooney wants damages.

SCRANTON SCHOOL SENIORS STRIKE TO HELP TEACHERS GET MORE PAY

SCRANTON, Pa.—Senior students at the Technical High School went on strike here in an effort to help the school teachers obtain an increase in salary. Recently the teachers demanded a straight increase of $500 per year for everybody.

At a meeting of the School Board last night an increase of $300 was awarded. This the teachers say, they will not accept, and the strike of the students today was called by them as a mark of loyalty to their instructors.

You listen to good music and something takes place inside of you—and that something is always for your betterment.

CARPENTERS ASK FOR GRANT TOWARD LOCAL CONVENTION

BETWEEN 200 AND 300 DELEGATES FROM ENTIRE PROVINCE HERE IN JUNE.

The annual convention of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of Ontario will be held in Peterborough in June with an expected attendance of from 200 to 300 delegates. To assist in entertaining the visitors and because of the advertising this assembly will give to Peterborough, the local Union of the Carpenters asked the Council last night for a grant, the amount of which was not specified. This communication was referred to Finance committee.

Here Three Days.

A deputtaion from the Carpenters' Union supported the request. Mr. Parliament pointed out that similar grants were made by the Council to the G. W. V. A., Woodmen of the World and other organizations. The provincial Carpenters would be here three days and would have between two and three hundred delegates present.

Mr. Thos. McMurray said that the city could be proud of the carpenters. They would take away memories of Peterborough and would leave considerable money here. The local Union felt justified in making an appeal to the city to assist in entertaining the visitors.

Ald. Crowe said he was opposed to all such grants. The Carpenters had as good a right to a grant as had any organization, and wouldn't ask for it if others hadn't done so.

Ald. Jones—The Moulders will be after it next.

Ald. Crowe—And the lawyers.

Ald. Gordon — Of course these grants come out of the appropriation of Ald. Crowe's committee.

Ald. Crowe—You bet it does.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

COMRADES—ATTENTION!

You all well remember the days you spent in France and Flanders; you all remember how you used to look forward to mail days with your letters; instead of a letter you would get a nice parcel from the ladies of your home town, namely Peterboro. These ladies are your mothers, wives, sisters and in many cases your sweethearts, who are now some of your wives. These same ladies used to sit and knit your socks and other comforts until their fingers were numb, after which they would go to their meeting room and parcel these little comforts and send them to you with a little card with a mother's prayer on it. You remember how you used to say "God bless the ladies at home, they are good to us boys." So they were and you used to be pleased to receive those little gifts. Now boys, since the war has ended in your favour you are returned home but the ladies are still working away as faithful as if the war was on for the comfort of those poor comrades of ours who are so run down with the hardships of war that they are, some of them, unable to supply the home with the necessary comforts of the home for wife and little ones. So I ask as one comrade to another to turn out in good numbers and help these ladies to make a successful day on Saturday to get funds to help on their good work in helping the poor and needy. By helping the ladies you are also helping your comrades and those left behind without a father to care for them. Think if you yourself were one of those how pleased you would be for someone to help you in time of need. Now, comrades just think for one minute then come and join the staff of your own lady workers and make Saturday a record day for the drive of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the G.W.V.A. one big success.

Thanking you Mr. Editor for this little space in your valuable paper, I remain, yours,

A VETERAN.

RUSSIA TO RETURN CAPTIVES

Moscow Arranges for Speedy Exchange of Prisoners with Italy.

Milan.—An agreement with the Russian Soviet Government for the exchange of all military and civil prisoners of war other than those sentenced for serious crimes has been concluded by the Rome Government. This agreement, which is to be fully executed within two months, affects some 5,000 Russians now in Italy and some 400 Italians, mostly civilians, detained in Russia. Among the latter is Dr. Pirone, Italian Consul in Petrograd, for whom immediate release steps have already been taken.

On the strength of a credit opened for the purposes by the Soviet Government Italy undertakes to provide the home-going Russians with fresh linen, boots and other clothing and to convey them by their own steamships to Odessa, where those belonging to non-Soviet districts will be required to sign a declaration signifying their willingness to remain under Soviet rule. Italian steamers will also bring back the Italian prisoners, who are to be assembled in the meantime at Odessa or some other Soviet port.

In view of their relatively small number and of the further Italo-Russian commercial accord authorised by Lenin, these steamers will carry cargoes of grain on their return voyage.

THREE RAILWAY SIDINGS NEEDED BY THE CANADIAN PACKING CO.

COUNCIL APPROVES THIRD TRACK ACROSS GEORGE STREET—COMPANY SPENDING AT LEAST $150,000 ON IMPROVEMENTS TO LOCAL PLANT.

AGREED TO CONDITIONS.

Permission to lay a third siding across George street and to alter the course of the two tracks now in use was granted the Canadian Packing Company by the Council last night on condition that the company maintain a watchman at these crossings in the event of the Railway Board ever ordering this safeguard, and also that when the street is paved south of the C.P.R. the company keep in repair that section of the street from two feet beyond the northern track to two feet below the southern track.

Plans of these changes were submitted by Mr. Gordon Matthews, manager of the local plant of the Canadian Packing Company, who explained the need of the increased railway facilities. The additions to the factory which the company recently began will cost not less than $60,000, exclusive of the machinery, plumbing, lighting, refrigerator and insulation, and the total expenditure for improvements here this year will amount to at least $150,000. The company is planning to centralize and separate the "inedible" department with the object of combatting the unpleasant odours that have been complained of. Before long it is expected that the public will notice an improvement in this respect.

The additions will increase the capacity of the factory. "At the present time we have on our pay-roll 200 men, excluding office staff and travellers," Mr. Matthews wrote in his letter accompanying the plans. "Thirty-five men are being employed in connection with this increased siding. At the present time we are unloading and loading from two to fifteen cars a day from two spurs. The extra spur is needed to take care of the increase in traffic that will result from our additions. The moving of the present tracks is necessitated by the increased loading and unloading platform space we will require. If we are given permission to have these tracks altered and increased, there is no doubt that the shunting across George street will be decreased, as the C.P.R. will be able to place twelve cars at a time instead of eight as it now is."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO GIRL SHELLMAKERS

MANY HAVE BEEN ABSORBED INTO INDUSTRIAL LIFE—OTHERS AT HOME—A FEW SAVED MONEY.

Women munition workers who received $5 per day and upward, who lived and dressed accordingly, have been a puzzle to many since this work came to an abrupt termination. With the cost of living on the increase and the source of the supply of luxury gone, how have these workers managed? It was expected that there would be multitudes of them seeking employment of any sort shortly after the works closed down, but like other anticipated disasters following the readjustment from war to peace the expected did not happen.

"I worked at munitions with girls who earned from $5 to $10 a day. A few of them saved, and I know of two girls who have not worked since munitions closed down over a year ago, but have lived on their savings since. But these were exceptions. The majority of the girls who were accustomed to earning their own keep, took the extra gift from the gods as something to be enjoyed at the time."

This munition worker who had been in a position to come closely in contact with the employes, has a reasonable explanation as to the method of keeping up appearances on the part of those who became accustomed to the feeling of silken lingerie and well tailored garments.

Wear Munition Clothes.

"These girls bought the best," she affirmed, "and materials were good at the time. They are still wearing many of their munition clothes. Especially during the winter was this easy, for many of the girls bought seal coats. Now a seal coat with neat boots, a new veil and a few touches, gives a fine appearance. It was a good investment too, for a coat which cost $350 three years ago, would cost $850 now."

"These girls who are willing to put all their earnings into their clothes, naturally know how to make the most of things, and even, although many of them are now earning only $11 a week, they are still able to appear smart and well dressed. Others have good positions, and are earning as much as $25. Two girls who were living models before they chose the more strenuous occupation of munitions, have returned to that work.

"It seemed strange to me," continued the former munition girl, "to see the transformation many of the girls made from greasy overalls to fine frills and feathers. No effort was spared by these girls when work was over to remove all traces of grime and to make themselves into the smartest of fashion parades, ready for appearance on the street.

Have Been Absorbed.

As a class the women munition workers faded into obscurity, and have apparently become absorbed in other occupations. A survey of the various elements which were brought together into the army of women who for reasons more often patriotic than commercial, undertook the heavy and arduous work in the munition factories, explains to a large extent the disappearance of many of them. Large numbers went into the industrial world as a wartime service only, and when the need was over went back to their homes. There were many married women whose husbands were overseas, and whose homes were waiting. The appeal of munition work drew many girls and women from the surrounding towns and country, and these too returned home, either from choice or necessity when their work was finished.

The remaining class, those who must seek some other occupation without delay, were quickly absorbed in various directions. Domestic service was open to many more than cared for such a method of earning a living. No domestics have been brought from Great Britain for two years, and the munition workers might have filled this gap in far greater numbers than they cared to do.

O.B.A.A. MOTION TO BAR COMMERCIAL BASEBALL CLUBS

MATTER WILL BE DISCUSSED AT SATURDAY'S MEETING.

The most important amendment to come before the delegates to the annual meting of the O.B.A.A. convention on Saturday in Toronto will be one which would bar clubs bearing commercial or public utility names. This motion ,if carried, would have a far-reaching effect, as most of the leagues are already organized and have clubs of this nature in their memebrship. The Toronto Association now bar these clubs, and recommended similar action by the O. B. A. A., but it is doubtful if this body will pass similar legislation. Some leagues are entirely composed of industrial teams.

A motion to the effect that not more than one representative from any association or league be a member of the sub-committee will also go before the meeting. Evidently arising out of this motion is another to deprive the secretary of a vote at all meetings.

That the annual meeting be held in October instead of in the spring is a suggestion of the Hamilton A.B.A., which should receive careful consideration. There is no doubt that a change is desirable, but whether there is sufficient interest after the close of the playing season to warrant halding the annual meeting at that time is open to debate.

The growth of the association makes the election af the executive necessary, as under the present system of each league appointing a member, the executive has become too large. The amendment calls for the election of five members to act with the officers.

Minor changes that will receive consideration are the addition of a third vice-president ,the increase of mileage allowances for final games ot fifteen cents a mile, and the limiting of the clubs to fifteen players at any one time

LACROSSE FANS OUT SATURDAY

SOME OF THE OLD PLAYERS ARE TURNING OUT.

The weekly meeting of the Lacrosse Club was held at the Empress hotel Wednesday night. Mr. Giroux was present and gave a very interesting story of the old Peterborough Lacrosse Club of 1883, when they played the young Shamrocks of Montreal. He stated that over 300 fans went to Montreal with them. When they played Brockville 250 fans followed the team. Mr. Giroux stated that lacrosse in his day was encouraged and boosted by everyone in the city, and said he would be delighted to see the good old game return. Now the Lacrosse Club members would be greatly pleased to have all the old lacrosse fans take as much interest as Mr. Giroux, who promised he would help the boys. Let every lacrosse fan show up on Saturday at the Exhibition grounds at 3 p.m., weather permitting. King, Dillon, Meehan, Lebarg and others are out practicing.

FOOTBALL NOTES

If physical fitness is any criterion of success, the G.W.V.A., will certainly stand the test, for they have been going through a great amount of exercise in physical culture and [illegible] one.

With a few new recruits from Auld Scotia, the Caledonians have every confidence in the ability of their players to uphold their reputation.

Mr Parkins of the C.G.E. team has had always a good attendance at his practice games which speaks well for the game and his personal interest.

The rain spoiled the practice games last evening, as only a few of the teams made an appearance.

The football event of the Old Country takes place on Saturday next when Huddersfield and Aston Villa meet in the English Cup Final.

Aston Villa is the favourites for the final, because of the fact, that on Saturday last, the Football Association suspended the great outside left forward of Huddersfield, W. H. Smith, for misconduct on the field of play between Huddersfield and Stoke on Easter Monday which means that he will be unable to play in the Cup Final on Saturday.

HISTORY OF PAPER MAKING WAS THE SUBJECT OF AN INTERESTING ADDRESS BY MR. PETER WESTBYE

PETERBORO ENGINEERS HELD REGULAR MEETING LAST EVENING IN BOARD OF TRADE ROOMS.

At last night's meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the Engineering Institute held in the Board of Trade Rooms, Mr. P. Westbye gave an interesting address on the history of paper making.

The history of paper making carries us back about 6,000 years (3966 B.C.) to the time of the ancient Egyptians, said Mr. Westbye. The use of a material which required no special fabrication may help to constitute the primitive form of an industry which has now come to rank among the foremost in the world, and the products of which not only represent a great diversity of raw material and finished fabrics, but also call for great engineering skill, the utilisation of large capital, and the employment of costly and intricate machinery for their development.

The contrast between the primitive papyrus paper obtained by the expenditure of comparatively little labour, and the highly finished product of to-day has resulted from a series of laborious processes and probably affords one of the most conspicuous examples of industrial development which the world can show.

Use Displaced.

The papyrus was widely employed between India and Egypt as a paper until about 190 B.C., when its use was displaced by parchment. Among the Islands of the Pacific interesting forms of primitive paper may also be found, as illustrated in the Tapa Cloth of the Sandwich Islands, which they use for the manufacture of clothing. The material employed is a very fibrous bark of the paper mulberry. The application of the fibres of wood to manufacture paper is commonly attributed to Reaumer who in 1719 observed wasps constructing their nests of fibres fathered from wood, which they wove into paper. The most familiar paper-making wasp is the common black and white wasp, ordinarily known as the hornet. We find the wasps' nest constructed upon the identical principles which underlie our modern production, but produced by the most primitive of all paper-makers whose origin antedates that of even the ancient Egyptians, and it thus becomes evident that the use of wood pulp in the manufacture of paper is a fact of great antiquity, though but recently discovered and utilised by man.

First Paper Making.

No reliable record can be established in England as to the first paper making. It is stated that in the personal expenses of Henry VII. of England in 1498 there appears the following entry:

John Tate, it is said, had a paper mill in Hartford, England, in 1498. The beginning of paper making in America dated back to 1690, when a paper mill was erected by Mr. Rittenhouser, in Delaware, Penn.

Paper in Canada.

Continuing, the speaker said: Paper was first made in Canada at St. Andrew's, Quebec, in 1803. Canada's first large paper mill was built in 1865, and produced 1½ tons of paper in 24 hours. To-day a modern paper mill produces from 230 to 300 tons in 24 hours. Prior to 1800 all paper was made of rags. Since that time wood pulp has formed the basis for all the ordinary grades of paper, including that which is used for printing paper.

Canada is the second largest pulp and paper producing country in the world, and is rapidly overtaking the United States, which holds the first place so far. Canada's pre-eminence as a paper producing country lies in the possession of hundreds of thousands of acres of pulp wood forests and convenitnely located water powers. Canada has the largest forest area of any country in the British Empire. It embraces 350,000 square miles of pulpwood timber, estimated to yield approximately 1,050,000,000 cords of pulp wood. There are about 95 incorporated companies and other concerns engaged in manufacturing pulp and paper. The combined capital invested is approximately $200,000,000. This is a greater amount of capital than is invested in any other industry in the country, with the exception of Hydro-Electric power developments.

Annual Output.

The annual output of the Canadian pulp and paper industry is about $90,000,000. The industry employs about 26,000 people. Its annual payroll is about $16,000,000.

In 1890 Canada's export of pulp and paper products amounted to about $120.00. In 1910 they were worth $10,000,000. For the fiscal year ending with March, 1918, they raised a total of about $72,000,000. Canada exported paper last year to the value of about $38,000,000; about $26,000,000 worth of pulp, and about $8,500,000 unmanufactured pulp wood. Canada's pulp and paper exports lead all the manufacturing industries, with the exception of explosives, while the bulk of Canada's pulp and paper exports go to the United States; they also send to Great Britain, Japan, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Cuba, Mexico, and South America.

Consumes One-Half.

Canada produces for sale 2,600 tons of newsprint paper and 2,500 tons of pulps of all kinds every day. The United States has about 2,550 daily and Sunday newspapers, and 14,000 weeklies with an approximate total circulation of 72,000,000 copies. With one-fifth of the world's population, the United States consumes one-half of the world's production of paper. Canada in proportion to the population is a close rival to the United States as a paper consuming country. The United States newspapers consume 2,000,000 tons of newsprint every year, of which Canada supplies one-fourth. Since 1912 all newspaper has been admitted to the United States free of duty. Canada has 140 daily and 925 weekly newspapers. It takes the product of 20,000 acres of pulp wood forest every year to supply Canadian newspapers with white paper. Some of the largest Canadian and American newspapers consume from 50 to 100 tons of paper daily. The daily consumption of newsprint paper in Canada is approximately 260 tons; in the United States approximately 6,000 tons. Canada's daily output of paper made in a continuous strip 3 feet wide would be long enough to girdle the globe at the Equator.

Spruce, balsam, fir, hemlock, jack pine, tamarack, poplar, and basswood are used in the manufacture of pulp. It takes from one to one and a half cords of wood to make a ton of paper. Spruce trees best suited to the production of pulp requires from 60 to 140 years to arrive at maturity. The average labour cost of producing a ton of paper has increased about 100 per cent. since 1912.

When one looks back at the beginning of this industry, and we see the tremendous development of the skill and study and hard work that has put the pulp and paper industry where it is to-day one fully appreciates that full full of dignity, significance, and truth is the whole conception which finds expression in Tennyson's verse—that we are heirs of the ages, the inheritors of all that has gone before us; and it has been truly said that the past has made us the results of the past are ourselves, said Mr. Westbye in conclusion.

Slides Shown.

During the evening the assembly, which was the largest which has yet attended a meeting of the Engineering Institute in the city, enjoyed the slides showing the process of paper-making, from the time the tree is cut until the finished material is turned out from the mill.

Some reels of films (kindly loaned by the Government) of the process of paper-making were also shown, as were pictures of the barking drum machines and centrifugal screens patented by the speaker himself and manufactured by The Wm. Hamilton Company in the city.

At the conclusion of his interesting adress, Mr. Westbye answered a number of inquiries on the subject of paper manufacture, the waste of paper and its recovery.

CENTRAL LEAGUE SCHEDULE TELLS DIFFERENT STORY

PETERBORO IS PROVIDED WITH FIVE OF THE FIXTURES—SPORT COMMENT.

A goodly number of fans who have not studied the Central League schedule are opposed to the major effort in baseball this season being made in the interests of a strong team to play in the league. The big objection is that but very few games would be played here.

But the schedule tells a different story. Peterborough is down for five local games. On Saturday June 5th, the team is billed to play at home, and also on the following Saturday, June 12. The next home game is on Dominion day—not too long a wait—with Belleville, the 1919 champions, to be followed on July 12 with another home game. Only nine days intervene before a game on July 21, and after a similar interval comes the fifth game, this time with Lindsay. Such is the programme—two months of baseball!— with more in prospect.

Of course, the big argument in favor of this team rests on the prospects of its success. With the material on hand, it is reasonable to predict that a championship nine can be built up, and, conceding the locals the championship, play-off games are bound to come. It has been argued that this proposal is not the first one, but no matter how you look at the baseball situation, it must be admitted that it is a long time since Peterborough had a better chance than the one in evidence to-day, to make its presence felt, not only here but also on foreign fields.

Advocates of daylight saving appearing before the City Dads last night did not meet with much success. Council's policy of waiting to see what other do, instead of taking the initiative, is exasperating to say the least. If everybody took the same stand this would be one fine burg. And yet Louis Yeates went out as did the early bird and got the worm. Now he's being panned for his enterprise. It's a great life if you don't weaken.

Without daylight saving, the local ball teams will have to get away to an earlier start, say 6.30. This is not too soon to meet the convenience of the fans. Seven innings could be played. Perhaps it's just as well. Seven minutes was too long for some of the athletes of the past two seasons.

Jack Cridland, captain of the Canadian Woolens football team, will lead a smart-looking crowd at the soccer grounds to-morrow afternoon. The team will be nicely groomed in maroon and gold.

LATE DESPATCHES

Hanged To-day.

Canadian Press:

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., April 23.—John Wilson, condemned to death for the murder of his wife, Mary Wilson, was hanged this morning at Prince Albert Jail. Wilson was formerly a member of the Royal North-West Mounted Police. He took his wife driving in a motor car near Waldheim, Sask., and shot her through the head. He buried the body under a culvert, and then went on Blain Lake, where next day he married Miss Jessie Patterson.

Pay the Costs.

Canadian Press:

PARIS, April 23.—Premier was sentenced also to pay costs of trial. The costs Caillaux was ordered to pay, however, was limited to court costs, which total about 55,000 francs. The imposition of the prison sentence will keep him in jail during the May 1st labour demonstrations.

Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, April 23. — The American government representatives in Mexico, have asked for the despatch of warships to that country to protect American citizens and their property. The requests came from Mazatlan and Topolobampo on the Pacific coast. The officials investigating state that in times of disturbances it is not unusual to receive requests for warships when there is no need of them.

STRIKING RAILWAYMEN.

Canadian Press

NEW YORK, April 23. — The striking railroad workers in New York district appealed directly to the railroad managers to-day for restoration to duty and the settlement of the strike "in the public interests." In a letter to the chairman of the General Managers Association, Edward McHugh, the strike leader, asked for the immediate restoration to duty without discrimination and with full seniority rights, in order to relieve wheels of industry.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"STEPPING OUT."

In "Stepping Out," the feature picture at the Grand Opera House, Miss Enid Bennett excells any previous record she has made as a picture star, and plays the part of a young housewife to perfection. The picture is based upon a theme which is altogether different, and therefore of more than ordinary interest. The Max Sennett comedy, "A Lady's Tailor," is one of the best of the famous producer's comedies.

TO MANAGE THE OSHAWA BALL CLUB.

Mr. Geo. Peacock, well known in Lindsay, having been connected with baseball teams in this town, has been selected as manager of the Oshawa team this year.

Wages of Teamsters Raised to 90 Cents

CITY'S EMPLOYEES PLACED ON EQUAL FOOTING WITH TEAMSTERS WORKING FOR CONTRACTORS—CITY WILL OPPOSE BELL TELEPHONE REQUEST.

The request of the city teamsters for an increase in wages from 75 cents to 90 cents an hour was readily granted by the Council last night on Ald. Capping's motion, seconded by Ald. Crowe.

"We thought we ought to have 90 cents the same as they are paying on the bridge, at the C.G.E. and other places," Mr. Fred Millen, who spoke for the deputation, explained. "With feed at the present prices 75c. an hour doesn't leave us much for ourselves."

Mayor McIntyre said he had inquired into the prices prevailing and found that 90c. for an eight hour day was the general wage.

Ald. Gordon—Are they doing work of the same class as the other teamsters?

Mr. Parsons— It is not quite as heavy as for the contractors.

The increase was approved by the entire Council.

"Company Cut a Melon."

The Union of Municipalities called the Council's attention to the application the Bell Telephone Company will make to Parliament for an Act to increase their authorized capital to $75,000,000.

Increase of capital of a public utility affects future rates, the secretary wrote, and asked what action the Council intended to take.

"I think the company's application should be opposed." Ald. Gordon suggested. "When they got their increased rates some time ago they issued a big block of stock at par when it was worth $135, and the shareholders who bought made $35 a share. This could be left with the Mayor, and if he finds that other municipalities are opposing the Bell Telephone compnay's move he could act with them."

This attitude was adopted.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

HIGH COURT TO PASS SENTENCE

FORMER FRENCH PREMIER CONVICTED OF DEALINGS WITH THE ENEMY.

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 23.—The Senate high court of justice was to reconvene today to pass sentence on Joseph Caillaux, former premier of France who was convicted of holding "commerce and correspondence with the enemy" during the war. A sentence to five years imprisonment is possible but the general belief prevailed that the sentence would not be more than two years and possibly considerably less than that in view of Caillaux's long confinement while waiting trail. Caillaux must pay the costs of the action also which will run around one million francs.

Suffered With Boils

Last 5 Years.

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalised, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery it at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B.B.B. has been on the market for, over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STOCK MARKET OPENED STEADY

HIGHER PRICES QUOTED AT TO-DAY'S OPENING—EXCHANGE MARKET.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Stock market opened to-day steady and slightly higher on early transactions. The strong financial support which came into the market yesterday and stopped the heavy selling was again in evidence early to-day. Opening prices were central leather 78 7-8 up 3-8; U. S. Rubber 104 up 15-8; Sinclair 35 1-2 unchanged; Mexican Petroleum 177 1-2 up 21-2; American Sugar 133 up 1-8, Texas Co., 46 3-8 up 3 1-8; Reading 79 1-8 up 1-4 Lackawanna Steel 80 1-2 up 11-2 U. S. Steel 98 7-8 unchanged.

SELLING WAVE.

A selling wave in the stock market during the first hour to-day after a strong opening. Steel common opened at 98 7-8 and advanced to 79, but quickly turned and was held down to 97 3-8. They carried other stocks off all the way from 2 to 7 points.

Extreme reactions were shown by high priced stocks like General Motors and Crucible. Crucible was notably weak even in the early advance.

Unconfirmed stories were in circulation that the pool which has existed in Crucible was getting out, which tended to unsettle the general market.

A state department despatch telling of requests from Americans on the Pacific and Gulf coasts of Mexico for protection of U.S. Warships, was all the speculative element needed for an attack on the Doheny oil issues. They forced Pan American, a stock, down to 92 off 5 3-8 points from the previous close, while the B stock hit 88 1-2 off 5 1-2 Mexican Pet. at 165 1-8 was off nearly 10 points. All of these lows represented figures under the low prices of Thursday morning. Traders then extended their selling to other parts of the list, but with few exceptions they met with considerable resistance. Baldwin was forced under 116 Studebaker below 109 and steel below 97 but all of those issues regained this loss when the pressure was removed

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Foreign Exchange Market opened easier to-day. Demand Sterling opened at $3.87 3-4 off 1-4; Franc Checks 16.67 off 7 centimes; Lire Checks 22.72 off 27, Marks demand were slightly higher at $.0165 and cables at $.0167; Canadian dollars were $91.40.

RAYBESTOS BY-LAW WILL BE SUBMITTED TO PEOPLE MAY 19

The Canadian Raybestor by-law will be submitted to the ratepayers on Wednesday, May 19th. The Council and the company have both accepted the agreement upon which the company has decided to locate in Peterborough, and it is expected that in view of the comparatively small concessions involved, that the public will unanimously approve of the terms upon which the city will secure a branch of a sound and expanding business.

For Community Dance.

For the community dance, the Otonabee Chapter of the I.O.D.E. will hold in May or June, the Council provided them with the "floor" last night, when permission was given for the use of Simcoe Street, between George and Water Streets for the event.

A Two-Foot Rut.

After damaging his car in a hole on George Street, opposite the McDonald Lumber Mill on Wednesday of this week, W. J. Cox fathomed its depths, for the rain had disguised it, and found that the water mark measured two feet on the stick. He left it in the excavation as a warning to others, and sent his car off for repairs, which he expects the city to pay for. The Legal Committee will investigate the claim.

Plans for Buildings.

City Engineer Parsons reported that two buildings will be required in connection with the sewage disposal plant, one a pumping station at the corner of King George and Lock Streets, and the other a compressor house at the sewage disposal works in Otonabee, opposite the foot of Park Street.

"I have prepared outline plans," he wrote, "but would recommend that an architect be engaged to prepare working drawings for these two buildings."

Mr. Parsons was authorized to have these drawings made.

Will Survey Reserve.

Mr. Parsons also asked for authority to mark out the Government reserve from the foot of Lock Street nearly to the foot of Park Street, along the river, on which a cast iron force main will be laid.

This recommendation was also adopted, and a surveyor will be engaged to mark the reserve on which the pipe line will be laid.

Clerk to Issue Licenses

Ald. Crowe's motion urging the Ontario Government to pass legislation providing for the issuance of marriage licenses by the city clerk or in his absence, some other official of the city was passed.

Dr Stevenson, M.L.A. of London, Ald Crowe remarked, had assured him that this resolution would strengthen theBill he was introducing the Legislature.

Stables in Central Block.

G. H. Howson, G. S. McKee, W. J. Sherwood and other residents of Water and London streets petitioned the Council to prevent the erection of a horse stable in the block north of the George street Methodist Church. There are already two stables in that congested block, causing annoyance to the residents nearby The petition was prompted by intimations that another stable was almost to be built within a distance of from 15 to 40 feet from the doors of six kitchens where food is prepared. These citizens fear that their health will be menaced and property values depreciated. Referred to the Property Committee.

Salvation Army Tag Day

Adjutant Buntin of the Salvation Army requested permission to hold a tag day on Saturday, May 22nd in connection with the Army's Jubilee Self-Denial Campaign from May 15th to 22nd. The request was granted on Ald. Gordon's motion seconded by Ald. Whitehouse.

Oversight in Agreement

Mr. Alex Dick, manager of the Alfred McDonald Lumber Company called the Council's attention to an oversight in the agreement covering the sale of part of Water street south in which no provision is made for a refund to the company of the amount paid in the event of the street reverting to the city. Referred to Legal Committee.

Lumber Piled on Road.

Peck, Kerr and McElderry, solicitors for Mr. John Duignan, complained that the McDonald Lumber Company is using as a piling ground for lumber part of Rink street west of George street opposite lots two and three, owned by Mr. Duignan who requests that the obstruction be removed and prevented in future. Referred to Board of Works.

WEEKLY DANCE OF THE G.W.V.A

Great Success attended the weekly dance of the G. W. V. A., last evening and in spite of the inclement weather a large number of young people attended the affair. The music of Follis' orchestra was that all that could be desired and so loath were the dancers to leave that several extras had to be tacked on the programme.

AT THE EMPIRE

To those who have never seen the only monkey comedian in the world perform in motion pictures, "Over the Transom" at the Empire, to-day and to-morrow, presents an opportunity to see Joe Martin at his best. The antics of this clever ape, worked in with several other plots, make the comedy a scream. The intelligence of this monkey approximates that of many human beings, and this comedy should not be missed by all who appreciate a comedy.

In "Burnt Wings," featuring Frank Mayo, a new angle of the eternal triangle forms the plot. The picture is excellently produced, and with other stars in the leading parts, makes a most alluring drama. As a young and struggling artist, Ned Templeton, the first sitting is in Paris. The devotion of his pretty wife is boundless, and how she slaved, toiled, and starved, and went down into the depths to give her husband the wherewithal to pursue his career is told in a tenseeway. In New York his fame soon spreads, and as he climbs the ladder of success his little wife drops farther and farther out of his life, and another takes her place. How his wife regains his affections and he becomes aware of her devotion to him, forth the climax of the picture.

Joseph Byers Expires Soon After Returning From Visit to Town.

PONTYPOOL, April 23.—Joseph Byers, eighty-three years of age, a life-long resident of Manvers township, died suddenly Wednesday near here. For the first time in six months he had been to the village on business, and about fifteen minutes after returning he called his wife, and expired immediately from heart failure. He is survived by four children—John of Orillia, William of Garden Hill, Thos. and Herb. of Pontypool.

He was one of a family that settled in Durham Co., about a century ago, and four others are still alive: Hugh Byers of Kirby, Mrs. J. Chambers, Toronto; Mrs. Jos. Biglow, Calgary; and Mrs. Wm. McIndoo, Pontypool. The last is probably the oldest living resident of Manvers township, having celebrated her ninety-first birthday two weeks ago.

COUNCIL INVITED TO ATTEND ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

Rev. James Price, pastor of St. George's Church, invited the City Council last night to attend the St. George's Day celebration at St. George's Church next Sunday.

"We're a hard lot," Ald. Crowe remarked; but Mr. Price was evidently willing to take a chance on the Council, and pressed his invitation, which was accepted

Last year the Federal Government spent under the Agricultural Instruction Act the sum of $1,145,550, of which sum $621,450 were spent on instruction and demonstration. Agricultural colleges and schools, provincial institutions, were aided out of the federal treasury to the extent of $282,931, and veterinary colleges to the extent of $25,000.

GOVERNMENT DISMISSING OLD TIMERS

GERMANS ARE GETTING RID OF THE REACTIONARY ELEMENTS.

COUNCILLORS SUFFER

(Canadian Press.)

BERLIN, April 24.— The government process of weeding out re-actionary elements from the provincial administration of Pomerania and elsewhere so far has resulted in the dismissal of nineteen district councillors, all of whom were local magnates with the historic names of Prussian landed gentry. Provincial governors of Hanover and Koenigsberg and half a dozen others, including some chiefs of the departments in the Prussian Ministry of Interior, were also dismissed. Others resigned of their own volition and Socialist factions of the Diet have drawn up a list containing a score whose dismissals they demand. Most of those dismissed will be prosecuted for misuse of authority.

REV. H. J. KEITH AT KNOX CHURCH

Rev. H. J. Keith at Knox church. Oddfellows and Rebakahs to be present at evening service.

The service at Knox church tomorrow morning will present a welcome opportunity to see the former pastor of Knox, Rev. H. J. Keith, M.A., B.D., now of St. Andrew's church, Winnipeg, and to hear him speak. It is years since Mr. Keith paid Knox a visit and his host of friends and admirers will welcome this opportunity.

At the evening service the local lodges of Rebekahs and Oddfellows will be present on the occasion of their annual church parade. A unique feature of the service will be the leadership of the service of song by the Oddfellows' male choir. The Oddfellows' male quartette will also sing. It is expected that the congregation will give a hearty welcome to the guests of the day.

WONDERFUL DEMAND FOR THE NEW FORD CAR

The demand for the new 1920 Ford Car, which was shown for the first time at the Peterboro Motor Show, meets with the approval of the general public so much that the staff of the Duffus Motor Sales has been taxed to the utmost during the past week in getting cars ready for delivery to scores of customers who have placed their orders. Several carloads have arrived and the staff has been almost doubled in order to not keep customers waiting, but at the present time orders are pouring in faster than shipments. However the factory is doing its utmost to facilitate delivery, and the local dealers hope to be able to keep customers satisfied.

Hun Government Must Reduce Force

(United Press.)

BERLIN, April 24 (By Carl D. Groat).—Allied military observers in Germany have decided that the German Government should not be allowed a single man in its armies more than the 100,000 permitted by the Treaty of Versailles, it was learned to-day.

The decision became known shortly after the Berlin authorities had despatched a note to the Council of Premiers, meeting in San Remo, asking permission to increase Germany's armies to 200,000.

The military authorities' decisions also included the following:

The Ruhr workmen should be disarmed, surrendering their weapons to the Allies, who should destroy them in the presence of representatives of the workmen.

Dissolution of the German civil guards.

Permission to Germany to maintain the same number of police as before, provided they are men in whom the people have confidence. This number might be increased where conditions require.

"What about the potatoes in our cellars now?" asked one woman.

FRACTIONAL ADVANCE IN THE MARKET

SETTLEMENT PRICE AGREED UPON FOR STUTZ STOCK—THE EXCHANGE MARKET.

MARKET NEWS

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 24.—Fractional advances were registered at the stock market opening to-day. Trading was in good volume for a Saturday and a firm undertone prevailed. U. S. Steel opened at 96 3-8, up 1-8; Baldwin 112, unchanged; Sinclair 34 1-8, unchanged; Lackawanna 83 3-4, up 3-4; General Motors 287, up 3 1-2; U. S. Rubber 101 1-4, off 1-4; Mexican Pet. 168, unchanged; Pan. Amn. 91 1-4, up 1-4; Reading 78 1-2, up 1-2; Vanadium 81, up 2 3-4; Crucible 240, up 4.

The market closed firm. The market in general displayed a firm tone in late dealings. General Motors in particular acted well, running up to 299 up 15 1-2, Baldwin held around 114, and Republic kept above 96. Crucible turned dull after early softness.

Announcement of the settlement of the Stutz controversy was made a few minutes before the market opened, and therefore had little effect on the opening price. Within a few minutes after trading started, however, the whole list began to move forward. Steel ran up to 96 7-8 up 1 1-4 over Friday's low. Replogle Steel gained 2 1-4 to 81, and Lackawanna gained 3 1-8 to 89 3-4, and a few minutes later jumped to 86.

Crucible acted contrary to the rest of the list, although the stock was up four points at 240.

AGREEMENT REACHED ON STUTZ STOCK

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 24.—An agreement was reached to-day between Allan A. Ryan and brokers short of Stutz motor stock when trading was suspended on the New York Stock Exchange.

The settlement price agreed upon was $425 a share, plus stock dividends making a total of $550 a share.

Trading in Stutz stock was suspended after a sensational rise from $100 to $400 a share within a few days. The Board of Governors declared a "corner" existed.

Ryan, who held long contracts, resigned from membership in the Stock Exchange and declared he would fight the action of the Board.

Brokers short of Stutz stock formed an organization to protect their interests and it was a committee representing this organization which reached the agreement with Ryan today.

Immediately after the trading was suspended on the Exchange, trading was started on the curb market, with the quotations around $700 a share. When announcement of the settlement was made to-day, bids declined to $470 with none offered.

Eventful Week

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 24.—Further corrective measures invoked by the Federal reserve board to curtail or restrict speculative credits, gave the stock market violent setback this week but the reaction was accelerated by a weakened bull position. The action of the Central Bank authorities took the form of advanced discount rates at important financial commercial and industrial centres. This was supplemented by private banks of those sections, where additional contraction of loans was in progress. These domestic credit conditions were accompanied by evidence of world wide stringency of same character, an echo coming from Japan, where speculation during and following the war culminated in financial disaster. Enormous liquidation of liberty bonds at declines of one to four percent also served to unsettle the local securities market. Offering of these issues evidently came from all parts of the country, but round amounts were sold by corporations as the only immediate means of new financing. There was let-up to gold imports, also to exports of that metal, although further shipments to South America are under negotiation. Much of the week's setback in foreign exchange, especially London rate was due to offerings of sterling bills here, for Japanese interests.

STUTZ, N.Y. April 24.—According to estimates made in financial circles to-day Ryan made at least $2,000,000 out of the Stutz deal. The exact amount will depend on the amount of shortholdings.

This has been estimated at from 5,000 to 5,500 shares

On the basis of the short holdings totalling 5,000 shares, Ryan will make more than $2,000,000 it was estimated.

HONOLULU, April 23.—"Panicky conditions reign in Japan, according to a cablegram from Tokio, received by Nihhu Jiji, a Japanese language newspaper here.

POOR PROSPECT OF LOWER PRICES

(Special to the Examiner)

TORONTO, April 24.—F. H. Delemere manager of the Farm Products Departments of the United Farmers Co-Operative Co., who is in a position to understand the potatoe situation as to exists in all parts of the province attributes the unusual price of $6 a bag to a general scarcity, besides the constant drain from the United States. MIXED FARMING IN WESTERN Canada—In Central Alberta and Saskatchewan are rich parks lands—open prairie ready for the plow, interspersed with trees, which afford excellent shelter for stock. Here grain growing, dairying and livestock raising are being carried on successfully. The country is ideal for mixed farming. The Canadian Pacific Railway is offering a large area of these fertile lands in th eneighbourhood of Lloydminster and Battleford. These rich districts will become the home of thousands of prosperous farmers. On similar land Seagar Wheeler grows the world's prize wheat. Near Lloydminster the world's prize oats have been grown and butter of the highest quality is made. A man can soon become independent on a farm here.

These lands can be bought now at prices averaging about $18. You pay down 10 per cent. If land is purchased under settlement conditions, no further payment of principal until end of fourth year, then sixteen annual payments. Interest is six per cent.

MARY PICKFORD WEPT IN COURT

TORONTO, April 24.—Senator H. W. Huskey, of Reno, author of the divorce law of Nevada, who was a visitor to Toronto found time to throw an interesting sidelight on the Nevada divorce law as it affects the now much talked of Pickford-Moore divorce suit. The Nevada law the Senator claimed to be just and upright, but the difficulty he found was the abuse of it. A person who resided six months in the State could legally obtain a divorce there and notice could be served on any one found in Nevada, but in the Moore-Pickford suit it was, in his opinion, an unfortunate thing that Mary Pickford herself testified that she was a bona-fide resident of Nevada and left the State the next day. If the court decided that she was not a resident it lost its jurisdiction and the decree of divoree would be rescinded. The Attorney-General of Nevada had brought an action in order to prove his contention that to secure the decree fraud had been committed.

Owen Moore, Mary Pickford's husband, ostensibly visited Virginia City on business connected with the moving picture business and if it could be proved that he went there merely for the purpose of being served with papers in his wife's divorce suit that would show collusion and the setting aside of the decree would be justified.

Judge Langan, said Senator Huskey, had told him that when Mrs. Smith and her daughter appeared before him, he did not know the daughter was Mary Pickford and at first thought she was a child of about 15 years of age.

The judge was astonished when he learned that it was the "girl" who was asking for a divorce and not until he had carefully observed her action on the witness stand did he ask her if she was a moving picture actress. She said she was Mary Pickford. While giving her evidence she appeared very nervous and high strung and wept like a child.

Heavy Work a Real Test

No men give overalls harder usage than those employed in the work of loading and unloading. Their work clothes are ripped and rolled and strained during the whole day. They find ordinary garments last no time, but

FRENCH NOW FEEL DESERTED BY ALLIES

NEW YORK, April 24.—There is a feeling in France that that country has been left high and dry by her allies on the German frontier, and the French people cannot understand why President Wilson, if he did not have the same powers as Lloyd George and Clemenceau, ever came to Paris at all, according to Burton E. Stevenson, novelist and representative abroad of the American Library Association, who has just returned to New York. Recently he traveled through France and spent some time in the American-occupied German territory.

"In Germany," he said, "there are hundreds of thousands of officers who have never been trained for other than military service and it is undoubtedly true that the military caste wants to come back and is scheming to do so. It is a remarkable fact that the Allies were never able to get the long-distance gun with which Paris was bombarded. They, have only 3,000 out of the 5,000 locomotives the Germans were to have given up. On May 10 the German army is to be reduced to 100,000 men. I believe they have arms enough hid to arm a million men.

"Taking these things into consideration I believe France is justified in making Germany live up to the terms of the treaty. Is Germany preparing for another war? Well, Germany feels that the only way to get upon her feet is to fight her way back. France aims to put her where she cannot come back. I don't blame her.

"The only answer France could have made to the sending of German troops into the Ruhr district was to occupy Frankfort and there was great relief in France when she did so. They will stay there until the German troops come out. France, I think has a feeling that she has been left high and dry on the frontier. She cannot understand why President Wilson, lacking power, ever came to Paris at all.

"I was down throug Italy a month ago and notwithstanding rumors I saw no evidence that the people are antagonistic to Americans. There is not as much ill-feeling as our people have been led to believe existed. The Allies are coming gradually to d'Annunzio's opinion that Fiume be made an independent city."

ASKED FOR FIVE YEARS IN PRISON

Eighteen-year-old Detroit Girl Wants Same Sentence as Given Lover.

DETROIT, April 24.—Love sneered at a one-year sentence in the Federal Court here and asked for five. Helen Shaw, pretty 18 years old girl, appealed to Federal Judge Tuttle for the longer term so she might come out of jail at the same time as her sweetheart, Frederick Palms. Both were convicted of raising $10 bills to $50.

Palms, who has done a number of prison stretches, was given five years in Leavenworth Prisoff and fined $100. The girl was fined in the same amount and sentenced to the House of Correction for one year. Miss Shaw said she had lived with Palms as his wife in Lansing. She testified to ethical scruples against taking his money to buy clothing, however, and said that consequently she got money otherwise on numerous occasions.

LATEST IN OVERALLS STARTLES WASHINGTON

YOUNG WOMEN SECRETARIES APPEAR IN BLUE DENIM TROUSERS.

WASHINGTON, April 24. — The staid House office building had a touch of "jazz" when six young women secretaries who had enrolled in Representative Upshaw's overalls brigade appeared in blue denim trousers, the bottoms of which were rolled well up above their high-heeled pumps.

The young women created something of a sensation and had a large following as they tripped along the corridors. The drabness of the uniforms was relieved by multi-coloured silk waists and silk stockings.

"It's a horifying spectacle," chorused a dozen Daughters of the American Revolution, as their sight-seeing trip through the big office building was interrupted by the crowds following the young secretaries.

Assistant Postmaster General Koons instructed city postmasters today to permit letter carriers to wear overalls whenever the majority at any office so desired.

The letter carriers' revolt against the cost of clothing however will be grey instead of blue, the instructions specifying that grey denim must be used in accordance with the traditional grey of the mail service. All the denim uniforms at any office, Mr. Koons ruled, must be of the same style, quality and colour, and laundered at least once a week.

MARY PICKFORD WEPT IN COURT

TORONTO, April 24.—Senator H. W. Huskey, of Reno, author of the divorce law of Nevada, who was a visitor to Toronto found time to throw an interesting sidelight on the Nevada divorce law as it affects the now much talked of Pickford-Moore divorce suit. The Nevada law the Senator claimed to be just and upright, but the difficulty he found was the abuse of it. A person who resided six months in the State could legally obtain a divorce there and notice could be served on any one found in Nevada, but in the Moore-Pickford suit it was, in his opinion, an unfortunate thing that Mary Pickford herself testified that she was a bona-fide resident of Nevada and left the State the next day. If the court decided that she was not a resident it lost its jurisdiction and the decree of divorce would be rescinded. The Attorney-General of Nevada had brought an action in order to prove his contention that to secure the decree fraud had been committed.

Owen Moore, Mary Pickford's husband, ostensibly visited Virginia City on business connected with the moving picture business and if it could be proved that he went there merely for the purpose of being served with papers in his wife's divorce suit that would show collusion and the setting aside of the decree would be justified.

Judge Langan, said Senator Huskey, had told him that when Mrs. Smith and her daughter appeared before him, he did not know the daughter was Mary Pickford and at first thought she was a child of about 15 years of age.

The judge was astonished when he learned that it was the "girl" who was asking for a divorce and not until he had carefully observed her action on the witness stand did he ask her if she was a moving picture actress. She said she was Mary Pickford. While giving her evidence she appeared very nervous and high strung and wept like a child.

FRENCH NOW FEEL DESERTED BY ALLIES

NEW YORK, April 24.—There is a feeling in France that that country has been left high and dry by her allies on the German frontier, and the French people cannot understand why President Wilson, if he did not have the same powers as Lloyd George and Clemenceau, ever came to Paris at all, according to Burton E. Stevenson, novelist and representative abroad of the American Library Association, who has just returned to New York. Recently he traveled through France and spent some time in the American-occupied German territory.

"In Germany," he said, "there are hundreds of thousands of officers who have never been trained for other than military service and it is undoubtedly true that the military caste wants to come back and is scheming to do so. It is a remarkable fact that the Allies were never able to get the long-distance gun with which Paris was bombarded. They, have only 3,000 out of the 5,000 locomotives the Germans were to have given up. On May 10 the German army is to be reduced to 100,000 men. I believe they have arms enough hid to arm a million men.

"Taking these things into consideration I believe France is justified in making Germany live up to the terms of the treaty. Is Germany preparing for another war? Well, Germany feels that the only way to get upon her feet is to fight her way back. France aims to put her where she cannot come back. I don't blame her.

"The only answer France could have made to the sending of German troops into the Ruhr district was to occupy Frankfort and there was great relief in France when she did so. They will stay there until the German troops come out. France. I think has a feeling that she has been left high and dry on the frontier. She cannot understand why President Wilson, lacking power, ever came to Paris at all.

"I was down throug Italy a month ago and notwithstanding rumors I saw no evidence that the people are antagonistic to Americans. There is not as much ill-feeling as our people have been led to believe existed. The Allies are coming gradually to d'Annunzio's opinion that Fiume be made an independent city."

ASKED FOR FIVE YEARS IN PRISON

Eighteen-year-old Detroit Girl Wants Same Sentence as Given Lover.

DETROIT, April 24.—Love sneered at a one-year sentence in the Federal Court here and asked for five. Helen Shaw, pretty 18 years old girl, appealed to Federal Judge Tuttle for the longer term so she might come out of jail at the same time as her sweetheart, Frederick Palms. Both were convicted of raising $10 bills to $50.

Palms, who has done a number of prison stretches, was given five years in Leavenworth Prison and fined $100. The girl was fined in the same amount and sentenced to the House of Correction for one year. Miss Shaw said she had lived with Palms as his wife in Lansing. She testified to ethical scruples against taking his money to buy clothing, however, and said that consequently she got money otherwise on numerous occasions.

INDUSTRIAL SITES.

Arising out of the discussion at the meeing of the committee of the Whole Council last night over an offer made to the Council of the sale of ten acres on Braidwood avenue for industrial purposes, there is a question that deserves some consideration. That section has in recent years loomed largely in the public eye as a suitable location for manufacturing plants, but the statements made at last night's meeting that the De Laval Company, with the knowledge they have gained of the conditions there, would choose a different location, and that the Brinton Carpet Company had had some difficulty on account of soil conditions, coupled with the troublesome experience with quick sands encountered by the city in constructing the outfall sewer along Park street, make it a question of considerable importance whether or not this quick sand menace is general throughout the area. It would seem a simple business precaution on the part of the city to obtain definite information as to the nature of the sub-soil in the section under discussion before any more locations are assigned to manufacturers. Industrial sites that are to be reserved by the Council for the benefit of prospective new industries should be selected with care, for it would be a poor advertisement indeed for Peterborough to allocate to manufacturers land that is unfit by reason of subsoil conditions for industrial purposes. This may not be the case with the lot that has just been offered the city nor in spite of what was said last night, the quicksand trouble may not be general throughout the district, but at the same time it would wise to investigate the area more closely than has hitherto been done. If the conditions are not right, there are other sections of the city that may be employed, but at all events there can be no harm in making sure on this point.

THE FOOTBALL LEAGUE.

The opening of the City Football League to-day, while a matter primarily for the sporting page, is an event of more than usual significance. For one thing it is unmistakable evidence that the war is over, for to the everlasting glory of the footballers let it be said that the players rushed to the colours so enthusiastically that there was no one left to play the game, and during the years of the war no matches ,except those participated in by military teams, were played. The line-ups of the different teams who are to take part in the games to-day are composed principally of men who forsook the jerseys and knickers of the football field for the khaki of the Canadian army. It is a matter for rejoicing that they have been spared to come home and to enjoy once more the good English game of soccer. Not only to the players but to hundreds of enthusiasts, the fixtures to-day will be a touch of "home" for the British-Canadian, quick as he is to respond to the appeal of the Canadian games of hockey, baseball and lacrosse, has ever a warm spot in his heart for football, and the League, which opens to-day, will provide something that has been lacking. In wishing the local Association every success, the Examiner is sure that it is expressing the feelings of the whole sporting fraternity in Peterborough.

THE LATE W. H. MOORE.

The death yesterday of Mr. W. H. Moore, K.C., has removed one of Peterborough's most familiar figures, and has brought to an end a life that was crowded with activity on behalf on his fellow citizens. For over fifty years Mr. Moore had practiced law in Peterborough, a half century's career in which he enjoyed the affection and respect of his brother lawyers and of the public generally. Few citizens in Peterborough's history have given more unselfishly of their time and talent to the service of the people than Mr. Moore. For eight years he was a member of the City Council, the benefit of his ability and wise counsel making him most valuable as an alderman. He had been a member of the City Trust Commission since 1893, his twenty-seven years' service on that body being productive of much benefit to the welfare of Peterborough. In 1904 he was elected a member of the Water Commission and had since served continuously as a member of that commission, and of the Utilities Commission, which succeeded it. This year he had succeeded Mr. T. F. Matthews as chairman of the Commission. Mr. Moore was for eight years chairman of the Little Lake Cemetery Company ,and was for a long period a useful member of the Board of Trade. His death leaves a gap in many circles. It has been given to few citizens of Peterborough to do so much for their home city and Mr. Moore may truly be said to have died in the harness for he preserved his interest in public matters to the end. Peterborough can ill afford to lose such citizens.

THE STRIKE GERM.

It is difficult to pick up any paper to-day without reading of some new strike ,either from Chicago or Pudukottai.

The epidemic seems to be as catching as influenza and is almost as injurious.

The 1919 record of strikes in Canada overtops anything that has been seen here by almost two million days of idleness, and the fact that, in a population of about eight million souls, it is possible to have four million days of idleness a year due to strikes, seems to bear out the contention that the strike germ i sas fatal to business as the grippe germ.

And yet the people are wondering why it is that the general productive power of the world is falling off, for the record in Canada will probably be found to be equalled and surpassed by the strike records of many other countries, even excluding those which tie up industry and take a holiday while a revolution is in progress.

The time lost in Canada last year was greater than in any previous year, the labor department. Including eight according to a report just issued by carried over from 1918, there was a total of 298 strikes and lockout in Canada during 1919. The number of employees involved was 138,988, and the number of employers, 1,913. The total number of working days lost was 3,942,189. The previous record in working days lost was in 1911, when the record stood at 2,046,650 days lost.

There were several outstanding strikes which contributed largely to the total time lost. Among these were the general sympathetic strike in Winnipeg from May 15 to June 26, involving (according to labor department figures) 22,360 employes and a time loss of 924,562 working days; the strike of coal miners in district 18 from May 24 to the end of August, involving 6,266 employes and a time loss of 462,879 working days; the general sympathetic strike at Amherst, N.S., from May 19 to June 16, involving 771 employees and a time loss of 17,466 working days; the strike of miners at Kirkland Lake ,Ont., from June 12 to October 16, involving 625 employes and a loss of 56,176 working days, and the strike of the building trades in Montreal, from September 2 to November 24, involving 2,000 employes and a time loss of 113,000 working days. The Winnipeg strike also resulted in considerable time loss through sympathetic strikes outside of the city.

Classified by clauses, 223 of the 298 strikes recorded invvolved wages. Twelve strikes involved union recognotion. Altogether there were fifteen sympathetic strikes. The record shows that 157 strikes terminated in favor of the employes and 85 in favor of the employers. Twenty-three were compromise settlements and 30 indefinite. —Fort William Times-Journal.

LOCAL MARKETS

Prices are still on the ascendancy, in spite of all attempts to drag them down. They will not even hold steady for one week and as the seven days swing around a general advance is evident all along the line. A little backward movement is noticeable here and there but the upward tendency permeates most of the commodities. Sugar, the prices of which are watched more carefully by the housewife than any other commodity, is causing her considerable worry these strenuous times; and at $20 and $22 the problem of how she will do her preserving and canning is giving her much food for thought. But if the price could be depended upon to stay stationary, the situation would not be so terrifying but the retailers and wholesalers look for more increases.

Potatoes Scarce.

The scarcity of potatoes is being felt in this city and in the last week have taken a considerable jump; $4 and $5 seem to be the prevailing prices but for the best quality the grocers are getting $5.50. Although there has been no embargo yet in any united movement housekeepers are certainly economizing in the use of the tubers. Protests are heard on every side by wrathful buyers at the alleged exorbitant prices for potatoes and it is safe to say that any organized embargo would be met with applause and support.

In the grain world barley is up to $1.50 and flour shows a slight increase. Shorts and wholesale bran has taken no inconsiderable lift. Hay during the last week has been moving freely and the farmers are well satisfied with the way the price has kept up.

Live hogs and dressed hogs show an increase and other meats have advanced. Chickens are almost off the market, while turkeys, formerly quoted on the local market, are now nothing but a pleasant memory.

The visitor to the lawyer's office stood in amazement.

"I say, old man!" he exclaimed. "Whatever has happened to you? Had a motor smash or what?"

The lawyer shook his head wearily as he gingerly touched his bruised and bandaged face.

"No! You remember that case the other day when I defended a man charged which assault? Well, I made a strong plea for him on the ground that he was a fool rather than a criminal."

STAFF AND STUDENTS WOULD BAR SMOKERS

ST. THOMAS, April 24.—A determined effort on the part of the staff and student body of the Collegiate Institute is being made to debar all students who are cigarette users from participating in the sports of the college. A series of meetings has been arranged, when the advisability of amending the school rules in connection with this matter will be discussed.

Another requirement proposed is that a certain percentage in school studies must first be obtained by students before becoming eligible to play on any of the official teams.

ARMOUR ROAD.

Heretofore on Concession Street,
Has been our fixed abode,
Now, while our domicile's unchanged
We live on Armour Road;
The powers that be, with worthy zeal,
And tardy justice stirred,
That name of honored dignity
On us, has just conferred.

No citizens of city mean
(This boasting none may blame)
Right pleased and proud, we are to bear
Such high illustrious name;
Due tribute Peterboro pays,
To her own noble son
Whose memory shines with stainless glow,
Although his course is run.
Some still cling to their former love
And mournfully complain,
Of social ruin, prestige lost
For no financial gain.
My fellow residents, I pray
You, take it not unkind,
For country roads, and rural scenes,
The old name brings to mind.

And be assured the dear old place
Is changed in naught, save name,
The men pursue their daily toil,
The wives clean house the same.
The happy, careless children make
As many nice mud pies,
The porker's den, and poultry pen,
Still greet our weary eyes

Here on this very street, I trow,
Are maidens, not a few,
Who would not deem it sad to change
Their old name for the new;
Beyond gainsay our grateful thanks
Should be on those bestowed
Who changed our place of residence
To high-floyn Armour Road.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

I WORRY OVER ROSE AND WALTER KEMP,

CHAPTER CV.

It was characteristic of Everett that he should feel something had disturbed me.

"You aren't as happy as when we first came home What is it?" he asked. "Has your guest said something to hurt your feelings?"

"No—there's nothing!" I hastened to reply. It was almost impossible for me to evade when he asked me a question. Yet I couldn't say Rose had talked again of me as "number two," and had discussed his affairs with Walter Kemp. Then, too, I could not tell him she had been with Kemp.

"I have noticed that many people who are on an intimate footing with others feel they can say anything they choose. It is wrong. Friendship that is worth the name is worth conserving by every means in our power But Rose is thoughtless. Don't let anything she may say cause you unhappiness."

I think he mistrusted she had talked of Leola, so asked no more questions.

But I could not so easily dismiss thoughts of her—the one person whom I hated. I am honest: I hated that first wife desperately. Sometimes an agonized longing swept over me to put her forever out of my life by destroying all evidence that she had lived. Then I would remember that as long as people talked of her, as long as any who knew her were alive that would be impossible.

The next day Rose kept her appointment with Walter Kemp This time she lunched with him. I felt terribly nervous about it, not so much because she was with him, as because I had not mentioned to Everett that she had met him. He might see them together and be displeased with both of us. But Rose came in about four o'clock fairly beaming.

"I had a wonderful time. We went way out in the country to a litle road house for luncheon. Such a quaint place with honeysuckle vines hanging over the porch. We had lunch served there."

"That was nice. I am glad you had a good time." I was relieved that she had returned, also that they had not lunched in town. "Barrett Edmonds called up. He is coming in for tea."

Just then Henry announced Barrett, and we three had a really jolly time for a few moments before the others dropped in—Alice Sloane and her neice, Irma Barton, and some others. After they all left and Rose and I were dressing for dinner she said:

"Isn't that Irma Barton the woman everyone said was going to be the second Mrs. Graham?"

"Who said that?"

"Walter told me this afternoon that everyone thought your husband was in love with her and that she was going to be number two."

"For goodness sake, Rose do stop talking of "number two!" You will drive me crazy. One would think it a crime to marry a widower. But it happens, this time, you are wrong. Mrs Barton was a great friend of Mrs. Graham's, and of Everett. She is a friend of mine. We had a long talk not a great while ago, and she told me a lot about herself. It's all nonsense, people coupling her name wit Everett's." I knew I spoke convincingly. Had Rose talked of her and Everett before I knew she was to marry his friend, I should have been hurt and annoyed."

"Well I'm glad there's nothing to that rumor. It is bad enough to have people say your husband loved his first better, without having someone claiming him now also."

I felt as if I should go mad if I heard any more about Leola. I could have been very happy at this time but for her—this woman who had died nine years before I met Everett. But how could I be contented when all the time I heard of her— my husband's love for her, which everyone seemed to think so much greater than it was for me?

Since my talk with Irma Barton—until Rose came and revived the feeling by her constant reference to "number one"—I had been far happier when thinking of Everett. Now I determined not to allow Rose to spoil that bit of content, and told her she would please me very much if she did not refere to Everett's first wife again while she was with me.

"Why of course I won't if you are sensitive about it! I didn't suppose you cared, after all this time. I don't see how you married him if you ever minded playing second fiddle. You remember I said I could not.."

To-morrow—A Bomb.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage took place on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock, of Laura, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Graham, Clementi Street, to Cephas Heard, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heard, of Smith—the Rev. F. Ashton officiating.

The bride, attired in a costume of white crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and pearls, entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Edna Braden. Her bridesmaid, Miss Olive Graham, of Peterborough, wore a dress of white voile. The groomsman was Mr. Kenneth Sweeting, of Smith. SWISS PREDICTIONS OF GERMAN COLLAPSE

Commission Reports That Great Emigration to Russia Will Follow Food Failure.

BERNE, —A commission of experts, just returned from an investigation of conditions in Germany, declares that Germany is on the eve of the collapse of both the food supply and industry. At most they reckon that she has cereals enough to supply bread until the end of May, after which she must depend on foreign supplies, which with the low value of German money, may mean that a three-pound loaf next Summer will cost fully twelve marks.

If bread alone were scarce the situation would be less serious, but all articles of food are scarce, and the country is faced with famine, they say. The increased prices of bread and food generally, they declare, will cause the working people to demand further increases in wages, and it will be impossible for the employers to grant these, they see no prospect save collapse for German industry and closing of the factories on all hands.

The collapse of Germany they expect to cause a vast emigration, and as all countries except Russia are closed to Germans they expect that fully 5,000,000 Germans, especially laboring and professional classes and technicians will emigrate thither, and Lenin has intimated that he will readily receive them.

Educated Germans and the mass of the people generally who naturally are profoundly depressed, openly declare, the commission says, that the only hope for Germany is an American protectorate. The commission declared the main difference between Germany and Austria now is that Austria has only 7,000,000 to keep from starvation, while Germany has 70,000,000.

Have you ever really studied your skin?

EXAMINE your face in a full light before a hand mirror. Is your skin fresh, clear, brilliant with lovely color?

If not—find out just what defect is keeping it from being as smooth and fine as it should be. Then give it the special treatment suited to its needs.

Perhaps, for example, your complexion is spoiled by conspicuous nose pores. You can overcome this trouble by using every night this special treatment:

Wring a soft cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

Before long you will notice how this gradually reduces the enlarged pores until they become inconspicuous.

Special treatments for each different skin need—for blackheads, for blemishes, for a skin that is too oily—are given in the famous booklet of treatments that is wrapped around each cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Get a cake today—begin your treatment tonight.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25-cent cake lasts for a month or six weeks of any treatment, or for general cleansing use.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

REV. FATHER GALVIN ADDRESSED KNIGHTS

LINSDAY, April 23.—At the regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus held here last night, Rev. Father Galvin, of Downeyville, delivered an address He took as his subject the history of the Construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and dealt with all the details in connection with this great project from its inception touching upon what was known as the great Pacific Scandal, which was associated with the construction of the great highway. The address was a most instructive one. During the evening short addresses were also delivered by Monsignor Casey, Rev. Father Cote, of Peterboro, Rev. Father O'Brien and Mr. L. V. O'Connor.

BIG CASE OVER SHELL COMMISSION CONTINUED IN NON-JURY COURT.

TORONTO, April 23.—"I'm afraid if I should say all I would like to say I would be turned out of court," reclared Senator Nichols of the Canadian General Electric Company, when testifying in the suit of R. R. Carr-Harris against the Canadian General Electric Company, before Mr. Justice Kelly in the Non-Jury Assizes, for some $63,000 for alleged commission on shell contracts.

Senator Nichols was being questioned by W. N. Tilley, K.C., counsel for the plaintiff, with regard to contracts secured from the Imperial Munition Board, and had been asked if it would be possible to deal through the shell committee in Canada, and have the contracts that were made in Great Britain "earmarked" to the Canadian General Electric Company.

Senator Nichols: "That question never arose, and was never discussed. The contract never considered anything of the kind or nature that were closed in Great Britain, and that were signed by Sir Robert Borden that we should deal with the shell committee."

Senator Nichols was examined first by Wallace Nesbitt, K.C., counsel for defendants.

Mr. Nesbitt: "Did you not consider sending some one to England?" "Yes." He did not recall the date, and recalled meeting Mr. Carr-Harris. "He told me that he might be of assistance in our securing orders in Great Britain for munitions in dealing direct with the munition authorities in London. I told him that he could not be of any assistance to us in that regard, because he did not understand our business, and that it required an expert. I told him we had already considered sending our general sales manager, Mr. Millen, for that purpose. He stated that there were difficulties in securing orders and informed me that he had certain connections that he could get us an entree leading to the fountain-head of the munition orders. He explained the circumstances and told me he was related to Lord Buckmaster." Mr. Nesbitt: "Did he mention anyone else?" "I do not remember, he might have mentioned Sir Percy Girouard."

"I had previously writen Lord Kitchener and officials of the War Office offering to place our facilities at the disposal of the War Office."

Mr Nesbitt: "What was the inducement to send Mr. Carr-Harris?"

Senator Nichols: "The connection with Lord Buckmaster."

Mr. Nesbitt: "Could Mr. Carr-Harris be of any other use?" "No," because it was a very difficult thing to reach the politics quickly. I felt that Mr. Carr-Harris, through Lord Buckmaster, might get our representative in touch so that he might give his proposals."

Not a Salesman.

Mr. Nesbitt: "But for those representations would you have considered Mr. Carr-Harris representing you in England?" "Decidedly no."

Senator Nichols further explained that it was a matter of technical salesmanship, and Mr. Carr-Harris was not competent in that regard.

Mr. Nesbitt: "It is said by Mr. Carr-Harris and Mr. Millen that Mr. Millen was content that if orders came out to Canada you would take your chance of what you might be allocated, of these orders and such quantities, by the shell committee?"

"That is not my understanding or recollection."

Mr. Nesbitt read a cable from Senator Nichols dated October 7, 1915, to Mr. Millen in England, with regard to contracts. Senator Nichols recalled the telegram. "I had a conference with Mr Thomas in London," he said. "I accused Mr. Thomas of not acting fairly, but he did state that he could take a percentage on an order. The price was $1.80 for primers."

Mr. Tilley questioned Senator Nichols' knowledge of the goods, whether they were primers or not. Mr. Nesbitt pointed out to Mr. Tilley that the Senator was not probably an expert but knew the business.

Mr. Tilley: "I don't want an address from you, Mr. Nesbitt."

Justice Kelly: "I presume this is not part of the court proceedings." Counsels agreed it was not.

No Orders Secured.

Senator Nichols: "No orders were secured by Mr. Carr-Harris. I wrote a letter to him expressing my disappointment that all our advantages that had been offered had not been accepted. When Mr. Carr-Harris came back I told him that I regretted exceedingly the commission of orders had been a failure."

Mr. Tilley: "You take the position that the whole thing was a failure?" "Yes, my trip and all."

Mr. Tilley: "No order were secured in England by any one?" "Not from the munition office, one came from the Admiralty."

Mr. Tiley: "You endorsed his work on credit?" "Yes, when we were dealing in millions. My instructions to Mr. Millen were that Mr. Carr-Harris was to receive commission on business closed in England with the Imperial Munitions Board. "Did you give Mr. Millen any instructions as to business to be done?" "He was to try to get orders other than direct contracts with the Imperial authorities."

"When he got to England, was he told the object of his visit was to get direct contracts?"

"There was no other anticipation, but that he should. I told him what our agreement was; that Mr. Carr-Harris was going over to facilitate matters to circumvent a great deal of British red tape by getting the orders direct through Lord Buckmaster."

Col. Nicholls admitted a conference with Mr. Thomas at Ottawa on October 6, 1917. He closed the contract the day after, he said, not when he had the talk with Mr. Thomas, later Baron Rhondda.

"I accepted after word had come from England from Carr-Harris that he would reduce his commission."

"How did you accept?"

"By long distance telephone."

"You can't tell who you telephoned the agreement to, or the time, or the date?"

Witness said "No."

He denied that he had come to any definite conclusion with Baron Rhondda at the Chateau Lauriers "I left in a temper," witness said, the trouble was about a price. "It was settled that we could have the contract, but the agreement was only tentatively closed. This was his explation of statements in previous evidence.

"Did you have any interviews with General Bertram about this contract?"

"I had many." Witness stated that he had not, however, closed the contract with General Bertram.

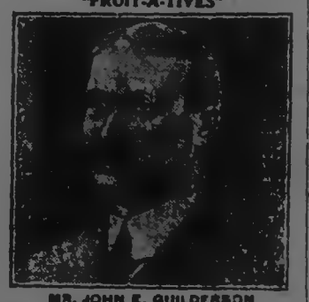
HAD RHEUMATISM FOR FIVE YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"



MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON

P. O. Box 128, Parrsboro, N. S.

"I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance.

I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since.

Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me."

JOHN E. GUILDERSON,
Contractor and Mason.

OFFERS CITY TEN ACRES FOR $12,000

MR. ALF. PEARSON WANTS TO DISPOSE OF FIELD IN NORTH MONAGHAN.

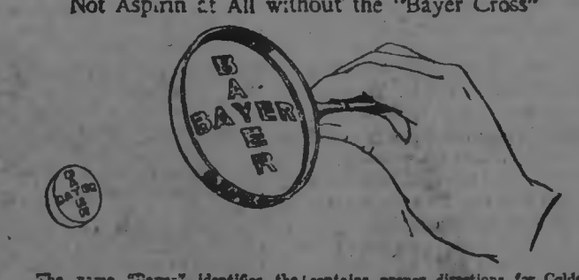
The ten-acre field on the north side of Braidwood Avenue, between Park Street and the Monaghan Road, was offered to the city last night for $12,000 by Mr. Alf. Pearson, the present owner, who is visiting Peterborough for the first time in four years, and is returning to the West in the middle of May.

It was worth $150 an acre, he said, was close to the G.T.R., and in its location was desirable property for factory sites. An adjoining ten acres could be bought at a reasonable price from Mr. W. H. Bradburn. The entire block of which these lots are parcels comprises forty acres.

Mr. Pearson's tract is 210 feet deep, paralleling Braidwood Avenue. The Manufacturers' Committee will consider Mr. Pearson's offer, probably next week.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"



The name "Bayer" identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

Man's Best Friend Is the Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper

Many men think so right now because they have purchased one and no longer find it necessary to hoist a rug over the clothes line or lay it on the grass and beat it vigorously. Such a process is hard on yourself and hard on the rug. The Hoover method is the ideal way. It operates so smoothly and with so little effort and no dust, and yet it beats—as it sweeps—as it cleans.

A Demonstration will prove its worth.
Comparison will prove its superiority.
Long service will prove its endurance.

The Hoover has a fine reputation, but it does not sell on its reputation. It sells on its merits. That's the way all the merchandise in this store is sold.

COLLEGIATE CADET OFFICERS HAVE RESIGNED FROM LOCAL BATTALION

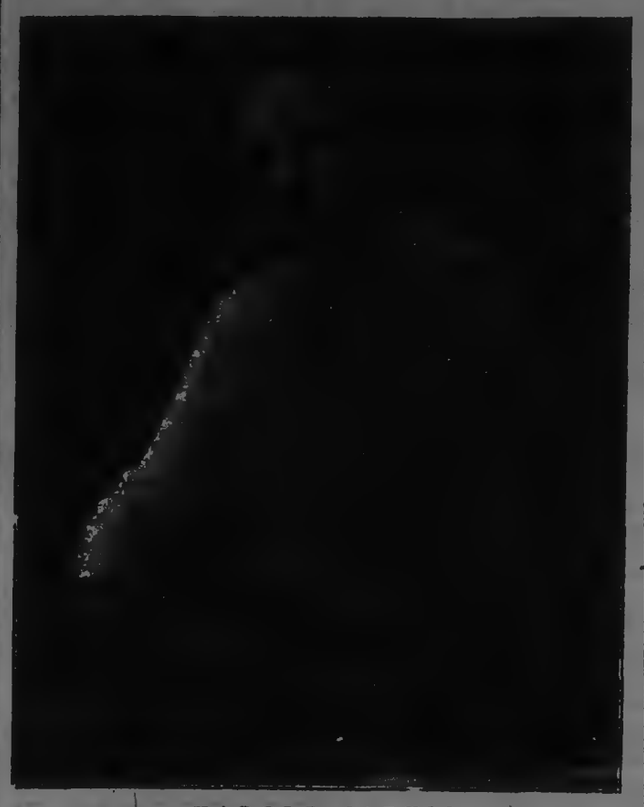
BOYS ALL DRESSED UP "AND NO PLACE TO GO"—ANNUAL INSPECTION DRAWS NEAR.

No. 13 Cadet Battalion, comprising the boys of the Collegiate Institute, is at present in a rather disorganized condition, due to the refusal of the majority of the officers to serve under the present commanding officer, R. Allen Lewis.

A petition was circulated among the officers, N.C.O.'s, and rank and file of the battalion, asking for the resignation of the O. C. The request not being recognized, an officers' meeting was held yesterday morning, following which a large majority of the officers tendered their resignations.

Annual Inspection.

The annual inspection of the battalion is to be held on May 12th, only about two and a half weeks from now, and consequently the situation is a serious one, as the battalion is practically without officers, and it would be difficult to secure new officers, not only because of the short time left for their training, but because practically all the N.C.O.'s and privates state that they will not accept promotion to commands under the present circumstances.



HAROLD JARVIS

The popular tenor of Detroit, who is to sing at the concert in St. Paul's Church on Tuesday evening, 27th April, assisted by well-known local talent (under the auspices of the Fraser Auxiliary of St. Paul's).

The London Free Press has the following to say of Mr. Jarvis' musical ability:

"Noted tenor takes London by storm.—The services at the Dundas Street Church last night were of the most extraordinary character, when Harold Jarvis, the noted tenor of the First Presbyterian Church, Detroit, delighted an audience that taxed the capacity of the large church, to one of the finest musical renderings that the city has been fortunate to hear for some time. It may be said of Mr. Jarvis that the passing of the years sees no diminution in his voice as a vocalist. His clear clarion notes were listened to with much delight, his voice being sweet and powerful. Mr. Jarvis puts a fervour into his singing which reaches the audience every time. Many musical admirers were in the congregation, and at the close of the service he was warmly greeted.

ATTENDED REPEAT PERFORMAN E OF THE "Y" CIRCUS

A record crowd saw the second presentation of the combined exhibition of the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. at the Y.M.C.A. last night, and the programme presented was equally as good if not better than on the first night drawing forth much praise and commendation from all who were present.

The exercises, drills and exhibitions weer carried out splendidly and those in charge of the event are deeply gratified not only with the excellent receipts but with the manner in which the exhibition has been run off.

A pleasing feature of the programme last night was the presentation to Miss Pryce, the instructress, of three beautiful bouquets by the different classes. A large attendance for the last presentation to-night is expected.

DE VALERA HAS WILD MEETING

HOSTILITY SHOWN SINN FEIN LEADER AT BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama, April 24.—When Eamonn de Valera, self-styled President of the mythical Irish Republic, rose to speak he was greeted with mingled applause and shouts of "Throw hi mout."

He declared that he had heard stories and read newspaper clippings from Birmingham, apparently representing the thoughts of the people of the city, but that the moment he stepped from the train he knew the people had been misrepresented, and that only a small minority were opposed to his coming here.

Declaring that he was going to answer some of the charges that had been made against him, the Sinn Feiner launched into a tirade against the "English tyrant," and declared that the opinion that the aims of the Irish Republic were not in accord with those of the United States was wrong, and that persons who held such opinions were in accord with the methods used by England to slowly bring Ireland to her death.

He said the Irish people were looking to the United States for help and encouragement, and that if there had been no United States there would have been no Irish Republic to-day.

"We are not asking for United States soldiers to fight for us," he declared. "We are not asking you to say 'Hands off' to England: we only ask that you believe in us and our cause."

He declared that Ireland had a right to call upon the United States for aid, because every time in the last 100 years that the United States flag has been endangered "the true sons of old Ireland were the first to defend it."

A near-riot was caused in the crowded theatre when resolutions were offered that the United States should in the future refrain from assisting Great Britain financially.

OBJECT TO THE OVERALL "FAD"

Special to the Examiner:

On a vote being taken, daylight saving was rejected this year.

Voice Of The People

Mr. Editor:—

If it should be the duty of the pulpit to preach about ancient and modern errors that creep into the church is it not logical that the pulpit should have a horror of unpaid bills and carry out the scriptural injunction to "Owe no man anything." If preaching is to have any weight.

A whole lot of people thing that the error of the age is preaching without practice.

CONSISTENCY.

Editor, Examiner:—

Sir,—I am pleased to note that we have at least got a Council that has the necessary backbone to pay no attention to a few howling fanatics, who fail to notice that there is no law preventing them getting up an hour earlier and retiring on hour earlier, (if they feel the need of doing so), in the interest of sport, without forcing people who have to work for a living; and consequently have need of the sleep which the Lord intended them to have; and not what these few before mentioned fanatics, (who by the way don't know what hard work is), think they ought to have.

Best Medicine He Has Ever Taken

FATHER TELLS OF SON'S HELP FROM DODD'S MEDICINES.

He Recommends Everybody Who Has Shaking or Pain in the Heart to Use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Birmingham, Sask., April 23rd, (Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best medicines my son has ever taken.

This is the statement of Mr. Johannes Reinson, a well-known resident here. 'When he started to take them," Mr. Reinson continues, "there was not much hope for him. Soon after starting to take the Dodd's Medicines he began to improve in health and now he is well."

He advises everybody who has shaking or pain in the heart to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The Dodd's Medicines act on the two essentials to good health. The Tablets help to digest the food and produce good blood. The Pills act on the kidneys, healing and strengthening them, thus ensuring that the blood is kept free from impurities. For the work of healthy kidneys is to strain all impurities out of the blood.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not heal and strengthen the kidneys.

SEEKING SUPPORT O. L. CAL MEMBER

The temperance forces in west Peterborough are watching with much interest the progress of the debate in the Ontario Legislature on the McCreary Resolution. It is understood that they have been urging Mr. Thos. Tooms of this riding to support the resolution. In doing this they pointed out that the people of this riding voted overwhemingly in favor of all four of the proposals for temperance reform at the time of the recent referendum. As the Labor Party has always supported the holding if referendums and as Hon. Mr. Raney has made it clear that the expenses of taking the vote will not be heavy as it is held that Mr Tooms should support their interests in this matter. For this reason his vote is going to eb watched with great interest.

INDIGESTIVE TROUBLES CAUSE DISTRESS

But They Are Nearly Always Due to Thin Watery Blood.

Do not think that because your stomach is easily upset you are the victim of some serious malady. One of the most common predisposing causes of indigestion is anaemia, or thin, watery blood. In fact, it has become generally recognised that healthy activity of the stomach is impossible unless the blood is rich and red.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been found most valuable in cases of indigestion, nervous dyspepsia and stomach weakness, just because they are a blood builder and nerve tonic. The rich, red blood they make not only imparts a healthy digestion, but carries colour to the cheeks and lips and gives vigour to the muscles. One important point to remember is that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful drugs or opiates and are thus to be preferred to preparations that merely stimulate for a time. Before you begin worrying unnecessarily about your state of health, try the tonic treatment of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You will be surprised to see how rapidly your appetite returns and your whole debilitated system revives, as the new, rich blood courses through your body. Here is the statement of one person among thousands who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to their own great advantage. Mrs. A. Veniot, Homford, N.S., says: "For about two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which seemed to carry with it a complication of other troubles. Every meal I took brought with it misery, as it was followed by pain, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. At other times gas would form in the stomach to such an extent that my heart would palpitate at an alarming rate. These conditions brought an extreme nervousness and irritability, and I found my general health so much affected that the least exertion would tire me, and I slept but poorly. I had been doctoring for several months with no result beyond slight temporary relief, when I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to follow this advice, and got a half-dozen boxes. Good results soon began to show from this treatment, and the further continued use of the pills have made me a well woman. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to similar sufferers."

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BOTNICK BROS. WELL RECEIVED

Among the recent business changes in the city to which a good deal of publicity has been given, is the acquiring of the Swartz Ready-to-Wear business by the Botnick Bros. The change has brought a good deal of extra trade to this store, because a general lowering of prices throughout the store has taken place which has attracted large numbers of shoppers. Many lines of goods were offered at less than replacement prices in the wholesale houses. The stock was large, and profits were sacrificed to reduce it. The new firm have had a successful re-opening sale, featuring new spring styles at much below the ruling prices. This sale will close to-day with a packed house. The members of the new firm of Botnick Bros., are live men, shrewd buyers, and well posted among the wholesalers. As they are very free from heavy store expenses and "overhead", shoppers are promised phenomal bargains not once in a while but all the while.

S. A. NOTES.

The meetings will be conducted by Corps Cadet Guardian Mrs. Lang and Corps Cadets, over the week end.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

TELLS SAFE, SIMPLE WAY TO TREAT AND RELIEVE AT HOME.

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh or if phlegm drops in your throat and has caused catarrh of the stomach or bowels you will be glad to know that these distressing symptoms may be entirely overcome in many instances by the following treatment which you can easily prepare in your own home at little cost. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmint (Double Strength.) Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. An improvement is sometimes noted after the first day's treatment. Breathing should become easy, while the distressing head noises, headaches dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., should gradually disappear under the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell, taste, defective hearing and mucus dropping in the back of the throat are other symptoms which suggest the presence of catarrh and which may often be overcome by this efficacious treatment. It is said that nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are caused by catarrh and there must, therefore, be many people whose hearing may be restored by this simple, harmless, home treatment.

J. H. BETTES ISSUES WRIT FOR TRESPASS AGAINST CONTRACTOR

A writ for $500.00 damages against the Russell-Townsend Company has been issued by Peck, Kerr & McElderry, representing Mr. J. H. Bettes.

The grounds of the claim are for alleged trespass on the plaintiff's property. He also asks for an injunction to prevent a continuance of the trespass.

"It is the most high-handed thing you ever saw," Mr. Kerr stated this morning. "They went on to Mr. Bettes' land, dug a big hole, and seemingly poured part of the bridge into it."

The city may be drawn into the action.

BELLEVILLE IS IN THE FIELD FOR A MANAGER.

The fine weather has started the ball tossers around the city agoing. They are now anxious to get the winter kinks out of the system and they will start practicing with a vengeance The G.T.R. champions expect their 1920 initiation this week. A meeting of the G. T. Athletic Association is being held this evening and a general meeting of last year's team and citizens will probably be called for Wednesday night. The real drawback now appears to be securing a manager.. This must be settled very soon so that the team can get the right kind of a start. All newcomers will be given a fair trial this year, and any ball players who desire to play are urged to turn out. Already about 15 have signified their intention of getting out. Among them are several new faces who will seek places. We are sure that when the season opens, the best team available will represent the Bay City.—Belleville Intelligencer.

FOUR TEAMS IN CITY LEAGUE RACE

RESIGNATION OF DE LAVAL TEAM ACCEPTED AT MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE.

At a meeting of the executive of the City Baseball League, held at the Empress Hotel last night, the resignation of the DeLaval team was accepted. The DeLavals will retain the franchise in the League but will not be represented by a team this season. This leaves the C. G. E., Canadian Woollens, G.W.V.A., and Thistles to fight it out.

The League will open on Saturday afternoon, May 15th and games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday nights and on Saturday when the Central League team is not playing.

PORT HOPE GUIDE THROWS A BOUQUET AT LOU MARSH.

Guide:—Port Hope would like to know when Lou Marsh was given authority to say who should play in the O.B.A.A. finals. Scott was in the lumber camps during the winter of 1918, but would not have been eligible to play with Lindsay in the final games of the O.B.A.A Just another case of making the residence rule to suit Toronto, but Marsh will find out that the teams in this district will have a voice in O.B.A.A. affairs this summer. Since Marsh has become so boisterous we might inform him that players are sometimes barred from the O.B.A.A. other than by the residence rule. Mr. Marsh had better not dabble too deep into the Scott affair or he might annoy us to a degree when we would tell some tales out of school! We will not so far forget ourselves as to throw a bell at Lou as he did with the Kingston spectators last winter. Lou should learn the old adage that "Silence is Golden."

OSHAWA HAS NEW BALL PLAYERS

Oshawa Reformer: The fine weather Saturday started the ball-tossers about town to get going again and the opening practice of the season was held in Alexandra Park. The club officers almost suffered a fainting spell, when between sixty and seventy men took the field, all wanting to catch a place on some team. Some were historic "has beens," but still going strong, others were the old reliable guard of past seasons and will likely be the mainstay for the present season again, and a large number were newcomers, who have yet to show what goods they have in order to catch a place on the team. All the newcomers will be given a fair tryout, although it will be some job to get a place on the line-up.

Patton, last year's pitcher, will again be signed on, but there are others to contend with him. One of these is Fred Anderson, of Cargill, a well known Western Ontario twirler, who has been a mound artist on Walkerton, Cargill and Southampton teams and played the game in England for the past two seasons. Kelso, also is prominently mentioned as an able pitcher. Among other players recently come to Oshawa are Belting of Orillia, and Alger from Tweed, both reputed to be fair infielders.

U.S. HOCKEY TEAM IN FIRST PRACTICE

OLYMPIC CONTINGENT ARRIVES SAFELY AND HAS WORKOUT AT ANTWERP ICE PALACE

ANTWERP, April 24.—America's hockey team, which is entered in the first big events of the Olympic games to be held here this Spring and Summer, arrived here none the worse for a few days of rather rough weather. Wednesday night the team entered keenly into its first practise at the Antwerp Ice Palace.

Canadian hockey players, who arrived a few days ago by way of England, were on the side lines watching the practise, and together with a number of other players who were at the palace, expressed the opinion that the Americans would be strong contenders for the hockey title. It is planned to put the American team through a daily practise until the opening game.

Both the American hockey players and individual skaters pronounced the ice in the rink excellent. Theer are seating accomodations for only 800 spectators, and the rink will be crowded to capacity at every game. American Army officers stationed at the Antwerp base and casuals from the Army of Occupation, are clamoring for a chance to root for the Americans, while the Canadians will be backed by the British Army contingent.

The Americans were met on their arrival at the dock by the Belgian Committee. All the teams entered for competition are now here, with the exception of the French who are only a few hours away and are training steadily in Paris. The American individual skaters will be called upon to face the best and most experienced Swedish, Norwegian and Finnish fliers.

SPORT FOR THE TELEPHONY CLUB.

Some exceptionally good material was inaugurated in the field of sport when the local Telephone employees, at a meeting held on April 21st, decided upon the formation of a Telephony Club. An extensive program of sports will be carried on by the Club during this season. A genuine baseball club has already been formed which in a very short time will be ready for combatant service with the best of Peterboro's artists.

Bowling and Tennis are also on the program of the Telephony Club, and a first class bowling team is now being formed.

The following officers were elected and it is evident that the success of the Telephony Club for the 1920 season is assured.

WILL ROGERS SCORES AGAIN AT THE ALLEN

In the role of Billy Fortune, Will Rogers again scores heavily. A unque type of hero and an irrestible one, Rogers displays "In Water, Water Everywhere," the same rugged humanness, the same bashful and infectuous smile, that has resulted in his meteoric rise to the pinnacle of public favor. A clever drama which delighted a capacity house. (Last time to-day.)

CLEANING BASEBALL SUITS.

Oshawa Club has called in all last year's uniforms in order that they may be sent to the laundry and be cleaned. This is a good idea for the Lindsay Club to follow. Nothing like starting the season with a brand clean suit. It should not be necessary to purchase new suits this year, when it is considered that it costs over $100.00 to outfit a baseball team with uniforms to-day.

INDICATIONS POINT TO EARLY DEMAND FOR RESERVATIONS

The seat sale for "Fi-Fi" of the Toy Shop" to be presented under the auspices of the Belmont Club and staged by Mr. Allan of Rogers Producing Society with the able assistance of a cost of 200 local participants begins Wednesday April 28. The box office will be opened at nine o'clock, and the usual regulations for theatrical attractions will be observed.

The performances are to be given Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30. and every indication points to a crowded house at both performances. Already a number of boxes have been sold and theatre parties have been arranged.

No efforts will be spared to make the entertainment the most notable social and financial success of the present year.

Mr. John B. Rogers, author of the play has staged many comic operas and music extravaganzas throughout the country. He has produced his plays under the auspices of the best organizations.

The names of those to appear in the local production are known to business and social circles throughout the city. Some of the best musicians of the city will be among those participating, and special features are being added to every rehearsal.

Those holding tickets already purchased of committee members should bear in mind that they are to be exchanged for reserved seats. The doors open at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, April 29 at the Opera House.

"THE REVELATIONS OF A WIFE."

Coming with a stamp of approval from dramatic critics, "The Revelations of a Wife" opens at the Grand Opera House for two days, starting with a matinee Tuesday, 27th April, with daily matinees for ladies only. It is called a play of mystery, with a wonderful plot that holds and grips you until the final drop of the curtain and sends you home feeling better for having witnessed a play of real merit. It has been sent on tour with a very strong cast of recognized performers, and a production that is far above the average. The demand for seats steadyily grows, and from all indications standing room will be at a premium during the engagement in this city. The evening performances are for everybody over the age of 16.

STIR Your Tea

This liberates the valuable tea essence that would otherwise remain in the leaves at the bottom of the pot and be wasted.

When you use a higher price tea—a tea of the fine quality of Red Rose Orange Pekoe—it is doubly important to stir it and get the full benefit of the rich flavor and strength from every choice young mountain grown leaf.

Red Rose Orange Pekoe is a tea of extra quality at a little extra price.

A tea for exceedingly particular people.

Have you tried it?

IN THE LITERARY WORLD

CHATS ABOUT BOOKS.

It was Sir Anthony Absolute, who said that "a circulating library in a town is an evergreen tree of diabolical knowledge." Sheridan, when he put these words into the mouth of Sir Anthony, had in his mind the consuming appetite of society for the current fiction of the day "The Reward of Constancy," "The Fatal Connexion," "The Mistakes of the Heart," "The Delicate Distress," "The Tears of Sensibility," "Humphrey Clinker," these tell their own tale and show what society of a hundred years or more ago loved to read. If evidence were needed of the general neglect at that time of books of a religious flavor, it is found a sentence or two further on in the same scene of the play, where the maid is depicted as using "The Whole Duty of Man" for the purpose of pressing some love locks belonging to her mistress. Custom at the present time would in certain instances, seem to be moving along parallel lines. I was once visiting an acquaintance in the country. In the course of conversation he told me that his house had been burglarized a few days before my arrival but that though the thieves had stolen some clothing and other articles, they had failed to locate his money. The reason, he said, with a chuckle, was that he always kept his bills pressed between the leaves of the family Bible, and as nobody ever opened it he found it the safest place in the house for keeping his money.

Fiction holds first place and always will in the affections of the public. It is only natural that it should do so, for, so long as the world endures men and women will find one of their chief pleasures in reading books that depict the faults, foibles or excellencies of human nature. But there is a serious side to the subject, and that is that in the rush for novels the main object of the founding of a library may be lost sight of. It may easily be forgotten that it contains many classes of literature, books for the students, books for the artist, books for the mechanic, books for the divine. Nobody connected with a library can be blamed if books are purchased which lie neglected on the shelves. The fault really lies with those who do not take the trouble to find out what a library possesses. It does not seem to enter into the minds of many of us that there is almost as great an obligation resting upon us to acquire the means of knowledge as there is that we should go to church or say our prayers. We cannot attain to a truly high plane unless we are equipped intellectually as well as spiritually.

There is no royal road to knowledge. It can only be acquired by reading and by observation and if our people would only realize this there would be a greater demand on library resources.

A branch of literature which is not nearly as well patronized as it should be is Natural Science. Few people seem to be aware how much is comprised in the term. The idea of most persons regarding it seems to centre around beetles, butterflies and wild animals. The following range of subjects is to be found under this heading and will probably surprise many: Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Chemistry, Geology, Palaeontology, Biology, Botany and Zoology. A great many sub-headings come under these main ones, but enough is given to show the wide scope of this class of literature Many do not understand the meaning of some of the terms given. Physics deals with certain phenomena in the material world, such as Gases, Heat, Light, Sound, Electricity and Magnetism. Palaeontology deals with past geological periods in connection with the remains of mammals, birds, reptiles, fishes, etc. Biology is the science of life and discusses the natural history of Man. It can plainly be seen from the foregoing how much of interest is to be gleaned in this section of the Library. At this period of the year Nature study is uppermost in the minds of nature-lovers. Springtide is preparing to spread its glories over hill and dale. Here are books to regale you: Thoreau and Burroughs, Gilbert White and Jefferies, those wonderful writers, will explain to you many things that you have wondered at but never have known the meaning of. In their company new delights will be experienced and a broader vision of life be vouchsafed to you.

IMMIGRATION OF ENEMY ALIENS

Some interesting light is thrown on the workings of Canada's Immigration Policy by the character of the incomers during the first year or two of the war. From April 1st, 1914, to March 31st, 1915, enemy aliens—Austrians, Bulgarians, Germans, Hungarians and Turks—to the number of 8,864, found entrance into Canada. This was just four times the number of Canadians, officers and men, who were killed in the war up till November 30th, 1915. Even more surprising are some of the figures as to naturalization. Up to November 30th, 1915, the total Canadian casualties of, all ranks were 13,017. During the approximately parallel war period of 1914 and 1915 Canadian naturalization was given to 13,065 incomers from central and southern Europe, of whom 8,038 were avowedly Austrians, 1,306 Germans, 521 Hungarians, and 580 Turks. Truly we have a Canadian melting pot. These figures are from "A Study of Canadian Immigration," by W. G. Smith, shortly to be published by The Ryerson Press.

CHIMNEY-POT PAPERS BY CHARLES S. BROOKS

With Woodcuts by Fritz Endell.

To those who know Charles S. Brooks, this latest collection of his essays needs no introduction. We find the same charming, whimsical, refreshing Mr. Brooks who gave us "Journeys to Bagdad" and "The Pipins and Cheese to Come." So delicate is the wit and so pleasant the satire which mark these essays, that the name of Charles S. Brooks has not infrequently been joined to that of Charles Lamb by well-known critics.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS TO LINDSAY CITIZEN.

At the close of the weekly prayer meeting service in the Cambridge Street Methodist Church, Lindsay, a farewell presentation took place when Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sparling and Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Maunder were remembered by the congregation on the eve of their departure for Toronto.

Mr. James Boxall read the address to Mr. and Mrs. F. Maunder, while Mr. F. W. Sutcliffe read the address to Mr. and Mrs. Sparling.

Messrs. W. Flaveile and C. R. Weeks presented each with a book of

REAL STOVEPIPE HATS FOR WOMEN

MILLINERS OF PARIS SEEK INSPIRATION IN THE KITCHEN.

PARIS, April 24. — Fashionable Paris finds a new diversion in newest models displayed by milliners, who have apparently sought inspiration in the kitchen.

Real stove-pipe hats have made their appearance on the Rue de La Paix and the Longchamps racecourse. They are made of aluminum, with crowns tapering about ten inches, while the edges are trimmed with colored velvet. Many of the new designs strongly suggest common kettles, while others, a bit more arsitocratic, resemble the more "classy" kitchen pieces.

Vividly red tam-o'-shanters displayed in the windows of one Rue de La Paix milliner drew crowds which, upon closer inspection, saw these brilliant head pieces were trimmed with tin, surmounted by a metal knob instead of the usual tassle.

"Lampshade" hats also are proving poular. They have jangling glass jade ornaments hanging down from the rim, giving a sort of "chandelier" effect.

Some evening gowns have a distinctly Oriental note.

A novel organdie has a silver thread running through it.

Cinnamon comes chiefly from Ceylon.

"Oh, My! How the Doctor Did Alarm Me When He Said it Was Your Heart"

"WHAT did he say?"

"Well, he says that the great majority of people who had the 'flu' have suffered afterwards from weak heart action.

"I never had heart trouble."

"No, but the way the doctor explains it is that the nervous system is so weakened by the 'flu' that there is not enough nerve force left to drive the machinery of the body."

"That is about the way I feel, for I have no appetite, and do not feel able to stir."

"No, and you do not seem to digest the little food you do eat. So you cannot expect to gain strength. Why not try some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?"

"Oh, I do not see how that would help me."

"Now, John, I think that is exactly what you need. It always helped me when I got run down in health, and I hear so many saying the same thing that I think you should give it a trial. You know yourself that you are not gaining any these days."

"How would that help my heart?"

"Because it enriches the blood and increases the nerve force. Anything that strengthens the nerves will naturally strengthen the action of the heart, for the heart, like the stomach and other organs, is dependent on the nervous system for operating power."

"Well, you talk as though you knew. I guess your training as a nurse is coming in useful."

"Will you try the Nerve Food, then?"

"Yes, I will give it a good trial, for I want to get around, and not sit here like an invalid."

"I am so glad, for I feel sure it will soon get you feeling all right again."

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author.

ALGONQUIN PARK.

In the Algonquin Park of Ontario, Canada possesses a virgin wilderness within easy striking distance of civilisation and city life. Here tired business man—and his wife and daughter, too—can get out into the big open spaces, brush away the mental cobwebs, and feel the red blood course through the veins once more. When the breathless days and glaring heat of summer make life in the city a burden, Algonquin Park (only 200 miles north of Toronto and 170 miles west of Ottawa) is a place of refuge and enchantment. This great reserve of nearly three thousand square miles is on the very ridge of the "Highlands of Ontario." Its altitude above sea level averages 1,700 feet, while some of the lakes in the Park are 2,000 feet above the sea. The "Highland Inn" offers comfortable accommodation at reasonable rates. Make your reservations early, as the probabilities are that the available accommodation will be taken up early this season. Write N. T. Clarke, Manager, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ont., or apply for information to any Grand Trunk agent. 1d-96-8951

MYSTERIOUS TRACING OF VIRGIN AND CHILD

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 24.—Lined with remarkable clearance on a ceiling in the home of Mr. P. F. Mangan in Lamont street, West Park, is a mysterious tracing of the Virgin and the Child. Police have been required to keep back great crowds striving to enter the home, which has been closed except to newspapermen. The apparition appeared two weeks ago, and a week later Maurice Mangan, an overseas veteran, died of pneumonia. Mrs. P. F. Mangan, the mother, expresses the belief that the appearance of the Virgin indicates that Maurice and a daughter who died recently are safe. The shock of the apparition has made her ill. Persons who have seen the tracing say it suggests having been done with a finger but the Mangans insist no human hand is involved.

EVELYN NESBITT THAW IN LIMELIGT AGAIN

NEW YORK, April 24.—Attorneys for Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw, now Mrs. Jack Clifford, said yesterday that she would file countersuit for divorce against her husband and former dancing partner, charging improper conduct.

NEW YORK EVOLVES HAT WORTH $5,000

GIFT OF 2,000 U.S. MILLINERS TO THE WIFE OF FRENCH PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A five-thousand dollar hat has been evolved upon Fifth Avenue.

Now lest this account be marred for such as cannot suppress shivers of sympathy for the husband of the woman who fancies the hat, may one not at once state that the bill already has been paid. The price was admiration and good fellowship, for the hat is the gift of three thousand United States' milliners to the wife of the President of France.

Christened the Watteau, after the artist who loved to paint drooping brims over the eyes of his subjects, the hat may best be described as "conspicuously inconspicuous." It is one of those things to wear that you look at and instantly know is all right, though completely lacking in striking features.

Made of lisere straw, it is, narrow of brim and flat of crown. Black satin faces the brim, folded into a pair of shining tubes, circles the crown.

The brim is caught up in back and it is the irregularity which gives reason for all the trimming and most of the expense.

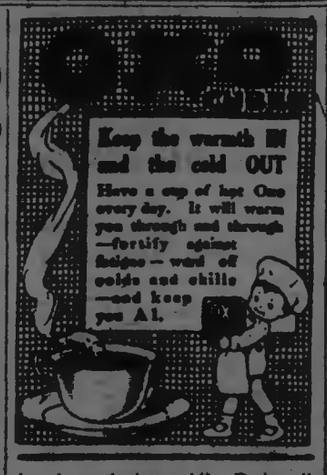
For the trimming is nine Paradise Fins, all of the soft, sooty black never attained by anything but Paradise. They are put on to droop over the right side and to stand high at the left on top of the hat; upon the outer surface of the upturned brim they are made to flare straight out. The effect is that of feathers disturbed by a heavy wind.

Will Set the Summer Style.

Mme. Deschanel already has cabled her acceptance of the Watteau and her thanks. She will wear it with nothing to distinguish it as the gift of a nation's milliners, excepting her own knowledge of what the lining is like. That it is made of wedge-shaped pieces of silk of all colors—forty-eight in number—representing each State. Names of the states are embroidered upon each wedge.

Watteau is the acknowledgement of the Retail Milliners' Association for co-operation of Paris in establishing a fourth or "summer millinery" season. Hitherto only three seasons have existed, the Spring showing of hats carrying over.

However, when it was announced that a new one was to be offered



Keep the warmth IN and the cold OUT
Have a cup of hot Ovo every day. It will warm you through and through—fortify against fatigue—ward off colds and chills—and keep you A1.

the change-loving public, Paris milliners immediately created five hundred sample hats and sent them to this country.

They were so well liked by United States' milliners that the plan to express satisfaction generally and appreciation of Mme. Deschanel's sanction of the new season took the form of creating and presenting Watteau to the first lady of France.

It is said that the hat will set the Summer style in millinery.

Refined, Delicate Skin Secured by Absorption

No complexion can be considered beautiful if the skin is coarse in texture. This trouble can be overcome by thoroughly cleansing the pores, removing the dirt and impurities which made the skin rough. For this purpose there's nothing better than the mercolized wax process. The wax completely absorbs the rough, muddy or discolored outer skin and unclogs the pores. The fresh, young skin underneath then in evidence is exquisitely delicate, refined and beautiful. And it is kept so, as the pores now freely expel effete matter and drink in the life-giving oxygen.

Mercolized wax, because of its wonderful absorption power, is fast superseding other treatments for coarse, pimply, yellow, freckled or blotchy skin. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off next morning. It is perfectly harmless, of course, and can be found in any drug store or toilet section.

PONTYPOOL AND DISTRICT NEWS

EPWORTH LEAGUE MAKING PROGRESS IN THIS DISTRICT.

Mr. Andrew Benson, a former life-long and well-known resident of Manvers, died on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Pollard, Toronto. Deceased suffered from another stroke recently and never recovered.

The funeral to Pontypool Cemetery on Tuesday was conducted by Rev. A. McLauchlin. Mrs. Howard Henders, of Yelverton, is another daughter. We join in sincere sympathy to those bereaved by the passing of Mr. Benson.

Sunday School.

Reports of Pontypool Sunday School given at the Annual Meeting last Friday showed a gratifying increase in every department. Mr. Tom Webb was re-elected Superintendent.

Epworth League.

Rev. Andrew McLauchlin, President of the Peterboro District Epworth League, reports that reports for this year are encouraging. A new League is started at Bailleboro; Lakefield added 22 members; Pontypool 13 in one night recently. The District is trying to get a Missionary of its own in China.

National Campaign.

One of the results of the National Campaign has been a great revival in interest in Young People's Societies. So noticeable is it that after the General Board of S.S. and Y.P.S's. of the Methodist Church at its regular meetnig last January, had refused the request from the four Central Conference League Executives that a Special Field Secretary be appointed to look after that group, the special committee a week ago assigned Rev. Manson Doyle to the work. If it is found at regular meeting in January next, that the Y. P. Societies have contributed $4,000 to the General Y. P. Fund, they recommend that the desired additional appointment be made.

PETERBORO BOYS NOW IN ROCHESTER PROPOSE REUNION

An Old Boys' re-union of Peterborough's sons now living in Rochester is reported by ex-Mayor G. H. Duncan and Mr. Charles Noyes, both of whom have received letters from their sons that indicate a serious proposal which may be carried out this summer. There are many Peterborough boys in Rochester, in fact they are almost numerous enough to form a colony, and much as they like the "Flower City," in which they have prospered, their love for Peterborough has never declined. From the information conveyed by Mr. Noyes and Mr. Duncan it is understood that Civic Holiday has been suggested for the reunion, and with co-operation by some of the local organizations it is believed that this project could be developed into a big mid-summer success. There is nothing definite in the information that has been received here, but the letters indicate that the idea has already been discussed by some of the Peterborough boys now living in Rochester, and that their opinions are in favour of an effort to organize a holiday trip back to the home town.

GOATS SUPPLY MOST MILK TO NAPLES HOMES

ARE OFTEN TAKEN RIGHT INTO THE HOUSES OF THE CUSTOMERS.

The cost of milk is a subject which never loses interest. We are to have a Commission or Board now to settle the matter, but most "settlements" by these august bodies seem to be but added expense.

Two years ago a committee reported on the cost of producing milk in this locality. Prof. Toole of the Agricultural College, Guelph, furnishes the figures, said figures being the result of tests made by experts.

For the year ending February 28, 1918, a careful account was kept of the costs of 437 Oxford county farmers, $580 was allowed to the farmer as wages, and 7 per cent. for his investment. Other expenses were accurately allocated, and they found that the average cost of milk was $2.17 per 100 pounds. The average price paid for the milk was $2.50 per 100 pounds. Today, with a good management, milk per 100 pounds would cost from $2.50 to $2.75 to produce. The cost of labor had increased 60 to 70 per cent., while efficiency had decreased 10 to 20 per cent.

Trees Yield Milk.

In British Guiana and the West Indies, particularly on the bank of the River Demerara, there grows a tree known to the natives as the "Hya,hya," which yields from its bark and pith a juice slightly richer and thicker than cow's milk. The tree is about 40 feet high and 18 inches in circumference when full grown, and the natives use its juice as we use milk, it being perfectly harmless, and mixing well with water.

The Cingalese have a tree—they call it "Kirlaghuma"—which yields a fluid in all respects like milk; while in the forests of Para grows a tree called the "Massenodendron," which gives a milk-like juice. It can be kept for an indefinite time, and shows no tendency to become sour.

On the other hand, certain trees in the valleys of Assgua and in Cauagua yield a similar fluid, which, when exposed to the air, begins to form into a kind of cheese, which very soon becomes sour.

In the Canary Islands there is a tree called "Tabaya Dolce" of which the milk, thickened into a jelly, is considered a delicacy.

Goats of Naples.

Goats in flocks, wearing wooden collars and escorted by goat-herds, usually women or children, make free of the sidewalks of Naples, and constitute one of the most characteristic sights of that city. The herds are driven through the various streets and are taken into the houses, and even up to the third or fourth story, and there milked. The explanation that is given for the custom of driving the goats into the city and into the houses, sometimes to the top floors, to be milked, is that the consumers are thus assured of having the same quality of milk every day, and of knowing that it is not diluted.

Although it would ordinarily be expected that quantities of milk would be sold in the city of Naples, of nearly a millionin habitants, it is, however, not used to a great extent by all classes of native Neapolitans. It is used by invalids, infants and old people, and then only by the poorer classes, because of their inability to get nourishment from other sources.

Naples gets its supply principally from near-by towns through the dairies and other establishments which distribute the milk to the people through the agency of the "latterie," and from the goats or cows kept in or near the city. There is also a small amount of donkey's milk, which is used only in small quantities and for those who are ill.

B. C. Milk Supply.

British Columbia has borrowed a leaf from the prosperity book of Washington and Oregon, and gone into raising goats.

After taking 1000 ZUTOO TABLETS Says they are Harmless

Mrs. (Dr.) Shurtleff, of Coaticook, says "Zutoo Tablets must have cured 500 of my headaches, for I have taken 1000 tablets. After trying every remedy within reach, I discarded them all four years ago for ZUTOO, which I have taken ever since.

Beauty and Economy

A roof of real beauty is one covered with a soft harmonious shade of reddish brown or dark green slate. These are the two artistic colors in which is made—the colors being unfadeable, because they are the natural shades of the crushed slate used for the surface of this handsome roofing material.

Brantford Crystal Roofing is also a very economical roof. It is moderate in cost, can be very rapidly laid, and is a permanent material that is completely non-absorbent and therefore proof against the weather.

Note the extra heavy weight—80 to 85 lbs. per square; that means extra long life.

Suitable for homes, stores, factories, garages, churches, schools — all buildings on which an artistic yet economical roof is desired.

Breeders now declare, that "the goat is the most economical producer of pure, wholesome milk for the household."

Among the desirable qualities of goat's milk is the fact that it contains from 5 to 6 per cent. butter fat, is more easily digested than cow's milk, and is immune as regards tuberculosis. The average goat gives two quarts of milk per day, and costs only a dollar or a dollar and a half a month to keep.

Mohair is bringing fancy prices, and the outlook for the Angora is ver yencouraging. The three breeds favored in British Columbia are the Nubian, the Saanen and the Toggenburg.

One of the largest goat farms or ranches in the Pacific Province is owned and run by a woman.

SPLIT IN TEMPERANCE.

Organ of U.F.O. Says That It Embarasses Government.

The Farmers' Sun, the organ of the U.F.O., says editorially that "without going into the merits or demerits of the opposing forces, on the surface it looks very much as if the Rev. Ben Spence and those associated with him had done a serious injury to the cause of temperance in this Province. The undignified spectacle made by the opposing temperance forces during the past few weeks has not only embarrassed the Government, but has seriously hindered the cause of temperance."

$1365 F.O.B. CHATHAM WAR TAX EXTRA GRAY-DORT

Gray-Dort has brought peace-time standards of value to the motor car business. Greater value than the light car has heretofore offered. $1365 brings you a car comparable with those costing several hundred dollars more.

LOOK FOR THESE THINGS IN THE CAR YOU BUY

The Gray-Dort motor is big enough for its job—not stunted—3½" bore and 5" stroke—with big water jackets and a big, honeycomb radiator. The crankshaft is husky—many pounds heavier than other builders of light cars think necessary. The pistons are extra-light and three-ringed. Special design prevents valve-warping. High-carbon steel gives toughness to moving parts.

The carburetor is a Carter—improved this year. Westinghouse starting and lighting. Connecticut ignition (newly improved).

The whole chassis parallels the motor in quality. Heavy frame of channel steel. Husky rear axle, Chatham-built. Long springs, cantilever in the rear, and built here under our inspection. The big brakes now have Thermoid lining. A new steering gear, 50% larger and stronger than the light car standard.

The Gray-Dort is as pleasing to the artist and to the driver as it is to the mechanic.

The smooth lines of the body are restful after so much of the extreme in present-day cars. The Gray-Dort finish, development of 60 years' coach-building, will win your instant, and lasting approval. Add the smartness of French-pleated upholstery, and a new top, tailored in our own shops.

The big gasoline tank is now in the rear—for good-looks and convenience. As in big cars, the emergency brake is on a lever, the side-curtains open with the doors. A shorter, smarter cowl gives more room in the driving compartment. The new hood, with its many long, narrow louvres has a touch of European smartness.

AND YET THE PRICE IS $1365,

(PLUS WAR TAX)

You know that such a car as the Gray-Dort will be in heavy demand at $1365. We have doubled our production this year. But there is likely to be a shortage. See the Gray-Dort dealer now.

PRICES

The Gray-Dort 5-passenger car, finished in Gray-Dort green and black and with standard equipment is $1365 f.o.b. Chatham. War tax extra.

THE GRAY-DORT SPECIAL

For the man who wishes something a little extra in his car, we have built the Gray-Dort Special. Maroon body, with brown rayntite top. Plate glass rear window. Gipsy curtains. Rookie tan wheels. Motometer. Tilting steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Mahogany instrument board. Just the touches which lift this car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

AND THE ACE!

The Gray-Dort Ace—the most beautiful light car of to-day. Sapper green body with handsome California top to match.

Trouble Lamp and bull's-eye flashlight. Electric cigar lighter. Rear-vision mirror. Plate glass windows. Overalls, grooved-tread tires. This is the de luxe car for the man who does not wish to pile up a tremendous operating cost. $255 extra on the standard.

OBITUARY

JAMES DILLON.

The death occured in St. Joseph's Hospital on Thursday evening of a highly respected resident of Burnley in the person of James Dillon. Death followed an attack of apoplexy.

Mr. Dillon, who remained a bachelor during the 65 years of his life, was known througout the district in his earlier days as a keen sportsman, taking a special interest in football. Even in his later years, although unable to take the active part that he formerly took in the games, he still retained a great deal of interest and gave them his hearty support.

His occupation in life was that of farmer and as such he was looked upon as a first-class agriculturalist. Being of an exceedingly pleasant disposition, he was extremely well liked by all who came in contact with him.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fanning, of Burnley; and three brothers, Frank, of Mount Pleasant, U. S.A.; Rev. Father Charles Dillon, of Saginaw, Mich.; and John Dillon, of Peterborough.

The body was taken on the two o'clock G.T.R. train yesterday afternoon to Hastings for his residence in Burnley and the funeral took place from there at nine o'clock this morning to the cemetery, Warkworth.

NIGHT COUGHS PREVENT SLEEP WEAR OUT THE SYSTEM

The dry, hacking cough, cough, day and night is very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition they get no chance to heal.

You will find in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup a remedy without an equal for curing coughs and colds, soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening and healing the breathing organs, and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. Fred. Fairburn, Copper Cliff, Ont., writes:—"I caught a heavy cold, got a sore throat and had a terrible hacking cough that I could not get rid of. I could not sleep at night. I had tried quite a few remedies, but they did not seem to do me much good until I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. By the time I had taken two bottles my cough was all gone.

"It seemed to loosen the cough right away so that I could spit up the phlegm that gathered in my throat, and also took that hot, raw, burning fever out of my bronchial tubes. I feel that Dr. Wood's has no equal."

GOOD HEALTH IS MAGNETIC

All Admire Strong, Robust, Healthy, Vigorous Men and Women

If You Are Weak, Run-Down and Ailing, Let Vinol Enrich Your Blood and Create Strength and Vitality for You

For the weak, run-down, anaemic, over-worked, ailing men and women there is little joy in life. It is easy to drift into this condition, overwork, a neglected cold, or a severe sickness may have left in its wake, poor, thin, devitalized blood, a sluggish circulation, no vitality and you are simply dragging around from day to day, getting up each morning just as tired as you want to bed.

Now, why not change all this by taking advantage of your druggist's guarantee that VINOL will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation and carry strength and vigor to every part of your body, or return your money if it fails. Mrs. W. J. Nixon, of Vankleek Hill, Ont., says: "I was sick for months. I had no appetite and could not seem to get my strength back. I told my doctor I was going to try VINOL, and he said it was fine. I found it gave me a good appetite and I rapidly gained in strength."

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is nothing like VINOL.

WANTS PUBLICITY FOR INCOME TAX

Senator Bennett Expresses Distrust of Returns for Toronto.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 24.—Two bills went through a committee stage of the Senate here. One seeks to unify the practise of provincial divorce courts; the other provides for the identification of persons trading in German goods. Some amendments were made to the Divorce Courts Bill. One of them exempts Quebec from the operation of the Act.

Senator Bennett of Simcoe, advocated publicity for income taxpayers Statements had been made that in Toronto an income of $100,000 or over was returned by thirteen persons. "To say," Senator Bennett proceeded, "that there are only thirteen men in Toronto with $1000,000 or more is nothing short of farce." Only sixty-one persons in Toronto had declared an income of over $20,000 a year. That was still more absurd. Finally, it was remarkable that in Toronto but 6,500 persons had declared an income of $1,500 or over. What was true of Toronto was likely to be true of other parts of the country.

A SIXTH OF POPULATION WILL MOVE 1st OF MAY

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL April 24.—With the approach of Montreal's great moving-day festival, May 1st, it is stated that real estate agents are swamped with applications to find house-room. The Montreal Light, Heat & Power Co. reports notifications of removal pouring in at the rate of 1,500 to 2,000 a day, and it is estimated that around 50,000 will be received by May 1st. This means that 25,000 families at least will be moving, since notice is sent in by the people moving out and those coming in, and at five persons to a family, would work out at one-sixth of the population of the city.

SCARCITY OF FLOUR ACUTE IN MADRID

Government Will Requisition All Mills in the Country.

MADRID, April 24.—Scarcity of flour is creating an acute situation, not merely in Madrid, but throughout Spain. The bakers of Madrid gave notice that it was impossible to continue baking profitably, owing to the high prices demanded for wheat flour. The Government thereupon decided to requisition all flour mills, work them and distribute the flour among the bakers in order to see whether the millers have been making undue profits.

Simultaneously with the shortage in flour the working bakers have given notice that they will strike within a few days in sympathy with the biscuit bakers and confectioners, who have been out for several days demanding higher wages.

Constipation or Costiveness

Constipation, although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver.

There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of diseases arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

Mr. A. Roder, Hastings St. E., Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"I desire to express my thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I had been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headaches. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few doses."

Get Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills when you ask for them or send 25c. and they will be sent by return of mail by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Professor Says: "Internal Baths Give Best Results."

Horace T. Dodge, M.D., Professor of Materia Medica, 25 Jacobson Bldg., Denver, writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

"I can truthfully say that I have had the very best results in my experience with the 'J.B.L. Cascade.' You certainly have struck the keynote of many diseases."

By means of the "J.B.L. Cascade" simple warm water cleanses the lower intestine the entire length, removes all the poisonous waste therein and keeps it clean and pure, as Nature demands it shall be for perfect health.

You will be astonished at your feelings the morning after taking an internal bath with the "J.B.L. Cascade." You will feel bright, brisk, confident, and as though everything is working right—and it is.

FIVE ESCAPES FROM THE COUNTY JAIL

(Special to Examiner)

ST. CATHARINES, April 26.—The probabilities are that Nelson Miracle and Clarence Brown, who got away from Lincoln County jail here Saturday are well away from the district by now. Charles A. Lawrence, a farmer, reported to the police yesterday that his horse and buggy had been stolen Saturday night. The horse and rig were later on found near Jordan and it is surmised that the two men jumped a passing freight either for across the line or towards Toronto.

It is probable an investigation be held, for since May last there have been five escapes from the county jail.

Pastors Opposed

RESOLUTION PASSED AT THIS MORNING'S SESSION OF MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Peterboro Ministerial Association held this morning in the Y.M.C.A., the folloing resolution was unanimously adopted:

1. That we feel it our duty to protest against the offense done to the people of Peterboro in the suggestions of the fence posters and handbills circulated in connection with a showing proposed for Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

2. That we would rather believe that such advertising is a plan to secure audiences than that this company will portray anything that will gratify such as might seek to see and hear the indecent.

3. That we express our confidence that the people of nobler sentiment in our city will not leave themselves liable to the interpretation either that they are attracted by the kind of entertainment which the advertisements would suggest or, that on the other hand, they are susceptible to appeals for an audience for something that may itself be very different to what this kind of advertising insinuates.

4. In any case that we make it clear that whatever the play may reveal, in our opinion violence has been done to this community by a kind of advertising that Peterboro people do not enjoy, and will not respond to.

WILL WRITE TO MR. THOMAS TOOMS

MAJORITY OF CITIZENS IN FAVOUR OF REFERENDUM.

Yesterday the ministers of the churches throughout the city joined in urging their respective members to write to Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.P.P. and ask him to bear in mind that a few months ago this city voted overwhelmingly in favour of prohibition and that the majority of the citizens are still in favour of such a measure. On Tuesday the Ontario Legislature will vote on the advisability of asking the Dominion government to submit to the electors a referendum which if endorsed will eliminate interprovincial traffic in liquor. It was intimated that Mr. Tooms was not in favour of such a move and church members were asked to communicate at once with the local member and remind him of the results of the last temperance vote in this riding.

THE ALLIED CONFERENCE PROGRESSES

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 26.—(By Camillo Cianfara.)—The Council of Premiers has decided to take up the matter of trade with Russia again, it was learned semi-officially, and will allow entrance of a Russian mission into Allied countries to discuss the matter.

The mandate over Palestine went to Great Britain, who, with France, will settle the borders of Syria and Palestine, especially as to whether the Upper Jordan River shall be included in Syria's borders.

Palestine, it was decided, will be made a "national home for the Jews."

The rights of the Arabs, however, will be recognised.

This subject will be freshly examined. Later the Council discussed the "carrying out of the Treaty of Peace with Germany."

Prime Minister Lloyd-George, in a statement to the French press tonight, said complete agreement had been reached on the questions rgarding Germany, which will be submitted to the Council to-day when a joint statement will be issued.

It was wrong to believe, the British leader said, that Great Britain ever excluded the idea of military force to execute the Versailles Treaty.

At the same time, however, he said, Germany should not be prevented from restoring internal order.

Lloyd-George never thought of modifying the Treaty by attrition, he said, adding that Franco-British unity was essential for the world.

OCCUPY TERRITORY.

(Canadian Press.)

SAN REMO, April 26.—The Supreme Council to-day adopted the Franco-British declaration with regard to Germany after inserting the clause declaring its readiness to take allied measures even to the occupation of additional German territory, if necessary, to assure the carrying out of the Versailles Treaty.

The adoption of this clause gave rise to some discussion, Premier Nittl, of Italy, opposing military measures.

The British, French, Belgian, and Japanese representatives pointed out the necessity of considering such an eventuality.

VISITORS OBSERVE NEW STREET CARS

BRANTFORD COMMISSION PREPARING TO MEET INCREASING COST OF OPERATION.

Brantford's municipal railway commission, composed of F. J. Calbeck, chairman, W. R. Turnbull and A. H. Foster, manager, were in the city today for the purpose of enquiring into the results of the operation of Peterobrough's "one-man" street cars. They were received by the local manager, Mr. W. G. Ferguson, who accompanied them in their investigation of the local system and especially of the new cars on the Charlotte street line.

Mr. Foster told the Examiner that Brantford's street railway fares are five cents and six tickets for a quarter. The city's system has from 11 to 13 cars, and there are two on the inter-urban line from Brantford to Paris. Last year's surplus wah $2,300, but the Commission is confronted with increasing costs which they hope to offset or to anticipate in part at least by reducing the expenses of operation if possible.

"The one-man car suggested one means to us," Mr. Foster said, "and we naturally came to Peterborough because this is one of the few cities in the country that have adopted this type of car. Our surplus last year was satisfactory. It has not declined, but the Commission is looking to the future, and decided to investigate the merits of the new cars. From what I have seen of the two used here they seem to be giving good service."

The Commission will visit other cities for further information, and evidently found their local visit profitable from their impressions of the operations of Peterborough's "one-man" type cars.

SUPREME COUNCIL IS TO MEET BOLSHEVIK

Delegation is headed by maximum Lietvinoff but Great Britain objects to receiving him on ground that he had taken advantage of diplomatic privelege and engaged in political propaganda while in England, on that occasion he issued an appeal to British Labor.

GAFFING BARRED, SAYS INSPECTOR

GAME FISH MUST BE PROTECTED, DECLARES MR. HAGGART.

Fishery Inspector James Haggart issues a warning to the public to-day that the gaffing of suckers at the Locks and elsewhere in the district must be stopped at once, or prosecutions will follow.

The game fish have started to come up the river now, and Mr. Haggart is determined to protect the 'lunge and bass, for the "gaffers" are not very particular as to what kind of fish they land. It is hoped that this warning will be sufficient.

INLAND REVENUE CASE IN COURT

The Inland Revenue Act, the Ontario Temperance Act, and the Motor Vehicles Act are the most used or abused statutes in the law these days.

This morning, before Magistrate Langley, in the County Police Court, it was the Inland Revenue Act.

Oliver Barr, of Cavendish Township, charged with having in his possession, on the 10th of April, a still worm and other apparatus suitable for the manufacture of spirits, with a licence, contrary to the Inland Revenue Act.

A second charge was laid against Barr and another resident of the same township, James Butts, for manufacturing spirits without a licence, contrary to Inland Revenue Act.

Oliver Barr is a resident of Kinmount, and deals in cattle. On Monday, the 19th, the Inland Revenue inspectors visited the ranch where he has the cattle, in the back of Kinmount, and found the necessary paraphernalia for making liquor. They took possession and transported the still, worm, barrel and half-barrel, as well as other apparatus, to Kinmount, where they left it in the care of Mrs. Simpson, the hotelkeeper.

The next day Revenue Officer William Buller and the Lindsay inspector went back to the ranch to move the remainder they were surprised to find someone else had moved it, and it could not be found anywhere.

On Wednesday morning another surprise awaited them in Kinmount, for the equipment left with the hotelkeeper had suffered the same fate as the stuff at the ranch.

Evidently Barr and Butt have lots of friends in that country, while the officers of the law seem to be the common enemy of all.

Search warrants were issued against the two northerners, and yesterday High County Constable Moore brought in Barr after an adventurous tussle with bad roads and weather in the north country. Butt was nowhere to be found, and has probably gone into hiding.

Mr. G. N. Gordon represented Barr on both charges. Crown Attorney Hatton requested an enlargement in the case for a week.

Bail was set on his suggestion at $2,000.00—made up of $1,000.00 cash bail and two sureties of $500.00 each.

Mr. G. N. Gordon consented to the remand till Monday, 3rd May, at 10.30.

The second charge was remanded till then also. In the meantime Constable Moore will endeavour to land Butt and have him at the next sitting.

Bail on this charge for Barr was set at the same figure as in the first charge.

The Crown Attorney pointed out the direct flaunting of the law by the Kinmounters, and said that steps should be taken to show them that there is such a thing in this country, but admitted it would be hard to get at them.

"If the Court had not imposed bail to such an extent, we might have been able to get them. We'll do our best anyway," said the counsel for the defence as a little repartee.

FUNERAL WAS HELD TO-DAY

The funeral of W. H. Moore took place from the family residence, "The Maples," 310 London street, this afternoon at two o'clock. In respect of the memory of Mr. Moore the Victory Loan flag suspended at half mast during this afternoon, and the office of the Utilities Commission closed.

Rev. Robert Pogue, of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. F. J. Sawers of Cobourg, conducted a most impressive and beautiful service at the house. The pallbearers were life-long friends as well as associates of the late of the deceased: Judge E. C. S. Huycke, Messrs. E. A. Peck, F. D. Kerr, F. H. D. Hall, Joseph Wearing and W. F. Johnston.

STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE ALLIES

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 26.—A joint French, British, Italian, Belgian statement to be ratified here this afternoon, rejects Germany's request that she be allowed to retain an army of 200,000 instead of 100,000 provided by the Treaty of Versailles.

The statement says it is necessary to fix the amount of reparations to be paid by Germany later, and that Germany must carry out the Peace Treaty, otherwise the Allies will be forced to use coercive measures.

Pertinax, writing in the Echo de Paris, says the Allies' financiers plan thirty yearly payments of three billion marks gold as a minimum, to be increased according to the state of Germany's economic restoration.

The congregation of Mark Street Methodist Church passed a unanimous resolution yesterday morning, respectfully urging Premier Drury and the Government to stand by the McCreary Bill now before the House, and thus respect the stand taken by the electors at the polls last year.

POLICE CLAIM TO HAVE CLUE

ENNISMORE FUR ROBBERY STILL A MYSTERY.

"There should be some developments soon," said High County Constable Moore when seen by The Examiner this morning on the fur robbery in Ennismore last week.

The furs were owned by Mr. S. Pulver, of Bobcaygeon, a fur buyer who has completed a buying trip around the northern trappers, arriving on Thursday night, the 15th, at the home of Mr. Thomas Flood in the northern part of Ennismore Township, about one mile this side of Pigeon Creek Bridge.

It seems that there are many trappers in this vicinity, so Mr. Pulver asked Mr. Flood if he and his son might stay there all night and put up their team. They were driving a democrat.

Mr. Flood made them welcome. The horses were made comfortable in the stable and the democrat was put in the barn. The furs loaded on the waggon made up four bags and many loose skins, were valued at considerably over $2,000.00. The exact number of the skins are not known.

That night Mr. Pulver bought six more rats from a Finlander trapping near therg and three from another trapper of the same race. These last furs were put in with the others about ten o'clock on Thursday night, and everything seemed all right then.

Flood kept two very cross collie dogs, and so no apprehension was felt over the valuable contents of the democrat.

At midnight there was nothing suspicious, and Mr. Pulver slept soundly. He got up at four o'clock, going to feed the horses, and discovered the loss of the skins—in all 100 rats, 11 mink, and 9 beaver—valued at over $2,000.00. One bag of musk rats was left, possibly because of the already heavy load the thieves would have.

Mr. Pulver ran frantically to the house, and notified the people. The police here were telephoned at once. Mr. Moore receiving the message at 6.50 on Friday morning, and going out as soon as possible.

The loss of the two dogs was made known, and later in the morning they were found at the home of Mr. Flood's son, over a mile away.

A complete investigation has been made by the officers, but the exact outcome will not be divulged.

Footsteps going towards the house were visible in the clay near the barn and a broken spoke in a buggy wheel leaning against the fence where someone had probably climbed over was discovered. The spoke had not been broken before.

A fresh buggy track on the road north of Flood's house was ascertainable, although no sound of wheels were heard by any occupants of the house.

A large wood is located near the barn, and Mr. Moore believes the furs may be hidden there.

MESSENGER BOYS HAVE NEW ALIBI

(United Press)

CHICAGO, April 26.—Messenger boys have a new alibi for slow deliveries, "the bus got stalled."

Seven messenger boys here use automobiles in delivering telegrams—and they own the cars themselves—it was learned today.

They are paid 85 cents an hour and time and a half for overtime James Dempsey, one of the automobile messenger boys said the seven boys bought their automobiles with money saved from their wages.

Dentist Suicides

TRAGEDY FOLLOWS DISCUSSION ON THE H. C. OF L.

(Canadian Press.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 26.—During a discussion regarding the high cost of living, Dr. Charles E. Nary, a dentist, seized a paring knife at his home here to-day, cut the throat of his wife, inflicted superficial wounds on his sister in law, and cut his own throat.

Nary died a few minutes later. Mrs. Nary, the physicians say, cannot survive.

The police reports were that Nary flew into a rage hen his wife pleaded for an increased household alloance.

BALL PLAYERS HAD WORK OUT

Baseball was the chief item of interest at Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon. Players in the various leagues were on hand and took part in the workout.

Scotty Galbraith, the nifty southpaw of 1918 Orientals, will do the slab work for Barrie's in the mercantile; while Chris. Bergoine, the sensation of last year's De Laval team, will do the receiving.

TAG DAY RECEIPTS LOWER THIS YEAR

Tag day receipts for the Ladies' Auxillary of the Great War Veterans' totalled approximately $480, considerably less than the collection of last year. The falling off is due principally to the fact that the collectors did not turn out as well as in former years. To Mrs. Bugg fell the honor of securing the largest collection, her box containing some $60. 6

MOTOR COLLISION.

A serious motor accident occurred at the corner of Charlotte and Aylmer streets at 6.05 Saturday evening, when a car driven by a Crescent street resident travelling south on Aylmer street, ran into the rear left side of a car driven by a Millbrook man, turning it completely over.

THE WORKER BEGINNING TO DOUBT

SUSPICIOUS OF COMMISSIONS BE CAUSE THEY ARE PRONE TO SHELVE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 26. — That the workers of Canada have become suspicious of commissions because they have been used in the past to shelve important questions, was the declaration of Tom Moore, the President of the Trades and Labor Congress, and Dominion Employees' Representative at the opening of the conference on labor laws here to-day. He served notice to the delegates that unless decisions of the conference were to be implemented by some form of legislation they might all go home and save their time.

He stated that little in the form of real constructive legislation had resulted from the report of the Industrial Relations Committee or meeting of the Industrial Conference here last September.

LARGE EXPORT DEMAND FOR PIANOS

In an interview with the Manager of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter Streets, Peterborough, Ont., we learn that there is a steady and greatly increased demand from Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa for the Pianos of this House. They have for long been a favourite in Great Britain, and it has been made worth while lately to meet the call from Paris, France, where an agency now exists.

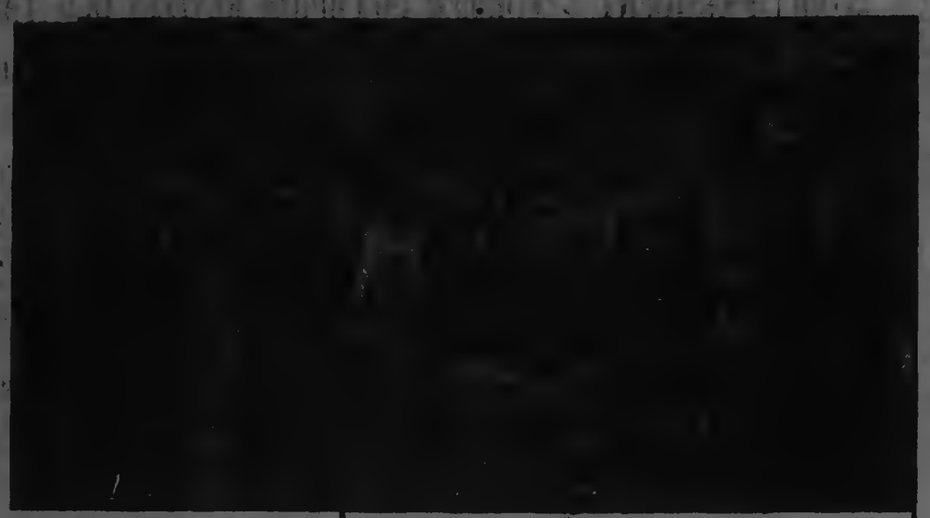
FINE NEW CITIZENS FOR CANADA



(1) Capt. MacDuff, of C. P. R. Colonization Department, meeting first party of emigrants (season 1920) at St. John. A fine type of prosperous settlers.
(2) British emigrants arriving on the C. P. O. S. Grampian for western farms.

The immigration buildings at any of the Dominion's ports of entry present a curious scene of hustle and bustle shortly after the arrival of one of the giant ocean liners, and a witness is not likely to soon forget the commotion created by the discharged emigrants. A vast mass of humanity surges through the galleries past the immigration officer and the various inspectors, and cure accepted for Canadian citizenship, men, women, and children of every kind, loaded down with baggage of every shape and form rush hither and thither making multitudinous inquiries of everyone generally unacquainted with the next steps to be taken to further proceed on their journey.

It is neither pleasant nor comfortable to land friendless in a strange land The hardened traveller feels this and more deeply those who set foot in a foreign land where customs, conditions, and possibly language differ from those to which the emigrant has been accustomed from childhood. Then the petty worries incidental to travelling are intensified by the total unfamiliarity on every hand, and each move is fraught with embarrassment. Yet each month thousands of potential Canadian citizens are arriving at the Dominion's shores from the British Isles, France, Belgium, Holland and Scandinavia — people who have broken up homes and life-long ties at the promise of the great new land. Into a whirl of unfamiliar sights and sounds, in a confusion of humanity and baggage, many unacquainted with the language they hear on every hand—thus, at the gateways of the Dominion, arrive the ancestors of the Canadians of to-morrow.

First impressions are often lingering; they are apt to have a considerable bearing on future outlook Realizing this and the expediency of rendering the utmost service to these Dominion builders-to-be, the Department of Colonization and Development of the Canadian Pacific Railway, interested among other progressive phases, in the human development of the country, has appointed a colonization agent—a foster parent to emigrants arriving on the company's boats. When a vessel steams into port he is there to go on board with the immigration officer—Capt. Andrew McDuff, veteran of two wars, versed in many languages, sympathetic, tactful, and schooled in the many sides of human nature. He is at the service of these new arrivals to assist with information and advice. He shepherds them from the boat to the waiting train, secures seating and sleeping accommodation, oversees the checking and loading of baggage, does everything humanly possible in fact to ensure a safe and entire arrival at the many points of destination even to accompanying the train on the first part of its journey.

It is a great work this fathering of the Dominion's citizen-to-be, not only temporarily accommodating, but imparting the lasting impression to these strangers that they are welcome and that Canada wants them. A cheerful send-off, free from annoying worries, means a great deal, and to this end the Colonization Agent has been appointed.

TO WIN SINNERS BAN "PRIEST FACE"

Drastic Church Changes Needed if Progress is to Be Made.

LONDON.—Religion can be made more attractive for the man in the street if his parson does not have a long face. That is the purport of an argument by Rev. Lionel Blackburne, rural Dean of Portsmouth. He says the future of the Church cannot be contemplated with equanimity unless some drastic changes are made. These changes include the abolition of the "priest face." Such a face, he asserts, is acquired by a life spent apart from mankind.

But the rural Dean also has another suggestion to help solve the problem of underfed and underpaid clergy. He thinks that ex-policemen living on pensions might profitably be induced to take up preaching. He thinks that in the future there are to be fewer "full-time" parsons, and to insure that a living could be gained ex-policemen should be induced to do the work.

From the clergy are coming these days many "Bolshevikian" ideas about necessary church reforms. These include suggestions that preachers should adopt a more colorful style of dress. In other words, it is useless to make a church attractive unless the parson himself substitutes a smile for an habitual scowl and wears a loud necktie once in a while.

CANADIANS WIN FROM YANKS BY A 2 TO 0 SCORE; ARE IN OLYMPIC FINAL

ANTWERP, April 25.—The Falcons of Winnipeg carried the Maple Leaf to victory for the second time in the Olympic hockey series by eliminating the United States seven in the semi-finals to-day by a score of 2 to 0. They will meet Sweden in the final to-morrow, and by their exceptional brilliant Czecho-Slovakia and the United States are strong favorites for the world honors.

To-day's contest with the Americans— three of whom are Canadian born—presented the most exciting battle of the series. Both teams were on their mettle, and at half-time neither had succeeded in tallying.

The Icelanders' star forward, Frederickson, penetrated the American defense to minutes after the resumption of play with one of his famous corkscrew rushes and shot past Bonney for the first counter of the game. This was the signal for a tremendous ovation from the crowd of British Tommies and supporters who had attended the game to root the Canadian representatives to victory.

Johanneson Seals it.

Five minutes after Frederickson's oneman feat, Johanneson took the puck and tallied the second goal for Westerners. From then on the Americans made several futile efforts to break the stonewall defense of Benson and Johanneson, who proved infallible. Wally Byron gave a wonderful exhibition of goal-tending, and was responsible for turning off many likely looking shots. Both the Canadian goals were the outcome of scrimmages and after hard fighting.

Czecho-Slovakia Blanked.

By score of 15 goals to 0 the Falcons easily disposed of the Czecho-Slovakia aggregation of puck chasers on Saturday, and won the right to compete in the semi-finals.

The game witnessed the first appearance of the speedy Canadians in an actual contest, and their brilliant skating and exceptional stick handling was a revelation to the crowd of enthusiastic railbirds who saw the game. The team work of the Canadian players against the stubborn but futile defense of their opponents excelled and evoked many rounds of applause from the spectators

The game this afternoon is the semi-finals between Sweden and France was evenly matched and hard fought. The Swedes won by four goals to nil.

On Saturday afternoon the Americans defeated Switzerland by 29 to 0. while in the opening game on Friday night Sweden beat Belgium by 8 to 0.

LACROSSE TEAM LOOKED GOOD IN FIRST WORK OUT

The lacrosse fans had a corner of the Exhibition Park all to themselves on Saturday afternoon, and the array of promising material that was revealed in the first workout of the season made them forget the football matches and the chilling wind that swept across the thirty acres. President Bert Todd, Johnny Sutherland, George Giroux and other enthusiasts who have been boosting a local team this spring, were just as satisfied, and perhaps more so, than J. Parkins of the C.G.E. and Alex. Dick of the Caledonians over their first victories in the Football League.

The season is almost immemorial that produced as many experienced stick-handlers as that dozen or more who felt out unused muscles and skill on the little patch between the two central buildings on Saturday. If this display of material is a sample of the local team, the lovers of the old game are assured of a real revival once the players get into condition. The new nets and sticks had not arrived, but they will be here this week, and the team will be all set for regular practices.

Ed Dillon is probably through with the game, but he and Todd both took a hand in the first canter. Harry Donovan was also out and was as keen as ever.

The new men make a most encouraging impression. Jack Creighton, of the De Laval, showed all the marks of the veteran, as did Fred Goodfellow, formerly of Maitlands, of Toronto. Harry Tudhope, with the Bank of Nova Scotia, Lawson, Dunford, Duggan, Scriver ,all know the game and evidently intend to make the team. Earl King, a Norwood youngster, is a likely lad. Eddie Foley, of last winter's junior hockey team, is another. They picked up two sides and generally provided a really encouraging session for the group of eager spectators.

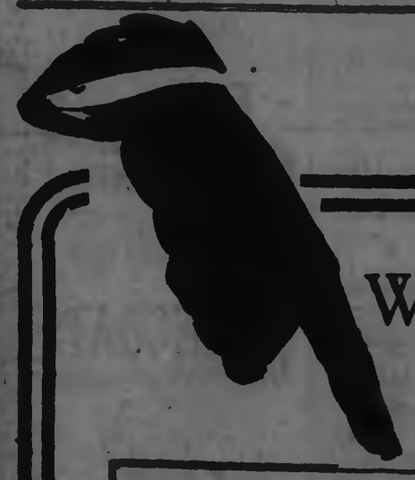
Peterborough will probably be grouped with Oshawa and Toronto Marlboroughs, when the O.A.L.A. executive meet this week.

Two sons of George Mein, youngsters of about twelve or thirteen, were mixing it up in Saturday's practice, handled the sticks well, and with a few more years' growth will be showing their Dad how he used to do it: Where they picked up the game is a mystery. Probably their aptitude is an inheritance. They are chips off the old "shock."

"We could have used another dozen sticks if we'd had them," Johnny Sutherland mourned as some of the prospects went unprovided. At that the orders have not arrived, and tthe players were using whatever old sticks they had.

"Sorry I didn't bring mine down," said George Giroux. "It's been hanging in the attic for thirty years."

The first game will probably be on May 24th when a holiday of sports will likey be held at the Exhibition Park.



WHEN JOBS GO BEGGING---

PROBABLY YOU THINK right now that the pay you are receiving is not in proportion to the work you are doing—in other words you believe you are poorly paid. And, perhaps you are right.

BUT what is it that governs the amount of your wage? Is it not the law of supply and demand—the same law that governs the cost of merchandise?

THE TROUBLE is—there are more men than jobs—a fact which causes so much trouble at the present time.

A CITY IS PROSPEROUS to the fullest extent when there are more jobs than men to take them. Get busy, therefore, and help bring about this ideal condition. Whenever you go into a store ask for the Peterboro City Brand of the Article you want. Insist that your wife and all your family do the same. Thus you will be laying stones in the foundation of a greater Peterboro City—a Peterboro City having enormous factories which will employ thousands of people and cause millions of dollars to be distributed right here at home.

BEGIN NOW!

DON'T JUST THINK ABOUT IT!

MIDGETS TOOK SEVERAL GAMES

On Saturday night at the Water street Alleys Fitzgerald's Midgets took Ruiter's Giants, into camp and trimmed them up good.

Now the Midgets are looking forward to that Oyster stew. This goes for Cap. French and his separator gang too, they are giving a hearty invitation to the Giants expense.

For the Midgets — McGee had high 3 games with 621. W. Fitzgerald had 582, McClennand had 563 and all the rest had over 500.

For the Giants, Ruiter had high with 414, his anchor (McDonald) had his usual 409, Hagerman and Downing nearly got a dummy score, Carter was an also ran.

Taken all round it was a great game, but, up and down it was punk.

It was great to hear the excuses. Ruiter had had a horse step on his foot, Carter had to walk 25 miles for his Sunday paper, McDonald was renewing acquaintance with Mother Earth, via the roped route, and nearly broke his back (and his spirit), Downing and Hagerman went to bed, woke up and thought they heard the church bells ring.

WARD PATTERSON IS VICE-PRESIDENT

PETERBORO MAN HONOURED BY ONTARIO BASEBALL AMATEUR ASSOCIATION.

TORONTO, April 26.—On Saturday afternoon the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association at its annual meeting decided to permit commercial clubs to operate teams. It was felt that to oust them would work a hardship on many outside towns or city clubs who have gone to the trouble and expense of preparing for the coming season.

The Whitby Town League and the Trent Valley League were admitted to leadership. The Haldimand County League is also desirous of affiliating with the Ontario Association.

The residence rule remains unchanged. As a result the T. A. B. A. and the O. B. A. A. will have the same date, 1st January. The former at their annual meeting agreed to conform to any date set by the O. B. A. A.

An amendment by the Hamilton delegates for the creation of a Third Vice-Presidency was defeated.

Another amendment by Hamilton was also defeated when they proposed that not more than one member should be elected to the sub-committee from any association, league, city or town.

The Hamilton Association, who sponsored the amendment taking the power to vote away from the Secretary-Treasurer, was withdrawn at the meeting by them.

It was decided to allow teams fifteen cents a mile for fifteen men and seven and one-half cents for the second trip in case of postponement. In future the annual meeting will be held on the last Saturday in March.

The Officers.

Hon. president, Jas. Norris; past president, W. J. Smith; president, Frank Robbins, Hamilton; first vice-president, Ward Patterson, Peterborough; second vice-president, M. Dulmage, Guelph (acclamation); George Walker, Hamilton (arclamation). Auditors left over to excutive. The president to appoint an assistant to the secretary.

ASTON VILLA WON THE ENGLISH CUP

ONLY GOAL SCORED IN OVERTIME GAME WAS HEADED BY HUDDERSFIELD HALF BACK.

LONDON, April 25. — The waning of the soccer season was marked by the dramatic victory of Aston Villa over Huddersfield Town in the final cup tie. The match went the full 90 minutes without a score and an extra half hour was played. Seven minutes of this period had expired when from a corner kick, Kilson, Huddersfield's half back, headed a ball which glanced through his own goal. For the remaining time, Huddersfield, although an obviously tired side, strove desperately to remedy this misfortune, and at the very end of the contest were attacking hotly around the Aston goal, but without success.

Aston Villa's victory sets up a record in cup competitions, they having won the trophy six times. They have been finalists on eight occasions, their nearest attendants in the number of triumphs are the old amateur club, the Wanderers, and the Blackburn Rovers, who each won five times and each had three successive victories. Aston Villa's feat is the more remarkable because their early career this season was unaccountably poor, and pointed rather to difficulty in keeping in the first division of the league than to their reaching the highest pinnacle of soccer fame.

Though vanquished in this exacting struggle, Huddersfield Town deserves almost equal credit, for although the victory went to the side which played the more scientific soccer, the losers were unluckily beaten and were always at a disadvantage as a comparatively unknown organization meeting a team of the greatest prestige in the game and experienced cup-tie fighters. It was the first time that Huddersfield had been finalists, but they have had a wonderfully successful year, one of the chief results of which is their winning promotion to the first division of the league.

Only 50,018 people were present but the receipts were a record amounting to £9,722, the previous best having been £4,906 in 1913. The increase is accounted for by the much higher admission charges, which, with the lack of railway excursion facilities, also account for the smaller number of spectators.

FIRST BASEBALL TEAM ORGANIZED IN 1845

EVEN IN OLD DAYS 1 TO 0 SCORES NOT UNCOMMON.

NEW YORK.—Whether the national game of the United States was or was not developed from "rounders" may remain a disputed question. Certain it is that when it was first regularly organized baseball was a far different game from what it is today.

It was on September 23, 1845, that the first baseball club in the United States, and therefore, of course, in the world, was organized. It was located in New York, and the organizers of it were Alexander J. Cartwright, chairman; Duncan F. Curry, E. R. Dupuignac, jr., W. H. Tucker and W. R. Wheaton. It was called the Knickerbocker Baseball Club of New York. Another club called the New York Nine was organized shortly afterward, and the next season, the summer of 1846, these two clubs played the first game of baseball ever played between two regular organizations. The game was played at the Elysian Fields, Hoboken N. J., then perhaps the chief pleasure resort of New Yorkers.

In these days, when the excellence of games is supposed to be measured by the paucity or runs scored, a 1 when winning scores of 1 to 0 are not unknown and are highly esteemed, it is interesting to recall that in those early days a very different rule prevailed. Instead of the game being won by the team which scored the most runs in nine innings, it was won by the team which first scored twentyone runs.

It was necessary to make twenty-one runs to win a game. Sometimes that number was scored in three or four innings; sometimes indeed, in a single inning, and in consequence the game was then ended. On the other hand, a game was sometimes prolonged for four or five hours, through thirty or forty innings, before the requisite number of runs was scored. It was because of this uncertainty as to the length of the game that the rules were after some years radically altered. Because there were nine players on each side nine was the number of innings determined upon to constitute a game.

With that regulation in the early years enormous scores were not uncommon, teams sometimes rolling up twenty-five or thirty runs, or even more, in nine innings. Those were the days before scientific pitching, with its puzzling curves, was invented, and the batters were able to "swat the ball all over the lot."

It may be added to complete the record that the first game between organized clubs, at Hoboken, in 1846, was won by the Knickerbockers over the New York Nine by the score of 21 to 1.

JACK JOHNSON IS KNOCKING DEMPSEY FORMER CHAMPION REVIVES OLD YARN

FORMER TITLE HOLDER CAN SAY NOTHING GOOD ABOUT ANY OF PRESENT DAY FIGHTERS—CLAIMS CARPENTIER A JOKE—HE IS UNPOPULAR IN CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK.—Jack Johnson, who is suffering from nostalgia to such an extent that he intends to return to the United States, even though it may cost him a year in jail, has been talking again. Johnson's wandering in foreign lands for the last six years seems to have soured his nature and warped his judgment. He is busy knocking everyone and everything connected with the boxing game.

Recently he revived the yarn that he had thrown the bout to Willard at Havana. He is quoted as saying that Willard was such a good-natured, easy-going boob that he gave him no chance to fall until the twenty-third round. Johnston said that the ring canvas was so hot that he could hardly lay down long enough to be counted out, as his back was burning.

In discussing Georges Carpentier, Johnston said that the Frenchman was a joke. He would not even admit that Georges was a clever boxer.

Jack Dempsey is treated with no more consideration. "He's just an over-rated novice," is the way Johnson sizes him up.

John's too free use of his tongue has earned him the resentment of fistic fans along the California border. The black was signed for three bouts at Mexicali by a syndicate of sporting men. Recently the first of the proposed three bouts was held and Johnson fell flat as a drawing card. It was a six-round affair in which Johnson won a decision over Pete Jackson. Johnson had become so unpopular because of his gab that Harry Woodbury refused to referee.

The slim attendance was a severe disappointment to Johnson, who is desperately in need of money to fight his case in Chicago. He had figured on getting Fred Fulton to meet him, and he expected to make plenty of money out of that one, but Fulton said no.

Johnson can box even yet. He has done a great deal of hard work of late and much of the fat that he carried into the ring at Havana has been removed. Jack has kept in condition by wrestling bulls, tugging against a team of horses and other strong-man stunts. All this has hardened his flesh, but probably has not added anything to his speed.

AMENDED BASEBALL RULES

CHICAGO.—Nineteen rules were amended and one added by the Major League Rules Committee which met here.

The additional rule deals with the intentional pass, declaring it illegal for the catcher to step from his box to aid the pitcher in pitching wide to the batsman. This rule, as amended and adopted by the Rules Committe, says:

"It shall be illegal for the catcher to leave his natural position immediately and directly back of the plate for the purpose of aiding the pitcher in intentionally giving a base on balls to the batsman. If the catcher shall move out of position prior to the time the ball leaves the pitcher's hand, all runners who may be on bases shall be entitled to advance one base.

Homer is Homer.

The rule governing the home run says that when a player knocks the ball into the stands of the crowd on fair ground he shall be given credit for a home run if he completes the circuit and all runners shall score ahead of him.

Balk Rule.

The amendment dealing with the "balk" reads:

"Any motion of a pitcher to pitch while standing in his position without having the ball in his possession or regardless of whether he makes any motion to pitch or not, if the pitcher takes a legal position on the rubber without a ball in his possession, or if he takes a pitching position off the rubber and feints to deliver the ball to the batter, it shall be called a 'balk.'"

Several additions are also added to this rule, one of which says that the ball shall be declared a "dead" ball and no play can be made until the runner or runners reach the base or bases they are entitled to.

Dead Ball.

In dealing with the "dead" ball the code was amended to read:

"(1) A dead ball is a ball delivered to the bat by the pitcher, not struck at by the batsman, that touches any part of the batsman's person or clothing while he is standing in his position, or (2) a wildly pitched ball, which the batsman plainly makes an attempt to dodge to avoid being hit, but which ball accidently hits his bat."

Freak Pitching.

The rule on the freak deliveries, as finally agreed upon follows:

"At no time during the progress of the game shall the pitcher be allowed to (1) apply a foreign substance of any kind to the ball; (2) expectorate either on the ball or his glove; (3) to rub the ball on his glove, person or clothing; or (4) to deface the ball in any manner or to deliver what is called the 'shine' ball, 'spit' ball, 'mud' ball or 'emery' ball. For a violation of any provision of this rule the pitcher shall be ordered from the game and be barred from participation in any championship contest for a period of ten days."

In adopting this rule it was agreed that all bona fide spit ball pitchers listed by the club owners and presented to the heads of the two major leagues prior to the starting of the season should have only the season of 1920 to use the so-called delivery, after which it will not be permitted in the leagues.

MONDAY, APRIL 26TH, 1920.

THE OTTAWA SITUATION.

The present session of the Dominion Parliament is notable for the extraordinary amount of talking that has been, and is being done, and for the dearth of effective action that has characterized the proceedings. With the Union Administration it seems to be merely a case of marking time until the wandering Premier returns from his golfing in the Sunny South. What will happen when he does come back, no one is rash enough to attempt to prophesy but the Government seems determined that nothing will happen before that time. No wonder the people are dissatisfied and disgruntled, and no wonder that in every by-election where a chance is given to express public opinion, the verdict is decisively and emphatically against the government. The present situation is intolerable and is made more so by the openly declared intention of the Unionist Administration to hang on to office until 1921 at least. There are very few members of the government who do not realise that the chances of being returned at a general election, are of the slightest, and the realization of this fact serves to increase the determination to postpone as long as possible an appeal to the country.

A RADICAL CHANGE.

Radical indeed is the taxation bill that has been introduced into the Legislature by Premier Drury and that was given its first reading on Friday. It practically provides for local option in taxation in the province, for the municipalities can go as far as they like in exempting incomes and improvements, provided the ratepapers approve the step. Reductions, however, are to be made only on a graded scale. The bill provides that if ten per cent of those who voted at the previous municipal election petition for a vote on the question, the Council have no other option but to submit a bylaw to the ratepapers, and if it is approved, the measure must be put into effect. In the first year a reduction of not more than twenty-five per cent. is allowed, with a similar amount each year afterwards until the whole of the assessed value on improvements, incomes and business, had been exempted, and the burden of municipal taxation has been placed upon the land. Provision is also made for a similar operation of the system in a reverse direction. That is, if ten per cent of the ratepapers petition for a return to the present system, a bylaw must be submitted and, if carried, then the assessment on incomes, improvements, etc., will be restored, in yearly stages of not more than twenty-five per cent.

THE PATERNAL FARMERS.

The Drury Government evidently believes that the janitor vote is not large enough to be counted judging by the bill that has been introduced, requiring the owners of apartment houses to maintain a heat standard of at least 68 degrees during the cold weather. Many flat dwellers will receive the news with glad acclaim but the gentlemen who preside over the operations of the heating systems in such buildings will be apt to regard the legislation as an unwarranted infringement upon their jurisdiction. Many of them will have to change their ways, if the penalty for violating the regulations is to be made severe, for in some apartment houses the janitor considers he is doing his whole duty if he keeps on enough fire to prevent the milk from freezing. The bill has not yet been passed, and its fate will be watched with a good deal of interest by many people whose homes are at the mercy of an apartment house heating system. Incidentally, the author of the Bill might have proved himself an even greater benefactor of suffering humanity if he had added one clause providing a penalty for the misguided stoker who reserves his best heat-producing efforts for the warm days. In other words if there is to be punishment for the offence of allowing the temperature to drop below 68 degrees, there ought to be a special penalty for permitting the mercury to climb to 90, which is a pleasant little pastime of some apartment house janitors. The onus is thrown on the owners, it will be noticed, but the man with the coal shovel will be the individual chiefly affected, if the heating bill becomes law.

WELL DONE, FALCONS!

For the second time in her history Canada has been victorious in Belgium. The Falcons hockey team, champions of the Dominion, and wearing the Maple Leaf of Canada in the Olympic hockey tournament at Antwerp, is destined to repeat the triumph of the Canadian Army, for yesterday in their greatest test against the representatives of the United States, these Western Canadians of Icelandic descent scored a brilliant victory, and there is every confidence that having disposed of their formidable rivals from this continent they will have little difficulty to-night, in the final game, in triumphing over the European finalists, and winning for Canada the Olympic Hockey Championship.

The victory of the Falcons will be joyfully received in all parts of the Dominion, for it would have been a blow to the national pride had the American team been victorious — a blow that would not have been appreciably softened by the fact that the stars of the United States team are Canadian by birth.

The Falcons have been worthy representatives of Canada, the more so because the majority of them wore the maple leaf on khaki uniforms instead of hockey sweaters during the War.

"ALLIANCES" OR THE LEAGUE?

John Kendrick Bangs, the American humorist, has been interviewed on the subject of the League of Nations of which he apparently has nothing good to say. His business being the making and retailing of jokes, it is not surprising that he sees in the League much good raw material. Mr. Bangs' alternative to the League is the maintenance of the alliances "which have made the world safe," and his main reason for mistrusting the League plan is a fear of combinations among the lesser signatories against the greater.

It would be interesting if Mr. Bangs would tell us what particular alliances it was that "made the world safe" in the past. Most people who kept their eyes and ears even reasonably wide open from 1914 to 1918 must have concluded that the world was about as unsafe as it could possibly be and also that the alliances in existence previous to August of 1914 had precious little to do with keeping the peace. Indeed it must have struck most of us that had Germany not been quite sure of Austrian, Turkish, assistance and, as she thought, reasonably sure of Italy and Bulgaria, there never would have been a war at all. Similarly it was no "alliance" between any continental power and either Great Britain or the United States that brought these countries into action against the Central Powers, but a conviction that Germany must not be allowed to over-run Europe and dictate her peace terms to the world.

So far as fear of combinations of the smaller members of the League against the greater members is concerned, what is there to prevent similar combinations whether or not the League is formed at all? The "excitable Latin groups, the Russians, the Germans and the yellow races"— to quote Mr. Bangs—are perfectly free to combine against the two great democracies of Great Britain and the United States and the smaller democracy of France, League or no League. The only difference is that, being signatories to the League, equal members of a great agreement, a part of which is a provision for the arbitration of disputes and the settlement of conflicting interests, there would be less fear of these cabals and combinations than there has been in the past.

Of course the League of Nations plan is full of holes and imperfections. Any group of serious thinkers might and probably could have evolved a better plan. But the men who were responsible for the covenant were not academic debaters of an abstract questions. They were the responsible heads of great nations, with infinitely varied interests, prejudices and responsibilities. The League plan was essentially and inevitably a compromise with the defects inherent in all compromises. It is far from perfect, but it is at least an attempt at something better than the old system which broke down so horribly six years ago this summer. If it is finally adopted by the great powers which alone can make it effective it will be the first concerted attempt of the nations to realize the hope that has moved humanity for a thousand years. If it is defeated we can always go back to the "alliances" with the hope that they will prove more efficacious than in the past.—Montreal Star.

THE DREAD PYORRHEA BEGINS WITH BLEEDING GUMS

Pyorrhea's infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this.

Diseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known often to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection.

Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection.

And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisonous generated at their base.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

DEPUTY FIRE MARSHAL COWAN INVESTIGATES OTONABEE FIRE

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION, ORIGINATING IN ICE HOUSE, RESPONSIBLE FOR $30,000 FIRE ON FARM OF MR. HUGH FIFE.

Inquiry by Deputy Fire Marshal Cowan, of Toronto, into the cause, origin and circumstances of the Hugh and G. H. Fife fire of 30th March at Lot 26, Con. 4, Otonabee Township, has closed with the following findings:

Fire occurred at about 2.30 p.m., and had its origin in the north-west corner of the barn. The fire, when seen by Mrs. Carter, Mrs. H. Fife, and Henry Hollis was confined to the north post of the north-west doorway and to the timber work of the gangway drive that stood between the ice-house and the stone wall of the barn, and against a doorway leading into basement of the building.

Smoke or steam of the fire was noticed first by Mrs. Carter as she walked past the Fife woods on her way to get some milk at the Fife farm. Henry Hollis was in the barn at the time putting down feed, and did not hear the call of fire at first, but came later on as Mrs. Fife was getting the horses out.

Was in the Barn.

Hollis, upon hearing his name called, came out of the north-west driveway door when he first saw the fire under his feet, and in the door post and north-west corner wall of the barn above the stone wall. No smoke, as the fire was inside in the upper part of the farm when Hollis came out.

Hollis and Mrs. Fife had gone out to the barn after one o'clock to feed the stock for noon, Mrs. Fife returning to the house at 1.45, leaving Hollis to finish.

Hollis had cleaned out a hog pen, and had gone up into the mow at the south end of the barn to put down feed when he heard his name called.

All the cattle and horses were saved, except five heifers and two calves, which were lost.

Six ewes, 7 lambs, 14 heavy hogs, 4 sucking pigs, and 50 hens also perished in the fire.

Twelve horses, 27 head of cattle, 4 hogs, and 4 sucking pigs were saved.

Of farm produce 32 tons of hay, 3 tons straw, 500 bushels of grain, and 6 tons of ground feed were lost.

Of implements and harness, nearly everything was lost.

The building burned was 48 by 112 by 18 feet on high stone wall, with sheet-iron roof.

This barn was built in 1911 at a cost of over $4,000.00, and was possibly the largest and best equipped barn in Peterborough County in every way.

This barn as it stood would be worth close on $10,000.00, and carried only $2,500.00 insurance.

Total Net Loss.

Value of contents destroyed, over $5,000.00. Insurance carried, only $1,500.00.

Total net loss by this fire, about $10,000.00.

Henry Hollis had come to Mrs. Fife's about a month ago from England.

Owing to the fact that this boy smokes, and was in the barn when the fire occurred, it was thought he had caused the fire accidentally.

Denied Smoking.

When questioned closely concerning the fire, Hollis stoutly maintained he was innocent of the cause in every way, and that he had not lit a match or smoked in the barn or around the barn since coming there.

That he did not know the barn was on fire till he came outside of the doorway.

Some 80 blocks of ice had been packed under the gangway and against the west side of the barn some two weeks or more before the fire, making a pile four feet high.

This had been closed in and covered with a heavy wall of sawdust, some of which was frozen when placed around the ice.

The afternoon sun would fall for a time on the north side of this.

The conclusion arrived at is that the excessive heat of March, from the 20th to 28th or later, caused combustion fire in the damp or moist sawdust to generate, which later on, when conditions were right, burst into flame.

Ice houses are among the poorest risks that insurance companies take, and combustion fires are common in ice houses.

Old produce of any kind will heat, if conditions are right.

New produce will heat more readily as a greater amount of gas is escaping.

Mr. Fife, a most careful man, had never dreamed of combustion figuring in this fire, as there was absolutely no room for it in the produce inside his barn.

Ten days will generate combustion fire to the ignition stage.

The body of the said fire can be large or small.

Spaces ten feet square and one foot square have been found in hay mows where combustion fires had gone out, leaving the burned out vacant space or pit in the mow.

Gases Escape.

A sudden change from damp, cold, chilly atmosphere to sudden and intense heat will produce the conditions that start combustion fires.

Combustion fire is caused by the confining of escaping gases that leave produce in fermentation.

Many people don't or won't believe in spontaneous combustion till they see it in action.

The same inherent generic life principle that carries produce into the heating stage can and does carry it on to the ignition stage when conditions of the material and the temperatures inside and outside are right, and these meet in right proportion. The inside perforating and meeting with the outside temperature.

Once the inner combination fire is set on foot, by a right outside temperature, it can live for months, if such temperature, it can carry on of itself and live for months, independent of even a winter temperature outside.

A Warning.

Don't place ice houses under bank barns or in close proximity to buildings where stock and produce are kept.

Mr. Fife had contemplated building an ice house away from his barn, but had not succeeded in putting it into execution.

He had entertained no thought whatever of a combustion fire from an ice house, as most people think this is the last place it would occur in.

FASHIONABLE FINERY SOARS HIGH IN PRICE

CAREFUL WOMAN MAY OUTFIT ON $203.25, BUT CAN'T BUY $35 BLOUSES.

It means nothing to compare the present day cost of clothing with pre-war prices of wearing apparel. Those who are in the position to speak authoritively on this subject declare that materials of all sorts have decreased in quality and increased in price to such an extent, while manufacturing conditions have so changed that comparisons are mere words. The concensus of opinion on this point is that women have become accustomed to the prevailing prices, which the merchant himself frankly admits to be exorbitant, as they have to other changes attendant upon post-war adjustment.

From information gathered in the various departmental stores, both from those which cater to exclusive custom and those which carry more varied lines, it would appear that money was never more plentiful, that sales were never better, and that women were never more determined to have the best.

"Women buyers can be divided into two classes," was one explanation, "the women who gets what she wants and those who get what they can with the money available. The first class will not buy low-priced articles as a rule. If you offer them a suit or a dress at $65, even though it were an exceptional bargain, they would prefer one at $125. They have become educated to the higher prices. A garment for which they would have been well content to pay $35 before the war they won't look at now unless it is marked at least $125."

The Eternal Question.

The woman who must manage to make a smart appearance on a salary which, while it may be good, has not increased in proportion to the cost of living, the one who faces a problem, and she is watched with genuine interest by the departmental heads.

"The business women who dresses carefully on a limited salary has learned to know quality and good lines, and she will often pay more than she can really afford for a suit or a hat because she realizes that it will keep its appearance longer and therefore be economy in the long run." Thus explained a woman connected with one of the big departmental stores who has made a specialty in knowing what the woman of average means wants.

"Women who earn their own living and wives of small salaried men watch the bargain sales and adjust their wardrobes so they can buy late in the season. By so doing they get the better grade article at a great saving." Stated this same authority who had figures always at command to prove her points.

"After you have your suit from $45 up, a blouse from $6.95, a hat at $10, although there are sailors to be had as low as $3.50, gloves and stockings which mean from $1.35 to $3.50 and upwards, shoes from $8.25 to $20 and underwear at $3.50 a garment for many women, who find silk and crepe de chine economical because it both wears and launders well, there are still the accessories which are dear to every woman's heart and which cost so much. Veils are much worn and run from 75 cents a yard to $12 made. Beads and handbags are almost necessary." The eternal feminine spoke, not the business woman.

"Prices do not affect sales, but women buy fewer garments," affirmed the advertising department of another large shop. This store quotes suits varying from $50 to $275, blouses from $3.50 to $95, hats from $10 to $65, and underwear and accessories in acordance.

A masculine hand took pencil and pad and wrote down figures to show that the average buyer can go even to the distinctly exclusive shop and make her purchases. He set down two pairs of stockings first and opposite them wrote $7. Next followed gloves, two pairs, one fabric at $1.25 and one of kid at $3.50. For underwear he alloted $20 and for corsets $6, then explaining that $10 was the cheapest underskirt he would recommend. The suit he marked $75, two blouses $7.50, and a fancy blouse $18 to wear with a dress skirt at $20. A hat and boots were respectively $20 and $15. That completed the list which totalled $203.25. The woman he had clothed was well and comfortably attired.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

A BOMB

CHAPTER CVI.

"Did you call Miss Grandon?" I said to Hetty. It was the last night of Rose's stay and we were dining alone. We had been very gay, and had something on nearly every evening. My dinner for her had been a great success, and Everett had complimented me because of it.

I had given two afternoons, and Everett had taken us to the theatre three or four times. Alice Sloane also had entertained for Rose, and Irma Barton had given an afternoon bridge. I felt that the report Rose would take back home with her would be very different from the one she took after her first visit.

Yes, Mrs. Graham. I rapped and announced dinner."

"Perhaps she was lying down and didn't hear you. Go up again.'

"Miss Grandon is not in her room," Hetty declared a moment later.

"She must be!" I returned, "I should have known if she were out." Then all suddenly Walter Kemp came into my mind. Had she stolen out to be with him? "If you'll excuse me a moment, I will run up," I said to Everett. And without waiting for an answer I almost flew upstairs.

I had been talking to Rose about half an hour before. We had separated to dress for dinner. She was not in her room, neither was there anything to show where she had gone. After a moment I went slowly back downstairs, dreading Everett's questions.

"She's not there. I can't imagine where she has gone.

"We'll have dinner. She'll probably turn up in a few moments."

But although we tarried over each course, we finished dinner and still she had not come.

"You don't suppose anything has happened to her?" I asked Everett, loath to believe she would go to meet Walter Kemp at night when she knew her absence would be known to Everett. "She might have slipped out to post a letter or something."

"No, she has met someone and been detained. Don't worry about her. It is only eight o'clock, and scarcely dark. She wouldn't be at Alice Sloane's, would she?"

"No—I don't think so—we made our party call yesterday. I'll call up however and ask, if you think best."

"The boy said there was no answer."

"Probably from Miss Grandon," Everett said. "Why don't you open it Sandra?"

My hands trembled as I did his bidding.

"Walter Kemp and I were married an hour ago. We leave on midnight train for Chicago. Will wire address so you can send my trunk. Love. Rose."

Without a word I gave the note to Everett.

"Walter Kemp! Where did she get acquainted with him? Have you disobeyed me and entertained him while she has been our guest?"

"No, Everett, he hasn't been in the house since you told me not to receive him."

"Then how did she meet him?" he spoke impatiently. "We are responsible for her to a certain extent. She was our guest."

"We met him one day when we were shopping. He stoped to speak, and of course I had to introduce him. Then one day we were having soda and he joined us. I have not seen him again."

"She would scarcely run away and marry a man she had seen but twice. Had she met him without you?"

"Yes, Everett. I suppose I should have told you, but I felt it was none of my business, in a way. She had tea with him once or twice, and lunched with him."

"I am amazed that, knowing my opinion of the man—his reputation—you did not tell me at once. Her people will blame us if she is unhappy — which she will be. I am afraid."

"Oh, I hope not! And Everett, I don't think they will blame us. Rose is fair, and she is truthful. She will tell her folks just how it happened. I will write mother all about it, also. She is Mrs. Grandon's closest friend and will be sure to tell her what I say."

'It is done, now, and we cannot do anything. But, Sandra, I am disappointed that you had not enough confidence in my judgment to let me know what was going on."

To-morrow—Rose Thinks She Is Luckier Than I.

50 MESSAGES PASS ALONG ONE WIRE

"WIRED WIRELESS," U.S. GENERAL'S INVENTION, IS WONDERFUL SYSTEM.

"Wired wireless" is a system of guilding radio currents by means of a wire. The currents travel through the air alongside the wire which guides them to their destination.

The system is the invention of Major-Gen. George O. Squier, chief signal officer of the United States army, and is described as follows by the Electrical Experimenter:

The method eliminates one fault of the ordinary radio, which sends the message broadcast in all directions. Under the Squier method the wave currents stay close to the wire, thus insuring reliability and secrecy.

The high frequency current travels along the wire, but not in it, passing through the ether as do radio waves, with the difference that instead of being diffused it travels in a path of which the wire serves as a core. Enthusiastic persons who know of Gen. Squier's work believe that as many as 50 messages may be sent along one wire simultaneously.

On the ordinary telephone wire an alternating current is used, employing a frequency of from 750 to 2,500 cycles a second. The Squier method increases the frequency and rapidity of the vibrations so that they "step up" to as high as 500,000 cycles a second, a feat which electrical experts had thought impossible.

The perfection of this method of "wired wireless," by means of which at fewest 10, and possibly more, conversations may be carried on simultaneously by means of a single wire by persons thousands of miles apart, will soon be announced by Gen. Squier.

Successful tests of the method have been made by Government experts recently along the line of the Harlem Division of the New York Central Railroad. The experiments are still going on, but the results have been so gratifying that Gen. Squier will soon make his formal announcement.

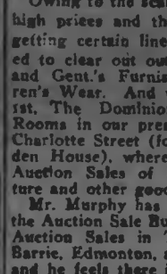
A GOOD ONE.

John A. Martens is a travelling representative of a Chicago biscuit company. He took his wife on one trip. She heard the Pullman porter say to him: "You've picked a good one this time." Mrs. Martens was astonished. She began an investigation, and uncovered among the "picks" a manicurist. Judge McGoorty granted her a divorce.

In the Spring Time



Any fool knows enough to carry an umbrella when it rains, but the wise man is he who carries one when it is only cloudy. Any man will send for a doctor when he gets bedfast, but the wiser one is he who adopts proper measures before his ills become serious. During a hard winter or the following spring one feels run-down, tired out, weak and nervous. Probably you have suffered from a cold, the Grip or flu, which has left you thin, weak and pale. This is the time to put your system in order. It is time for house-cleaning.

A good, old-fashioned alterative and temperance tonic is one made of wild roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form. This is nature's tonic, which restores the tone of the stomach, activity of the liver and steadiness to the nerves, strengthening the whole system. First put up by Dr. Pierce over 50 years ago, now procurable at any drug store; or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package.

The Plague of Pimples

Body Covered With Them

The primary cause of pimples arises from the blood not being in good condition. When the blood becomes impure you will find that pimples will break out all over the body, but more particularly on the forehead, nose and chin, and although they are not dangerous trouble they are very unsightly. What you need when pimples or boils break out is a real good blood purifying medicine such as Burdock Blood Bitters.

This preparation has been on the market for over 40 years and is the most reliable remedy for all troubles arising from a bad condition of the blood. It removes all the impurities from the system and will leave a clear, healthy skin.

Mr. Emerson G. Goodwin, Cambridge, N.B., writes: "For nearly two years I suffered from boils and pimples on my face and neck, and nearly all of my body was covered with the pimples. I tried most everything, but got no relief. One day a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using three bottles the pimples and boils had all left me and there is no sign of them returning. I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone who is troubled with skin disease.

ILL-SHAPED EARS TO BE BEAUTIFIED.

Process Discovered for Giving Undainty Lobes Perfect Form.

PARIS, April 24.—Women, beautiful otherwise, need no longer worry about such minor drawbacks as ill-shaped ears, according to an announcement by the Academy of Medicine.

Professor Julien Bourguet, it is declared, has discovered a process of giving perfect form to any woman's ears by a simple surgical operation, involving neither danger nor pain.

This will make it unnecessary for any woman to loop her hair on the sides of her face to conceal undainty lobes.

The craze for artificial beautifying has caught all Paris society., "Beauty factories" are springing up everywhere. Many of the doctors specialising in this art have on their waiting list some famous women, who expect to emerge from harmless operations minus their double-chins, wrinkles, or any other signs of age.

FOXES BEFORE CHILDREN.

FREDERICTON, N.B., April 24.—Dr. W. S. Carter, Chief Superintendent of Education, addressed the Legislature on the matter of teachers salaries. He said that hundreds of school teachers in this province were leaving to take up other professions. In view of this, Dr. Carter urged that the salaries be substantially increased. He cited one case where a manager of a fox ranch was getting $2,000 a year, while the school teacher in the same district got only $300.

SPENDTHRIFTS.

On Saturdays, a ransomed child—
How it will snatch the first Spring flowers,
Spring-beauties, bloodroot, gold-thread—glean
Hepaticas by handfuls—wild,
Shy things that shrivel after hours
Of roving in the hill ravine!

In that far, fairy April time
Two truant children wandered, dreaming
Of unknown blooms (their hearts' desire)—
Then came the steep, enchanted climb,
The "red-cups"—millions to their seeming,
A scarlet magic, fire on fire!

And every cup has left its mold,
Torn from its log or leafy setting,
Till pails are heaped, skirts have their fill,
Each carries all her hands can hold.
Such sorcery there's no forgetting—
Those elfin goblets leap out still!

But now we'd look and pass them by—
Leave them to soft young greedy fingers;
For single beaded joys are ours
To tell, and when on walks we spy
A gleam, love only broods and lingers
On scarlet cups or pale wood flowers.

—Dorothy Leonard in the New York Times.

PUBLIC REALIZING VALUE OF THE EXHIBITION PARK

"We have never realized the value of these grounds," remarked Mr. Edgar Worth on Saturday afternoon during the half-time of the game in which the Canadian Woolleas lost to C.G.E. And that statement expresses the opinion of many of the crowd who attended the two football games. In addition to these scheduled events, there was a fielding practice by a baseball squad, the lacrosse team had a side location, and on the half-mile track a horse or two were working up a mild sweat as they breasted the stiff April wind with a breath of departing winter in it.

Thanks to the confidence of the Fair Directors in the manifold advantages of the Exhibition Park and to their foresight in putting both the east and west sections in good condition, the football and lacrosse teams have nothing to worry about this summer. It is obvious both to the directors and the public, that there is much room for improvement, both for spectators and players alike, but it will not be forgotten that the efforts of the Board during the last seven years have been decidedly strenuous and often discouraging. Their determination and their efforts are bringing excellent returns this summer from the athletic standpoint. If there is any available money for minor improvements to the playing grounds, such as filling in some of the ruts and otherwise smoothing both fields, the earlier this can be done the better. It should not require much expense, for the grounds are satisfactory even now, but a few finishing touches would undoubtedly be acceptable to the players and would probably tend to speed up the games.

The possibilities of developing Exhibition Park into a big public athletic field are fully disclosed by the impetus that has been given to sports this year. And the citizens will probably catch a glimpse of the directors' larger vision of a baseball diamond, tennis courts and accommodation for other games, in addition to all the furnishings for the biggest industrial and agricultural exhibition between Toronto and Ottawa.

SEES EUROPE ON EDGE OF DESPAIR

FREDERICK PALMER TELLS STORY OF UNREST, MISTRUST AND CHAOS.

NEW YORK.—Major Frederick Palmer, war correspondent, writer and lecturer, returned on the White Star liner, Adriatic from a six months tour through France, England, Italy, Poland, Germany, Austria and Hungary to study the economic, industrial and political conditions in those countries.

"The chief interest in Europe today," said Major Palmer, "centres in Russia and Germany. France is unpopular throughout Europe because of her predominant military spirit. The victory over Germany has revived the old hatred held by the French for that country, and the spirit developed by Napoleon in 1796."

'The French look on Germany as a burglar at the door, and feel that the Allies have deserted them, and that they alone must now stand guard over Germany.

'If we are to have peace on an established basis in Europe, and commerce and industries are to be restored, Germany must be allowed to have raw materials in order that her men can go to work. While I was in Germany there were thousands of workmen idle in Berlin and other large cities because there was nothing for them to do in the factories. America and Great Britain have realized this, and are willing to let Germany have raw materials, but France says no. We want the raw materials for our country.

"There is food in Germany for the wealthy," Major Palmer continued, "but the workmen are having a wretched time to support their families because the dole given out by the Government is inadequate and there is no way in which they can earn money.

United States Unpopular.

"The Ebert Government is not popular because it has accomplished nothing for the people. What is wanted now in Germany, the people told me, is a strong body of men at the head of affairs who will start up the factories, the shipyards, steel mills and other industries.

"The United States is unpopular in Germany, as we are in France, Italy and all over Europe, because they blame this country for everything that has occured since the armistice, including the high cost of living. People who have it are spending money as recklessly as they are doing in New York. Foreigners say that America came over and started the League of Nations and then ran away to leave it to others to construct. President Wilson is now, without doubt, the most unpopular man in Europe.

"The danger of Bolshevism lies chiefly in Germany. If the German workman is allowed by the Allies to starve, there is no doubt that he will turn to Bolshevism and join hands with the hordes who will swarm down from the Russian frontier to join him and tell him the earth is his.

"The Poles are ready to fight to the last gasp, but they see no help coming from any one and feel they must join the Bolshevists to protect themselves against the Germans, who are only awaiting the right moment to attack.

"Politicians of high standing in England, France and Italy informed me that it was probable the Allies would have to recognize the Lenin Government before long, as that was the only way trade could be resumed with Russia.

"The transportation system in Europe generally has been completely demoralized by the war and has not recovered. In every station of importance one sees hundreds of freight cars and locomotives damaged and out of commission.

Says All Europe in Chaos.

"All the little countries have started bureaus of their own, without the faintest idea of running a Government and the result is hopeless chaos.

"The conditions in Austria and Hungary are indescribable. It is like a carcas left for the vultures to pick. The general opinion there is that Austria will be absorbed by Germany and Hungary will be a small kingdom on her own account, with a constitutional monarchy.

"The Hohenzollern family lost their influence in Germany with the masses of the people after the failure of the Kapp rising, which was organized by their adherents with General Ludendorf in the background as the prime mover. He was supposed to be in hiding when I left Berlin recently, but a friend pointed him out to me walking along the Unter den Linden very shabbily dressed, which may have been a disguise.

"There is nothing but dissatisfaction all over Europe now, and to expect a permanent peace under such conditions is, in my mind, utterly hopeless.

ODDFELLOWS GO TO KNOX CHURCH

INSPIRING MESSAGE BY THE REV J. A. M'KENZIE—ODDFELLOWS' CHOIR.

Oddfellows representing the combined lodges of Peterboro No. 111 and Otonabee No. 13 also a large representation from the Rebekahs took part in the annual church parade last evening to Knox Presbyterian church. The parade mustered at Lodge headquarters under the leadership of Brother J. W. Miller. The Oddfellows choir and quartette provided special music for the occasion. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. A. McKenzie, pastor of Knox church assisted by the Rev. H. J. Keith of St. Andrew's church, Winnipeg.

The sermon was based on the second epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy, second chapter and fifteenth verse—"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not, to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Win Approval.

"From the cradle to the grave man manifests a desire to exceed his power and to rise to heights of great deeds and sometimes reckless abandon. Sometimes we fail to properly consider the aim in view and our efforts are directed along worldly lines If we desire what is true and holy though we may not be satisfied with our efforts in life but we will be abundantly blessed. The object of every true life is to win the approval of God. Sometimes we seek not the approval of God but the approval of the individual or group of individuals Only when we learn that the approval of God must first be sought will we be on the road to divine blessing. We should first seek the Kingdom of God and His approval and let our other aims be secondary.

Ten Commandments

Some say the ten commandments do not teach a positive religion, continued the speaker. Perhaps they were not intended to teach a positive religion. There is no good reason to believe that we can dispense with them. If our life is not fashioned after the 13th chapter 1st Corinthians we have not begun to know God or realized the blessings of a spiritual life. A necessary issue of religion is manifest in the work we do every day. The man who does not give the best that is in him to the world that God has given him to do in this world will have to give an account of himself. This does not mean we have to be expert but do our best as Christians. We must have a proportionate belief in regard to the character of Christ Some of us believe in the humanity of Christ and yet deny his divinity. Many of us are tossed about in the face of temptation, skepticism and worldiness. The members of the Order gathered here tonight show by their associations that they want to lead a true Christian life and be of service to others.

Deep pockets, flaring sometimes, are much in favor.

ATTEMPT TO LOCATE MISSING FENCH LINER

BOSTON, April 24.—Costguard officers endeavored to locate the French steamer, Fordonian, which has not been heard from since she reported by wireless last Monday that she was disabled by engine trouble. he Fordonian was then in the vicinity of George's Bank, which is approximately 100 miles off Cape Cod. It is supposed that her wireless went out of commission after the distress call came in, as efforts to communicate with her have been unsuccessful. The coastguard cutter Ossipee was ordered to proceed to-day in seach of her.

The Fordonian left New York April 15 for Halifax.

SPECIAL SERVICE ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH

ARCHDEACON WARREN OF TORONTO OCCUPIED THE PULPIT—GOOD MUSIC.

St. George's Day was fittingly celebrated at St. George's church last night when a special service of music with the Venerable Areachdeacon Warren, of Toronto, as the preacher, was held. The church was well filled to hear Archdeacon Warren, and his sermon was timely and appreciated. The city was represented at the service by Mayor McIntyre, Alderman Robert Morrison, Alderman James Hamilton, Alderman Joseph Crowe, and City Treasurer Adams. Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, was also present.

The special music of the choir was a tribute to their able leadership and showed the time and study devoted by each individual chorister to his music. The blending of voices was a revelation to those who had not attended the church in some time.

The first lesson, read by Archdeacon Warren, was from First Samuel, 14th chapter, 1st to the 12th verse. The second lesson, read by Mr. Tooms, was from Ephesions, 6th chapter, beginning at the 10th verse. The psalms for the service were the 115th and the 150th. Following the second hymn, the rector, Rev. Price, referred to the pleasure that he and the congregation felt in the Mayor and City officials attending the [illegible] first service Rev. Price said that they had attended in a body. We are certainly pleased to have them here tonight,' said the minister. Rev. Price also thanked Archdeacon Warren for coming to address them in view of his large field of labour. The rector spoke of the meaning of St. George's Day to the true Britisher and how it was the greatest service of the year to hearts that beat true to Britain.

The Sermon.

The text for the sermon was taken by Archdeacon Warren from the prayer of consecration in the communion service, 'A Sacrifice for Sin,' and with this as a text, gave one of the most helpful, as well as interesting sermons delivered to an congregation in this city for some time. A quiet, concise speaker, he spoke to his audence as man to man in a manner that was convincing and sincerely eloquent in its appeal for a truer Christianity.

In commencing he dwelt on the strange phenomena of the human mind and its workings and how the ancients thought of spiritual things without believing. This small bundle of words represents an idea, a conviction, and this idea of sacrifice for sin has been possessed by the human race during all the centuries. He outlined the animal sacrifices made before and following the birth of Christ, sacrifices which were found to be part of the religion of practically all of the ancient peoples of the world. Our ancestors were giving expression to something which dominated their minds,' said the Archdeacon in speaking of the ancient religions, pointing out that they were unduly prejudiced, while there was as much good about their religion as there was bad.

'The religion of the ancient world passed away and practically over the entire world has been superseded by another, but the idea ,the conviction for a sacrifice for sin has not passed away, and continuing he referred to the adoption of it into the doctrine of nearly all the churches. The sacrifice of mass in the Roman Catholic church and the Holy Communion in the Protestant churches are forms of its adoption. "The people are not so open-minded now as they used to be," he said, but his conviction was that they felt that there was something wrong. A larger vision of sin, he stated, was needed, the feelings of the people that something was wrong is a proof of the sin in the world.

The movements of the groups of men finding fault with the society of the world were taken by the clergyman as another evidence of sin as well as the strikes and labor troubles, high prices, profiteering. There are confessions of sin on all sides. Sin is not only a theological matter, it is everywhere—in business, in politics and other fields. A stirring appeal was made not to look to money to solve our difficulties. Money can make us comfortable and give us good homes, but it cannot help us spiritually.

Others say we must have legislation to solve these difficulties, but Archdeacon Warren said, 'No government can be created to manage an individual's affairs better than himself, for the workings of the human mind are too complicated and complex. The cost of such a system where there are so many officials was pointed out.

Reading from the Bible he told of the peace and happiness of the early Christians and how they attained what we are seeking to-day. Paul said, 'Christ died for our sins. He rose again for our redemption.' Have you realized what that means? It has a wider meaning than just forgiveness of our sins. It means that we should grasp the spirit, love, duty, sacrifice, fidelity to truth of Jesus. This spirit the speaker characterized as the spirit of the mother of the father in raising his children at a sacrifice to himself, as the spirit of the soldier on the battlefield.

"Think of this and it will solve all your difficulties. Turn your back on the self-seeking world and there will be a release of care, a release of God's power to bear our burdens to serve and rejoice. The spirit of God is the only solution for our difficulties. The old age is passing away, the old institutions are condemned by 2,000 years of wrong. Christianity must be tried, but will not be tried until the spirit of God has permeated every institution."

MARK STREET CHURCH SERVICES

REV. MR. ROSS SPOKE AT BOTH SERVICES.

Again the congregations at the Mark street church were large yesterday. Owing to sickness among the members the choir was not as large as usaul, but the after meeting in the morning was well attended.

The morning subject was based on Psalm 90:9, "We spend our years as a tale that is told." Subject, "Life's Story Told.

The following were the points of the story delivered by the past r, Rev. Mr. Ross:

First: There is no division of literature more remunerative to the writer or more interesting and widely read than the "Short Story.' Is it like the story of our life? How? Why?

Second, like a story, our life is brief. It is soon told. The material is condensed, and there is no waste, or there should be none. Our lives are read by young and old, and they bless or curse, blight or blast, cheer or chill, lift up or crush down.

Third, human life is the story of wealth, or poverty, health or sickness, joy or sorrow, vice or virtue, philanthropy or selfishness; the service of God or the service of the Devil.

Fourth. It is a solemn thing to write a book or a poem, and it is equally solemn to live a life. It is a pity of a man or woman whose life is only fiction. How many fictitious lives there are all about us. There are books which are false and there are lives which, like the fig tree that Jesus cursed, are simply a living, leafy lie.

Fifth. Many books are without purpose or object, or moral—so are many lives. Do not worry about your funeral sermon. You are preaching your own every day.

Sixth. Like a story our life will end. Do you remember the first chapter? How does it compare with the last? Do we enjoy reading our own life story? Would we like to write it again? Are we willing for others to read it? How much we would like to revise our life story, but this is impossible.

In the evening the subject was—"The Price of Religious Liberty," and the text was "Buy the Truth and sell it not.' Prov. 23, 23. The following points weer discussed:

First: Pilate asked the question: "What is truth?" But he did not wait for Christ's answer. What a pity he did not learn the cost of this divine commodity.

Second: Men in all ages have bought the truth at the cost of life itself. Able, the first martyr, bought with his blood. The love of truth sends Daniel to the lion' den, Joseph to the jail, the Hebrews to the furnace, Latimer, Crammer, Ridley and Huss to the flames, and every man who buys the truth will pay the price.

Third. Truth, or religious liberty, may be sold by us. What are we offered for this? The world, social position, praise of men, political pull.

Fourth. Truth is fire-proof. Ask the martyrs. Hold the truth and you are rich. It is like a diamond. Like character it is the only thing that you can take out of the world.

FI-FI OF THE TOY SHOP'S GREAT TOUR OF THE NEVER NEVER LAND

Mr. Robert L. Langford as the Man in the Moon is not as gossip contends 'as cross as a bundle of sticks." Instead he is a most debonaire and altogether charming gentleman, who is visiting the earth in search of new adventures persuades Miss Helen McLaren, the fickle "Fi-Fi," the finest French Doll in the toyshop, to elope with him to the Milky Way.

This she does, but she is pursued by her irate lovers, Mr. Norman Laing as Lieut. Tinheart, Harold Snelgrove as Prince Lollypop, and other intimates of the toyshop who are not going to let a light minded rival like the Man in the Moon get ahead of them. The entire toyshop then goes in search of their missing friend and all meet with many exciting adventures in Toyland. The entire programme of the musical extravaganza is most interesting.

Rehearsals have been held at the Belmont Club Rooms afternoon and evening. Two hundred performers will take part.

The seat sale opens Wednesday morning at 9 a.m. Advance tickets are already going like the proverbial hot cakes and indications point to a crowded house for each performance. Thursday and Friday, April 29 and 30.

ONE GREAT ESSENTIAL TO A WOMAN'S HEALTH IS HER NERVES

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

REV. H. J. KEITH IN KNOX CHURCH

A CHALLENGE TO THEOSOPHY AND CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

At the morning service in Knox church yesterday a large congregation welcomed Rev. H. J. Keith, former pastor of Knox church and now of St. Andrew's church, Winnipeg. It is several years since Rev. Mr. Keith left Peterborough for his western field of labour and his return visit was bers of the congregation. His message at the morning service was a challenge to such doctrines as theosophy, Christian Science, Russellism and others. Taking for his text Matthew, 16:16: "Thou are the Christ the Son of the Living God," Mr. Keith said only two estimates could be placed upon Christ. One was that we should look upon Christ as a man after our image and the other is that Christ is the Son of God and as such was superior to man.

Church Stands To-day.

"All through the ages," said Mr. Keith, "we have had new forms of doctrine and many of them have passed into oblivion. In spite of the a pleasant event for the older memvelopment and knowledge gained in the last one hundred years not one paragraph in the New Testament has been discredited. The Church of Christ stands to-day as a living witness that Christ is more than a man. He is the living God. The church today is in need of men and women possessed of that great conviction. Only then shall we realize the great oportunities that stand before us. No one has a right to command men as Christ commanded men. No man has a right to forgive as Christ forgave. Underlying our motives and aims must be the great thought that Jesus Christ is the living God."

The Music.

Music of an appropriate character was provided by a well-balanced choir under the leadership of Mr. F. E. Walden. Master Kenneth McCannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McCannon, made a deep impression with his signing of the two verses of the children's hymn. During the course of the service. Rev. H J. Keith addressed a few remarks to the juvenile members of the congregation.

FREE EXHIBITION OF MOVING PICTURES

PUBLIC INVITED TO SEE ONTARIO GOVERNMENT FILMS AT THE COLLEGIATE TO-NIGHT.

The Ontario Provincial Motion Picture Bureau has devised a plan, with the approval of the Minister of Education and the Provincial Treasurer, whereby a demonstration of motion picture films having a practical educational value will be given in each of the High Schools, Collegiate Institutes and Normal Schools throughout the Province.

One of these demonstrations will be given in the Assembly Hall of the local Collegiate Institute to-night at 8 o'clock. The programme of films to be used will include:

"A Glimpse of Muskoka."
"Through Life's Windows" (a study of the eye).
"Successful Farm Methods."
"The Story of Paper."
"Topical Events in Ontario."
"The Gasoline Engine."
"A Cartoon Comedy."

These are representative of the films carried in the Motion Picture Bureau's library, and it is hoped that these will prove serviceable in supplementing the regular school curriculum. The exhibition will be free, and it is particularly requested that all teachers and other interested in educational work will avail themselves of the opportunity of being present.

ANNIVERSARY AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH

PROF. A. G. JOHNSTON GAVE TWO EXCELLENT SERMONS.

The anniversary services at St James Methodist Church yesterday were fittingly observed and there was a large attendance both morning and evening. Professor A. G. Johnston, B.A., of Victoria University preached.

At the morning service his text was taken from John 12:20, "And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast." The paragraph of which this text forms a part is a very difficult piece of Scripture, But the difficult Scripture stimulates our inquiry and then rewards us. Most people who find the Bible uninteresting are too lazy to study it.

This passage gives rise to several questions, some of the more important of which are: What is the importance of the incident? Why is it so suddenly dropped? What is the reason for the hesitation of the Greeks? What is the relation between Jesus' statements such as "my hour is come" and to the coming of the Greeks?

Greek Culture Versus Hebrew.

In seeking the answer, Professor Johnston continued, one comes to the fact that at this period in history there were two great cultures and civilization, the Greek and the Hebrew. The fundamental principles of these cultures made their appeal to Christ and He compared and contrasted them and then made His final decision to sacrifice His life. The Greek culture was a self-culture which led to a philosophy of self-assertion and glorification of strength a philosophy similar to that whose fruitage we have seen during the past six years. On the other hand the Hebrew culture held the ideal of self sacrifice and service.

At this moment Christ had come to know the meaning of the prophecy "despised and rejected of men." Once He had been popular but now His own people rejected Him. Two incidents stand out in bold relief to His rejection, His triumphant entry into Jerusalem and the coming of these Greeks. The verb "to come" as used here is a translation of a Greek frequentative verb, consequently continued action or "kept coming" is implied that is they were in the habit of coming.

Christ Tempted.

Christ was tempted to go among the Gentiles and preach His gospel in the West, the world of progress and education. If He had done so what a conquest He might have made No more wonderful opportunity was ever offered a man with a great gospel. In all probability these Greeks were a delegation of educated Greeks come to Him. But He turned away from it and chose the Hebrew culture with its sacrifice in order that He might draw, not educate, all men unto Him.

Similiarity.

In our times, Professor Johnston thought, these two great cultures meet again, power and service. Germany had chosen the first and the Anglo-Saxon world had chosen the second and triumphed like Christ. If it had not triumphed a godless civilization would have been saddled upon the world. The martyrs of the church have by their sacrifice inspired others to carry the Gospel to the ends of the earth. The blood of the martyrs is surely the seat of the Christian Church.

Conclusion.

In concluding Professor Johnston stated that now is the judgment of this world for us. Is it to be success or service? When in eternity we look back upon this brief earthly span the money we made here will not matter.

Excellent music was rendered by the choir.

STILL ALL THERE.

Melba, the celebrated vocalist, was upset one day while out taking a drive near Sydney, Australia. An Australian paper, after recording the incident adds:

"We are happy to state that she was able to appear the following evening in three pieces."

LUDEC WAS FORCED TO LIVE ON MILK

COULD EAT NOTHING SOLID FOR MONTHS—TANLAC AGAIN PROVES MERIT.

"Tanlac has done for me in just a few days what I have been trying for five years to get other medicines to do," said Eugene Ludec, 1351 Logan Street, Montreal, Canada, an employee of the Columbus Rubber Co., Ltd., Montreal.

"For the past five years I had been in a badly run-down, weakened condition. My appetite was very poor, and while I never dared to eat meat or any other solid food, but confined myself strictly to a milk diet. I suffered terribly from indigestion. After every meal I would bloat up with gas, my heart would palpitate dreadfully, and I had awful cramps in the pit of my stomach. I suffered nearly always with severe headaches, which at times was so bad I could scarcely see, my eyes pained me so bad. I was so extremely restless at night I do not believe I ever slept more than two hours any night. My complexion was pale and sallow, my tongue was always coated, and if I got the least bit hot I would break out all over with a rash.

"I had tried many different medicines, but nothing ever did me any good until I began taking Tanlac. It seemed to be made especially for my case, and I commenced to improve almost at once and gained five pounds by the time I had finished the first bottle. I have only taken two bottles so far, but even now I can eat all the meat or anything else I want without having the least sign of gas, palpitation or cramps, and I have such a big appetite my meat and grocery bill has more than doubled. I sleep fine every night and have not had a headache since I started taking Tanlac. My complexion has cleared up to a good healthy colour, my tongue is no longer coated and I never have a sign of rash. In fact, I am enjoying perfect health. I don't think there is another medicine that will compare with Tanlac, and I am glad to have the opportunity to recommend it."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock by A. C. Deninke; in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert by A. J. Scott; in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

CELLULOID COLLAR CLUB IS ORGANIZED

ST. LOUIS ADDS VARIETY TO ECONOMY MOVEMENT AS OVERALLS TIDE RISES.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—In addition to the many Overall Clubs being formed here, other societies have been organised to fight the cost of clothing. These include the "Celluloid Collar Club," the "Cotton Stocking Club," and the "Patch Club."

DETROIT, April 24.—One thousand women stenographers, bookkeepers, and other office workers here have pledged themselves not to exceed the maximum price: Hats and shoes, $10; suits and coats, $50; dresses, $35; hosiery, $2.50; and gloves, $2. The United States District Attorney's office was asked to investigate "the unjustified advance in the price of women's clothing."

EMPORIA, Kan., April 24.—Mayor J. C. Brogan, who is also pastor of Grace Methodist Church, wore overalls when he was inaugurated here the other day. The ceremony was preceded by a parade in which nearly ever one wore blue denim khaki or old clothes. Women in gingham, a few wearing overalls, took part in the demonstration.

MITCHELL, S. D., April 24.—Dr. W. D. Schermerhorn, President of the Dakota Wesleyan University, was attired in bib overalls when several faculty members headed the first public parade of the Campus Overall Club.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 24.—All city employees are authorised to wear khaki or other cheap clothing and department heads urged to prescribe low-priced material for city employees' uniforms in a resolution passed by the City Council.

COLUMBIA, S.C., April 20—A rule in effect since January, 1836, requiring lawyers to appear before the Supreme Court of South Carolina wearing black coats has been suspended until 1st October at the request of members of the Bar, so they may appear in overalls.

TELLICO PLAINS, Tenn., April 24.—An overall club formed here has the support of the pastor of the town's leading church, who will appear in the pulpit in overalls tomorrow.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., April 24.—Seventy-five undergraduates attended chapel and classes at Williams College to-day wearing blue denim. In many cases underneath the overalls were expensive silk skirts and socks.

Stocks of overalls in local stores are exhausted. Many students who have not been able to get overalls are wearing old clothes, with much army khaki in evidence.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., April 24.—A ducking in the gymnasium pool is provided as a penalty for members who ignore resolutions adopted by Wesleyan University fraternities and societies to-day in favour of the wearing of old clothes.

EL PASO, Texas, April 24.—The El Paso County Medical Society has agreed to buy no new clothes until 1st August.

OTTAWA, April 24. — Overalls made their first appearance in the House of Commons to-day.

Representatives of the Great War Veterans' Association appeared in denim before the Pensions Committee and announced they would be joined by all other executives of the organisation in their fight on the high cost of clothing.

Members of the House appeared about equally divided between overalls and old clothes. Consistent wearing of discarded suits, it was said, would prevent driving up the price of denim apparel.

MONTREAL, April 24.—The Civic Employees' Union organised an overalls club to-day, and requested the city's Purchasing Department to buy denim garments by wholesale for sale at cost.

ST. JOHN, N.B., April 24.—The St. John Hardware Clerks' Association declared itself to-day in favour of overalls as a substitute for expensive clothing.

THE WOODS

April showers bring May flowers, runs an old saying, and undoubtedly it is true, for the downpours of the last two weeks, with intermittent periods of sunshine have awakened the little flowers buried deeply under the leaves in the woods and stirred them to life after their long winter's nap. Soon the buds appear and struggle upward through the covering of nature and leaves, all folded up, and then in a few days the woods are transformed into a veritable fairy land, with spring beauties—hepaticas, trilliums, violets, dog-toothed violets, bleeding heart, and Dutchmen's breeches, with last, but not least, the strangest of them all—Jack-in-the-Pulpit!

What a revelry the woods take on! How sweetly the birds sing, and an odd butterfly may even be seen flitting here and there, his gossamer wings wobbling strangely and awkwardly when he first attempts to fly after breaking out of his winter prison.

Glimpse of Nature.

And yearly the woods near Peterborough attract the urban dwellers where they can catch a glimpse of nature and revel in the beauties of spring. The automobile has greatly increased the number of these transient visitors, and the most inaccessible places of nature are now within the reach of all who own a car.

On Sunday the woods within a few miles of the city attracted the annual visitation, and motor cars lined the roadsides near the different woods. Burnham's, Garbutt's, Wallace's Grove and many others are all favourite spots, and on Sunday were filled with citizens besporting themselves in the woods searching for the elusive Mayflowers. The spring beauties, those pretty little purple-faced fellows, are out in profusion, and the hepaticas are out also, but not nearly so profusely as they will be in a few days. The other flowers have not come out yet, but from all signs a week at the most will see the woods in all the beauties of nature.

Nevertheless, those who ventured farther into the woods carried proudly a nice bouquet of hepaticas and spring beauties to grace the dining-room table for the admiring eyes of all or to decorate some man's buttonhole or some lady's suit with a touch of rare beauty.

One million visits a week

NOT visits to comfortable homes, but to the homes of the poor and sick.

HOMES where beds are not too comfortable.

WHERE playthings are few or none at all.

WHERE living costs are felt keenly: where even bread may be scarce.

WHERE Christ is almost unknown.

MANY of these visits are amongst our foreign population. There our purpose is to preach Christ. Because if these people accept Christ, they will become good and true Canadians.

WOMAN SUFFERED 12 YEARS

Finally Made Well by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Emmitsburg, Md.—"I suffered for twelve or fifteen years, and was treated by a physician, but got little relief. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, as I thought I would try it, and it did me more good than all the doctor's medicine. I am a farmer's wife and do my housework all the time, and I am better now than I have been for years. I am never without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house and have recommended it to several of my friends. You are perfectly welcome to publish my letter for the good it may do other women."—Mrs. ETTIE WARREN, Emmitsburg, Md.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment.

Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Warren's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

MR. R. ALLEN LEWIS EXPLAINS THE SITUATION AFFECTING PETERBORO COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE CADETS

HAS RESIGNED COMMAND OF THE LOCAL CORPS—BOLSHEVISM BROKE OUT IN THE BATTALION.

(R. Allen Lewis.)

After reading the item on the resignation of the officers of the 13th cadet battalion, I felt that it was only in fairness to my school, my cadet corps and myself that the true state of affairs be placed before the public. I considered and still consider that the matter was one which affected the Collegiate only and as such should not have been made public. With reference to those cadets or officers upon whom the responsibility of this most undesirable publicity rests, I wish only to say that "It's a dirty bird that can't keep its own nest clean." I should advise those fellows to forever obliterate from their vocabularies the phrases "school spirit," "loyalty" and "esprit de corps."

As to the lamentable state of disorganization at present existing in the battalion, I wish to distinctly state that until about fifteen minutes of receiving the petition from the officers of the battalion I was utterly unconscious of any dissatisfaction in any quarter. I immediately upon receiving this intelligence (before receiving the "round robin") went to Mr. C. E. Jamieson, B.A., L.L.B., our cadet instructor, and placed myself under his direction, especially pointing out to him that my resignation would be tendered then or at any other time be thought it in the best interests of the battalion.

During the two days of the Bolshevikism (as the mutineers themselves termed it) I several times repeated this promise, in some cases in the presence of witnesses. In each case his reply was, "hold your position."

As lately as Friday afternoon Mr. Jamieson told me in the presence of four officers (including the O. C. the Peterborough cadet brigade) that "we must not let them put one over on us," and that it might be well to drop out gracefully after law and order had been restored but not to do it before. Later developments the same day led me to send in my resignation which I did feeling sure (as in fact I have been assured by leaders among both officers and cadets) that now that my position is made clear to the officers, N.C.O.'s and cadets of No. 13 battalion, they will understand that I have been the victim of circumstances of a very unpleasant nature. The report that I sought my promotion to the rank of O.C. i salso false, which I am sure, Mr. Jamieson would willingly certify.

LEADING ISSUES STRONG TO-DAY

THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE MARKET OPENED EASIER TO-DAY.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 26.—Leading issues were firm, showing some advances on good buying at the stock market opening to-day.

U. S. Steel opened unchanged at 96 1-2. Central Leather 77 up 1-8, Studebaker 112 up 2, Republic Steel 96 1-2 up 3-8, Anaconda 57 3-4 up 5-8, Republic Steel 80 up 1 1-2, Bethlehem B. 88 3-4 up 3-8, Corn Products 99 up 34, Sinclair 34 7-8 up 7-8, Vanadium 80 1-2 up 2 1-4, American Woollen 118 o 1, Baldwin 176 up 3 1-2, Consolidated Textile 43 3-4 up 7-8, Lackawanna Steel 84 1-4 up 1 3-4.

U. S. Steel quickly ran up to 97 3-8, an advance of nearly 2 points over last week. The motor group was buoyant. General Motors was up 6 1-4 at 304 3-4. In a few minutes heavy buying of General Motors sent the stock up to 309.

Improvement in prices continued into the second hour, when corn products took the lead and sold at 103 1-4, up about 8 points over last week's. The earnings statement published last week showed better than $9.00 a share for Crown Products common stock in the first quarter of the year, or an annual rate of $37.00 per share.

Selling that appeared in early trading as a result of week-end accumulations was quickly absorbed, and Steel Common advanced further to 97 3-8. It was in General Motors, however, that shorts had their real trouble. The stock made an early high at 315 up 40 points over last week's low. Crucible was still heavy and failed to reach 240.

Court Decision.

The stock market responded promptly by advancing quotations on all standard railroad stocks, immediately on receipt of news that the Supreme court had ordered the dissolution of the combination between the Reading railway and its coal auxiliaries. The advances ranged from 5 3-4 in Reading itself down to fractional gains in such roads as Louisville and Nashville.

Wall street believed stockholders in Reading must profit largely by the conversion of the present coal auxiliaries of that line, under the order of the Supreme Court. It is believed that the stockholders would receive a large sum if the properties were sold for cash, or a considerable return in stock if they were converted into other corporations. Traders pointed to the course after the Standard Oil Co. and the Tobacco combination were ordered dissolved. The Supreme Court decision on the Reading case was followed immediately by a sharp increase in quotations of railroad issues. Reading sold at 84 1-2, up 3 1-4; Union Pac. 118 1-4, up 1 3-4; B. & O. 33 1-2, up 2 1-2; St. Paul 34 3-4, up 3-8; Erie 12 5-8, up 3-8; Lehigh Valley 44 3-4, up 2 3-4; L. & N. 102 7-8, up 3-8; New York Central 71, up 2; New Haven 30 1-4, up 1-2; Northern Pac. 77, up 1 1-8; Southern Pac., 95 3-4, up 1 1-2; Southern Railway 21 7-8, up 5-8.

EXCHANGE MARKET.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 26.—The foreign exchange market opened easier to-day. Demand sterling opened at $3.85 1-4 off 1 3-4. Franc cheques 17.02 off 17 centimes. Lire cheques 32.02 off 12. Marks demand 2.0172, cables 2.0174 up 2.0007. Canadian dollars demand 0.9010.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kiddeys active.

Drink lots of water— you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

CANADIAN GENERAL TOOK THE OPENING GAME FROM WOOLENS

IT WAS A GOOD GAME AND THE CROWD REMAINED UNTIL THE FINAL WHISTLE, IN SPITE OF THE WEATHER.

Fenced up in natty uniforms, one in blue and white, the other in maroon and gold, Canadian General and the Canadian Woolens representatives in the City Football League, opened the season with a game on the last field of Exhibition Park, on Saturday afternoon, Canadian General winning a rather easy victory by the score of five goals to nil. A big crowd of supporters saw the teams get away at three o'clock, and the majority of them remained until the final whistle. It called for something to hold the crowd, as a nasty wind swept over the field, testing their enthusiasm, and handicapping the teams. Canadian General looked like winners all along the way. They scored their first two goal in eight minutes and were leading at the interval by three to nothing, Canadian Woolens having failed to produce anything that looked like a possible score. After resumption of play, Canadian General had much the better of the argument. They were attacking with the wind behind them, while the wool manufacturers besides showing an inclination to falter, had to battle against the breeze. Two more goals came to the blue and white. Then Canadian Woolens took a belated brace. They got the Generals on the defensive and if the horizontal bar above goaler Naples had been up in an aeroplane. Ted Jones might have registered for his team. The hard-working outside left, had a fine chance but apparently it was a new altitude record he was after, for the ball went skyward, and the team had to try all over again.

The teams were:—

Canadian General—goal, Naples; backs, Mason and Bestard; halves, Parkins, Turner and Bestard; forwards Maunders, Hotston, Gash, Williamson and Bartley.

Canadian Woolens—goal, Wetton; backs, Cridland and Barton; halves, Styles, Jackson and Pilling; forwards, T. Clark, Montgomery, F. Clark, Reid and Jones.

Have Weight and Speed.

Lined up on the field, Canadian General showed a superiority in weight. With the opening minutes of play, they demonstrated that they also had speed and a few tricks. But Canadian Woolens held on. Referee Bates had the players well in hand. Generals' outside win players Bartley and Maunders with 'Wag' Hotston Gash and Williamson were playing well and forcing the play, but Captain Jack Cridand and his back division gave the wavering line fine support. After five minutes of play Bartley came in and beat Wetton with an easy one. Three minutes later Williamson picked the ball through again and Maunders had placed it nicely, in front of the goal, Williamson shot the ball past Wetton for the third counter. Canadian Generals almost repeated the trick just before the whistle blew.

Wetton's Pluck Work.

The second period was a runaway for the Generals. They showed some good rushing tactics, and some nice corner kicking. Their two goals of this period were rushed through the first one by Gash, the other by Hotston, and other similar plays were spoiled only through some stellar work by Wetton. He went down once with his left leg injured above the knee but continued pluckily. Out in front of him Captain Cridland was playing a cool and steady game but the majority of his teammates bunched badly and were not equal to the attackers. Ted Jones did put up a real battle against Maunders, and enlivened the contest repeatedly by his efforts to put the team into the scoring, but although several chances came to Canadian Woolens in the closing minutes of the game the necessary punch was lacking.

CALEDONIANS WIN FIRST GAME AGAINST THE WAR VETERANS

A LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE—GAME WAS SPOILED BY THE HIGH WIND—CALEYS HAD A 3-GOAL ADVANTAGE AT HALF-TIME—G.W.V.A. FELL AWAY BADLY IN SECOND HALF—CALEDONIANS 4, G.W.V.A. 0.

A PIPER AND BAND IN ATTENDANCE

The Exhibition grounds was the mecca of all football enthusiasts in Peterborough on Saturday last, when the Peterborough Football Association inaugurated their official league schedule with the Caledonians and Great War Veterans playing on the east side of the grounds and the Canadian General and Canadian Woolens on the west side.

Players Played on to the Field.

The G.W.V.A football teams were the guests of the Caledonians on Saturday, where about nearly two hundred people assembled to witness the play of their respective teams, in spite of the cold western wind that was blowing right across the field. Previous to the game, the contestants were photographed in full uniform, along with their executive. Then Capt. Alex. Hardie led the Caledonians into the field, accompanied by Piper Thom playing the bagpipes; the G.W.V. coming right behind with the G.W.V.A. band striking up with an appropriate tune. On the players being called together, Mr. G. N. Gordon said: "Well, boys, we have met today for the opening game of football which has not been played during the last 5 years, but it is a historical game of the old country as well as in Canada and I wish the opposing teams every success, and if I can do anything to further this historical sport in any way, I will do so."

The G.W.V.A. made two changes from team selected, Burrows in goal in place of Whatley and Monks taking inside right. Teams:

The teams lined up as follows:

G.W.V.A.— A. Burrow, goal; H. Gamble and A. Bishop, backs; W. Hawthorne, D. Ryan and A. Edwards, half-backs; S. Curtiss, F. Monks, H. Norman, A. Piggott and J. Sharman, forwards.

Caledonians—R. Brunton, goal; J. Willshaw and R. Willshaw, backs; A. Hardie, S. McMillian and J. Frost, half-backs; R. Hannah, Matt. Shaw, Jas. Shaw, Ed. Hardie, and R. McDowall, forwards.

Referee—Mr. Frank Roberts.

Won the Toss.

The G.W.V.A. won the toss and decided to play against the wind. Mr. G. N. Gordon kicked the ball off, with the Caledonians making a raid on G.W.V. goal where Gamble sent a beautiful pass up to Curtiss who lost the ball to R. Willshaw, only to be returned again with the Vets halfbacks that were playing a nice game of combination with their forwards, Ryan particularly, who watched Jas. Shaw and spoiled many a nice pass from his forwards. Even and lively play ensued without either side becoming dangerous, until Matt Shaw and Hannah brought the ball down the line, the Caleys' outside right lashed the ball across to Ed. Hardie who shot past. From the goal-kick taken by Burrows, the ball went straight to Curtiss, only to be robbed of an oportunity to get up the field by Frost who transferred the play to the Hannah-Matt Shaw wing that ended in the two working close in on Burrows and Matt Shaw opened the scoring.

Game Interesting.

The Vets made the game interesting as their forwards run right up to the Caleys' goal and try as hard as they liked the Vets always had to admit defeat from the Willshaw Brothers. A few minutes later Ed. Hardie shot high over the bar from about 8 yards in front of the goal. He repeated the same performance with nobody but the goal-keeper to beat—shooting past the upright. The wind was now blowing very hard across the field which confined the play to the touch for a good part of the play, with the Caledonians having the benefit of the wind and the Veterans' defence was keeping the Caledonians pretty well up the field through the efforts of the Gamble and Bishop tactics but they were caught to far up the field when a very peculiar piece of play was witnessed, caused by the wind, making a questionable offside.

Peculiar Play on Offside.

Hannah and Mat Shaw beat Bishops and Edwards on combination close play, passed the ball over to the centre in mid-air and by some unforseen judgment by Gamble, the Caledonian outside left, McDowall scored. The Veterans claimed an offside decision, but the referee allowed the goal. The game slowed down a bit after this, until Ryan punted the ball to Norman who forced Willshaw to concede a corner kick. Curtiss was too accurate with his parting shot. The Caleys again raided the Vets' defence—that for a long time gave them corner kicks aplenty. From a nice tackle by Hannah, against Bishop, he fooled him easily and shot into the corner of the upright. Burrows caught the ball when through and to make sure Jas. Shaw completed the play. Exchanges were even in a lot of mid-field play and half-time arrived none too soon for the players.

Half-Time.

On resuming the G.W.V.A., aided by the wind, forced play on the Caledonians and, time and again McMillian always seemed to crop up at the critical moment, for the Vets' forwards could not penetrate the defence. The outside right of the Vets made things very hot for the Willshaws, and he crossed the ball repeatedly to Norman who could not get a proper shot at goal. A corner kick was taken by Curtiss but gained nothing. Sharman and Piggot got over anxious as they made for Brunton's goal—Piggot shot past. The Scotsmen retaliated but were called up for offside. Just afterwards Hannah run along the line and had a fine tussle with Bishop thereby gaining a corner kick off him.

Beautiful Goal.

A well-placed ball by the Caleys' outside—Hannah—landed right to Matt Shaw's head, giving Burrows no chance to clear, making the Caledonians four ogals ahead. The Vets now warmed up and made a successful attempt to bring down the ball to the other end. Curtiss and Norman accomplished nice piece of play and tested Brunton for the first time that gave the Vets a corner kick but it was fruitless.

Excitement Run High.

It was now a battle between the Brother Willshaws and the Veterans' forwards. Brunton saved a beautiful try from the Vets' inside right, backed up with Ryan and Edwards. The ball travelled twice across the Caledonians' goal and Piggot, Sharman and Curtiss tried hard to open the scoring for the Vets, but Brunton cleared repeatedly with Norman in close attendance who was only a few yards in front of an open goal lifted the ball high over the crossbar. Norman was playing the best game of his life, but could not force the issue because he seemed to be over-shadowed by the Caledonian centre-half, McMillian. After this Hannah had a solo run down the wing and crossed to the left wing, then to the centre—Jas. Shaw—took the ball right into the Vets' goal, and to the amazement of everybody he fell on top of the ball. Of course, this did not finish this incident for Matt Shaw had a try himself, but he eventually had to give it up for the ball was in a net that compelled him to sit down—Burrows clearing easily. The Piggott-Sharman wing transferred the game again to the Caleys' goal which resulted in an unproductive corner-kick. Nothing of interest transpired after this and the game ended with a four-goal advantage.

Caledonians 4, G.W.V.A. 0.

A Summary of the Game.

To the surprise of everybody present the captain of the G.W.V.A. did not take the advantage of the wind in the first half, thereby making it easy for the Caledonians. For a greater part of the game, there was no less than twelve throw-ins from the touch, it being caused by the wind, while the Vets were holding the Scots in check. Pressure told in the end, for the Caleys' right wing men—Hannah and Shaw—tackled and crossed until the inside right registered the first goal. The Vets' forward line moved automatically up the field that gave the Willshaws an easy clearance, for the want of passing at the proper time. The goal scored by McDowall was questioned by the Vets as offside, but the referee allowed it, claiming the player was on play while the back and ball was in front of him. Matt Shaw got the first and last goal. The Vets tried to bring down the lead on many raids on the Scots' defence. The fourth goal was the result of a beautiful corner kick taken by Hannah, the ball going to Matt Shaw, who headed the ball through.

A Good Team.

The Veterans have a good team, and in Burrows, the goal-keeper, they have a dandy, for many a time he kept the Caleys from scoring. Gamble and Bishop played well, although the former is a gentleman in sport but is afraid he can't come back. Ryan was the pick of the half-backs for the Vets. Norman and Curtiss were the outstanding forwards.

After many practices the Caleys trotted out a satisfactory, well-balanced team. Brunton only had to be alert to clear his goal while the Vets had all good, more particularly the Matt Shaw-Hannah wing carrying off the honors.

The refereeing didn't, of course, please some of the spectators—no referee does. His decisions were satisfactory but it would be advissble for him to give his verdict a little quicker.

Analysis of the Game.

Caledonians—	1st half	2nd half	Total
Goal kicks	2	6	8
Corner kicks	5	3	8
Goals	3	1	4
Offside	0	3	3
G.W.V.A.—	1st half	2nd half	Total
Goal kicks	3	3	6
Corner kicks	0	3	3
Offside	0	1	1

Notes on the Game.

The third goal that was scored by the Caledonians was accomplished by Bob Hannah as he placed the ball into the goal-mouth in the corner of the goals which Burrows caught, but Jas. Shaw made sure.

Mr. Harry Taylor was early on hand for Saturday's game, for nobody witnessed him pulling up the Scottish Standard Flag that carried a Rampant Lion conspicuously.

After many exciting days in France, when he was attached to the Highland Battalion of the Royal Engineers, Piper Thom played, "Scotland the Brave" on the Bagpipes while taking the Scotsmen on to the field.

As there is no admission prices charged to see the games, the various clubs will make a voluntary collection to help defray the expenses of each team at every game. To meet with this object the Caledonian Club have acquired a neat little mahogany box for this purpose. A good response was made on Saturday.

The football players are greatly indebted to the Exhibition Board for having consented to give the free use of the dressing rooms below the band stand.

A regrettable feature of the Exhibition grounds is the lack of a Drinking Fountain to accommodate the public—only pure water is all that is necessary.

The G.W.V.A. Band was out in full force in mufti and rendered a number of selections during the afternoon, under the leadership of Bandmasters Pryer and Hughes.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Written as a successor to those mystery plays now playing New York, namely, "The Invisible Foe," "The Woman in Room Thirteen," "Three Faces East," "The Unknown Purple," "The Crimson Alibi at Nine Forty-Five," etc., "The Revelations of a Wife" looks like a worthy one. It contains everything that goes to make a much wanted modern play of mystery. A strong, well-written and produced play with an unusual bright vein of comedy, it is as perfect a performance as one can ever hope to see; a play that requires intelligent people to interpret it. It is life—real life—modern, yet mystifying, with a delightful vein of real comedy. The producers are sending this play here with an unusual cast of recognized players, selected as types and their ability to act. This remarkable play will be presented at the Grand Opera House for two days, starting Tuesday, April 27, matinee, with daily matinee for ladies only. Nights for everybody over sixteen.

POLLYANNA

There is enormous local interest in the "Pollyanna" engagement which begins at the Grand for one day only, Saturday, May 1st. Eleanor H. Porter's popular "Pollyanna" stories have brought gladness to hundreds of thousands over the world. The comedy based upon them by Catherine Chisholm Cushing not only preserves their quaint incidents and their radiant optimism that teaches the true joy of living, but it also visualizes the glad girl herself to the delight of the multitudes who have read about her. Probably no character of fiction in many years has so firmly gripped the affections of the people, young and old, as Pollyanna Whittier. This lovely young apostle of gladness, who is all the more adorable because she is unconscious that she is conveying a message, is depicted in her lonely orphanage and happy radiant young womanhood. There is so much sorrow in the world's affairs just now that the joyous optimism of this glad-hearted play is hailed with morbidity. Pollyanna Producing Co. brings here an excellent company. The favourite characters of the "Pollyanna" stories are depicted by Lolita Westman, who plays the title-role, and will be supported by Pacie Ripple, Wallace Erskine, Kate Lester, Arthur Ward, William Daly, Augusta Durgeon, Peter W. Maguire and others.

The advance sale everywhere has been enormous and is very significant of the general favorite of the "Pollyanna" story.

In dressing up your old car for the coming summer's touring the cellular part of the radiator should be painted—not with the often-used aluminum paint, but with lamp black, which radiates heat more readily and does not assume the dead look which aluminum paint takes on after it has been heated for a number of times.

A very good radiator paint is made up by stirring about four ounces of lamp black in a mixture of three ounces of boiled linseed oil and one ounce of turpentine. A sprayer, such as often used for spraying body polish on the car, makes an excellent device for applying the radiator paint to the insides of the cells which cannot very well be reached by means of a brush.—From "American Motorist."

OBITUARY

ANNIE OAKES

The death occurred on Saturday afternoon of Annie Oakes aged 81 years after a short illness. The deceased was born in Mariposa and had only resided in this city for three years. During her residence here she lived with her son, Mr. Fred Oakes, 690 Ross street.

She made a wide circle of friends by her kind motherly character and was highly respected. At Mariposa her death will cause wide spread regret for she was loved by all. In her younger days she was ever forward in church work and in any good cause was an eager worker. Since coming to P[illegible]oro she has attended St. James Church.

She leaves one son Fred and two daughters. Her husband predeceased her some years ago.

The funeral took place from her late residence this afternoon to the Little Lake Cemetery. Rev. Greatrix her former pastor at St. James Methodist Church conducting the service at the house.

IN MEMORIAM.

CROWE.—John S. Crowe died 28th January, 1920.

Father, young man, is the sweetest name in all the world, and should be held in reverence by every girl. The time is coming when his feeble hands will be folded, his watchful eyes closed, and the lips once warm with father's love will be cold; the fond heart whose anxious beatings once followed your wayward feet will be stilled for ever. So while you can, call him father.

—Written by Mother and Children.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Pte. Harry Worrall, late of the '93rd Battalion Band, died of wounds April 25th, 1918:

We little thought as we said good-bye
That we parted forever and you were to die.
Grief that we felt word cannot tell
For we could not be with you to bid you farewell.
You nobly answered duty's call
And gave your life for one and all.
Your unknown death was a bitter blow
That none but an aching heart can know.

—From His Loving Wife and Little Son.

IN ATLANTIC CITY.

OTTAWA, April 26.— Sir Robert Borden, it is understood, will be in Atlantic City early in May and will spend a few days there before leaving for Ottawa. He will probably be here about the middle of next month. An effort is being made to prorogue in June, although the date will necessarily depend on the progress made with business still to come before the House.

GEORGE ST. METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday was a special missionary day in the George street church. Rev. S. H. Soper, who is a missionary on furlough from West China, preached at both services, the pastor being absent conducting anniversary services at his previous pastorate in London.

Dr. Soper's visit and messages were of special interest to the congregation of George street, owing to the fact that he occupied this pulpit for three months about 12 years ago, before going to the foreign field.

Mr. Soper's messages yesterday were inspiring and helpful as he told of the wonderful work that is being accomplished in China through Candian Methodism. There are a number of schools in China which have been founded by Methodism, where Chinese boys are being taught the Christian faith and where they are trained to become Ministers of the Gospel. About seven years ago, however, when Mr Soper went to China, a need was felt for Christian schools, where boys would be trained to become leaders in other professions, such as dentists, lawyers, doctors, scientists etc. Mr. Soper discovered a plot of four acres in the city where he labors. This plot was not under cultivation which is an unusual occurrence in China. He learned that this land was owned by the Methodist church. Through Mr. Soper's instrumentality an industrial school was erected there and the Chinese boys who attend the school are trained in agriculture as well as other lines of endeavour. The boys do the agricultural work in part payment for their tuition.

Mr. Soper's whole soul is in the work of this industrial school. While he did not know much about farming when he took up this work, he has been successful in teaching the boys along agricultural lines with splendid results.

At the Sunday school session, Mr. Soper showed some lantern slides of scenes taken around the industrial school with his own camera. These proved to be interesting and instructive.

When Mr. Soper left China on furlough over a year ago there were 8,000 adherents of Canadian Methodism in China, and 8,000 Methodist Sunday School scholars. "In spite of our industrial turmoil in the world," said Mr. Soper, "the spirit of the living God is gaining access into the hearts of men as it never did before.

In making an appeal for the support of the missionary cause by our churches, Mr. Soper pointed out that in 1914 a Canadian dollar could be exchanged for two silver Chinese dollars. Now, however, a Canadian dollar is only worth one Chinese dollar. Owing to this fact our missionaries are now faced with the high cost of living problem as we are in this country.

A SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL EVENT

INTERESTING PROGRAMME PROVIDED AT QUEEN MARY SCHOOL.

On Friday evening last a very successful social event under the auspices of the Queen Mary school and Home Club was held at Queen Mary school. The programme for the evening was in charge of members of the club and the teachers of the city were the invited guests. Soon after eight o'clock a gathering of about one hundred assembled in the lower hall of the school, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and after an address of welcome by the President, Mrs. S. T. Medd, the following programme was rendered:

Vocal solo—Mr. Barton.
Recitation—Mrs. Connolly.
Piano solo—Mr. J. W. Worth.
Dialogue—"Mrs. Gaskell Advertises for a Cook."
A Rabbit Party—In which all present were expected to take part. This consisted of various contests of an amusing character.

Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee were then served to the company and after this the evening was brought to a close by an old-fashioned spelling match conducted by Inspector Mowat.

Great credit is due to the committee and particularly Mrs. Barns for the success of the evening.

EVANGELIST AT FREE METHODIST

Evangelist C. V. Fairbairn speaking yesterday in Free Methodist Church from the text: "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you" (Acts 1:8). Said that the great need of the church to-day was the energizing power of the Holy Ghost. Men are willing to launch Forward Movements but shun personal piety. When the Holy Ghost is left out of our worship, our plans, our life, spiritual dearth and death ensues. Let the spirit of man leave the body and the man ceases at once to function as a man. When the Spirit of God leaves a church, immediately that church ceases to function as a church of God. The result is; there are no spiritual children born, no souls are born again to keep up the name. The church may adopt the children of the world and the flesh and the devil, but they do not, nor will they ever bear the resemblance of the children of God. The adoption that makes new creatures in Christ Jesus can only be accomplished by the power of the Holy Ghost. Let us get back to God's plan for the church.

PARLIAMENT READY FOR THE BUDGET

IN THE CAMP OF THE NEW FARMER'S PARTY IS GREATEST ACTIVITY SEEN.

OTHERS FEAR THEM

OTTAWA, Ont., April 27.— Parliamentarians are sharpening their swords for the battle of the budget. The country's fiscal policy is to be made public early in May. None but those who share the secrets of State know what Sir Henry Drayton will say. But it is safe to assume that he will not tinker much with the tariff. In other words he will stand pat and his first budget will be a protectionist budget. He needs the money and has yet to be convinced that there are other ways of raising it. Hence the business of sharpening swords.

It is in the camp of the Farmers that the greatest activity is seen. The agrarians are preparing to "carry the war into Africa" from the outset and are bound to make a deep impression. It is their first session of Parliament as a separate and distinct party and they are cognizant of the fact that the eyes of the whole country are watching them. In the preliminary skirmishes that have already taken place they have made several holes in the armor of their opponents.

Not Radical Free Traders.

In objective the Farmers are a free trade party, though it would be a gross misrepresentation of even Dr. Clark himself to say that he knows so little about the tariff to contend that Free Trade can be made the law of the land overnight. 'Red Michael" is an inveterate Free Trader. He preaches it and would practise it, but not as Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The old Liberal chieftain gave Canada prohibition as they have it in Britain and free trade as they have it in Maine. The Hon. Dear member would give the Dominion free trade as they have it in England, but he is too sane a statesman to change the country's fiscal policy with one stroke of the pen. Nor is the agrarian leader (Mr. Crerar more radical than his distinguished follower. He told Parliament in the debate on the address that the Farmers do not wish to sweep away the tariff at one fell blow.' He went on to explain that, broadly speaking, their policy is based on the principle that the implements and tools of production should be "free" from taxation and that the necessaries of life should be made as "free" as possible. In that regard they would favor a substantial all-round reduction of the customs tariff. Mr. Crerar would increase the tax on luxuries because he "cannot see the wisdom of having certain classes of luxuries imported into Canada at a lower rate of duty than that imposed on such necessaries of life as cotton, woollens, boots and shoes." He favors increasing the import on luxuries to fifty per cent. with an excise tax on the manufacturer in Canada of such luxuries. Other planks in his platform are free trade with Britain in five years and a generous measure of reciprocity with the United States.

Party Numbers Fourteen.

There are at present fourteen members of the Cross Bench party, including Major G. W. Andrews, soldier member for Centre Winnipeg, and Angus Macdonald, the new Labor member for Timiskaming. On the whole they are eminently safe men. They don't propose to tear anything up by the roots or overturn society. There is no section of the House that has a greater respect for law and order upon which to build the superstructure of liberty than the United Farmers. And no member of the Commons possess greater personal magnetism than Mr. Crerar, if his followers are to be believed. They say the only man who is comparable with him in this respect is Ernest Lapointe, upon whom fell the mantle of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the Liberal members from Quebec. The Farmer chieftain has the admiration and affection of all the members of his party, who have been feeling very keenly his prolonged absence from the House owing to illness.

The agrarian leader has a formidable lieutenant in Dr. Michael Clark, who stumped his native Northumberland with Sir Edward Grey when that statesman was first elected to the Mother of Parliaments. Dr. Clark would be an ornament in any deliberative assembly. As an orator he has scarcely a peer in the Dominion. Then there is Mr. Maharg, the president of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers. He is not a barnstormer, but his opinions always command respect and as a fighter he is a tower of strength to the Farmers' cause. Reid of Mackenzie is a level-headed Scot from the Orkney Islands, who knows the West and its problems and is a sturdy advocate of freer trade. He is a member of the Canadian Council of Agriculture and is a

THE ITALIANS STAGED A DEMONSTRATION

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 26 (by Camillo Cianfara).—The Italians took advantage of a concert in honour of the visiting Allied delegations last night to stage a demonstration in favour of awarding Fiume to Italy.

All the Allied leaders who had been attending the sessions of the Council of Premiers, which closed at 8 p.m., were in the audience. When the orchestra struck up the Italian National Anthem, the Italians, led by the members of the nobility who are wintering on the Riviera, rose, and turning toward Prime Minister Lloyd-George and Premier Millerand, shouted:

"Long Live Fiume and the Adriatic. We fought for them, but with 500,000 Italians dead. You gave a whole empire to Greece, who murdered your soldiers in the streets of Athens."

Lloyd-George and Millerand only smiled resignedly.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION AND HUNDREDS KILLED

Hundreds have been killed, the despatch said.

In Belgrade the government was reported protecting itself with machine guns.

The despatch was unconfirmed.

Twenty persons were reported killed in Agram.

MORAL PLAY AT THE COURT

"REVELATIONS OF A WIFE" MEANS EVERY DAY PROBLEMS OF MATRIMONIAL LIFE.

The biggest turn out of the week heeded the advice in the advance notices of "The Revelations of a Wife" one of the most interesting moral plays at popular prices seen on the Court stage. Last night's audience was attentive as the lessons derived were of such a heart-to-heart nature that they were just to the point—depicting present day problems of the "marriage and divorce" question that are oftentimes difficult to grasp in books "The Revelations of a Wife" carries a story that actually appears to be real in every sense, the cast especially acting so and leaving no stone unturned in making it one of the cleverest allegorical performances of its kind seen in this city. It might be termed a new mystery play told in a prologue and four acts. It is from the pen of Grace Hayward, well known in the writing world.

From the very beginning the interest is self sustaining and carried an electric effect. It is so intensely pictured that it deeply puzzles and makes you move around in your seat in anxiety at the incidents to follow. Of course it is common and always has been to human life ,that a person is generally "blessed" with a "past." Such in brief is the lot fallen to Lawyer Sterling's wife, who becomes most alarmed and imagines that she is seeing a "ghost." This more than put her on the verge of collapse, and why?—simply because she does not dare to tell her husband, whom she loves, and fears that happiness will be destroyed and his heart broken. Unable to gain a confession or even satisfy himself as to the queer acting of his wife, Lawyer Sterling decides to seek a young lady companion to keep his wife company and in this way learn or at least get some information. Miss Kity Constance is the one selected and she too becomes so entangled that the complications arising are so binding that it is left for those who attend to make it out.

"The Revelations of a Wife," is just the kind of a play that big cities like. It is strikingly intense and a mystery story of remarkable interest. The entire action takes place in the home of Grant Sterling at Chicago. There is a prologue to denote the lapse of ten days after which four acts follow. Godfrey Matthews as Grant Sterling, the lawyer, is a very capable performer ,and the part of his wife, by Margaret Dalton, is well portrayed as can be said of Florance Field, in the role of Kitty Constance. Able in the assistance of these principals are Bert Sabourin, Bennett R. Finn, Jean McAlpin, Mrs. Frank Frayne, George Byrne and Master Henry.

There were two performances yesterday and two more follow to-day, with the matinee for women only and children under 16 not admitted. Miss Alice Sterling, "a woman with a past," gives her views to the women at the matinee on the question of marriage and divorce. Capacity is expected for the remainder of the stay here.

HIGH TRIBUTE TO HON. A. J. MACKAY

HOUSE LEADERS EXPRESS REGRET AT DEATH OF FORMER SPEAKER.

TORONTO, April 27.—From all sections of the Ontario Legislature yesterday regret was expressed at the passing in Alberta of the late Hon. A. G. MacKay, at one time Commissioner of Crown Lands for Ontario, and later Leader of the Liberal Opposition. Upon motion of Mr. Dewart, seconded by Premier Drury, the House unanimously decided to appoint a committee to draft a resolution expressing to the Alberta Legislature Ontario's recognition of the services of the late Hon. Mr. MacKay and sympathy with the Western Province in its loss.

Mr Dewart said it was not only because of the fact that the late Hon. Mr. MacKay formerly occupied the position of Leader of the Liberal party that he desired to move the resolution, but also because of his past intimate acquaintance with the late Minister. Hon. Mr. MacKay, he said, was a classmate of his in University, and his brilliant advance to eminence as one of the foremost counsel of the Dominion had been watched with sympathetic interest by Mr Dewart.

Premier Drury, in seconding Mr. Dewart's motion, expressed entire concurrence in the sentiments expressed by the Leader of the Opposition. "I join with him," he said, "in my tribute to the memory of the late Hon. Mr. MacKay and in my support of the resolution before the House."

Hon. Thomas Crawford, who occupied the position of Speaker when Hon. Mr. MacKay was a member of the House, referred to the late Alberta Minister as a man "loyal to his party and to his country, a man of great ability and force of speech, a man who was a hard hitter, a good fighter, but always fair, and never known to strike a blow below the belt."

EXECUTOR INCURRED COSTS TO ESTATE AS TENANT OF HOUSE

THESE CHARGES DISPUTED IN SURROGATE COURT—HEARING OF HASTINGS CASE.

An interesting point of law was brought out this morning in the Surrogate Court when the accounts of the executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Margaret McGee of Hastings, were being passed. The executors are Messrs. A. J. English, merchant, and A. U. Bailey, manager of the Bank of Toronto, both of Hastings. Mr. Bailey was a tenant of the deceased when she died in 1908, and has occupied the house in the intervening twelve years up to the present. The rent had continued at the same rate as in 1908. He had certain repairs made to the house which amounted to 50 per cent. of the rent during that time. These costs were charged against the estate, and the question arose as to whether an executor could have such repairs made, incurring the charge against the estate.

The audit was adjourned this morning to be resumed at a date to be decided upon later.

In the meantime the parties concerned will have an opportunity of trying to reach an agreement on the question of what part of cost of repairs should be allowed. Failing an agreement counsel shall present authorities to Judge Huycke to guide him in arriving at a decision.

An adjustment of the rent of the house occupied by Mr. Bailey was made for the last twelve months. Mr. D. J. Lynch of Campbellford, represented the executors; Mr. G. A Payne of Campbellford, acted for Miss Hazel McGee ,and Mr. E. D. Hall of Peterboro for Mrs. Wannamaker and Rose McGee.

MR. AND MRS. GRANT GONE TO SCOTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Grant of this city left last week on a trip to Scotland. They will visit England and France and expect to be away three months. Mr. Grant, who is manager of the firm of Grant and Thorpe, entered into business here eight years ago and has established a sound success. While his business partner, Mr. Charles Thorpe, was in France during the war, Mr. Grant carried on alone and earned the holiday he is now enjoying.

This firm has a Toronto office, which recently secured the contract for the electric fixtures for the new Allen Theatre in Vancouver, which, when completed, will be one of the finest and largest in Canada. They have also completed the installation of fixtures in three Allen theatres in Toronto ,and others in St. Catharines, London and Brantford.

PRISONERS STRIKE IN THE JAILS

HUNGER STRIKES CONTINUES AMONG THE IRISH PRISONERS.

70 IN BED

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 27.—The hunger strike of 174 of the 179 Irish prisoners in Wormwood Scrubbs jail entered its seventh day to-day.

The condition of twelve of the prisoners was reported serious. Seventy were in bed from weakness.

The strike is in protest against "continued imprisonment without charge or trial," Arthur O'Brien, secretary of the Irish Self Determination League, said.

THE STOCK MARKET OPENS IRREGULAR

TRADERS HESITATING AT THE OPENING—EXCHANGE MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 27.—The stock market opened irregular and hesitating to-day. Traders apparently had not made up their minds as to whether the market had gone too far in yesterday's advance. The trend was higher. No Reading transactions were recorded in the first few minutes in spite of optimistic stories printed in morning papers here that Reading, with its assets segregated under the Supreme Court decision, had been worth upwards of $125.

Prices were subjected to a drive shortly after 11 a.m., which carried most of the leader's down anywhere from 1 to 2 points and General Motors 7 points. The drive however accomplished little more than the drives of Monday for as soon as pressure was lifted the stocks rebounded to the former highs of the day.

On later sales Reading made a new high for the year, crossing 93.

Opening prices were: Studebaker 112 off 3-8, Sinclair 35 1-2 up 1-4, Mexican Petroleum 172 1-2 up 1-4, Rep. Steel 79 off 14, International Paper 77 14 up 5-8, Bethlehem Car B. 91 7-8 up 7-8, Baldwin 117 off 1-4, Corn Products 102 off 3-8, Lackawanna Steel 83 1-2 up 1 1-2, General Motors 318 up 1, American Woollens 130 up 1-4, New York Central 73 3-8 up 1, Pan American 96 3-4 up 2, Republic Steel 98 1-2 unchanged, U. S. Steel 98 1-4 to 98 3-8 up 3-8 to 1-2.

Sales of Reading recorded showed 4,000 shares sold at 91 1-2, 200 at 91 3-4, and 100 at 92. This stock closed yesterday at 92 1-2.

Buying Movement.

A general movement hit the stock exchange during the first hour to-day and some issues advanced sharply. The leader on the advance was General Motors, which went to 324 up 6 points over to-day's opening and 50 points over last week's low. Reports on the floor of the exchange were that a short interest had been trapped in stock under 300, and is having difficulty in covering. Reports of a melon cutting in this issue also added strength to the stock.

On this buying movement, Reading ran up to a new high above 94.

Exchange Market.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Weakness developed at the opening of the foreign exchange market to-day. Demand sterling was off 5 1-2 cents at $3.75 3-4; Franc checks opened 17.02, off 5 centimes; lire checks 23.03 off 13; Marks demand were slightly higher at $.0175; Marks cables $.0177; Canadian dollars $.89.70

DEMAND STERLING.

The weakness which developed today in foreign exchange and which depressed demand sterling about 10 points from yesterday's high, bringing the figure to $3.75 3-4, did not affect the market noticeably during the early hour.

Sterling recently stood above $4.00, its strength being apparently due to shipments of gold to the United States from Great Britain, with reports that still heavier shipments were contemplated. The impetus of this movement having passed, the street believed that sterling was again seeking the level justified by trade balances.

Sees Many Changes in Peterboro After a Long Absence

MR. J. F. DELANEY HAS BEEN AWAY FROM PETERBORO FOR TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS.

A FEW IMPRESSIONS

"I was indeed surprised to see what a beautiful city you have now." The city has grown and has many fine buildings. It is wonderful the way things change".

The speaker was Mr. J. F. Delaney of New Westminster, British Columbia, home on a visit to his wife's sister, Miss M. J. Martin, 795 George street, after an absence of twenty-eight years. Mr. Delaney was born on Murray street, a son of Mr. John Delaney and raised in this city and after his long absence Mr. Delaney has had a long list of his old friends to call on and he says that it gives him unusual pleasure to find the success they have met with. Many of his friends have crossed the great divide and it is with fondest memories that he recalls his boyhood days spent with them.

Peterboro of Old.

Mr. Delaney recalled the Peterboro of those days as far different from to-day. There was practically no west end as we call it, No C.G.E. No Quaker Oats No Lift Lock. No street cars and all the one hundred and one conveniences of to-day. Money was scarce and prominent wealthy men in the city to-day were then employed at $1 a day. Mr. Delaney decided that he might just as well die looking for it as waiting for it and in his early manhood went west. The trip west was made on the C.P.R. then the only transcontinental and he told of the great piles of buffalo skeletons then along the tracks where they had been shot by the men.

Off to the West.

Winnipeg was but a small and struggling town and the other centres were but villages with one store, a post office and a frame station. Slocane, British Columbia, first attracted young Delaney and Mr. Delaney recalled the activity of this famous mining centre in those days. Money was made and lost over night. From there he drifted throughout the whole west, California, Nevada, Arizona and the entire western states mining and trading in mining properties. Unlike the proverbial rolling stone that gathered no moss, he gathered a fair share and eight years ago started into the mining real estate business in New Westminster and has as he says "done well."

Speaking on the conditions in British Columbia he states that there is a great business boom in British Columbia. In Vancouver business has never been better and a marked improvement in trade has taken place of late. Mr. Delaney's advice is to a young man to go west, where he tells of boundless opportunities to make money. The crops throughout British Columbia and Washington and parts of Idaho look excellent and a bumper crop is expected. Mr. Delaney dwelt on the beauties of British Columbia. In February ploughing and seeding were general and gardens were being planned and planted. He has made numerous trips to California and describes the southern part as one huge garden a veritable fairy land of sunshine and flowers. In Vancouver he said there were only three cold months in the year. With roses blooming in December there is a decided contrast to the cold and in-

MECHANICAL HANDS NOT SATISFACTORY

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 27.—That artificial limbs turned out in government factories are the equal of any in the world, was the statement of Col. Hiram Starr, orthopedic specialist, to a special committee on pensions this morning. The Canadian artificial leg he thought, was giving general satisfatcion. It was difficult, however, to give a satisfactory arm and every country was having difficulty in securing a mechanical hand that would satisfy. Col. Starr said every effort was made to fit patient men who had come here from England and discarded artificial limbs they were allowed to choose in England, and adopted Canadian limbs, which they found satisfatcory. There were very few amputation cases, said Col. Starr, who could not wear an artificial limb.

BIDDING WAS BRISK FOR CALDWELL HOME

TOP BID WAS 9,500—RESERVE NOT REACHED.

As no bid reached the reserve price on the residence of the late Dr. Caldwell, 201 Brock street, it was not auctioned at a late hour this afternoon The bidding started at $5,000 which sum was offered by Mr. John Craig and went in leaps and bounds to $9,000. Then the bidding was slowed up and it went to $9,500 In spite of the good points of the house enumerated by the auctioneer, Mr. W. J. Hancock no further offers were made. At time of going to press the sale of the house was left to the executors of the Caldwell estate, who were present at the sale.

War Shipping Organization Demobilizes

The British Ministry of Shipping (Canada) which during its five and one half years of existence practically controlled the export trade of Canada, inland and overseas, clearing over 3,000 transports and liners from Canadian Ports and Portland, will, according to an announcement by Sir Arthur Harris, its Director General, be demobilized on March 31st, next.

All correspondence relating to the affairs of the Ministry in Canada after that date is to be addressed to Mr. R. M. Rosbrugh, Director General, British Ministry of Shipping, No. 165 Broadway, New York.

The activities of the Ministry in Canada, including the Overseas Department which it succeeded, date from August 1914, at which time the Dominion Government, appreciating the importance of securing the services of an expert Overseas Officer, conferred with the heads of the large Canadian Transportation Companies with the result that the then President of the Canadian Pacific placed at the service of the Government Mr., now "Sir" Arthur Harris, who acted as Director Overseas Transport up to the 5th December 1918, at which date the Department was absorbed into the British Ministry of Shipping, Sir Arthur Harris continuing in charge as Director General in Canada.

During the period 1914-18 the Director General practically controlled the export trade of Canada, inland and overseas, and that the work was well and impartially performed was evidenced from the fact that the Railway and Steamship interests were satisfied, and the general business of the Country continued with a minimum of disturbance.

The development of the Department may be realized by the number of vessels cleared from Canadian Ports and Portland between the 26th August 1914 and 31st December 1918, viz:—

1914	1915	1916	1917	1918	1919
Transports.	Transports.	Transports.	Transports. and Liners.	Transports. and Liners.	Transports. and Liners.
43.	122.	360.	737.	875.	976.

During the above mentioned period in excess of sixteen million gross tons of munitions, war material, and supplies, were moved inland and overseas.

The Director General was supported by an efficient staff drawn from the service of the Canadian Public. They did good work for Canada and the Empire, and the fact that it was done quietly, almost to the point of self-effacement, is recognized and appreciated.

The General Public little know the onerous obligations devolving on the successful administration of an undertaking of such magnitude.

When the history of Canada's participation in the Great War is chronicled not the least of its achievements will have been the successful administration of its transport service.

The report of the Select Committee (Imperial Government) on national expenditure issued as a White Paper in London on the 9th January last pays a deserving tribute to the effective and economical administration of the affairs of the Ministry of Shipping not only in the United Kingdom but in various Colonies of the World to which the operations of the Shipping Control was extended.

AN APPEAL FOR THE RESTOCKING OF PETERBORO WATERS WITH GAME FISH

When Peterborough tells the world of the beauties of the scenery of the Kawartha and Trent districts, of which it is the geographical and tourist centre, it should not forget the need of re-stocking the lakes and rivers with the game fish that are the chief attraction to so many of the summer and autumn visitors.

The Fisheries Department of the Ontario Government has not neglected this district, and their efforts to replenish the supply of fish are gratefully acknowledged by sportsmen and others who are interested and somewhat anxious about the future of fishing in these waters.

Fingerlings from the Government hatcheries have been deposited almost annually in Stoney Lake, but there is a feeling that this effort at re-stocking is inadequate. This opinion has been recently revived and sharpened perhaps by memories of the catches of other years, and intimation of the approaching open season. At any rate, it has become a general conviction that the lure of the Peterborough County waters, alike to visitors and residents, needs to be maintained. The Department will, of course, give a courteous hearing to requests of this kind, but it would be more strongly impressed by representations from an energetic Fish and Game Association such as was proposed last October by Tris Speaker, of the Cleveland Baseball Club.

Mr. Speaker spent ten days of his post-season vacation in the Pigeon Creek and Rice Lake localities, and from his observations, advised an organisation of the sportsmen of this city and district for the purpose of protecting and maintaining the game fish in these waters.

Nothing came of the passing agitation except the prompt action of Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.L.A., in urging upon the Department the reconstitution of the system of inspection by wardens and inspectors. Lacking reports to the contrary, it is presumed that this renovation is effecting an improvement this year. In any event, the Department, as the trustee and custodian of the natural resources of fish and game in this county, should be as faithful as possible to its trust. The closer its contact with local conditions, the more sympathetic its interest will be, especially in regard to re-stocking.

If the local fishermen who have already made a mental survey of their kit of rods and lines and bait cannot muster the initiative and co-operation to unite in conveying to the Government and the local member their appreciation of past attentions and their hopes that a broader programme of re-stocking and protecting will be assumed, this appeal may suffice to indicate the desires of many persons who are alarmed at the steady depletion of the fish in Peterborough's waters.

It is, indeed, a mystery why the fishermen, of large and small means, living in the very centre of one of the finest chains of water in this country, cannot get together to safeguard their common sport, and sometimes provider, when "lady luck" smiles, of a cheap and welcome meal of lunge or bass as a variant to the rather monotonous fare of steaks and roasts.

The explanation of this disunion is probably found in that spirit of indifference or eglect that doesn't lock the stable door until the horse is gone.

PRICE OF WIVES GOES UP IN AFRICAN MARKET

LONDON, April 27.—Lord Dewar, just returned from travels in Central Africa, reports that the high cost of living is reflected even in the wife market among African natives. Four spearheads was a good price for a wife in pre-war days, but now eight spearheads is considered low. In cattle districts a wife now costs eight cattle, instead of four.

NOGIE'S CREEK CORRESPONDENCE

NOGIE'S CREEK, April 27.—Spring is still sitting in the lap of Old Winter and seems in no hurry to leave. Yesterday an East wind drove the ice out of Pigeon Lake and immediately the Fish Inspectors were on duty.

Mr. Jas. J. Bardeau, who a short time ago bought the property of Mrs. Fillippo, has moved in and is busy making improvements. They will soon open their grocery store and restaurant.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor, of South Verulam, who has been ill with the smallpox, will soon be out of quarantine.

A jolly crowd of young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker. Dancing was the principal amusement and all enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. Russel McIntosh entertained a large number of young people last week. A good time was enjoyed. An excellent supper was served, after which more dancing and then all were homeward bound.

Miss McGahay was taken ill with the prevailing colds and was obliged to dismiss school for a couple of days.

"The Cedars" gave a good entertainment and dance on Friday to their many friends. This will be the closing of amusements for them for some time as the busy time of preparation for their summer guests has come and a very busy season is expected. This will probably be the last hope of the season.

ACTIVITIES AT THE Y.W.C.A.

Although the gymnasium exhibition is over, work in the classes at the Young Women's Christian Association has not stopped yet, and it is hoped the girls will come out as usual for their regular work. The swimming pool is open all day and evening for swimmers, but there will be no lessons until Miss Payne, the teacher, returns from Toronto.

All girls who expect to have a holiday this summer should come to the camp meeting Wednesday night, not only to hear all about the camp for this summer but to see lantern views of it.

Good times are coming for the girls who love the out-of-doors. The first will be a hike next Saturday afternoon, starting from the Association at 2.30. All girls are invited to come.

The following are the activities for the week:

Wednesday—7.00— Aesthetic Dancing Class, Jolly Juniors' Club; 8.00—Camp Meeting.

Thursday — 7.30—Beginners' Advanced and Ladies' Gymnasium; 8.00—T.M.T.M. Club;

Friday—7.00—Teachers' Class.

Saturday—9.30—Junior and Babies' Gymnasium; 2.00—Ever Bright and Sunshine Club Hike; 2.30—Hike for all girls.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless, is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanese the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

HE JUMPS FROM MOVING TRAIN TO AN AIRPLANE

WASHINGTON, April 27.—Word has reached the War Department that Arthur Oakley, a former officer of the Flying Corps transferred himself from the top of a moving train to an airplane at Ellington Field, Texas, with out injury.

The train was moving about seventy miles an hour when the experiment was tried. As the airplane neared the train a suspension ladder was lowered from it, and this was grasped by Oakley. On account of the wash of air from the train the aviator had difficulty in climbing the ladder, and did not succeeed in doing so until the train had gone a mile.

S. E. J. Cox, described as an oil magnate, who witnessed the demonstration from his own airplane, gave Oakley a lease of ten acres of land.

Church Services.

Special reference both in the service and the sermon was made to the non-returning brave of the battle of St. Julien in St. John's Church. Suitable hymns were sung and both morning and evening Dr. Archbold made mention of those brave men who gave their lives that the dear old meteor flag may still wave and be the outward and visible sign of justice and fair play. It is our individual part to that the sacrifice of those brave men was not in vain.

Two of the originals are at present members of St. John's Parish and were present and several others who were members of the originals and several others who were members of the originals and took part in that "Canadian Mens" are not present in the village.

TOOK 395 SHELLS TO KILL ONE MAN

PARIS, April 27.—Dr. Mercier, a member of the French Academy of Medicine, after an extended investigation, has determined that during a period of five months in 1917 a total of 3,690,000 shells fell on the front of three French armies. The shells, according to Dr. Mercier, killed 13,265 men and wounded 55,412. According to his figures, it took a total of 395 shells to kill one man, and half as many to wound one.

$50 to $75

C. C. M. Prices Only Half Those of Twenty-Five Years Ago

Twenty-five years ago $100 to $150 was paid willingly for a bicycle.

In those days, riders carefully examined the specifications and equipment before buying.

Then came the slump!

Country riding was dropped.

People became careless about their bicycles.

Any kind of a bicycle was thought good enough.

Price—cheapness—was the main consideration.

The Bicycle of Quality Has Come Back

To-day the bicycle—the Bicycle of Quality—has come back.

The few blocks of good pavement in our cities have grown to miles. In some cases to hundreds of miles.

Country roads are being steadily improved.

As a result, bicycling for pleasure, as well as for utility, is gaining in popularity every year.

Riders are again taking pride in their mounts and showing discrimination in their buying.

They are demanding bicycles built of the highest grade materials, with all parts accurately made.

They are demanding bearings that will not only run perfectly when new, but that will continue to run easily.

They are insisting on bicycles that are not only easy and comfortable to ride, but with a quality of materials that assures safety in riding.

They are demanding bicycles that will retain the bright lustre of the showroom product.

The demand to-day is for good bicycles—the highest grade bicycles—the parts of which are always interchangeable, always procurable and have the reputation of a long-established manufacturer behind them. In other words, Canadian riders are insisting on C.C.M. Bicycles — the Standard of Canada — used and sought for by Bicycle Riders in all overseas British possessions throughout the world.

C. C. M. Bicycles are sold at prices consistent with C. C. M. quality.

To pay less is to risk disappointment.

THE LAST MINUTE RUSH.

The order has gone forth in the Ontario Legislature to "speed up," which means that the U.F.O. government has not been able to escape the situation that faced their predecessors at every session— a situation caused by weeks of wasted time spent in the debate on the address from the throne, leaving all the important legislation to be crowded into the last few weeks of the session. The new government has not been any more successful in avoiding this state of affairs than were the old parties, and the result will be that important business will be rushed through during the next few days without proper time being given for its consideratoin, and other legislation that was to have been introduced at the session will have to stand over. Every year is this farce played. The session opens with day after day of speeches that, so far as their usefulness are concerned, might better have been left unsaid. Suddenly the government realizes that the end of the session is drawing near and there is a mad rush to put through the business that has been deferred until the close of the debate. Better things were hoped for during the present session, but apparently there has been no improvement.

THE MORATORIUM.

Press comment throughout the province in regard to the Drury government's proposal that the moratorium declared during the war shall terminate on July 1st of this year, is inclined to criticise the shortness of the notice given. "The termination of the moratorium on two months' notice is a cruel, heartless and short-sighted proceeding," declares the Toronto Telegram, and other journals take the same view, although their language is perhaps not so vigorous as the Toronto organ. Undoubtedly the time is short, and although the people of the province realized that sooner or later the protection conferred as a war measure would have to be removed, they were scarcely prepared to face the situation at such an early date. There will be a difficult time for many families as a result with only two months in which to make possible the liquidating of their old mortgage, or to take care of their obligation by raising money on new mortgages. With the cost of living as it is at present and conditions upset almost as badly as during the war there does not seem any logical reason why a longer notice could not have been given. If the Labor members of the government support the present proposal it is to be imagined that they will have difficulty in convincing many of their constituents of their whole-hearted interest in labor for upon the workers the effect of the moratorium will be most felt.

FILLING THE VACANCIES.

The next regular meeting of the City Council will be of unusual interest, inasmuch as the Council will be called upon to make no fewer than three appointments to fill the vacancies caused by the death of Ald. Harry Phelan and Mr. W. H. Moore, K. C. While the aldermen have on a number of occasions had to make such apointments, the necessity of choosing three officials at one session is unique. In the first place it will be the duty of the Council to choose a successor to Ald. Phelan on the aldermanic board, the alderman selected holding office for the balance of the term of Ald. Phelan's office, which means until the end of 1921. The death of Mr. W. H. Moore necessitates two appointments. The Conucil must choose a new member of the Utilities Commission for the year, the Act providing that the member so selected shall only hold office until the next municipal election. The choosing of a member to fill Mr. Moore's place on the City Trust Commission will also have to be carried out by the Council. There is naturally much speculation as to the appointments, and many names are being mentioned on the street for the vacancies, including those of three ex-mayors, Messrs. W. H. Bradburn, J. J. Duffus and Geo. H. Duncan, and of several ex-aldermen, including Messrs. John Edgar and W. H. Taylor. The Council have, however, given no intimation as to the likely selections. Fortunately there is splendid material available among those who have not served on either board as well and the aldermen should not make their choice without carefully considering the field. The people will expect that appointments will be based on ability and not on personal popularity and the members of the Council doubtless sense that view and are giving the question careful consideration.

THE PURCHASING COMMISSION.

It is surprising to find that many of the members of Parliament are opposing the proposed Government Purchasing Commission. Politicians of the old school, they resent any plan that infringes upon their privileges. And yet common sense should convince them that the present system is the limit of wastefulness and extravagance with each department of the government purchasing supplies in ignorance of what the others are doing. Mr. Ralph Connable, head of the Woolworth Company in Canada, who has been conducting an investigation into the methods used by the different departments, declares that the system is as wasteful of money as though each section boss of a railway negotiated for his own rails and ties and each station agent bought his own oil, soap and brooms, printed his own time tables and built the particular type of station he most admired. It cannot be said that Mr. Connable's picture is overdrawn. It is apparent that there has been gross waste in government buying and an utter lack of system other than that of seeing that the patronage lists, made up of friends of the government, were consistently used. Mr. Connable's solution is a central purchasing staff who would buy all the supplies needed from budgets supplied by each department at the beginning of the year. It is estimated that hundreds of thousands of dollars could be saved by such a system if the buying were centralized and standardization of supplies effected. Instead of the present haphazard, every-department-for-itself, bungling system, Mr. Connable declares that a compact business organization could be established that would handle the purchasing of government supplies as such matters are handled by the big commercial concerns. The patronage lists would of course have to go, which explains the opposition of many members.

THE WAGE QUESTION.

That future strikes may be aimed at prices and not in an effort to increase wages, is the opinion of President Tom Moore, President of the Dominion Trades and Labour Congress, and one of the most enlightened and sane labour leaders in Canada. In an an address at Ottawa the other day, Mr. Moore pointed out that the wage increases granted are immediately eaten up by the increased cost of commodities, and declared that the day was coming when strikes would not be conducted by the Labour movement to obtain better hours or more wages but to prevent the charging of exorbitant prices for commodities. Granting workers increased wages, in Mr. Moore's opinion, is but a joke and no remedy for the situation.

The Hamilton Herald takes the same view of the futility of wage strikes, declaring that this universal scramble for more wages is little better than industrial anarchy. It is unscientific; it is immoral; it is wasteful. Everybody can see now that wages come out of the people themselves, not from some mysterious inexhaustible fund in control of the unspeakable 'capitalists.' Every increase in wages means an addition to the cost of producing something which you and I or both of us want and must pay for if we are to have it, and addition to the cost means addition to the price which we must pay. For instance, theer are many wage earners in Hamilton (we personally know of at least half a dozen) who have been waiting for some years to build homes for themselves, but are waiting until the cost of building goes down. They have seen the cost of building steadily rise until it is so high that it makes their modest plans look ridiculous. And the building trades are planning to increase the cost of building still more by demanding further increases in the cost of labor, which represents by far the chief factor in the cost of a house. These wage earners with an ambition to become home-owners, must put aside their ambition for the present.

But these same wage-earners are not less eager than are the building workers to get more pay for their labor. One of them operates a machine in a shoe factory. Another is employed in a steel industry. A third is a garment worker. A fourth is a printer. Were they all to get what they believe is their right, the men in the building trades would have to pay more for their shoes, their steel, their clothes, their job-printing. If all got what they are after, none would be better off. Only that class of wage-earners which could succeed in getting the better of all the other classes of wage-earners would have improved their condition.

In the ideal industrial commonwealth of which this journal has visions, there will be no such unseemly general scramble for more wages, such selfish attempts of groups of workers to grab from all the other workers more than their share of the common wage fund. In our ideal commonwealth there will be a central board, on which all classes of labour will be represented, whose duty it will be to adjust wages, appraising the value of each class of labor in its relation to all other classes, and deciding what shall be the minimum remuneration of the workers employed in each class. Its decisions will be final, and any class of workers or any section of any class which strikes against the board's decision will be regarded and treated as rebels against the commonwealth and boycotted by all the rest of the community.

Rank Socialism, we fancy we hear someone say. Perhaps; but if it is, so much the better for Socialism. Wouldn't such a plan be infinitely better than the present industrial anarchy, under which every class of workers is the enemy and robber of every other class?

SPRING TIME.

Oh, balmy days of hope renewed.
O, joyous time that's ever bliss.
When grass is green and flowers bloom,
And sunshine doth the warm earth kiss.

O, time when harmony doth reign,
And all things seem to be for good,
When nature smiles her chastity,
And all mankind is understood.

When all the winter's grief is past,
And savage storms do cease to blow,
When birds arrive and harpies play,
And Sol doth take away the snow.

The freshet springs as from a trance
And flings his shackles to the breeze,
And rushes forth with reckless speed
To far off homes in distant seas.

The violet and the lily bloom
The adder-tongue darts forth to see
Her part on Nature's painted screen
Is filled by her successfully.

The trees uncoil their foliage green,
A color bright from Nature's brush,
They add a beauty to the scene,
And form a harbor for the thrush.

And now the South wind hunts us out
And bathes the earth in moisture sweet.
And lends a balmy atmosphere
Humanity does love to greet.

'Tis little things in this old world
That makes our hearts to sing,
But never any quite so much
As Nature's song of Spring.

AT THE AUTO SHOW.

He went to gaze upon the Auto Show
He didn't have six dollars to his name,
And yet he went and rubbered high and low,
And rubbered till his eyes were weak and lame.

For years they had pursued him on the street,
And startle him with loud and ghastly screams,
And made him dodge about with nimble feet,
And often had pursued him in his dreams.

"Dost want to buy a car?" the salesman said,
And showed him cars in long and polished rows;
The stranger merely smiled and shook his head.—
"I simply yearned to see one in repose."

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

ROSE THINKS SHE IS LUCKIER THAN I.

CHAPTER CVII

Mr. Grandon wrote, entirely exonerating us from any blame for Rose's elopment.

"She has always been wilful. We will hope and pray she may be happy," he had said as he closed his letter to Everett.

I had packed and sent her trunk to Chicago. Also I had written her a long letter. In her reply she had said she was so happy that she had no room for regrets even if she had made me and Everett cross.

"I didn't think anyone in the world could be as happy as I am." (she had been married a week when she wrote this.) "Walter is the dearest thing. And I am absolutely first in his affections. He never has loved any woman before— never wanted to marry anyone, even if he is almost thirty. That seems young compared to your husband, doesn't it? But to me the great thing is that I am the only one, the first. No warmed-over affection in mine, Sandra." There was much more, all in praise of Walter.

Without thinking, I handed the letter to Everett to read, then would have taken it back, had I dared, because of what she had said about being first in her husband's affections.

I watched Everett's face as he read. I saw something very like a sneer, the a look of pity upon it.

"Poor girl," he said as he laid the letter down. "I hope she never will be undeceived. But as to being first with Kemp—thinking she has no 'warmed-over affection,' as she expresses it—his affections, or what he gives that name, have been hashed over so many times that I doubt if any remain. But, as I said, we can only hope for the best."

Someway, after Rose left I was happier than she was with me, altho I had enjoyed having her. I spoke of this to Everett, and he replied:

"In the three years you have lived in a different environment you have grown, Sandra. It may be that because I am old—as Rose said— that you, too, have grown older in mind than you would had you married a man nearer your own age. You have learned to fill the hours with things worth while—many of them. An idle person, one who wastes the golden days in foolish running after pleasure is never really happy. I do not mean that we must not enjoy ourselves; a certain amount of pleasure, of play, is as necessary as is the work. But to think of nothing else, as some men and many women do, is absolutely demoralizing."

"I hope I can learn to keep house well, Everett," I said apropos of nothing in his remarks. "Mrs. Gray is teaching me, in case I should have to manage without a housekeeper. I am practically housekeeper a number of hours every week."

"That's fine, Sandra. I scarcely believe it will ever be necessary, but it is something every woman should know. I had intended proposing just what you have don e of your own volition when you were a litle older. It is hard to have good servants unless you understand their duties. We might lose Mrs. Gray or some of the others, then you would find the house did not run as smoothly, and it would annoy us. Then, too, I have a queer theory, Sandra, that every man is entitled to comfort in his home. And he cannot have that unless his home is well managed, whether he is rich or poor."

"Mrs. Gray says I am very apt."

"You should be with such a mother."

I was delighted that Everett so liked my mother. Since her visit he never missed saying nice things about her whenever we talked of domestic affairs, or of capability in a woman. It made me feel so much nearer to him to know he liked my people.

After this talk with Everett —we had many serious little conversations in the months after Rose has visited us—I tried harder to learn the running of a home, and also applied myself to my lessons with Mrs. Barr with renewed interest. I would make myself a companion for my husband! I would make him proud of me, even if he didn't love me as he had Leola.

To-morrow—Rose Has Cause to Envy Me.

CHURCH HAS COSY CORNER FOR LOVERS

PLACE RESERVED FOR THEM IN GALLERY AND LIGHTS TURNED LOW.

While the elder parishioners of the Immanuel Baptist Church, in Chicago, are raising their voices in harmony with the clarion peel of the organ to that patriarchapaen, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning," the juvenile generation, cuddled comfortably in "Lovers' Loft," is paraphrasing the lyrics in a whispered appeal to the janitor to "Let the Lights be burning Lower."

Following a recent suggestion of the Rev. John Thompson that all churches should be equipped with "cozy corners," for the accommodation of the young couples of the community, the Rev. Johnston Myers, Pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, has established such a haven of happiness for the lonely hearts of the neighborhood.

Has Dim Corners.

All the conventional comforts of ages of Cupid who can's find refuge none are are guaranteed to these hostages in other quarters.

A library, a piano, floor lamps, stationery, writing desks and other "non-essentials" in little Danny's lexicon of success are there, together with such absolute requisites as downy davenports, a myriad of soft pillows and adjustments on the lights that will permit of a graduated shading of the illumination. If you have arrived at the advanced stage don't choose to "Brighten the Corner Where You Are"—don't summon the electrical engineer, but manipulate the lighting effects to suit your convenience. There is no cheap crowding.

You can be "in your small corner and I in mine" or vice versa, or not that way at all—and the little church mouse will never squeal.

Pastor Always Ready.

The "Lovers' Loft is open to the matrimonially ambitious swains of the community all day and every night of the week. In real desperate cases the janitor has been advised not to invoke the closing law.

There is a beaten path of soft carpets leading from the "social rooms" to the parson's study, where, for a nominal fee, the "sunshine in your souls" and "joybells in your hearts" may be perpetuated by a few appropriate remarks from Dr. Myers.

"I always have heartily approved of the idea of making the church an attractive rendezvous for the young people," said Dr. Myers.

No Chaperon Needed.

In our congested urban life there are many respectable young girls living in hall bedrooms and splendid young men similarly situated, who have no appropriate place. The church should provide just such a haven.

"We have attempted to equip our 'cosy corners' with all the most modern adjuncts to 'getting acquainted.' I disapprove of chaperons. The very fact that the rooms are located in a church is sufficient to discountenance any conduct unbecoming such an environment.

"I am on the job at all hours to offer happiness, contentment and prosperity for $2.50.

In the meantime the department of public works can go ahead with painting the park benches, without inconveniencing the youth of the city.

HOME-MADE BREAD

Home bread-making reduces the high cost of living by lessening the amount of expensive meats required to supply the necessary nourishment to the body. The increased nutritious value of bread made in the home with should be sufficient incentive to the thoughtful housewife to give this important food item the attention to which it is justly entitled. Bread made with Royal Yeast will keep fresh and moist longer than that made with any other.

Voice Of The People

Peterborough, Ont., April 26, 1920.

The Editor,
Peterborough Examiner,
Peterborough, Ontario.

Dear Sir:—

Kindly permit me, through your columns, to express my opinion as well as the opinion of over a hundred fellows of the Collegiate re "Globe" reporter of this city.

Words fail me to express my contempt for the man, who, for the sake of the Almighty Dollar would betray his (?) city and its school.

The Peterborough Collegiate Institute is known from coast to coast as a thorough, orderly school. It teaches how to solve problem and difficulties. How well it succeeds we all know from its glorious records.

The present difficulty is only one of many difficulties that come up daily. We are, I hope, quite capable of solving the present problem without the noise of the press especially the Toronto press. The "Globe" reporter must have been hard up for news when he had to resort to telling tales out of school. We hear or read nothing in the press if a difficult problem in Algebra has been solved. We hear nothing of the 'forty-five dollar- suit-tearing-and-rotten-egging' at the Toronto schools in the press.

We have strong fellows at the Collegiate who are quite capable of solving the problem. It is in their hands the same as their Algebra problems.

Sir, I remain,
Yours sincerely,
EDWARD T. W. BAILEY,
Cadet Brig.-Gen.

CHARTER ISSUED TO THE FARMERS

LOCAL CHEESE WILL BE SOLD IN MONTREAL.

The movement which has been under way for some months in this district among the farmers to undertake the co-operative sale of their cheese this year in Montreal took definite form Friday in Madoc, where the formation of the company, which is to handle the work, was completed. The Provincial Secretary's Department sent word from Toronto that the charter for the company had been issued. The company will be capitalized at $250,000. The provisional directors decided to proceed with the sale of their cheese in Montreal as soon as the necessary organization to handle the work could be completed.

The following officers were elected: president, R. W. Ireland, president of the Wellington Cheese Factory, Wellington, Ontario.; Vice-President dent, Hugh Maloney, president of Cook's Factory, Marmora, Ont; secretary-treasurer, H. B. Cowan of Farm & Dairy, Peterboro. Members of the Executive; John McCaffery, president of the Alexandria Cheese Factory, Madoc; and J. E. Galvin, Lakefield. Directors: W. H. Crough, Ennismore; T. J. Thompson, Springbrook; and J. J. Morrison, of Toronto. Mr. Morrison is the secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario. Already a considerable number of cheese factories have agreed to consign their cheese to the company for sale in Montreal and an active campaign is to be commenced immediately to line up more factories. It is expected that before long a very large proportion of the cheese in the province will be sold through this company. By-laws were adopted Friday making it possible for locals of the company be established in every riding where a sufficient number of farmers subscribe for stock to form a local.

DIVORCE WORSE EVIL EVEN THAN SALOON

WASHINGTON, April 27.— More than 50 per cent. of the divorces granted in the United States are based on "trumped up charges" resulting from the fascination of the husband or wife for some one else, Francis Miner Moody, of Chicago, executive secretary of the International Committee on Marriage and Divorce, declared here before the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Appearing in support of a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment providing for uniform federal marriage and divorce laws, Mr. Moody declared that the divorce evil was a "worse plague than the saloon ever was" and that the remedy was in federal legislation.

SOUTH AMERICA'S MUSIC FEVER.

Music seems to have taken a new hold on the hearts and minds of South America. Maurice Dumesnil, the pianist, who has just returned from the Southern Continent, says: "the enthusiastic response of the South American to good music is almost unbelievable. Great crowds pack the concert halls, and the interest runs at fever heat. The symphony orchestras, of which there are several, are 'sold out' at every concert. There is a great musical field in South America now, and I am at a loss to understand why more artists do not take advantage of it."

Watery Blood

YOUR blood may be rich and red—well stored with nourishment for the cells and tissues, or it may be thin, weak, and watery.

If thin, there is a pallor of the lips, gums and inside of eyelids. In other words you are anaemic or bloodless.

Since every ounce of nourishment supplied to the human system is obtained from the blood, the anaemic condition means a starving of the nerves and crippled functioning of the vital organs.

headache, lack of energy and ambition, failure of the digestive system, shortness of breath, weak heart action and sluggish, torpid condition of the liver, kidneys and bowels are some of the symptoms of anaemia.

Cure can only be brought about by improving the condition of the blood by use of such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The digestive system has failed to supply proper nourishment from the food you eat, so you must get the blood-forming elements in condensed and easily assimilated form as they are found in this well-known food cure.

The letters published here will give an idea of the benefits to be obtained from the use of

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Anaemia

Miss Alice Howes, 21 Haddington Street, Galt, Ont., writes:—"I was very ill with anaemia, could not sleep at night, and my appetite seemed entirely gone. I suffered in this way for nearly three years, and had treatment from two doctors in Toronto, where I was living at the time, but did not get any relief. I became completely run down, and as I did not see any immediate hopes of getting better, I went back to live with my mother in Galt. I thought, perhaps, the change of air might do me good. My mother saw that I was in a bad state, because my nerves were affected, and everywhere I went I used to take dizzy and fainting spells. My hands and limbs would become numb, I would see black specks before my eyes, and cold perspiration would come out on me. My mother had been taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with excellent results, and she advised me to do the same. But it is hard for me to take pills, so I went to a doctor in Galt instead. However, his treatment did me no good, so I at last decided to follow my mother's advice. I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and gradually found myself getting better. I soon was able to sleep at night without any difficulty, my appetite came back, and I began to gain back my natural color. After taking about twelve boxes of this medicine I was able to return to my work in Toronto. My friends there all noticed the improvement in my condition, and I am now stronger and healthier than I have been for a long, long time. I shall always recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food wherever I go, as I really think it is the best treatment obtainable for worn-out nerves and run-down system."

Anaemia of the Brain

Miss Rena B. Crossland, Kempt, Queens County., N.S. writes:—"I feel it a duty, as well as a privilege, to tell of the wonderful benefit I derived from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In March, 1917, I had anaemia of the brain, and the mental and physical suffering I endured is indescribable. I had treatment from three doctors and for twelve days was unconscious, while for three months I was fed and cared for like an infant. My mother was so anxious for me to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that she crushed it and baked it in my food. After using two boxes I could feed myself, and after using it for two months, my health improved so rapidly that doctors and friends said my recovery was a miracle.

"I cannot recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food too highly, even to those who seem to be facing death. We keep it in the house now, and I use it occasionally to keep 'fit.' I shall always regret that I did not follow my mother's advice and use it while I was away teaching, whenever I felt nervous or tired. But as I had no serious illness and did not realize the value of it, I neglected heeding mother's advice until it was too late and I had a complete breakdown. But thanks to Providence and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I have been enjoying my former health and strength for the past two years.

"We have also used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, Catarrh Powder and Ointment in our home, and must say we have been surprised sometimes at the instant relief given."

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

INJURED WORKMEN PAID $4,192,859

BUT FEWER ACCIDENTS

Over four million dollars was awarded in benefits to workmen and their dependents during 1919 under the Workmen's Compensation Act. The annual report of the board, which has just been presented to the Government, shows that while the number of accidents was less than in 1918—44,260 as compared with 847-848—benefits awarded were considerably greater. In 1918 it required $3,883,904.84 to meet all claims made under the Act, while last year the board paid out $4,192,589.93. The increase in the benefits reflects the upward trend in wages, which automatically increase the compensation, and the increases in widows' and children's allowances together with the payments under the medical aid amendments which became effective early in the year.

Just how substantial has been the increase in wages is shown by the board's comparison of average earnings. In 1915 the average weekly wage of injured workmen was $13.27. In 1916 it had increased to $15.63, in 1917 to $19.06, in 1918 to $21.93, while last year it reached $24.80. The reports to the board indicate a comparatively small falling off in the general volume of industry after the war. The early months of theyear showed less activity than in the first part of 1918, but the latter half of the year showed a large and steady increase.

The average cost of all accidents in which compensation was paid was $135.80 per accident, of which $121.71 was for compensation and $14.09 for medical aid. The average cost of temporary disabilities was $47.21, and of permanent disability accidents $708.87. The report points out that the seriousness of many accidents is due to blood poisoning. In 1918 this caused 8 deaths, 22 amputations and 27 cases of immobilized joints. Nearly seven per cent. of all cases developed blood poisoning during the year.

Contrast With Other Laws

The collective liability principle of the Ontario Act is in contrast with the individual liability law of Great Britain and with the company insurance individual liability laws in existence in most of the United States, in Great Britain the system of individual liability and court procedure and appeal has rendered the Act so unsatisfactory, reducing its efficiency it s said to 50 per cent., that a special commission is now seeking a remedy. In the United States, where the insurance companies are allowed to deal with the workmen, investigation has disclosed short settlements and other abuses, which seem inevitable under such a system. Statistics there show that under the old employers' liability insurance, after deducting profits and legal and other expenses, less 25 cent per cent. of the premiums paid by employers actually reached the workmen or their widows and children. In Ontario last year only 1.71 per cent of the assessments paid by employers went toward expenses. Probably under no other law does so nearly the whole of what employers pay for accidents go for the benefits of the injured workmen and their families.

The above represents the number of years spent in fruitless efforts to cure a bad case of eczema with ordinary ointments, compared with the time it took Zam-Buk to effect a complete and permanent cure.

This was the experience of Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 East Broadway, Portland, Ore. Writing to the Zam-Buk Co., he says: "For fifteen years I suffered with a bad case of eczema, and used all kinds of so-called "cures" and treatments, but nothing was capable of curing me until I tried Zam-Buk. That wonderful balm, however, completely cured me in less than a year, and not only so, but I have had no return of the disease. I strongly recommend Zam-Buk to anyone afflicted as I was."

This is but one of the hundreds of cases where Zam-Buk has effected a cure when everything else failed. The reason is easily explained. Zam-Buk being unusually refined—containing absolutely no animal fats or mineral drugs such as are contained in ordinary ointments—is capable of penetrating to the underlying tissues where skin diseases have their roots. Ordinary ointments, on the contrary, never get beyond the surface skin and so are incapable of effecting permanent cures.

Zam-Buk is just as good for salt rheum, ringworm, boils, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds and all skin injuries. All druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

BURY THE BODIES OF RUSSIAN IMPERIAL FAMILY

INTERRED SECRETLY OUTSIDE THE WALLS OF PEKIN.

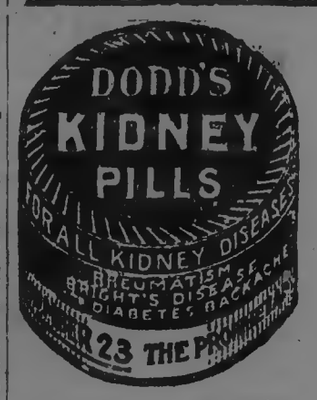
PEKIN, April 27.—Seven bodies, four of them said to be those of members of the Russian Imperial family, have arrived in Pekin from Harbin and were buried in the Russian cemetery outside the city wall.

The whole proceeding was surrounded with the greatest secrecy, even the Russian Legation receiving scant information of the circumstances.

The bodies were declared to be those of Grand Duke Serge Michaelovitch, Prince Ivan, husband of the Princess Helene, daughter of King Peter of Serbia; Prince Igor, brother of Prince Ivan; Grand Duchess Elizabeth, a sister of the late Empress, and three servants who shared the fate of these members of the royal family, when it is alleged they were killed and their bodies thrown down into a coal mine near Perm.

The discovery of their whereabouts was said to have been made by a commission appointed by Admiral Kolchak last summer.

The exploitation of women workers is the greatest factor in enabling the Japanese manufacturers to put low prices on their articles.



SIMPKINS ARRAIGNED IN NEW YORK COURT

NEW YORK, April 27. — Faltering, shabbily dressed, and with a week's growth of beard on his pale face, Thomas W. Simpkins, formerly of Calgary, Alberta, was arraigned here on an indictment charging him with murder in the first degree for shooting Dr. James Wright Markoe, last Sunday, as the distinguished surgeon was passing the plate in fashionable St. George's church. In a weak quavering voice, the itinerant printer, who is said to have escaped from five different asylums, acknowledged that he had neither counsel nor funds to engage one.

He hesitated a full minute when asked if he wanted the court to assign counsel to him. Then in a voice that was scarcely audible he said:

"Yes, sir."

Former Assistant District Attorney Neilson Olcott and Joseph S. Rosalsky were assigned, and the pleading in his case was postponed until next Monday.

Immediately afterwards Rosalsky conferred with the accused man regarding his defence. Cimpkins at once drew out a corn cob pipe, and shrouded the conference in clouds of smoke.

MR. E. H. STONEHOUSE ADDRESSED MILK PRODUCERS LAST EVENING

CONDEMNS PROPOSED POTATO BOYCOTT—COST OF PRODUCTION IS ON THE INCREASE—PETERBORO PRICES.

Last evening in the Board of Trade rooms, the Peterborough Milk Producers' Association listened attentively to a most instructive address on dairy matters and the work of his association by Mr. E. H. Stonehouse, president of the Dominion Dairy Association, and president of the Toronto Milk Producers' Association. Some twenty members were out to hear Mr. Stonehouse discuss dairy matters, and his address was of great interest to all. Mr. R. B. Rogers, President of the Peterborough Association, was in the chair.

Difficult Times.

These are difficult times, especially for a man in my position, said Mr. Stonehouse. Mr. Stonehouse told of the dissatisfaction felt by the milk producers in Ontario over the prices. All over the country apparently the same conditions exist. Prices are at the peak and conditions have become unbearable. Outside of the high prices for feed the scarcity is acute. In Toronto and Hamilton they could not consider lower prices for milk. In spite of all difficulties there is more milk on the market than ever before. While the cost of production is high and likely to be higher, the market for milk has fallen. During the war we had our price fixing times twice a year, in the spring for the summer months, the fall for the winter. These prices have been held to in spite of all difficulties, in spite of all increases. But we have been playing a losing game, our price has not met the increased cost of production.

Feed Reserves.

Never in thee history of this Dominion of Canada have conditions been so critical, so dependent on a bumper crop. You can see what has taken place in the west. All the feed reserves in Ontario have been used up. There is nothing to fall back on and the farmers depend entirely on the fal crop. The scarcity of all finer feeds too is acute.

The question is why should prices be lowered and the farmer made to pay the bill. Mr. Stonehouse said that when milk was advanced a cent or two everybody started to holler, while manufacturers products were increased without a sound. The value of milk has not been emphasized by the city press. There is a need for a propaganda to show the value of milk and its uses. Mr. Stonehouse said that such a campaign would be launched if they were not crippled for finances. He told what the producers' association had done for them, but when it came to getting them to help in such a campaign they fell down.

Adverse Market.

He dwelt on the adverse market conditions in Europe. "We have not begun to develop our home market," said Mr. Stonehouse. The average consumption of milk is only a pint a day. It is not enough for a child or aged person, certainly not enough for an adult. He emphasized the need for putting pamphlets describing food values of milk and milk products before the people and give recipes for making appetizing milk dishes. "It would make our home market the greatest market of all," he said.

Mr. Stonehouse spoke on the many milk products of to-day and the need for others. They will be used in ever increasing quantities and there is a limitless field open to them.

It is up to us as producers to put on an advertising campaign and to do it we need money. In outlining the work ahead of the Dominion Dairy Association he emphasized the need for the support of every dairyman in Canada. They should be firmly entrenched and financially able to maintain a proper and necessary staff in Toronto and able to represent the dairymen's interests efficiently.

The speaker spoke on many matters of interest only to dairymen. He urged a proper investigation into the profits of the manufacturers to see exactly how they stood. If they were not making the thing pay they should be allowed to raise their prices, and the public foot the bill. If they are making too much then the producers could be given the increase they deserve and the public get the benefit.

Mr. Stonehouse explained the prices paid in other centres for the milk and how, by the contracts made, the farmer had to bear the burden when costs of production go up. "Our prices should be more elastic, like those of the manufacturers, that read, 'subject to change without notice.'"

Another Meeting.

The president expressed the appreciation of the association in having Mr. Stonehouse with them in view of the fact that his time is pretty well taken up. Mr. Rogers pointed out that they must all back the association up with money as well as do their share of the work. After some further discussion the fixing of the prices of milk was left until a week from last evening, when their annual meeting will be held, and when Mr. Stonehouse will again address them. Mr. G. A. Gillespie will be present to discuss with them their proposal to take over the plant of his company.

Proposed Boycott.

The price of other things besides mil kcame under fire at the meeting of the dairymen last night. The speaker, Mr. Stonehouse, condemnel contemptuously the potato boycotts and other boycotts proposed by irate housewives. "They would cut out the necessities of life yet still the theatres and amusement places are packed every night said the speaker disgustedly This blunt opinion caused a ripple of laughter to run around the rooms. "And boots at $16" added another member in a half horrified voice.

Mr. H. B. Cowan took up this point, bringing out a fact on behalf of the citizens. "A pair of boots does you a year if you wear them like I do," he said, glancing earthward but where you have to buy milk every day, 365 days in the year it comes harder—it's the same with bread."

"Yes, that's right", admitted Mr. Stonehouse.

No one had mentioned clothes till somebody said something about the cost of these external coverings

"Yes and the funny part of it is the less there is to them the more they cost", chimed in the President, a little emphatically and the audience laughed at the satire.

GUELPH CARPENTERS ACCEPT NEW WAGE SCALE

GUELPH, Ont., April 27.—At a meeting of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, held here, it was decided to accept the offer made by the Master Builders of a new scale of wages The agreement is that the carpenters will receive 75 cents per hour from the first day of May till the 31st of July, and 85 cents per hour from the 1st of August till the 1st of May, 1921 This new scale will be based on a 44-hour week. The demand by the carpenters was for $1 an hour flat, but after reconsidering the matter, they were satisfied to accept the terms arranged by the Master Builders

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"THE MASTER MAN" AT THE GRAND.

Full of mystery and thrills "The Master Man" the feature picture at the Grand last evening more than fulfilled the expectations of the large audience and Frank Keenan who played the leading role made an admirable hero. The story is novel and the plot new, added to which each of the principals in the cast is worthy of being starred in any play. Mrs. Sydney Drew is as usual very good in "The Charming Mrs. Chase", which with a splendid British-Canadian film is included on the program.

AT THE ALLEN.

"The Woman In Room 13" the thrilling mystery drama at the Allen Theatre featuring Pauline Frederick is undoubtedly one of the strongest picture plays ever shown at the theatre and has at each time of showing attracted a capacity house. The plot is based upon the attempt of a divorced husband to get even with the man who married his wife and who having found a perfect setting for his evil intentions in the fact his former wife is left unprotected while her husband is in Arizona sets an almost flawless frame up directed at convincing the husband of his wife's infidelity. The plot miscarries, however, when the wrong woman enters "Room 13" and the story winds up happily.

AT THE EMPIRE

The well filled house that saw Owen Moore in "Sooner or Later", at the Empire last night, was delighted with this picture which is so clean and wholesome and yet remarkably funny and filled with such perplexing and humorous situations that it is a picture that can be enjoyed by the most discriminating. Owen Moore is at his best in this picture which should be seen by all who enjoy a clean comedy.

Macklyn Arbuckle in "Fighting Mad" and a Canadian Educational film with a Lyons and Moran comedy complete an exceptional fine programme.

3 CENTS A DRINK IN 1837.

Long after the last cellar has gone dry and the last drop of whisky has been consumed there will remain a bottle of liquor that, according to tradition is entombed in the corner stone of the Universalist church of Montgomery, Ohio. William Swaim, seventy-two, village historian and former school master of Montgomery, is authority for the tradition that a quart of liquor is concealed within the corner stone of the church, which was built in 1837. "In these days liquor was as respectable as water," says Swaim. "Preachers drank it just as other folks did. It was customary to place liquor in a corner stone for the same reason that the folks drank each other's health in liquor." Across the road from the church is a tavern that was a stop-over for the farmers hauling their produce to the city. Whiskey sold there for 3 cents a drink, Swaim recalls.—Detroit Journal.

NEW NATIONAL PARK OF 687 SQUARE MILES ESTABLISHED

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 27.— A tract of lands along the Banff-Windermere railway transferred by British Columbia to the Dominion Government has been established as a Dominion park. It will be known as Kootenay Park.

Included in the park will be a portion of the lands in the railway belt, adjacent to the tract mentioned. Kootenay Park will have an area of approximately 687 square miles.

BROTHERHOOD EXPELS OVER 2,000 MEMBERS

NEW YORK, April 27.—More than 2,000 local railroad workers were expelled from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen for the part they have taken in the unauthorized strike in this district, according to Edward McHugh, chairman of the strikers' executive committee. The charters of nine local unions were revoked, he said.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh And to Increase Strength Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitrophosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by McDermid & Jury in Peterboro and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the bad cells with the necessary phosphoric food-elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance: the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION: While Bitro Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

The following clipping taken from an old diary is very enlightening in that it clearly shows how the farmer was paid in other days.

An old diary found at Penn Yan, N.Y., quoted these prices as prevailing 77 years ago— Horses $15 each, cows $6, dry cows $4, calves 75c, hogs from $1 to $3, chickens generally given away, bacon 5 cents a pound, eggs 5 cents a dozen, and flour about $2.50 a barrel.

hospitable clime of Ontario Decembers.

On January 11, Mr. and Mrs. Deaney left home on their trip east and since then have been visiting friends in Idaho and other points .He stopped in Winnipeg on his way east for several days and remarked on the change in this thriving, metropolis since he first saw it. Passing through White River Ontario, several weeks ago he agred that it was the coldest place in the world. It was six below that day.

Mr. Delaney is very interested in the prospects of this district for mining and hopes to be able to visit the mines in Hastings county and Haliburton.

Following a trip to Montreal and New York to visit his son and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Delaney will return to Peterboro for several more weeks visit with old scenes and old friends During his stay here he has been on the go almost continually and still has many friends to look up

"I have been all over and I have never seen a nicer place the told the Examiner. Now that he has retired from active business he hopes to be able to make the trip east frequently and and enjoy the fruits of his labour. "Peterboro is going to be twice as big" is his firm opinion.

The fine brick houses and edifices of this city enhanced it he said in comparison with the structures of British Columiba cities where stone cement and fir is the general building material. "We have very few fine buildings in Vancouver," he stated.

Keeps Hair Curly in Most Trying Weather

You needn't worry about damp or windy weather spoiling the wavy appearance of your hair if you use the silmerine curling method. And you can dance all evening without having your tresses stringing all about your face.

If you've never tried this simple method, by all means procure a bottle of liquid silmerine from your druggist and follow the accompanying instructions. It will enable you to have just the prettiest waves and curls, so natural looking no one will guess they are artificially produced. The curliness is quickly acquired and lasts considerably longer than where the heated iron is used. When the hair is combed out it will be delightfully soft and fluffy. The life, lustre, and beauty of the hair are preserved by the use of this harmless product. Therefore, it is also prized as a beneficial dressing for the hair. It is quite pleasant to use, and leaves no sticky or greasy trace.

AFFECTATIONS AT THE PIANO

A famous teacher, whom one wit called "the best known pianogogue of his time," was an enemy of affectation. He once wrote: "Do not make yourself comical at the keyboard through affectations. Violin and 'cello players strive to produce a tremulo by oscillating the fingers and pianists ape them at the keyboard. This exposes them to the derision of every piano tuner. Have you no understanding of the construction of the piano? Some of you have stormed upon it for the last ten years and yet you have not taken the pains to obtain even a superficial acquaintance with its mechanism. The hammer, which by its stroke upon the string has produced the sound, falls immediately when the tone resounds; after that you may caress the key which has set the hammer in motion, fidget round on it as much as you please, stagger up and down over it, in your intoxicated passion—no more sound is to be brought out of it with all your trembling and quivering. It is only the public that is quivering with laughter at your affectations."

Hughey Jennings' Tigers have lost al games played to date, a record which closely resembles the remarkable performance of the Suicide hockey team of a dozen years ago, which went through a City Hockey League without scoring a goal.

FRENCH LED INTO AMBUSH.

Armenians Had Understanding With Turkish Rebels.

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, April 27.—The force occupying Urfa comprised seven hundred men, of whom two companies were white French troops and the rest Senegalese riflemen. The report to the War Office indicates that the total loss was two hundred killed. Reports are in circulation in Paris that the French were led into an ambush by the Armenians chosen from the population of Urfa as guides, but there is no official confirmation of this report. Reports seem to have developed from an allegation in despatches to the War Office that the Armenian population in Urfa had an understanding with the Turkish rebels and withheld supplies from the French garrison, thus necessitating its evacuation.

ADVOCATED SINGLE EXCHANGE SYSTEM

Would Give Impetus to Imperial Trade.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 27.—In the Commons last night an under secretary made an important statement in regard to the movement towards the adoption of a single exchange system for the entire British Empire. He said he had personally investigated the matter and hoped it would be possible to secure such a growth of interest as would lead to practical results. It would stimulate investment and would give impetus to Imperial trade which foreign trade would not have, he said.

CATCHING AND MANAGING.

Ray Schalk Explains Why Backstops Make Ideal Bosses.

Catchers of other years are prominent among the major league managers of today. Among the former maskmen now bossing major league clubs are Pat Moran, Wilbert Robinson, Fred Mitchell, George Gibson, Branch Rickey and George Stallings in the National League and Connie Mack in the American League. Ray Schalk, White Sox catcher, believes that he can explain why catchers make good managers. Schalk says:

"It is like this: The catcher is back there running the game, calling for certain forms of pitching and generally looking after things. The whole playing field is in front of him, and he can see what is going on all the time.

"You know, a catcher has to hold up his pitcher, watch all the base runners, call for the kind of a pitch that will best fool the batsman and come in such manner that the batsman will have to play in the hands of the fielders.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH SERVICE

Evangelist Fairbairn, preaching in the Free Methodist Church, from the text, "O, Lord, Revive Thy Work," said, We need a revival, the condition of the world to-day reveals that.

How to have a revival: Go about it in God's way, not in committees, sub-committees, and sub-sub-committees, but the power of the Holy Spirit operating through human instrumentality. 1st, To get right with God ourselves; 2nd, To let God through the Spirit, have His way with us.

He gave some illustrations of how God could work through us if we would let Him.

The evangelists of the American Holiness Association went to Texas five or six years ago to hold evangelistic meetings and were surprised at the remarkable response on the part of the people. They wondered. On investigation they learned that their harvest of souls was the result of the seed sown by an old cobbler, who after his week's work drove his horse nearly forty miles preaching at the hours of 9, 11, 2, 5 and 8. He kept this up for years and never received a cent of remuneration but God used his work to lead many souls to God.

Has Tried Them Has Faith in Them

ERNEST SMITH TALKS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Quebec Man, Grateful for the Benefit He Has Received, Pays Tribute to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I suffered from my kidneys," Mr. Smith says, "and I read that Dodd's Kidney Pills were good, so I tried them. They have helped me so much that I will continue to use them when my kidneys trouble me."

The kidneys require constant attention if good health is to be maintained and serious disease warded off. The kidneys perform a most important work in the human system. They strain all the impurities, all the seeds of disease, out of the blood. When they are weak and unable to do their work the system clogs and sickness is the inevitable result.

Ask your neighbours if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best remedy for weak, disordered or diseased kidneys.

Straw grass, invented by a Canadian chemist, is the latest substitute for gasoline.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

Greater Production and Baseball will leave very few vatant lots here this summer. With Central League, City League, Mercantile League, Church League and Public School Leagues flourishing, it cannot be said that Peterborough is neglecting the game. The Mercantilers will have entries from Barrie's, Bell Telephone Co., Lock Works and possibly a second team from the Canadian General.

Veterans worked out at Riverside Park last evening with a dozen players on the lot, including Morris, a catcher, Wade, Neary and Deannard, pitchers, and Lawson, Foley, Murphy, Field and Dineen. Walter Miller also took part in the proceedings.

Harry Burridge, who caught Cornie Burns' slants when the two wore Peterborough uniforms some years ago, is coaching the Simcoe ball team at Toronto.

Aston Villa and Huddersfield drew down a gate of $48,600, while the local football card rescued less than thirty dollars on Saturday. But it's a long way from Exhibition Park to Chelsea grounds.

The batting strength of the Thistles has gone up a notch with the announcement that Stan. Lowe has signed to play with the Yeotesmen.

They were telling baseball yarns at the W.S.B.S. and the genial proprietor was doing his share. But a look of pain passed over his features and the smile died down, when at the conclusion of one of his narratives, somebody asked innocently, "Who threw the ball in for you in those days, Jake?"

Frank Shaughnessy is resurrecting Cosey Dolan for first mase duty with the Hamilton Club.

FALCONS WIN WORLD TITLE; DEFEAT SWEDEN HANDIDLY

CANADIAN SPEED MERCHANTS HAD AN EASY TIME IN OLYMPIC FINAL AMERICANS, CZECHO-SLOVAKS AND SWEDISH PLAY FOR SECOND PRIZE.

ANTWERP, April 26. — The Falcons of Winnipeg to-night defeated the Swedish Olympic hockey team by a score of 12 to 1, winning the Olympic championship

To-night's victory of the Canadian team was fully expected, it being regarded largely as a question of the size of the score the Icelanders would run up against their sturdy but less experienced opponents. The real test of the series came on Sunday night when the Falcons after a fast game, defeated by a score of 2 to 0 the team representing the United States That was looked upon generally as the deciding factor in the championship.

The Swedish team, which won handily from Belgium in the preliminary canter, was composed of star skaters, who lacked however the long and arduous training in the game that would fit them to cope with a first class team. The teams played desperately from first to last, working heroically to score, and despite the fact that they were hopelessly outclassed their stubborn defensive work kept the tally away below what the balance of play indicated.

It is a noteworthy fact that the result of every contest in the Olympic hockey series to date, except to-night, has been a 'whitewash' for the losing team. The Canadians in carrying off the world's championship, have figured in three games.

On Saturday the Falcons easily disposed of the Czecho-Slovaks by a score of 15 to 0. In the semi-finals yesterday they eliminated the speedy American team, 2 to 0.

Under the Olympic rules, all teams directly beaten by the champion team must compete for second prize. Thus the American, Czecho-Slovak and the Swedish teams will now play off.

The American team will play Sweden Tuesday night ,and the victor in that match will play the Czechs, who have drawn a bye, on Wednesday. The Americans are easy favorites in this series.

LACROSSE MEETING ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

EVERYBODY UP WITH EXECUTIVE IN EMPRESS HOTEL.

An important meeting of the Lacrosse Club and all those interested in the local team will be held in the Empress hotel on Monday night. One of the objects of this meeting is to get a line on the available material. Arrangements will also be made for regular practices. A dozen new McBriarty's clock cord sticks and the nets have arrived, Johnn ySutherland reports, and everything is ready for the season's play.

One of the Dodd boys of Hastings may play with Peterborough this year. There has been some suggestion that he may move here. Hastings will not have a team in the League, and the Provincial executive will give a permit for Dodd to play here.

The impression that Ed. Dillon, George Mein, Lou McCoy and others of the old guard will not play, this season, needs to be revised according to Johnny Sutherland's report. These three members of the team Peterborough had in the year war broke out are talking of gettting back into the togs. The only thing that would tend to keep them out would be condition, and with a month's practice that should be remedied.

The 24th of May game will likely be with one of the Toronto teams. Oshawa is grouped with Peterborough and will scarcely be chosen for an exhibition game on that account. This item is one of the questions for the executive to settle.

Peterborough is grouped with Norwood, Hastings and Campbellford in the intermediate series of the O.A.L.A., as a result of the executive meeting in Toronto last night.

TROUBLE IN PORT HOPE BALL TEAM

All is not well in the Port Hope Baseball Club, according to reports, and some of last year's players have signified their willingness to play with other teams in the Central Ontario League, providing they can secure positions at their own trade.

It is stated that Finnegan Hills, the popular twirler of 1919, will not mount the slab this year, and may drift to Peterborough, while his big brother at first base (who was no slouch on the initial sack, and a fair hitter) may line up with Cobourg.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

DE LAVAL-MACHINE GUN SECTION PRACTICE TO-NIGHT—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The De Laval team will have a practice game to-night at the Exhibition grounds. Dick Evans requests all the players to turn out, so as to be in shape for the game on Thursday evening at 6.30 prompt.

No doubt, some of the players in the games on Saturday last received small souvenirs in slight injuries and in that respect Sharman carries an injured big toe that will keep him out of the C.G.E. vs. G.W.V.A. game next Saturday. McMillian of the Caledonians reports that his leg is making a quick recovery and awaits the next day with new enthusiasm.

A number of the spectators that witnessed the Caledonian and G.W.V.A. game recalled incidents about football in Scotland about 30 years ago. They remembered the time when football was in its infancy as it is now in Peterborough. In the games now played in the old land the figure runs well up into the thousands for the spectators attendance.

Capt. L. Frayer will have Bell, Flowers, Hill and a few others at the practice game to-night, at the Exhibition grounds. He expects to have the uniforms here in a few days, in fact, for Thursday night's game, when he anticipates giving the De Laval a hard game.

The executive of the City Football League will meet on Wednesday night in Sutcliffe's barber shop. All the members are requested to be present.

Sid Whatley will be in goal for the Veterans on Saturday in the game against the C.G.E. and with another change or two in the team they expect to give the Electrics a real surprise.

BRITISH TEAM LACKING FUNDS

THIRTEEN THOUSAND POUNDS NEEDED IMMEDIATELY.

(United Press)

LONDON, April 27. — England either will have to withdraw from the Olympic games or make a great reduction in the size of her team if more money is not forthcoming, decourcey Laffan, secretary of the British Olympic Association, said at a meeting of the association last night.

He deplored the indifference of the British over the Olympics as indicated by their failure to subscribe to the big fund required to send the team to Belgium.

"At least 13,000 pounds will be needed immediately," he said. "We have only 1,500 pounds subscribed now. If we do not get more we will have to cancel our entries or send a very small team. We might as well put up the shutters if we have to withdraw. If the public has no interest in the games this year, it never will."

NEW PITCHING RULES.

What Boxman Must Not Do Under Revised Code.

In the new issue of Spalding's Official Baseball Guide the "fan" will find exactly what the pitcher must not do under the rules as they have been amended for 1920.

He must not rub the ball in the soil.

He must not discolor is with licorice, paraffin or other foreign substance.

He must not expectorate upon it.

He must not roughen the surface with sand paper, emery paper or other hard substance. He will not even be permitted to bound it to an infielder, in order that the cover might be slightly abraded.

No other player is permitted to commit any of the above offenses and then toss the ball to the pitcher for delivery. If the pitcher delivers the ball to the batter after this is done he is arbitrarily suspended for ten days.

The correct position of the pitcher to assume when he receives the ball for delivery is to stand on the plate holding it in front of him with both hands. He cannot take either hand from the ball unless he is intending to throw it to first base or deliver it to the batter.

If he drops the ball in the act of delivering it to the batter it is a balk. This latter now makes the balk rule uniform in both major leagues. It had not been so previously.

BOX PARTIES FOR "FI-FI" PLANNED

Many Will Attend the Performance From Neighbouring Towns — Seat Sale Opens To-morrow Morning at

"Fi-Fi" is a story of much interest. The musical extravaganza which is creating such a furore of interest among the social contingent of the city will evidently be greeted by the crowded houses for exchange tickets have gone like the proverbial hot cakes, box parties have been planned, and orders have come from many neighbouring towns.

"Fi-Fi" is a story of much interest. The toymaker's daughter, wandering in the woods at the close of day near her father's shop, is overtaken by the Sandman. He casts her into a magic sleep and she dreams a wonderful dream wherein the entire toy shop come to life, wondering things happen to the dolls, endowed for the first time with life and motion. Of course, in such a production there are many opportunities for the introduction of spectacular dances, tuneful chorus work, and brilliant scenic effects, and these have been made the most of.

The production has been in rehearsal for several weeks, under the direction of Mr. J. Allan, who has had a wide experience in such work. The dances, choruses ,and spectacular features will excel many of the first-class travelling professional ones.

In the cast of 200 participants there will be the added charm of many well-known faces and popular voices. This coupled with the wact that "Fi-Fi" has been presented with marked success throughout the United States, including many neighbouring cities, has aroused a regular furore of interest, and the house capacity will be tested for both performances.

The seat sale will be open to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, at the Grand Opera House, and the usual regulations for theatrical attractions will be strictly observed.

"THE WOMAN IN ROOM 13" AT THE ALLEN

A shot fired on floor above behind a closed door—silence! Then the swish of a woman's coat against the iron rail of the fire escape, and the white of her evening gown as she passed by the window where two men and a woman waited in horror.

Such are the elements of the climax in "The Woman in Room 13"—a thrilling romance of mystery and love billed at the Allen Theatre.

It was a strange story. Three men cared for the woman. The first, a worthless husband—from the humiliating slavery in which he kept her the courts set her free. Then came her true mate, and she married him. The third man was an even more worthless scoundrel than the first, for he played false not only to the two women to whom he paid attentions, but also to his men associates. And out of it all was woven a tangle that not even the most seasoned student of mystery stories could unravel, until the final and critical denouncement "Who Was the Woman in Room 13?" If she told the truth she would send her husband to the condemned cell. If she told a lie, then she would lose his love forever. She made her choice, and yet Fate and the hand of another woman, whom she might have thought a rival, gave her happiness. Such an unusual drama calls for interpretation by an actress of exceptional ability, and in choosing Pauline Frederick and a very able supporting cast, the producers made no mistake.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

Was it jealousy, neglect, mother-in-law or extravagance, are a few of the important subjects discussed in a dramatic way in that new offering, "The Revelations of a Wife," that is offered for your approval at the Grand Opera House for two days starting tonight, April 27, with matinees daily for ladies only. The play is hard to describe on account of being a mystery play and has to be seen to be appreciated. It deals with a much discussed problem—"Marriage and Divorce," and solves a question, "Should or should she not tell her husband all her past life?" It is a daring subject handled in a delicate manner and, outside of the mysteries surrounding it, will no doubt solve a great question that has worried the minds of a great many girls contemplating matrimony. The management has sent it entour with a strong Broadway cast and a production far above the average. The evening performances are for everybody over the age of sixteen.

POLLYANNA

"Pollyanna," a comedy by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, based upon Eleanor H. Porter's tremendously popular glad-books, will be presented by the Pollyanna Producing Co., at the Grand Opera House, Saturday matinee and evening.

Over half a million copies of the "Pollyanna" books have been sold, and as publishers estimate that every book reaches ten people, a grand total of something like five million readers, all around the globe, is the result. Of course, it inevitably followed that the glad-girl, and those whom she taught to play the game, must be visualized on the stage. Mrs. Cushing, who has written popular comedies for May Irwin, Henrietta Crosman and Billie Burke, is credited with having very skillfully preserved the amusing and sentimental incidents and cheery optimistic spirit of the stories. There is shown the evolution of Pollyanna from her checked gingham into a radiant, highly cultivated maid of seventeen in chiffon. Familiar figures of Mrs. Porter's fiction are visualized in the comedy by players of distinguished past performance.

Lolitta Westman will play the title which it is based, reflects exuberant role of Pollyanna, supported by Pacie Ripple, Wallace Roberts, Earla Elverson, Audrey Wood, Augusta Durgeon, Peter W. Maguire, Geraldine Russel, William Daly and others.

The comedy, like the stories upon optimism at an opportune time when playgoers are in no mood for morbidity or salaciousness in the theatre. The appeal is to youth and old age, to the tired business man and to all womankind.

FANS ARE WONDERING.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

THE SUN LIFE OF CANADA, with over $105,000,000.00 of Assets, is the logical place to Insure.

WHERE MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS ARE MADE

Their Manufacture is Home Industry of Czecho-Slovak Villagers.

Within a radius of six or seven miles from Schonbach, Czecho-Slovakia, there are 21 villages whose inhabitants are employed in the manufacture of stringed musical instruments, writes the United States Trade Commissioner, Vladimir A. Geringer, from Prague.

Of the 6,000 residents of Schonbach almost 4,000 are engaged in this home industry, among them both women and children. In the making of one instrument many different workers take part.

Not more than 15 miles from Schönbach is the town of Kraslice (Graslitz), where brass and wind instruments, such as trumpets, cornets, trombones, clarionets, flutes, etc., are manufactured as well as home industry products. Kralove Hradec is also noted for its production of brass and wind instruments.

In addition to the towns of Schonbach and Kraslice (Graslitz) and the surrounding villages there are many manufacturers of musical instruments scattered through Czecho-Slovakia, whose products are exported to all parts of the world. Many of the instruments normally bring a fair livelihood to the makers.

GAVE AN ADDRESS ST. JAMES' CHURCH

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES CONCLUDED LAST EVENING.

The third anniversary services in connection with St. James Methodist Church were concluded last evening very successfully An abundance of good things had been provided by the ladies and a most excellent dinner served to a large and appreciative company. A very inspiring and beautiful musical programme was given, the appreciation of the audience being shown by the repeated encores. The pastor Rev. Mr. Chapman occupied the chair.

The addresses of the evening were given by Alderman G. N. Gordon and Rev. F. E. Malott. A quartette and solo were given by members of St. James Choir while the south end orchestra under the efficient leadership of Mr. Nichols organist of St. James added much to the pleasure of the evening. Miss Rathbone's solo as usual was very pleasing and delighted the audience.

Loyalty to Church.

Mr. F. E Malott spoke briefly upon the subject of "Loyalty to the Church", and faithfulness of the support of each member required to give to his own Church in order to insure its growth and doing the best work in the community. He shewed by illustration how effective had been the sympathetic congregation with the work of the Minister and the encouragement given to the Minister to give his best efforts to the work to which he was called.

"Service"

Mr. G. N. Gordon was asked to address the audience and spoke of "Service", defining service as "The Effort of Each to Assist each Other to the Ultimate Benefit of Each Other." Mr. Gordon gave a very optimistic view of the future of St James Church, and said he expected that it would not be long now, with the wonderful industrial development in Canada, which was also being shewn in Peterborough, that St. James Church would be the centre of population in Peterborough, and that the neighborhood would be the most closely built and thickly populated in the City. He said everything tended to confirm his view, in the very near future, that St. James congregation would not only be one of the largest in Peterborough but one of the most helpful from the standpoint of the service and assistance that it could give to the general welfare of the community.

Mr. Gordon strongly advocated the older men encouraging the boy. He also advocated athletics and suggested that a baseball team be established which would assist keeping the boys more closely in sympathy with Church Institutions.

The congregation was a large and appreciative one, and the Pastor, Reverend Mr. Chapman, made an admirable chairman.

NEW TREATMENT FOR SMUT IN GRAIN

There is a new, rapid and convenient method of preventing oat smut which has been recently tried and recommended by several experiment stations in the United States and Canada. It has many advantages over old methods, chief among which are greater simplicity, rapidity and ease of application, which should lead to its being widely used.

Laboratory experiments conducted by the Department of Agriculture showed that the vitality of oats treated by this method was not injured in any way.

Method of Treatment.

A solution of one part of formaldehyde and one part water is used as a spray. As the seed is being shovelled from one pile to another each shovelful is sprayed with the solution. It is used at the rate of 1 quart to 50 bushels of seed. A small quart jar sprayer is a convenient one for the purpose. After the oats are all treated in this way they are piled in a heap and covered with blankets, canvas or sacks to confine the vapor. At the end of five hours the seed may be uncovered and sown. As formaldehyde vapor acts as an irritant to the mucuos membrane of the eyes, nose and throat the sprayer should be held down close to the pile and a circulation should be provided.

Salmon and Potato Croquettes

To a small can of salmon add two cups of hot, well-seasoned mashed potatoes and a tablespoon of finely chopped pickles. Shape into croquettes, dip in fine bread crumbs and fry on a greased pan. The same croquettes may be dipped in beaten egg-white, then in crumbs, and fried in deep fat, but this method is more trouble and the result less wholesome than where little fat is used.

PARLIMENT READY FOR THE BUDGET

Gould is Emphatic.

Gould, the new member from Assiniboia, hails from Hampshire, but came out to Canada when a youth. Asked if he favored protection, he replied: 'Never did, don't now and never will." He has done considerable stump speaking and has more than held his own with older parliamentarians who have tried to trip him up. Then there is our own Mr. Halbert from North Ontario, who was the first president of the U.F.O., and held that office for five years. He is a terror to the old parties on the back concession lines and has proved a fearless fighter in the parliamentary forum. Mr. Halbert welcomes abuse of the Farmers because "that's the stuff we thrive on." A distinct acquisition to the ranks of the Third Party was Mr. Caldwell, president of the New Brunswick Farmers. He is busying himself just now with a Maritime Province edition of the Grain Growers' Guide and expects to return to the next Parliament with several recruits from the Provinces down by the sea. Thomas McNutt, of Saltcoats, is the only United Farmer in the Commons with a beard. He is a sort of Vicar of Bray and has been in more parties than any other member of Parliament. It is said he left the Haultain administration in Saskatchewan "because they were not good enough Conservatives." Then he threw in his lot with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, deserted the Liberal chieftain on the conscription issue and joined the Union Government. Now he is a front bencher in the Third Party. For their whip the Farmers have Levi Thomson, of Qu-Appelle, formerly a supporter of the Liberal party and then a Unionist. Mr. Thomson is a lawyer by profession, but also has farming interests. He was advocating the Farmers' cause in Parliament long before the U.F.O. was thought of is a solid citizen who thinks a lot but does not say much and is a favorite with both sides of the House. There are Mr. Knox of Prince Albert, and Mr. Kennedy of Glengarry — both splendid private members who have not filled many pages of Hansard but devote most of their time to the service of their constituents.

Old Parties Fear Them.

These are the kind of men who are making Canadian politics interesting at the present time. The old parties fear them, Conservatives and Liberals alike apprehending that they are but the advance party of a more formidable army now advancing on the Canadian capital.

Most every one knows the noise of a squeaky spring. Run your car over a smooth road which has a few small holes in it now and then. Drive overthese holes at the rate of about fifteen miles an hour. If your car squeaks only when you go over the holes, and rides silent while on the smooth parts, you may be sure that your springs need oiling.

It has long been customary to clean gasoline engine cylinders with long-handled scraping tools, the cutting edges of which are hardened. In scraping a cylinder in this manner it is important to have the piston in the uppermost position of its sweep, since otherwise the scraping tool is likely to slip into the bore of the cylinder and injure the smooth surface of the cylinder wall.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

Mothers! NEVER NEGLECT WHOOPING COUGH

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but unfortunately this mistake often leads to the neglect of this dangerous child's disease.

Never neglect whooping cough, for it may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the clogged-up air passage of the mucous and phlegm that has collected in in this way bring on the "whoop" which bring the so much-sought-for relief.

Mrs. Francis Burlingham, New Gate, B.C., writes: "This spring three of my children took the whooping cough, and they had it so bad I thought they would choke. I was getting pretty worried when my sister wrote me, telling me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I sent for some right away, and, believe me, I will never forget how it worked. I will always have it in my house."

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will pay in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

$45,000,000 THEFTS FROM CARS SHOWN.

Booty Double That in Any Pre-War Year.

Wholesale looting of merchandise in transit on the railroads of the United States caused a loss of approximately $46,000,000 in 1919, according to United States Railroad Administration statistics made public recently.

This is estimated to be more than double the losses sustained in any pre-war year, but it is pointed out that the increased cost of the commodities stolen, roughly estimated to average 35 per cent. must be taken into consideration when comparing the losses in the days of low prices with losses now. Nevertheless there has been a steadily increasing number of packages stolen, and the organization combatting the thieves have met an increased ingenuity in diverting goods from their owners.

A technique of robbery has been developed so highly that the methods of "master thieves" are similar in the United States, England, France, Italy and Argentina, according to a recent report of the United States Chamber of Commerce in Argentina. Detectives, however, are inclined to discredit that organization's belief that a "widespread international organization" is at work stealing merchandise.

Substitution is the usual method used by the thieves. Sometimes boxes supposed to contain velvets are found at their destination to be filled with calico or other cheaper grades of cloth, but as a rule, waste paper is found. These are referred to as "concealed losses", by railway men, and are especially difficult to trace, as the shipment leaves and arrives apparently in good condition, and it is almost impossible to discover at what point the theft occurred.

The silk industry has been one of the most severely hit in the last year, and so great has the risk become that the Railroad Administration has been considering excluding raw silks from the privilege of freight transportation by rail. The Merchants' Association of New York, through its traffic bureau, has protested against such an exclusion, advocating some less radical measure to minimize or prevent the theft of

"Bill" is Menace To World Peace

PREMIER LLOYD-GEORGE HAS ADDRESSED LETTER TO HOLLAND.

Canadian Press.)

THE HAGUE, April 27.—The responsibility for the continued residence in Holland of former Emperor Wilhelm was placed squarely and exclusively on the Netherlands Government in a note sent by Premier Lloyd-George on 24th March, and published to-day for the first time.

The note points out that the Allies have learned of Utrecht as the ex-Kaiser's definite place of internment, and says that Wilhelm, in spite of precautions, is a very serious danger so long as left within forty kilometres of the German frontier, and is a potential centre of reactionary propaganda, and a constant menace to the peace of Europe.

PETERBORO BOY LOST IN LINDSAY

Carl Henry ,the little three year old son of Mr. Victor Henry of Peterboro caused his friends in Lindsay a lot of anxiety, where he had been visiting for the past few weeks, at the residence of Mrs. Robert Henry, his grandmother.

The little fellow had been dressed, preparatory to returning to Peterboro, when upon the arrival of the hackman, it was discovered that he had vanished. A search was immediately instituted, the police notified, and descriptions of the little lad posted about the town, but several hours had elapsed before it was discovered that Gordon Henry, who was to have accompanied him back to Peterboro, had located him just in time to catch the train for the city, and had done so without notifying the boy's relatives in Lindsay, and the lad, quite unconscious of the anxiety he had caused, had been restored to his parents.

Used in Millions of Tea-Pots Daily

To Banish Night-Made Wrinkles in Morning

When one gets up in the morning after a troublesome, sleepless night, haggard and worn, with the tell-tale lines and wrinkles, and dark circles under the eyes, here's the thing to quickly make one normal looking and presentable: Bathe the face in a simple lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Almost immediately there is a wonderful tranformation. One effect is to tighten the skin and obliterate the wrinkles and lipes, likewise puffiness under the eyes. The face looks—and feels—bright and refreshed, as though insomnia's victim had just awakened from a beauty sleep.

Any druggist can supply saxolite and witch hazel, of course, and any woman can easily make this harmless and splendid facial rejuvenator.

FRENCH LOSSES IN MESOPOTAMIA

PARIS, April 27.—The latest information received at the Foreign Office from Asia Minor indicates that the losses to the French troops at Urfa, north-west of Mesopotamia, were less serious than at first supposed. A large detachment is thought to have got back into the town, while others escaped in other directions. The official version attributes the French reverse to treachery.

RAILWAY STRIKES DISRUPT PRINCE'S TOUR

Engine of Governor-General's Train Tampered With.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 27.—The arrangements for the tour of New Zealand by the Prince of Wales, who arrived at Auckland recently on the battle cruiser Repown, on his Australian trip, were disarranged by a sudden declaration of a strike of the railway workers, says a Central News despatch from Auckland to-day. The plans were for the Prince to start his rounds of New Zealand during the day. It was discovered, says the despatch, that the engine of the train of the Governor-General, Earl of Liverpool, had been tampered with.

The remains were laid at rest in the Carberry cemetery on Thursday, April 22nd.

CORNELIUS O'CONNOR.

The death occurred at his residence, Ennismore Cross, on Thursday, 1st April, of Cornelius O'Connor, one of the most highly respected and well-known residents of that township, at the age of 75 years, after an illness of a few months' duration. The late Mr. O'Connor was born in Ireland, and came to this country with his parents in 1848, and has been a lifelong resident of Ennismore Township ever since. He always took a keen interest in municipal affairs, and worked with untiring efforts for years for the good of the people and municipality. The late Mr. O'Conor leaves to mourn his loss his wife, one sister, and one brother—Mrs. John Scollard and Mr. Maurice O'Connor, both of Ennismore. He also leaves his adopted daughter, Mrs. James Morrissey, who was formerly Emma Fox, of Liverpool, England.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning, 3rd April, at nine o'clock, to St. Martin's Church, Ennismore, where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father McAuley, the parish priest. From thence interment took place in Ennismore Cemetery.

Mercantile Marine of Canada May Slip Into Private Hands

WILL COST THE COUNTRY OVER FORTY MILLION DOLLARS—CHARGE STILL STANDS.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, April 28.—There are indications that the Canadian Government mercantile marine, for which the country has paid or will pay over $40,000,000, will not for very long continue to be a State institution, but will shortly slip into private hands.

On Monday evening William Duff, in the Commons, made the following observation:

"Another thing is this: Is the Minister of Railways or the Government aware of the fact that Mr. Hanna, who is president of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine and practically the general manager, is also a director of the Canada Steamships, Limited? We were told tonight about not letting our competitors know what we are doing, but here is a man, who is president of our Canadian Government Merchant Marine, who if I am correctly informed, is also director of the Canada Steamships, Limited."

Whether Mr. Duff was "correctly informed," or not, his statement still stands uncontradicted on the pages of Hansard.

Last night in the House, there was more talk of the Canada Steamships, Limited, on Mr. Armstrong's motion. He charged that since the Canada Steamships, Limited, merger was consummated in 1913, rates on Lake shipping had jumped from 20 cents to 76 cents per hundred.

The Canada Steamships, Limited, had made more profits in the last year or so than all the gold and silver mines of Canada.

MARK STREET CHURCH CONCERT

The prevailing opinion here is that the concert given by the boys and girls of the church last Friday night, under the direction of Mrs. (Rev.) Ross, was the best of its kind ever given in Mark Street Church. The programme was well-varied and intensely interesting that for two hours the people sat under a spell of wonder, amusement, and delight, never dreaming that such talents were possessed by their own children.

The arrangement of the numbers was such that the interest and enjoyment increased as the program moved forward. From the child of five years to the boy and girl of fifteen, every number, whether solo, duet, trio, quartette, reading, musical dialogue, instrumental selection, or chorus, was rendered with splendid ability, and the people were most generous in their applause.

Miss Eliza Champion, organist of the Mission Band, played the choruses well, while Mrs. W. Gamble ably accompanied the other musical selections at the piano.

The "Robin Song and Whistling Chorus," by eight girls; "Chinese Motion Song," "Musical Dialogue," Missionary Dialogue," and other numbers were heartily encored; while the recitations, instrumental and vocal solos, also "Mother's Band," by four boys and four girls, all under six years, received a storm of applause.

The programme was brought to a close by a boys' chorus entitled "Missionary Bells," and the Mizpah Benediction. The proceeds amounted to $56.90, which will be handed over to the Mission Band.

Mrs. Ross has been requested to repeat the concert, but has not yet decided on the matter.

A DIFFERENCE IN PIANOS

All pianos are not alike. Don't let anyone get away with the idea that an investment in any piano is a good investment. Ask great artists like Tetrazzini why when she was in Canada she insisted in having a piano of Ye Olde Firde Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter streets, Peterborough, Ont., and her answer will be very plain, namely, that more than any other piano it meets her exacting demands as a great prima donna. Its pure and even quality of tone has made it the much sought-for piano, not alone of the great artists, but of everyone who is determined to have the best in music when an instrument is placed in their home.

PUBLISHERS FACE A NEW DIFFICULTY

Norway Threatens to Cut Off Newsprint Supply.

(United Press)

LONDON, April 28.—Newspaper publishers to-day planned to protest the action of the Norwegian government acquiring paper mills in that country to supply home newspapers fully at less than cost price or halt exportation.

Most British and French newspapers depend on Norwegian exporters for their supply of print paper.

The action of Norwegian authorities, the publishers said, would force them to buy newsprint in Canada or elsewhere at higher prices.

AMERICAN CAR REACHED CITY

COMPLETED A THREE HUNDRED MILE TRIP.

The first American car to come through to Peterborough from across the line reached the city on Monday after a 300 mile trip from Dansville, N.Y. The car, a limousine, made the trip in a day and a half, which is very good time, considering the rough roads encountered. The car is owned by Mr. H. T. Kehew, treasurer of the Canadian Nashua Paper Co., and he came through to get an idea of the roads in Canada. The roads are terrible this side of the line, Mr. Kehew told the Examiner. We did not expect they would be as bad. The driver of the car was considerably surprised, too, at the highways encountered after the state pavements of New York State were left behind.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE

MR. A. SWARTZ BUYS THE $30,000.00 STOCK OF MR. B. CHESLER, GEORGE STREET NORTH.

The general dry goods and ladies ready-to-wear business of Mr. B. Chesler, No. 422 George street, north has been purchased by Mr. A. Swartz, who retired from business a few months ago. Both gentlemen are well known merchants to Peterborough shoppers, having each enjoyed a prosperous business patronage in the city for years past. Mr. Chesler has other important interests that he desires to be free to look after and Mr. Swartz gets back into business again sooner than he expected.

The Chesler stock of general dry goods, ladies ready-to-wear, clothing, millinery, and other lines, is one of the cleanest and newest in the city. It consists largely of new spring importations bought since the clearing sales held by Mr. Chesler. After he purchased the Zacks business about the beginning of the year.

Mr. Swartz intends to restock the store with newer and more up-to-date goods for the summer season. But previous to this he will open his new store in a few days with a series of sacrificing clearing sales, in order to reduce the present stocks by about one half. Mr. Swartz promises, Peterborough shoppers a lively season of decidedly low prices during these unloading sales; particulars of which will be given in a day or two Watch the Examiner for a full page announcement with details of these interesting sales.

FILL VACANCIES IN CIVIC OFFICES

MEETING WAS HELD LAST EVENING TO DISCUSS MATTERS.

Members of the City Council met last evening in Ald. G. N. Gordon's office and discussed the prospects of filling the three vacancies in the civic administration resulting from the death of Ald. Harry Phelan and Mr. W. H. Moore, K.C., who at the time of his death held the position of chairman of the Utilities Commission and chairman of the City Trust Commission.

It was tentatively proposed to make the following appointments:

For the vacancyon the City Council Board—Mr. Nagle Phelan, son of the late ex-Ald. Harry Phelan.

For the vacancy on the Utilities Commission—Ex-Mayor G. H. Duncan.

THF IRISH PRISONERS COLLAPSED

SEVERAL WERE RELEASED AND REMOVED TO THE HOSPITAL.

STRIKE THREATENED

By Webb Miller.
(United Press)

LONDON, April 28. — Sinn Fein hunger strikers had won fresh victories in England and Ireland to-day, while labor threatened strikes in several cities unless the government immediately released the remaining Irish prisoners.

Following extensive demonstration by Irish sympathizers outside Wormwood Scrubbs jail, six prisoners who had collapsed from their self enforced fast, were released last night.

The first man to be freed was James Cavanagh. He was hurried to a hospital. His condition was said to be critical, although physicians believed he would yield to treatment. A little later five more prisoners, all prostrated, were releasd and taken to hospitals.

Sinn Fein leaders here said the release was unconditional, adding the government apparently planned to release all the prisoners as soon as they collapsed from hunger.

Want Municipal Control of Central Ont. Power System

REPRESENTATIVES OF MIDLAND MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION DISCUSS PROPOSAL TO URGE THE TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP BY THE GOVERNMENT — WOULD COPY NIAGARA PLAN.

MEETING HERE TO-DAY

The movement among the municipalities grouped in the Central Ontario Power System to petition the Provincial Government to transfer the sytsem to them advanced to the stage of deliberation at the meeting in the Council Chamber this afternoon of representatives of the Midland Municipal Association.

Advocates of this proposal argue that the Central Ontario system should be placed on the same basis of municipal ownership as the Niagara System, which comprises most of of the cities and towns in the west half of the province.

When the electric power and other utilities in this district were purchased by the government some years ago it was understood that they would eventually become the property of the municipalities. The government, however, still retains possession and the municipalities are paying the power charges merely as customers of the Government and not as shareholders. By this arrangement the Central Ontario municipalities are not in the position to secure the advantages that will accrue to the western cities when their bonds expire and when they have to pay only the cost of power generation, transmission and distribution. This is the goal of the Eastern Ontario promoters of actual public ownership, operated by the Hydro-Electric Commission, and they argue that their project is a logical and timely development of the Government's scheme.

The Municipal Representatives

The following representatives of the municipalities were present: Benj Ewing and W. J Corbett of Cobourg, W. J .Ferguson and T. H. Stinson of Lindsay, E. L. Vickery, reeve of Oshawa, Capt. Marling and George Spence of Lakefield, F S. Boyes of Napanee; Aldermen Whitehouse, Morrison, Gainey and Gordon, Mr. Robert Hicks and City Clerk Armstrong of Peterboro and Mayor McIntyre.

Ald. Gordon Presiding.

Ald. Gordon was appointed chairman of the meeting, and upon his suggestion Mr. Stinson secretary of the Midland Municipal Association briefly reviewed the genesis of this movement which was originated in Port Hope several years ago and revived last November at a meeting in Peterboro.

Mr. Stinson read a resolution which it is proposed to submit to the Government requesting them to transfer the Central Ontario Electric system to the municipalities, accepting 40 year four per cent. debentures of the Hydro Electric Commission The resolution also recommends that a representative deputation from Central Ontario carry this petition to the Government

City Clerk Armstrong pointed out that the local municipalities have no ownership of the system. It is owned by the province and if the debt incurred by the Government is paid off out of the business the system will still be owned by the province and not by the municipalities. This is in direct contrast with the Western Ontario plan, by which their costs are being paid out of their business and when the cost is finally wiped out the municipalities will be relieved of the interest and sinking fund charges, and will own their system outright.

Mr. Armstrong remarked that the Government was operating the Central Ontario system at cost and for that reason he could not see where there would be much difference in the cost of power to consumers if the Government did transfer the system.

Reeve Vickery of Oshawa, declared that Eastern Ontario, has been too long asleep while the western districts were building up radial railway and power lines and good roads. He agreed with Mr. Armstrong's views but was satisfied that the municipalities would benefit by the proposal outlined in the resolution. He believed that Oshawa would warmly support this movement.

Mr. Boyes of Napanee asked what

WINNIPEG LABOUR MEN COMPLETING THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE MAY DAY PARADE

Artisans of the Building and Other Trades Going on the Land to Escape the High Cost of Living.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, April 28.—Preparations for the big May Day parade of protest on the part of Winnipeg Labour against the conviction and detention in jail of the strike leaders, are going ahead tremendously, but are not without discouragements.

The Electrical Workers' Union decided yesterday that as a body it would not take part in the proposed parade, one reason for the objection being the holding of the parade in the morning, when it could have been held in the afternoon, which, to the average worker, is a holiday, and therefore means no loss of time.

Arrangements for the parade are nearing completion, James Law, secretary of the Winnipeg Defence Committee, said to-day. Several bands have been engaged, and 3,000 are expected to be in line—men, women, and children.

TRADESMEN GOING BACK ON THE LAND.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, April 28.—Blacksmiths, carpenters, masons, automobile mechanics and artisans of building trades make up the army of mechanics going out of town to live on the land in wide stretches this week. Practically all are family men, and practically all have the same tale to tell—Wages going up, but living going up higher.

Lay-offs and strikes bring the average wages down to 50 and 60 cents an hour throughout the year. Savings are being eaten through steadily, and visions of actual hardship in the near future are becoming clearer.

CONFESSED TO BRUTAL MURDER

ALLAN BEST BROKE DOWN UNDER THE THIRD DEGREE.

(Canadian Press)

PONTIAC, Mich., April 28.—Allan Best, formerly of Flint, Mich., confessed early this morning, according to Prosecutor Glenn C. Gillespie, that he killed Miss Vera Schneider, the 18-year-old telephone operator, whose body was found early on Sunday morning on the porch of an unoccupied dwelling.

Best, according to the Prosecutor, had been questioned throughout the night, and broke down after being identified by workmen as having been seen washing his hands in Clinton River, near the scene of the crime, a few minutes after its discovery.

BEST'S STORY.

PONTIAC, Mich., April 28.—"She asked me to kill her." Best was quoted as saying. He even declared, according to the Prosecutor, that he met Miss Schneider for the first time late on Saturday night.

The confession, Mr. Gillespie declared, was made in the presence of a stenographer and several police officers, and gave no other reason than that Miss Schneider begged Best to end her life because she was tired of living and was "simply in the way of others." She even drew a handkerchief from his pocket, and asked him to tie them together and place them about her neck. Best was quoted as saying.

Officers said Best told them that when he complied, he at first refused to pull the handkerchiefs, but she begged him to do so, saying she was ready to die.

Continuing, the statement quotes Best as saying he left the body and walked to a river nearby, where he washed his hands, which had been slightly bloodstained from blood that came from the girl's mouth.

THE LIQUOR REFERENDUM

M'CREARY RESOLUTION CARRIED BY LARGE MAJORITY.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

TORONTO, April 28. — Ontario asks the Dominion Government for a vote on the importation of liquor as soon as possible. After the two amendments had been defeated in the Legislature last night the McCreary motion favoring the referendum carried by a majority of 73, the vote being 85 for and 12 against. The movers of both amendments, R. L. Brackin, Liberal (West Kent), who moved for the stated case, and H. P. Hill, Conservative (West Ottawa), who moved the Conservative amendment calling on the Government to assume full responsibility, voted for the motion on the main vote.

Each amendment was defeated decisively. Twelve members continued their opposition to the last against the referendum on any grounds. They were of the Conservative, Labor and Liberal groups. The Farmer members voted solidly on each of the three occasions. They had no bolters.

The twelve members of the Legislature who voted against the McCreary resolution calling for a referendum were: Labor — MacBride, Halcrow, MacNamara; Conservative — Hon. Geo. Henry, Hon. (Gen.) Ross, Lennox, McCrae, Ecclestone; Liberal — O'Neill, Pinar, Asmussen, Rennie.

The longest road in Alaska is only 304 miles in extent and stretches between Fairbanks and Valiez.

NEW SITE FOR TRAP SHOOTERS

GUN CLUB HELD A MEETING LAST EVENING.

Due to several important meetings being held at the same time the attendance at the Gun Club annual meeting last night was small and was therefore postponed to some future date to be announced later. It was arranged, however, by the members who attended, to move the present quarters of the Club from the field near the Henry Hope to a lot west of the Roman Catholic cemetery, about five minutes' walk from the street railway terminus, and the trap and house were transferred to the new site to-day.

CADET OFFICERS HELD A MEETING

PASS A RESOLUTION OF CONFIDENCE IN R. ALLEN LEWIS.

There exists some misconception around the city concerning the outcome of the difficulty connected with the Cadet Corps of the Collegiate Institute. At the request of the principal of the Collegiate Institute, nothing was said yesterday of the outcome of the meeting held on Monday afternoon, and in justice to the Commanding Officer of the corps around whom the circumstances revolved, the following report is given:

The recent unpleasant incident of the refusal of the officers of the Collegiate Institute Cadet Corps to serve under their commanding officer, R. Allen Lewis, was closed on Monday, when at a meeting of the officers of the corps, it was decided that the officers who have resigned, return to their command in a body and a resolution was adopted expressing the result found, and confidence in the commanding officer, R. Allen Lewis.

Following is the resolution, moved by Cadet Lieutenant A. H. McClure, and seconded by Cadet Major Phillip Davidson:

"Resolved,—That we, the officers of No. 13 Cadet Corps, do hereby wish to express our respect for the enthusiasm, school spirit and willingness to work for any good cause, shown by our commanding officer, R. Allen Lewis, and that we hold no ill-will or personal grievance against him, having requested his resignation merely because of some slight friction between himself and some of his brother officers, which had caused a lack of cohesion in the corps."

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The publicity given the recent incident was deprecated, and an understanding was apparently arrived at by all concerned.

The meeting closed with three hearty cheers and a tiger for the Commanding Officer, R. Allen Lewis.

Will Retain Command.

Commanding officer Lewis has been instructed to retain command of the battalion until Mr. H. R. H. Kenner sees fit to relieve him.

APPALLING CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA

TRADE RELATIONS ARE POSSIBLE WITH THE STRICKEN EMPIRE —AN INTERESTING STORY.

MONEY CHEAP

(Canadian Press.)

VANCOUVER, April 28. — Major W. Bentham, of Brantford, Ont., well known in Toronto and Montreal, is back from Vladivostok, with an interesting a story as has recently been brought from Russia and Siberia. After service in Flanders early in the war, Major Bentham went to Siberia with General Emsley.

Returning to Canada when the war ended he almost immediately turned west again and was in Irkutsk the day that Kolchak was executed on Feb. 7th.

Canadian Goods.

Representing a syndicate of Eastern Canadian merchants, he was very successful in placing orders for business. The best evidence that he can produce that the Canadian merchants can do business in Siberia is that since arriving here on Friday he placed orders with Vancouver merchants for a big consignment of goods, which are being loaded to-day on the steamer Monteagle en route to Vladivostok.

In six months of 1919 the value of export trade through Vladivostok was 843,000,000 rubles, when rubles were worth 30 to the dollar. Between January 1st and July 31st, 1919, the United States took the following furs through Vladivostok: White fox, 4,217; squirrel 11,798,000; ermine 44,697; sable 971; and kolonsky, 14,976.

These figures, Major Bentham says, are sufficient answer to those who say that trade with Siberia is impossible.

Major Bentham added: "British statesmen have urged that trade with Russia is essential for the good of that country and for the needs of the world. Let me tell you that when I left Russia the ruble had fallen until they were worth only 000 to the dollar. Under such conditions what chance is there for the wretched Russian people to rehabilitate themselves without outside trade and assistance. The conditions in that country are appalling. They can only be righted or brought back to some semblance of normal by outside assistance in the form of trade or on a barter basis, as it is at present."

Murder of the Czar.

Bentham brings with him proof irrefutable of the murder of the Czar of Russia and his family at Ekaterinburg, on the morning of July 17, 1918. His information which comes from official and authentic sources, gives the place of the murder as the house of Ignateff and the name of the man who gave the direct order for the crime as Commissary Kobsky, and the man in charge of the actual execution of the whole family in a cellar of Ignateff's residence, as Jourobsky.

The Czar carried in his arms the Crown Prince Alexis, who was too ill to walk. The female members of the family were shot later.

These and other details which Major Bentham is not at liberty to mention are from sources which cannot be denied.

"It is my belief that the Red Government will last out this summer," said Major Bentham, "after that who can tell. No government can survive in Russia, Kolchak himself said, unless it can provide the necessities of life for the destitute people and in the existing state of affairs such a thing is impossible. A solution of the problem is not in sight."

SHORT OF BREATH
Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is:/ "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N.S., writes:—"I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ORGANIZATION OF PETERBORO COMPANY HAS BEEN COMPLETED

OFFICIALS OF THE COMPANY IN THE CITY TO-DAY—PLANT IS IN OPERATION.

The organization of the Canadian Nashua Paper Co., Ltd., has now been completed. The stockholders meeting of the company was held on Monday when the following officers were elected President —Mr. W. L. Carter, Vice-President, Mr. J. R. Carter, general manager, R. A. Brown, treasurer, H. T. Kehew. The directors are Mr. J. R. Carter, Mr. W. L. Carter Mr. V. E. Nunes, Mr. R. A. Brown and Mr. H. T. Kehew. The superintendant of the local plant is Mr Peters F Travers who has been with the Nashua Paper Co., for 15 years.

When interviewed by the Examiner to-day Mr. H. T. Kehew and Mr. Carter expressed themselves as more than pleased with the progress of the work here and anticipate a growing and successful industry for Peterboro, 10 years ago, the plant at Nashua employed 75 men while to-day it counts over 800 on its payroll. It is confidently expected that from 500 to 1,000 men may eventually be employed by the local plant.

Operations Started.

Have you started operations yet? Mr. Carter was asked.

Yes. We started the gumming department several weeks ago and expect in the very near future to have the wax paper plant in operation.

"This is the third plant I have superintended the opening of this year and it has started better than any of the others. Last fall we started our factory in England and we had a great deal of trouble in getting things running smoothly. Mr. P. W. Watson our consulting engineer has been here for the last three months in entire charge of the installation of machinery and the engineering problems facing a new concern and under him the work has been carried on smoothly.

Is all of the machinery now installed? Most of it. Probably two-thirds of it. We expect to get under way much more quickly than has been the case in any of our other plants.

Have you had any trouble getting labour?

Pleased With Labour.

No. We are very well pleased with the labour prospect and we find the workers here intelligent, desirable workmen. Our intention is to bring up only a minimum number of absolutely essential men and to train up here people for even the more important positions Our idea is to build up a Canadian enterprise that will be a pride to the city and Dominion.

The manufacturing products of this company go to all parts of the world The four plants in the United States and the one in England are very busy and Mr. Carter intimated that many orders had already been secured by the local company ensuring a steady business.

Two classes or divisions of gummed paper are manufactured by the Nashua Co. Labels, trading stamps make up the first class while gum box stays and binding tapes are in the second class. The wax paper products manufactured cover the full line of wrapping for food products, soaps, cigars, chewing gum and countless other things being put up in sanitary packages. In the States there has been a universal demand for wrapped bread and the company has manufactured special wax wrappings. From experience it has been determined that the people once they have used this sanitary wrapped bread, never can return to the old decidedly unsanitary way. The company will manufacture special wax wroppers for the Canadian trade and endeavour to impress on the bakers the desirability of using these to meet the demands of the public for a bread that they know has been free from handling

"We shall also have a machine department selling machines for dispensing binding tape also sealing machines used by the corrugated box manufacturers.

Two travellers will represent this company to start with. Mr. Benjamin Y. Brewster, who was with the company for many years in Nashua and has recently moved to this city and Mr. E. G. R. Clarke a Toronto returned man.

A RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

PASSED AT MEETING OF THE UTILITIES COMMISSION.

At a meeting of the Utilities Commission the following resolution of condolence was passed.

Resolved, that this Commission place on record its profound regret on account of the death of its chairman, Mr. W. H. Moore, K.C. Mr. by the local Councilof Women for Water Commission from 1904 to 1914, and when the electric light and power business was taken over by the city in 1914, and the Water Commission became the Utilities Commission, he remained a member and became chairman at the beginning of this year. He was active in the work of building up the growing business of both the water and electric departments, and his legal training, sound judgment and long experience in public affairs, combined with his keen interest in the affairs of the Commission and his desire to assist in conducting them for the benefit of the people, made him a very valuable member, and his active and zealous assistance will be greatly missed.

Be it also resolved that this Commission tender to Mr. Moore's family sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

S. A. TEMPLE TONIGHT

The Staff Captain is in the city on special work, and all who can possibly do so, should make an effort to hear him tonight. Every bandsman and soldier is requested to be present if possible.

C.P.R. OFFICIALS VISIT PETERBORO

A number of the C.P.R. officials arrived in the city to-day to take up with the city council and the Board of Trade various matters interesting both. The officials are Mr. A. D. MacTier, vice-President of the Eastern Lines; Mr. J. W. Fairbairn, chief Engineer of the C.P.R., Mr. M. H. Brown, District Freight Manager, Mr. H. C. Grant, General Superintendent, Mr. H. J. Humphrey, Superintendent and Mr. Ripley, Division Engineer.

The officials were entertained at the Empress Hotel at noon to a dinner by the City Council and the Board of Trade jointly. The Council was well represented, and the Board of Trade also.

The question of a union station is on the slate for discussion, but on this point the officials and the city would let out no information.

AUTOMOBILE FOR TELEGRAPH MESSENGERS

The messenger staff of the local telegraph offices are thinking seriously of emulating their associates in New York city who deliver their messages in automobiles purchased by themselves. The only change proposed by the local messengers is that the companies employing them purchase the cars. The chief obstacle is the messengers might be prone to break the speed limit in delivering messages contrary to the by-laws of Local No. 13 of the Messengers' Union.

BEARS ACTIVE THIS MORNING

LEADING ISSUES REACT FROM THE OPENING—STERLING EXCHANGE.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 28. — After early firmness, large selling orders appeared with particular pressure being exerted against the Doheny Oil Stock and some of the Steels.

Crucible continued to give a good account of itself while the rest of the list was selling off. Crucible advanced four points from the previous close to 239. A reaction in Mexican Pet. carried that stock off 4 points to 165. Pan-Amer also reacted over a point from the high of the first half hour.

Bears became active on the 8 per cent call money and around 11.15 a.m. new lows for the day were made, in fact some sugar stocks got below last week's low. Only stocks to hold up were Reading and Republic Steel.

During the third hour of trading, Baldwin, U.S. Steel. Pan American, and Republic were forced below last weeks low. Bethlehem B., however, held firm and despite bear raiding, it did not sell below the low of a week ago. Lackawanna also held up comparatively.

BIG SEAT SALE FOR "FI-FI" AT THE GRAND TO-DAY

The seat sale at the Grand for "Fi-Fi" opened this morning with a rush. It took most of the morning to eliminate the long line that gathered for the opening sale. A policeman was on hand to keep the line in order. The tickets have been selling all day and there promises to be a capacity house for the opening show to-morrow night. It is said to be one of the best amateur shows ever staged in Peterborough. The company is over one hundred strong and is all local talent. Book your seats early and avoid the rush and disappointment that will result if you fail to secure a seat.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28TH, 1920.

A WELCOME CHANGE.

In these columns yesterday in referring to the abolishing of the Ontario moratorium objection was voiced to the shortness of the notice given which, it was pointed out, would be a hardship to many people. The Examiner, however, is glad to report to-day that there has been a change made in the Act, which will make the proposal much less drastic than as originally drafted. Instead of the overdue mortgages coming in on July 1st, as laid down at first, a new clause is to be inserted into the bill providing for the principal payments to fall in with the first interest payments after July 1st. The mortgagor whose mortgage is dated August 1st, will only gain an extra month under the new arrangement, but other mortgagors will be more fortunate, for the bill as now constituted will provide for an extension of six months in some cases. January 1st of next year is the final date by which all overdue payments on mortgages or agreements of sale must be paid off. The extension, while it might have been longer without working any particular hardship upon anybody, will be none the less welcome, as it will give many mortgagors a chance to take care of their obligations — a chance that was almost impossible if July 1st had been definitely decided upon as the date upon which the moratorium ceased. Mr. H. H. Dewart, Liberal leader in the Legislature, suggested the change, which has been adopted.

A PENSION FUND.

In augurating a superannuation and pension scheme for all civil servants in the province, with the exception of Crown Attorneys and Registrars, Premier Drury has taken a step that will doubtless be well received, inasmuch as it should tend to popularize the civil service and attract to it men of the calibre needed. The first step will be the superannuation on June 15th of this year of one hundred and ten civil servants who have reached the age of seventy years. In their case the government will pay the whole amount. The new pension scheme proper commences on June 15th, and the individual and the government will each pay half towards the fund. The act provides that every civil servant who reaches the age of seventy years, and who has served at least ten years in the public service, is to be retired on a superannuation allowance, and similarly every civil servant who has served ten years and retires on account of ill-health, abolition of office, or any cause other than misconduct, is to receive an allowance. The scheme is a comprehensive one, and Premier Drury is justified in claiming for it that it should lead to a much better civil service in the province. The knowledge that their later years are to be provided for will tend to make civil servants more satisfied with their lot, and will tend to permanency in the various departments of the government. The fund is to be administered by a board composed of the Provincial Treasurer, the Civil Service Commissioner and one representative from each of the recognized political parties, and a representative of the Ontario Civil Service Commission.

THE OVERALL FAD.

Peterborough has escaped very lightly from the overall epidemics—a proof of the good sense of the citizens. The movement has not been adopted here to any appreciable extent, for the majority of people can see nothing in it but the increasing of the price of overalls for those who have to wear them at work. The overall craze is but a passing fad that will have little or no effect upon the clothing prices. A much more effective way of fighting the high cost of clothing would be the formation of an old clothes club, the members of which will pledge themselves to wear their oldest garb and regard patches as a mark of honour. Largely responsible for the high level to which clothing prices have advanced is the extravagance of the people, who not only buy at abnormal prices without a murmur, but insist upon having the best no matter what it costs. Women are not the only offenders, for the sterner sex is guilty of buying fancy boots at fancy prices and silk shirts at a figure that almost takes the breath away. The overall campaign can accomplish nothing in curbing such extravagant buying. The old clothes plan would produce much better results, but while its effectiveness is apparent, there seems little probability of a general adoption of the plan.

ANOTHER REFERENDUM.

The resolution introduced by Mr. McCreary, U. F. O. member of the Legislature, and enacting that the Federal Government be petitioned to take a referendum in th Province on the question of prohibiting the importation of liquor, was carried yesterday by a surprisingly large majority in the Ontario Legislature—the vote being 85 to 12.

As a result, the people of Ontario will have an opportunity during the next three months of showing by their votes whether or not they want the importation of liquor into the Province to cease.

The Federal legislation under which the referendum will be taken provides that the plebiscite must be hld within three months after the passing of the necessary resolution by the Legislature, so that in the case of Ontario the vote will be taken before the end of July, possibly in June, although the Federal Government which conducts the Referendum and pays the expenses involved will select the exact date.

The large majority in favour of the McCreary resolution was unexpected. The temperance forces were hopeful that the measure would be adopted, but it was believed that the vote would be closer.

CONCERNING JOHN BULL.

(Egyptian Mail.)

We back British common sense to beat Bolshevism any day, either inside the British Empire or outside it. Furthermore, we back British common sense to maintain the British Empire as a going concern—no matter whether the hand at the helm be labeled Coalition or Liberal or Labour. Those who think otherwise are more than welcome to their opinions, but we condole with them in good time on having backed the wrong horse.

The Britisher—we don't like the word, but if we talk about Englishmen, letters from Australians, Canadians, Scotsmen, and Prince Edward Islanders shower on us worse than rain on a February day in Cairo—the Britisher, we repeat, may be recognised anywhere within hearing distance by two outstanding characteristics: He always grumbles, just to show his independence, while, thanks to his common sense, he realises perfectly well just how much he really has to grumble about.

THE PENSION PROBLEM.

The pensions paid to Canadian soldiers and the dependents of soldiers are undergoing adjustment at Ottawa. At least, they are being considered by the Pension Committee of the House of Commons and that indicates adjustment. There is little doubt that the pensions paid to Canadian pensioners have not been satisfactory, and there is little doubt that after the present process of adjustment has been finished, they will still be unsatisfactory, although they may be more satisfactory than they have been.

Pensions are like taxes in that they must always be unsatisfactory. The only way to adjust taxes to the satisfaction of the taxpayer would be to eliminate them, and the only way to make the pensions satisfactory to all pensioners would be to pay all pensioners the maximum. The difficulty of putting the pensions on a fair basis must be recognised and it must be admitted that the Board of Pension Commissioners seem to be making a real effort to remove causes of dissatisfaction. It is with the recommendations made by the Board of Pension Commissioners to the Pension Committee of the House of Commons that the Committee is dealing at Ottawa this week.

The most drastic change in the present pension method suggested by the Board is the elimination of all pensioners whose disability does not amount to more than twenty per cent.

by the expedient of paying all such men a cash sum in lieu of all future pension or claim on the Government. It is pointed out by the Board that the majority of Canadian pensioners are classed as having less than twenty per cent. disability, and if this class could be satisfied with a cash payment, the amount of work eliminated from the operation of the Pension Department would be enormous and the saving to the country considerable. It is not suggested that pensioners drawing only small amounts would be compelled to commute their pensions and accept the lump sum, but it is advanced that the new system would be more acceptable to a great many men than the present business of drawing a pittance every month. It is further argued that with the acceptance of the cash sum the soldier would be without further claim on the Government and in case of a recurrence of disability or future sickness, no responsibility would attach to the Government. This last suggestion seems to be the weakest point in the argument. The Government should not attempt to evade its responsibility. If a man's disability is aggravated through advancing age or if he developes sickness which is traceable to the trenches, even after he has been some years in healthy civilian life, he should have a legitimate claim on the pension funds of the Government. Moreover, there is grave danger that under the commutation system a great many men would, owing to temporary financial stringency, give up something which would be of real service to them for a small cash sum which would be soon gone. Take the case of a man getting a pension of five dollars a month. It does not seem to be a great deal, but pensioners are apt to overlook its value. If he desired to commute that monthly five dollars into a lump payment, the Government would probably not be prepared to give him more than five or six hundred dollars at the outside. A pensioner needing five hundred dollars immediately would undoubtedly sell out at that figure, but if he could do without the immediate five hundred, he would unquestionably be better off if he held to his monthly pension.

After all, it is really a matter for the pensioner to decide, if the Board gives him the option, but if the surrender of the pension is accompanied by a release by the pensioner of all future claim against the Government, no matter what might happen, the pensioner would not be wise to commute and, in our opinion, release. Although there does not seem to have been any direct recommendation by the Board that the pensions of widows be not reduced by the amount they are able to secure from other sources of income, there is little doubt that some relief will be granted in this respect for the present regulations governing such cases have worked no inconsiderable degree of hardship in quarters where it could least easily be borne.

Another recommendation of the Board to the Pensions Committee is that the pensions be based on the rank of the pensioner at the time of discharge and not at the time of disability, and that in the case of an officer having reverted in rank to go to the front, the pension be awarded at the rank held at the time of such reversion, unless the pensioner subsequently attained higher rank in France. These recommendations are all right so long as the Government persists in the distinction of rank in the payment of pensions. There is absolutely no public support for the retention of the rank system of paying pensions, and why the good democratic Government of Canada does not level the pensions is an ufathomable mystery, but if no such levelling process is commenced, the recommendations referred to are sensible.

For instance, under the present regulations it is possible for a man who reverted from the rank of lieutenant to that of private in order to reach a fighting zone, to receive a much smaller pension than the man who refused to revert in rank, but waited his opportunity, proceeded to France months later with his original rank, and received a similar disability to the lieutenant-private. It is just such instances that make the payment of pensions on rank almost ludicrous. The Board of Pension Commissioners does not take the responsibility of making a general recommendation for the raising of all pensions; their duties are confined to administration and not to matters of general policy, but there is little question that this matter is being strongly urged before the Pension Committee of the House of Commons, and there is every prospect that a general advance will be put into effect before the House rises. It is generally accepted that the pensioners most severely handicapped for civil life are not receiving a large enough pension. While the war was in progress the uncertainty of the future had some effect in curbing any torrential generosity on the part of the Government, but now that the amount to be paid in pensions can be fairly accurately calculated, there is more likelihood of a substantial addition to the pensions appropriation.—Turner's Weekly.

CAR PLUNGED INTO THE DITCH

An automobile accident occurred on the Rice Lake Road Sunday afternoon and the escape of the occupants from serious injuries was miraculous. Mr. and Mrs. John Boughen, of Hope township, and Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, Hagerman street, were motoring up the hill near Mr. Maybee's residence north of Rossmount, when something went wrong with the steering gear and the car plunged into the ditch. The front wheel snapped off and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Boughen were thrown from the car. Mr. Palmer and Mrs. Boughen escaped injury, but Mrs Palmer was quite severely shaken up and received a nasty cut on the forehead. Mr. G. A. Outram, who was passing at the time, brought Mrs. Padmer to town and medical aid was summoned. While the cut on the forehead was quite deep it was not long and only one stitch was required. Mrs. Palmer is resting quite comfortably now and will be about again in a few days.—Port Hope Guide.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

ROSE HAS CAUSE TO ENVY ME

CHAPTER CVIII

Rose wrote me occasionally. Walter Kemp had been of a roving disposition always, and they had decided to settle in Chicago.

"Walter has had a splendid business offer and has accepted it," she wrote. "My only regret is not to be with you in Hendon. But of course I would not think of that when he can make so much money by accepting this offer. Then, too, he is all the company I need. I have not tried to get acquainted at all, altho there are one or two very pleasant young women in the hotel who have spoken to me. We have found an apartment —I did not want the care of a house— and shall furnish and move in at once."

But after the letter in which she wrote of her home, describing the furniture, her trouble in securing maids, etc., her letters grew more infrequent—and different. Gradually she said nothing about Walter being all-sufficient for her, or about his wonderful love. At first her letters had been full of her happiness. She now made no complaints, but the buoyancy was gone. I felt she was unhappy without in the least knowing why.

When I answered her letters I made no mention of the change I had noticed, but wrote as usual. I never had said very much about Everett in my letters to her, simply telling her he was well and wished to be remembered. I had never overcome the feeling that she didn't like my husband, and it made it hard to write of him. So I was astonished when, in one of her short notes to me, she said:

"You say very little about Everett. I shall make Walter hate his very name. I always hold him up as a model husband. He was so gallant, so courteous to you, as much so as if you weren't married."

"I wonder if, now he is married, Water neglects all the little courtesies Rose thinks so much of?" I muttered as I read her letter. Had I known that he not only neglected the amenities of life, but was already after only a few months, neglecting Rose, I should have been deeply sorry for her. That this was so, I did not know for some time.

But Buster and Toddles paid us a visit just at that time. They were with us about ten days. It was vacation for them, but as Everett facetiously remarked: "Anything but a vacation for us!" It didn't seem possible that two boys of their age could so upset a house, and keep us all so busy.

I never had seen Everett so happy. He laughed and joked with both the boys; planned parties for them; took them to the shows and motion pictures; bought them all sorts of games; and, generally disported himself in a way to win their lasting allegiance, and to make me wonder if he realy were my dignified husband.

"You are as much of a boy as either of them," I told him up their return from a ball game.

"They are doing me good," he returned laughing at something Toodles said. "I only wish they were to be with us longer."

Mrs. Gray, James and Thomas were all slaves to my brothers' whims and as for Hetty and the cook. I tod Everett we never would get them straightened out again. Cook made the most delicious and indigestable dishes for them, and Hetty waited upon them until I complained I had no one to do anything for me. But it made me very happy. I love the boys, and they were such dears—so gentlmanly and considerate—that I was proud of them as well.

When they left it seemed as if someone had died. Everett complained more than did I of missing them.

But about a week after they left us I had a fainting spell. When the doctor left. Everett took me in his arms, and said:

"Dear, we won't have to borrow other people's children very much longer." The doctor had told him I was to be a mother.

I never knew anyone could be so tender, so thoughtful, as Everett was. I forgot all the unpleasant things which had happened and was only happy to think I was to have a baby of my very own, and that Everett really loved me.

TWENTY FAT WOMEN IN REDUCING COURSE

Accept Chicago Health Commissioner's Offer to Relieve Them of Surplus Weight.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Twenty women volunteers of an average weight of 220 3-5 pounds, started a six weeks' officially sponsored course in reducing here under the direction of Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson. Home gardening, long walks, prescribed diets and accepted reducing exercises will comprise the program for the next six weeks.

Commissioner Robertson had called for fifty volunteers, half of them men and half women. Twenty fat women and one fat man answered. The man fled when he found himself alone.

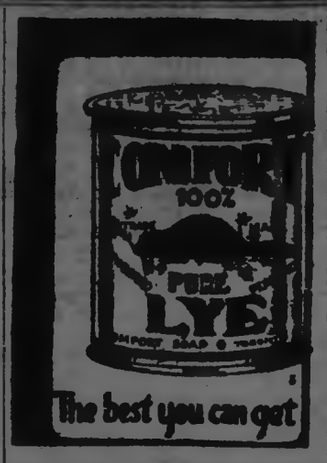
The women will don overalls and take an hour's exercise in back yard gardens. Spading, hoeing and weed pulling are included in Dr. Robertson's course for them.

Twelve of the women are housewives, two typists, one a stenographer two clerks, one mercantile buyer, one office manager and one a nurse.

They are to report to Dr. Robertson daily by telephone for advice on exercise and diet, and each Thursday the entire contingent will appear to be weighed.

FINED HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR FALSE ADVERTISING

OWEN SOUND, April 28.—A case which has awakened a great deal of interest was heard in the Police Court here when Maurice Cohen was charged with making false statements and false representations in advertising a sale of merchandise, and was fined $100. Cohen came to Owen Sound a couple of weeks ago and advertised a $15,000 stock for sale by merchandise adjustors. Boots, which were advertised as being worth $7.50 a pair and selling for $3.95, were shown to be worth not more than $3. Other goods were found to be equally shoddy. Business was just beginning to boom, when the Retail Merchants' Association of the Board of Trade investigated and laid the information on which the charge was based.



HAD A COLD DIP IN LOCKS BASIN

On Saturday evening, Clare Kelcher, accidently took an involuntary bath at the Lindsay locks. He was assisting in opening a lock gate when he was accidently struck during the swing and sent headlong into the lock's basin. Prompt measures were taken to rescue him. The fact that Clare was a swimmer stood him in good stead, as he was able to save himself from going under until safe on terra firma.

Clare is a member of the Boy Scouts, and of course swimming is part of their curriculum ,to say nothing of the other accomplishments which a Boy Scout must cultivate.

"THE REVELATIONS OF A WIFE"

(By MISS DOROTHY PEMBROKE)

The address given at the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon by Miss Dorothy Pembroke in connection with "The Revelations of a Wife" was along the line of an intimate talk.

"There is no particular propoganda or problem about our little play," said Miss Pembroke. "One can see it is a mystery story pure and simple, and built solely for purposes of amusement, still there is the question raised, and that question has become to many a poor girl a most vital one. 'Should a woman tell her past?' 'Is it necessary for a woman, contemplating marriage, to disclose her past actions in order to keep her self respect and not feel that she is cheating her future husband of his just rights?' "

Moral Standards.

"If moral standards—I am not speaking of moral laws, but moral standards as customs, traditions, and past laws have made them—if they were on an equal basis, that question would be more easily answered. But today, when that which is a never-to-be-forgotten-crime in woman, in man, is a quite-to-be-expected-incident, it becomes almost farcical to attempt a solution.

"In one of our larger city papers of last May, appeared an article by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson which was headed, "Should this girl tell her past to her fiance?" Then followed a letter from a girl eighteen years old who said that the phrase—"A woman with a past" fitted her. Within the last year she had met a man whom she had learned to love with all her heart, and had reason to believe that he returned her affections, but she was afraid to marry him.

"She pathetically writes, 'Perhaps there is no way of my ever being happy, for if I do not tell him and someone else does after we are married, he would think I tried to trap him by my deceit, and if I do tell him and lose him, I really do not care to live.' How could any one conscientiously advise that girl when there is a moral law for woman and an immoral law for man.

Two Sides.

"There are certainly two sides to the story."

"It is quite evident that woman do not stand on the same level with man on the moral question. In what way then are we deprived of our rights? We are allowed to work at the same trades; receive the same wages; can purchase the same wares with our coin. With our literal coin, yes. But how about the moral currency, the money with which we buy our happiness; we pay the same price for that, but we must expect to accept second-hand, soiled or damaged goods."

"The whole trend of our civilization today is toward equality; equality in education, in work, in legislation. It is inevitable that equality in morals must follow, because, for the pot, simply because he is a man, to call the kettle black, simply because she is a woman, is logical absurdity.

"A relic of the past stilll stands in some of our marriage ceremonies. The woman swears to obey while the man only to love and protect. There can be no happiness where there is authority on one side and subserviance on the other. The man who thinks he can get all he wants under such a regime is easily satisfied indeed. As well expect the rose to bloom in polar ice fields as a lasting love or a great friendship to exist between master and bondsman.

"It is a man's claim that woman is the finer part, and should not be coarsened by contact with the more material things, that she must not meddle with the suffrage question; that she must be kept the delicate effeminate half. All right, we grant that is what we wish to be, and we are not begging for an advantage on these grounds, but does it not stand to reason that, that same fineness makes us more easily hurt when man brings home to us his iniquities.

"And what of our women in the late war. Did they stand because of their delicacy, their refinement? Have we not seen how they took their place in the world of work? How they plowed the fields, wielded the hammer, handled machinery? Is not just as possible for man, in all his self-esteemed greatness to lift himself from the muck and mire of immorality and place his standard by the side of woman's?

A Long Duel.

"When the standards are the same, then concealment of a moral crime on either side will indeed be unpardonable, but to the woman of today, who might come through some bitter ordeal sanctified and soul uplifted, it would seem cruel to mar or endanger her chances of happiness by opening a page in her life that would make her future mate no happier or contented to know."

"To the man who has the temperament to see the repentance and sacrifice it has taken to make her confession, this will be as vital to him as to the woman herself, but all men are not alike. As a preacher once said to his people, 'It is a wise and blessed thing that all men are not alike. If they were, you would all want my wife.' Whereupon a witty Deacon arose and replied, 'Yes, brother, it is truly a blessed thing, for if we were all alike, nobody would have your wife, they'd all want mine.' "

"Some dan whey the woman question has indeed been settled; when it will seem preposterous that any human being should have to plead for human rights, then the long duel of the sexes will be laid at last to rest, and man and woman will find themselves free, free for the first time to build the house of life, spacious and splendid, as they alone in liberty and sympathy can create it.

"Then and not till then, will man realize that instead of treading the rough path of civilization alone, he will find at his every step his natural ally, his companion by divine right—woman, marching steadily at his side.

"Ladies I implore you to bring to bear every influence to hasten this state of things, and above all, teach your sons to recognize that purity in man as well as in woman, is a condition to be honored, admired and glorified."

REFUSED TO BUDGE AT NIGHT ALARM

NOT USED TO BEING ROUSED OUT OF THEIR SLUMBERS—JOKE ON FIREMEN.

(Associated Press.)

CLINTON, Mass., April 28.—"Betty" and "Billy" have gone back to the farm, and Clinton's fire department has returned to its motorized efficiency. An upstanding pair of browns, the horses were the pride of the firefighters until they became the cause of their disgrace.

Sleek and fat from a farm in an adjoining town, they were obtained to pull the town's old fire engine while the new motor apparatus was being repaired. The browns swept out of the engine-house to their first fire in a manner to make old firemen speak with happy reminiscences of the horse-drawn days. Then came a night alarm.

Back on the farm, "Betty" and "Billy" had been accustomed not to stir from sundown to sunrise, and no din of fire-gong or urging by anxious firemen would move them to answer the alarm. All the fire department's split-seocnd aids to a quick start were lost on the browns. They refused to budge, the firemen had to go to the blaze with chemical lines, and the town folks laughed.

The firemen vowed the thing would not happen again and the horses were put through a stiff training. They went to the day fires with spirit, and the fire crew hoped they understood. But another night alarm came, and again "Betty" and "Billy" would not move; once more the firemen went afoot, hose in hand, and again the town laughed at their discomfiture. The next day "Betty" and "Billy" went back to the farm.

By attaching a bicycle motor wheel to a sled an Alaskan voyager recently secured a speedier wa of travelling across northern ice fields.

THE HAROLD JARVIS CONCERT

The "well-remembered voice" of Mr. Harold Jarvis was heard again at St. Paul's Church last night after a long silence since those days of a decade ago, when he was a more familiar and always welcome visitor to Peterborough. To many of the large audience, this concert partook, in a sense, of the renewal of an old and cherished acquaintance, and by all those who heard Mr. Jarvis the opportunity provided by the Fraser Auxiliary of the church was deeply appreciated.

The programme was thoroughly interesting, and in its range of subjects served to bring out the many beauties of a tenor voice that has given Mr. Jarvis a high standing on the concert platform of this country and of many cities south of the border. It is enhanced by a debonair and virile personality, by a finished style to employ a phrase that comprehends the fine points of technique and expression, and by an acuteness of interpretation that was equally impressive and delightful in the presentation of dramatic and lyric themes.

The sombre shading of the recitative and aria, beginning "O Loss of Sight," from "Samson," was contrasted with the message of hope and comfort in the song "There is No Death." A central group of three numbers was in a lighter vein. They were "Friend of Mine" "Do You Remember Long Ago, Kathleen," and "Your Eyes Have Told Me So." In the latter, Mr. Jarvis incidentally demonstrated the possibilities of what may be called a popular song when rendered by an artiste.

The mood attuned to an ideal spring, but scarcely to the present season, was expressed in the lyrical and melodious "A Happy Song," by Del Riego.

The tenor solo "Recondita Armonia" (strange harmony) from the first act of "La Tosca," was tinged with its atmosphere of mystery and foreboding, and displayed the powers of Mr. Jarvis' voice in its upper register. An old hymn, given as an extra number, was sung with an appealing simplicity and with the clarity of enunciation that was a feature of Mr. Jarvis' art.

Mr. Jarvis was assisted by Mr. Frank Tattersall and Miss Hazel Davidson. Mr. Tattersall opened the concert with an organ solo, "The Abbey Chimes," descriptive of an evening service interrupted by a thunderstorm. His conception of the scene was eloquently and realistically translated into music, in which the soft light of the church music provided a vivid setting for the darkness and thunder of the storm.

As accompanist to Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Tattersall played with a nice reserve and appreciation of his assistance.

Miss Davidson was as pleasing as usual in her recitations, including her encores and extras. Only with the desire to be helpful is it suggested that her pronunciation of the habitant dialect lacked crispness and accentuation in Drummond's poem. She conveyed the sentiment with the proper feeling. Her other numbers were well delivered and uniformly entertaining.

PRINCE AMONG MAORI NATIVES

THREATENED TO LIE DOWN IN FRONT OF TRAIN.

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, April 28.—Maori tribes, formerly enemies of the British in Maori, refused to be represented at Rotorua in welcoming the Prince of Wales upon his arrival there, says a Central New s despatch from Auckland.

They pointed out that their presence would associate them with other tribes, against which they made a protest.

The Maori chiefs threatened that if the Prince did not stop at their village to receive them they would hold up the train by dying down in front of it.

They finally promised not to create a disturbance if permitted to welcome the Royal visitors.

Rotorua despatches say that the railway traffic has been suspended in the northern island, but it is not expected to delay the progress of the Prince of Wales.

STIRRING PLAY AT THE GRAND

REVEALS EVERYDAY PROBLEMS OF MARRIED LIFE—A REAL MYSTERY PLAY.

A remarkable mystery play that holds one spellbound, with a plot that depicts the everyday problems of married life, the problems that face every woman when she is on the eve of marriage, is "The Revelations of a Wife," that last night played to a well filled house at the Grand. The story is of self sustaining interest, and the mystery in it, the ghosts, the strange laughing voice, the noises at night, are produced most realistically. Into this mystery play the woman's past is worked most cleverly and forms the centre of the plot.

The woman with the past is the wife of Mr. Grant Sterling, a prominent lawyer and candidate for the United States' senate. In the midst of his election campaign his wife, who up to then has been the truest wife, the happiest mother, suddenly becomes a nervous wreck and fades to but the shadow of her former self? Why? That is the problem Miss Kitty Constance, really a lady detective comes to the house as a companion to Mrs. Sterling is forced to solve, and through her matchless, clever work finally turns the whole plot inside out and reveals the blackguard behind the mystery in the house, a man who would, besides wrecking the happiness of Grant Sterling's home, defeat him in his election campaign and steal $60,000 worth of bonds from his two maiden aunts. The plot is complex, but this enhances the interest it holds on the house A delightful bit of humor is worked into the play by Miss Constance and Michael Benson, the butler, with a voice that for special occasions becomes falsetto, and Miss Patience Melford, who is afflicted with deafness.

The parts are well taken, the leading role by Dorothy Pembroke, being a difficult one to fill, yet was in good hands Miss Pembroke putting her very soul into her character.

Between the second and third act Miss Pembroke outlined the purposes of the play in a short address.

Godfrey Matthews as Grant Sterling, and Albert West as Paul Hallowell, his secretary, and the genius of the whole dastardly plot, fill their respective parts commendably, while the part of Kitty Constance is splendidly taken by Georgia Burdell. The other parts are exceptionally well filled.

To all who appreciate a mystery, detective or ghost story with a setting in real life and with a woman's past life wound into the plot, this play presents a most unique opportunity to see an interesting production.

MAY IS PROGRESS MONTH AT THE CRESSMAN STORE

The Annual May Sale of Hosiery Commences To-morrow, April 29, to May 5th, Inclusive

A Pedestrian the Other Day Was About to Take a Short Cut across a lawn but changed his mind, kept on his course and took the corner on the square. The short-cut would have brought him to his destination quicker but he refused to break a new trail that would eventually become an eyesore.

There are many short-cuts and by-ways in business that ensure quick returns but do not lay the foundation for continual expansion. This store counts its progress by the number of new friends it makes and the old ones it retains. We are putting our shoulder to the wheel for the month of May in an endeavour to make it the most progressive we have ever known.

The Cressman Co., Ltd.

AN ANNUAL SALE is not a hit or miss sort of an event with us. It is on our business calendar each year, and we prepare for it months ahead. We figured it out long ago that this is the only way to make a sale a success for all concerned. When you visit our hosiery department you will realize (particularly if you know market conditions to-day) what a feat it is to sell such splendid merchandise at such prices.

PETERBORO BABIES PASS MUSTER BEFORE CRITICAL EYES OF THE DOCTORS IN CHARGE OF CLINIC

OPENING OF THE CLINIC WAS A BIG SUCCESS—"A FINE LOT OF BABIES," DECLARED DR. J. H. EASTWOOD.

Yesterday afternoon in the G.W.V.A., half of Peterboro ranging in age from a few months to four and five years was measured weighed and examined at the Baby Clinic by local doctors and nurses.

The opening day surpassed the expectations of those responsible for the institution of the Clinic. Splendid response the mothers of the city made to the patriotic duty which devolved upon them in assuring themselves that their children are in perfect health and receiving proper care. They were met at thedoor by Miss Margaret English and Mrs. Achilles Turner who in their turn introduced them to Mrs. Galbraith who registered the babies and tabulated their weight, size etc., from information given by Mrs. D N. Carmichael, the nurse in charge for the afternoon. Some babies howled ,some smiled and some treated the examination with stolid indifference, but no matter what resistance or encouragement was lent to those in charge each was thoroughly overhauled, handed back to the proud mother who in her turn took her child to Dr. J. H. Eastwood and Dr. Malcolm McCulloch, who questioned her upon the care and feeding the child received and gratuitously gave expert advice on how to correct any errors she might be making in rearing the little one. "They are a prize lot of babies," Dr. Eastwood stated when about half through the examination and said that he was well pleased with the general condition of the rising generation

At the opening of the clinic some of the mothers who came really with object of investigating how the Clinic was run were so convinced of the splendid purpose and results that they might too share in the opportunities offered. One proud mother who had just arrived from Scotland placed a 13 months old baby in the nurse's arms which turned the scales at 27 pounds.

Opened the Clinic.

Miss B. Knox, graduate of the Toronto General Hospital who was sent by the Provincial Board of Health to open the Clinic and give it a general send off gave an interesting talk to the mothers on the feeding of the children laying special emphasis upon the absolute necessity of absolute cleanliness in the handling of milk. While she refused to condemn patent baby foods she convinced the mothers of the advisibility of making modified milk and demonstrated with a few ordinary utensils the proper method of making it.

In the evening interesting addresses were given by some of the local doctors after a brief address by Mrs. W. R. Harstone who occupied the chair and who welcomed all those interested in the work to the Clinic.

Dr. Jessie Birnie spoke on the organiaztion of the Clinic and of the help received from the various federated societies and personal contributions referring particularly to the filing cabinet donated by the 57th Chapter and the operating table donated by Dr. Buchanan. She referred to the manner in which the city has been organized for registration under the leadership of Mrs. James Kendry, Mrs. A. J. Thomas and Mrs. W. R. Harstone and made special mention of the help received personally by Mrs. A. E. Coulshard, Mrs. R. H. Parsons and the King's Daughters, of the personal service of Mrs. D. N. Carmichael, Miss Mary Stratton and Mrs W. E. Lech. She concluded by expressing her hope that the Clinic would receive the co-operation of the city by bringing their children under four years to share in the advantages offered. The regular Clinic will open next Tuesday in the Great War Veterans Hall at 3 o'clock.

Dr. F. Neal referred particularly to tuberculosis amongst children and pointed out how it would be prevented from developing by proper care in infancy and in early childhood.

Dr. Malcolm McCulloch spoke on School Hygiene referring particularly to infectious and chronic diseases among children.

Dr. Sutton spoke briefly but interestingly on the general welfare of Children.

Complimented the Clinic

Miss Knox referred to the Peterboro Babies Clinic as the best organized institution of its kind in Ontario and stated that the rooms are the best in the Province for the work

Served Tea.

The King's Daughters served tea to all mothers and will continue to do so gratuitiously at all meetings of the Clinic.

"Gosh! How my back aches!"

After Grip, "flu" or colds, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys.

This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further inroads of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Anuric (anti-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those pains, such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

Send 10c. for trial pkg. of Anuric to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont.

PRESTON, ONT.—"I was troubled with rheumatism in the right limb and hand for several years, and lately in the left shoulder. The only way I could lie was on my back. I had great difficulty to sit down and more to get up. Recently I had a very severe pain in my back. I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery several times with the most satisfactory results, so I concluded to give his Anuric Tablets a trial. The pain in limb and shoulder has stopped entirely and in right hand it is very slight and getting less all the time. I can now sit or lie in any position I wish without discomfort or pain. I certainly will recommend Anuric; there is nothing nearly so good; I have tried them all."—GEORGE Rose, ex. Duke and Waterloo.

PETERBORO BOY SCOUT RECEIVES BADGE

The Boy Scout programme is one of steady progress and advancement of boys in all the qualities that develop initiative and self reliance, which go to make a thoroughly manly man and a good citizen of our country. First there is the Tenderfoot Scout, then the Second Class Scout and the First Class Scout. Examinations increasingly more difficult have to be passed to obtain these ranks.

Since the organization of the Boy Scout movement in Peterboro under the control of the local association there has been no boy in the city to pass the tests for a First Class Scout until last evening when Vimy Troop carried off the honor of securing the first scout to pass this badge of high rank. This honor belongs to Troop Leader Bert Bugg, a young officer of Vimy Troop, who passed his examinations with distinction. The examinations passed were on the following subjects:

Swimming, Thrift, Advanced Signalling (sending and receiving), Cooking Own Food, Military Map Reading and Map Drawing, Correct Way to Fell Timber, Judging Distances, Area, Size, Numbers and Height (within 25 per cent. error), Camping Out Alone, Method of Dealing With All Classes of Emergencies, Accidents, Fractures, Poisoning, etc., How to Know Compass Directions without the Aid of a Compass.

This Scout is entitled to credit for his showing and was congratulated and urged to advance still further in rank by the President of the Local Boy Scout Association who presented him with his badge of rank at the meeting held last evening.

RAILWAY WORKERS TO CALL STRIKE

Part of Socialist Demonstration on May Day.

ROME, April 28.— Railway workers have decided to call a twenty-four strike as part of the Socialist demonstration on May Day.

British Columbia Woman Speaks Plainly.

Her Message is to Everyone.

Those who have found relief use the people who want all sufferers to know what they gained from their experience.

Mrs. B. Walton, of Savona, B.C., writes, praising Gin Pills for the immediate relief given by these splendid Pills. Mrs. Walton says:—

"I advise people who have not used Gin Pills to try them. I have been troubled for years with weak kidneys, and one box of Gin Pills cured me. I recommend them as an absolute and reliable cure."

Derangement of kidneys or bladder is so very serious that, at the first sign of pain in side or back, treatment with Gin Pills should begin. The duty of the kidneys is to cleanse the blood. If weak or inactive, uric acid and other poisons and waste are carried to the joints and muscles, causing inflammation, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, constant headaches, dizziness, flashing specks before the eyes, gravel or stone in the bladder, general debility and insomnia. If you have any of these symptoms, get Gin Pills at once. Price 50c per box. At druggists or dealers. 50c a box. Money refunded if not relieved.

20 YEARS MISSING, IS FOUND AT LAST

MYSTERY OF WOMAN'S DISAPPEARANCE CLEARED UP BY DISCOVERY OF BODY IN ATTIC.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 28. — A mystery of 20 years' standing was cleared up here when the skeleton of Miss Carrie T. Selvage, who disappeared while an inmate of an Indianapolis hospital, March 11, 1900, was found in the attic of the building that had been formerly occupied by the hospital.

The skeleton was identified by the woman's two brothers thru the clothing draped about it, a dark blue flannelette wrapper and black felt house slippers.

The woman's remains were found in a second attic, a small corner about three feet by four. The Selvage brothers said today that when their sister disappeared they searched the building thoroly and did not learn of the existence of the second attic. The coroner declared it would be impossible to determine whether the woman hid herself in the place and starved to death or was carried there by someone. She was under treatment at the time for a nervous breakdown.

On the day of her disappearance Miss Selvage had returned to her room after a walk with her nurse. She asked the nurse to go to the kitchen and get her some milk, and when the attendant returned the patient had vanished. A countryside search followed.

The discovery was made today when the building was being altered to convert it into a garage.

BEGS U.S. TO HELP RESTORE EUROPE

STRICKEN PEOPLES ARE LOOKING TO THIS COUNTRY, SAYS RED CROSS OFFICIAL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Upon his return from an inspection trip in Eastern Europe, Eliot Wadsworth, who was Vice Chairman of the American Red Cross Council in the war, called upon the United States to assume some definite status among the nations of the world. America's future business, he declared, would be benefited if we had taken the leadership, the foresight, the interest, the money and the material to take a strong part in reviving the industry and civilization of Eastern Europe.

Mr. Wadsworth asserted our present diplomatic position was too vague to allow the making of any definite plan of action by individuals, bankers or the Government, adding:

"The type of man we elect next November as President will determine to a great extent America's world position for the coming generation. This is the most important decision which America has faced since the Civil war and probably since the beginning of her existence."

Emphasizing the need for America to play a commanding part in the rehabilitation of stricken districts, Mr. Wadsworth told how the people turn to America as "an El Dorado which can do anything if it will; can put them on their feet or let them drop still further." He gave an account of the noon meal furnished daily by the American Children's Fund to 4,000,000 children in the stricken districts, telling how "the look in their eyes, the extreme care they take in passing before the serving tables tells the story."

While the agricultural communities are recovering slowly, those who depend upon the machineryof civilization for existence he found to be in a bad way, with the economic situation very dark, and aggravated by the restriction of trade between nations, since each new political boundary has become an economic barrier.

"Beyond all this, the complications of paper currencies beggars description," he declared. "Each new country prints its own, and, in addition Czar rubles, Kerensky rubles and Soviet rubles are on the market at rapidly varying values. Adjoining countries, in some cases, practically ignore each other's currency, and no rate of exchange is quoted.

"The Red Cross Commission to the Baltic States, with headquarters at Riga, transacts business in thirteen different currencies. Gold reserves are a glimmer of the past.

"The standards of living have already dropped back to a primitive basis. The cities show the full effect of these new conditions. The population of Vienna is steadily declining. Riga, with a former population of 500,000, now has half that number. Of its 300 factories, formerly employing 80,000 hands, not one is in regular operation. One step further west Germany is farming every available patch of ground, but her industries art at a low ebb from lack of coal and raw material."

MUSIC IN ONTARIO HIGH SCHOOLS

Some months ago, says the editor of "Musical Canada," a movement was started among musicians, school educators and music dealers to improve the status of musical teaching in the schools of Ontario, with special reference to the High schools. The intention was to remedy the cardinal defect that at present music is not taught in the High Schools at all. The common school carries it all, except what a negligible minority, take up in the University.

So far as High Schools are concerned music does not exist, trigonometry does. There are enough people in Ontario who make use of trigonometry to fill a street car. There are not enough people in Ontario who don't make some use of music to fill a trailer. Music is no longer a mere accomplishment, or a luxury for the well-to-do. [illegible] of civilization. The need of more good music never was so manifest as now.

We have in Canada no person to make princely gifts to educational music. But we have plenty of public spirited people who are ready to do something to push music into a High School curriculum in a sensible way. By the time an average student gets to a university, if at all, music is not of much importance. The High School term is above all the period when boys and girls can be brought to use intelligence in musical matters and get an idea of music that carries them beyond the mere rudiments imparted in a public school.

A committee of musicians, educators and dealers, acting in conjunction with the Bureau for the Advancement of Music, did go so far as to get the late Minister of Education willing to act in any reasonable scheme submitted by the committee. The elections changed the Minister, and the committee became practically defunct. It is time for the new Minister and the resurrected committee to get together in this project to put music reasonably into the High Schools.

One argument for good roads is that postal employes are estimated to travel 1,400,000 miles daily in delivering mail on rural routes. Sixty thousand men are employed in this service.

REVIVE "DEAD CITY" OF DVINSK

Red Cross Workers Overcome Smallpox and Feed Population.

RIGA, Russia, April 28.—Under the direction of Captain John C. Whitney of Bridgeport, Ohio, a number of American Red Cross workers have virtually restored to life the "dead city" of Dvinsk.

Captain Whitney with his small group of workers entered Dvinsk in January and found 40,000 of the population still alive. The Poles had occupied the city three days prior to the arrival of the Red Cross contingent. Smallpox was raging and it was impossible to obtain the necessaries of life.

After a week's work 3,000 persons were being fed under the supervicion of the Red Cross in soup kitchens. Two hospitals had been erected and clothing issued to 8,000 persons. This work continued to an increasing measure throughout the Winter, and the latest reports are that Dvinsk [illegible]

INFORMAL JURY GIVES DECISION

Methodist Minister and Wife Will Separate by Decision—Award Wife $2,000.

(Canadian Press.)

SYRACUSE, N.Y., April 28.—When Rev W. W. Brunk, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Liverpool, near here, found that he and his wife could not agree upon many domestic matters, they called in an informal jury of their neighbors to settle their differences and agreed to abide by their decision.

Mrs. Brunk accused her husband of holding out on his salary and of neglecting her; he retorted with hints regarding his wife's mental stability.

The "jurors" decided the Brunks should separate, she to take the eldest child and he the two younger ones. They awarded Mrs. Brunk $2,000.00.

A LOCAL FOOTBALL SNIPER

(Contributed.)

I was laying quietly in my den when I heard a Thud! Thud! That's somewon playing football, I said. Now for some inside information, up I poped my head and got my glasses, sure enough, football players, but who? there's no game to-night.

After carefully looking over the field-I saw Capt. Jones. That must be the Delaval boys. Even then I could not believe it for I had heard that they had not got a team after the C.G.E. had won a game from them.

I watched for about 10 minutes and saw Capt. Jones directing them over the field and then the game started. Not being satisfied with looking through the glasses I decided to go to the field. When I got there I saw 22 Delaval Boys hard at work and in dead earnest—certainly loosening one game had not killed them by the awy they went at it. Knowing some of the by-standers I began to try and find out what the game was and it would not be right for me even a Sniper to tell all. Would it any how. I found that the team that met the C.G.E. had a lot of willing young football players who had not played befor and it seems that the delaval have quite a good team if they can get them out as they are a bunch of garden workers and at this time of the year very busy. The teams on Saturday week were all Delaval A.A.A. men and when Dick Evans the trainer get them young men kicking the ball for about 3 or 4 months he will be putting some lads in the field to take his place. I got this from the bystanders while the game was going fast and furious and I noticed quiet a change in the teams which one will take the field on Thursday nobody could tell me but the Machine Gun Section can rest asured if the team that played at the West goal turn out like they did tonight it wont be very easy goal getting for them and I can promise the suporters of both teams a good game for I am going to see it myself, so take the tip from

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

(Lindsay Warder)

Among the delegates who attended the annual meeting at the O.B.A.A. at Toronto Saturday was Mr. Harry Soanes, of Tweed, who is Sec.-Treas. of the Trent Valley League. Mr. Soanes formerly lived in Lindsay and at one time was first baseman for the Y.M.C.A. team, and a good ball player. This year the T.V.C. League will be affiliated with the O.B.A.A., and expect to bring out a good winner.

Midland has a capital idea. They let the baseball boys organize a Town League of their own, which completes a single schedule by May 24th. Then a Baseball Commision of four or six men sit down and after seeing the various ball players perform they pick out four representative teams, equalizing them as far as possible as to strength. In this way Midland will have four evenly- matched teams, instead of having one strong team, which is generally the case in Town Leagues, that wipes up every other team in easy fashion.

Mr. Geo. Walker is a popular secretary. The motion to deprive him of the power of voting at sub-committee meetings was speedily "flopped," and no wonder. He is painstaking and efficient.

Sandy Lockington, President of the Central Ontario League, was unable to attend, but sent along his alternative in Arthur Kimell of Cobourg.

The presence of Francis Nelson, the well-known exponent of amateurism, gave the meeting some dignity it otherwise would not have had. His entrance into the meeting was greeted with hearty applause.

Mr. James Murphy, well known lacrosse man, hockey manager, etc., was also welcomed by a number of friends.

Ward Patterson, of Peterboro, is next in line for the Presidency of the O.B.A.A., and capital timber he will make. He is popular and has the interest of amateur sport at heart.

POLLYANNA

The "Pollyanna" company will appear here at Grand on Saturday, matinee and evening, to add to the joys of every-day living. The glad play is the well-chosen offering of the Grand and the company interpreting the cheery text and characters of "Pollyanna," is personally one of very high order. The philosophy which this glad play spreads has caught the imagination of people, and sparks in every heart a feeling of comfort that is not soon forgotten. There is nothing "preachy" about Pollyanna either, It is a joyful message sent upon its errand of good fun, clean sentiment and old Lavender romance, It provides an evening's diversion at the theatre where all the lovable characters of the famous books pass in review as living beings, and sends one home with a smile and a sense of satisfaction that is bound to linger pleasantly in memory long after the playhouse is darkened. In fact, it is one of the unusual and enduring things of the theatre—a popular success with a sound corner stone or worthwhileness.

The Pollyanna Producing Co. evidently sensed what the people long for in entertainment when they brought out "Pollyanna" in the spoken form of the stage, giving the vitality of flesh and blood to the imaginative characters of the book. Eleanor H. Porter had done the world a good service by this creation of fancy, and the play author has followed step in this service, and the producers are in the reckoning of good deeds by their faith and sensitive regard for fitting detail of presentation.

Lolitta Westman leads the cast, and those prominent in her support are: Pacie Ripple, Wallace Roberts, Earla Elverson, August Durgeon, Peter M. Maguire, Audrey Wood, Geraldine Russel, William Day and thers.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

FIRST MID-WEEK GAME—MR. W. R. BREYFOGLE WILL KICK OFF.

The opening mid-week football game of the Peterborough Football Association will take place at the Exhibition grounds on Thursday evening, at 6.30 prompt. The teams scheduded to play are the De Laval and the Machine Gun Section. Mr. W. R. Breyfogle of the De Laval will kick off the ball. The football executive has not decided who will referee the game.

After many practice games the De Laval have made a few changes in their line-up that has greatly strengthened the team, and have selected the following players:

De Laval—W. Jones (capt.) goal; A. Hillman and W. McDougall, backs; M. Godfrey, T. Humpage and B. Hartshorn, half-backs; J. Long, G. Hartshorn J. Cullan, A. Nichols and A. Abramams, forwards; reserves, J. Cooper and A. Akers.

Capt. Leon Frazer had an excellent turn-out last evening for the practice game and along with the Caledonians played football until darkness set in. The team was selected when the game finished:

Machine Gun— W. Flowers, goal; M. Metcalfe, J. Crow, back; D. Perry, R. G. McLeish and Fred Hall, half-backs; W. E. Wannan, A. Davis, Leon Frazer, C. Bell and R. A. Metcalfe forwards; reserves, Neil Hurry and J. Jubb.

Free Kicks.

Mr. Frank McKinley proclaimed that last Saturday was a day of misfortune for the G.W.V. team—injuries, sickness and defeat coming all at once, and to make things worse, the photographer forgot to take off the shutter on the camera while taking the photograph of the team. What next!

The Canadian Woollens team erected the goal posts and marked off the grounds to-day in preparation for the game on Saturday at the Oval, when the De Laval team will be the visitors.

The G.W.V.A. and the C.G.E. will produce a good game at the Exhibition grounds on Saturday afternoon and nobody can predict the result until the final blow of the whistle.

GOLFERS RECEIVE DISTRESSING NEWS

DEEPLY WORRIED OVER CABLE FROM ENGLAND.

(Canadian Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 28.—Golfers in the Pacific northwest section were considerably disturbed recently by information contained in a Canadian Press cable from London to the effect that the head of a famous Scotch whiskey firm in England had stated his company was doing far more trade with Canada under prohibition than in ordinary times. The Pacific Northwest Golf Association has made all arrangements to hold the 1920 championship meetings at the Vancouver Golf and Country Club next July. California golfers—in common with all other golfers, of course — have a deep rooted aversion to whiskey, and it said the Vancouver course was chosen in the belief that Canada "had gone dry also." Possibly the officials of the local association will have an understanding with the Vancouver organization regarding prohibition.

BELLEVILLE'S TWO TEAMS.

Belleville's representation in the Trent League affiliated with the O.A.B.A. means that the city is represented in intermediate series of the provincial association says the Belleville "Ontario." "The St. Michael's team will be a feeder for the seniors. As soon as it is definitely decided who will handle the team all players who do not make the Central Ontario team, and who desire to play the game will be given a fair try-out, the idea being to have the best team possible to represent Belleville in this league. The Belleville team has five games at home and are looking for, and also expect the best support possible from all local fans.

It's the Sells-Floto combination that he is to join after he takes to the road with his theatrical manager, Jack Curley, about ten days from now. Curley has the French champion booked for some one-night stands before he gets in the saw-dust ring, but in about three weeks he will start in Washington with the circus.

A great time is being arranged for the French hero, and according to report, the French Ambassador will introduce him to the public.

The funeral will take place from the 11.52 C.P.R. to-morrow, 29th April, to the Little Lake Cemetery. Rev. Archdeacon J. C. Davidson will officiate.

MUST BEAR THE EXPENSE

TORONTO, April 28. — Hon W. E. Raney, the Attorney General, stated to-day, that the Dominion of Canada must bear the expense of the Ontario referendum on liquor importation question.

He says that the vote would be taken within three months from the time the Federal authorities receive the request from the Province.

dispositian would be made of "dead horses" the Government had bought when the Central Ontario system was taken over from private interests.

"We have a gas plant that is simply of no use," he explained.

Mr. Armstrong said that such local problems incident to the transfer would have to be considered by the separate municipalities, the Government and the Hydro-Electric Commission.

The Peterboro gas plant was a utility in this class, and other municipalities probably faced similar problems. They are individual, however, and should not offer an obstacle to the transfer scheme.

"The time is coming when gas plants will be scrapped," Mr Armstrong prophesied.

Mr. Robert Hicks.

Mr. Hicks said he would like to see the principle of ownership applied locally. He discussed the local distribution system which was operated profitably, and when finally paid for would be a valuable asset to the city.

Capt. Marling asked whether the transfer would entail an increased rate.

Mr. Stinson replied that there should be no difference. The government has struck a rate to pay the operation, interest and sinking fund charges. If the municipalities secured direct possession they would issue bonds at 4% for 40 years, and would set a rate to cover the same charges as now prevailing.

Messrs. Elliott and Campbell are the Kingston representatives at the meeting.

MR. A. M'NAB TAKES TO FARMING

Mr. A. McNab, the local agent of the G. T. R., who recently acquired the 50 acre farm of Mr. William Hatherly, on the loop line of the Gravel Road, North M[illegible], has moved, with his family, to the farm. His son Allan carries on the agrarian duties, while Mr. McNab helps him do up the chores at night.

Mr. McNab says that it sure seems funny to be out in the country at night far away from the light and noise of the city, but reports that he is enjoying the novelty fine so far.

DOUBLE WEDDING AT BALTIMORE

Two Chums Marry Mother and Daughter.

(Canadian Press)

BALTIMORE, April 28.—Harrison O. Lamb, a soldier at Fort McHenry, by marrying Mrs. Ida C. Phoebus, has become the step-father-in-law of his former "buddie," George A. They met the widow and her daughter at a dance and both couples were married on the same day.

COSTS HOTEL $9,000 FOR DETECTIVE'S OVER-PRESUMPTION

"Sweetheart" Not in Lexicon of Married Life.

(Canadian Press)

CHICAGO, April 28.—In the bright lexicon of married life, thought J. C. Brock, house detective at the Morrison Hotel, there is no such word as "sweeheart." The sleuth heard Cassius C. Smiley, a guest at the hotel, call a woman "sweetheart" one night. He knocked on the room door and when Smiley opened it, he made his way in. Smiley put up a fight and the woman screamed and ran and hid in the cupboard. Later the detective discovered that the woman was Mrs. Smiley and later still the court awarded Smiley $9,000.00 damages which the proprietors of the hotel had to pay.

PLUMBER WORKS ON WRONG LEAK

Preferred Cellar to Roof.

NEW YORK, April 28.—George Hopkins, a plumber, is held on a charge of theft brought by Jacob B. Theiss' residence, started to work any who alleges that Hopkins, when called to fix a leak in the roof of Theiss, residence, started to work too low down. Theiss claims the plumber, instead of fixing the leaky roof, went into his cellar and developed a large sized leak in his wine stock. The job, he declares, took Hopkins four days. "On each visit he went to the cellar," he told the police, "and then I found that thirteen bottles of my best stock had been emptied." Theiss secreted detectives in his cellar and they arrested the plumber.

W. F. O'CONNOR TO RESIGN FROM COMMERCE BOARD

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 28.—It is understood that W. F. O'Connor, K.C., will resign shortly from the Board of Commerce, of which he is senior commissioner. Asked if the rumor was true, Mr. O'Connor declined to confirm or deny it. He intended to do nothing, he said, which would imperil the continued existence of the board.

At present Mr. O'Connor and James Murdock, Labor Commissioner, constitute the board. The Government's appointment of a chief commissioner to replace Judge Hobson, who resigned some time ago, is awaited before the board proceeds with important work.

The Marquis of Londonderry, Under-Secretary of Air Ministry, explained that the Government was well satisfied with the deal. It is to receive a million pounds and 5 per cent. of the profits the syndicate make.

CLASH WITH THE OTTAWA COMMISSION

ULTIMATE FATE OF THE BOARD OF COMMERCE IS IN THE AIR.

MARKING TIME

Special to the Examiner:

OTTAWA, April 29.—The ultimate fate of the Board of Commerce, and the statutes under which it operates is still a matter of deep uncertainly. At the present time the Board is without a chairman, and the Government can give no information as to whether one will be appointed to succeed Mr. Justice Robson, resigned. It is also stated that a clash between the Board and the Civil Service Commission militates against the securing by the former body of employees suitable for the duties involved.

In the meantime the whole question of the constitutionality of the status conferring upon the Board powers to deal with combines and to fix prices is in the air, and the judgment of the Supreme Court on the matter is being awaited. As a consequence, the Board, beyond the exercise of its "supervisionary" powers, is practically inactive, and local bodies, self-constituted, are endeavouring to deal in their own way with the ever-increasing cost of textiles, potatoes and other necessities of life, chiefly by the "boycott method." Incidentally, it may be stated that the Government appears to be reluctant to bring down any further correspondence or documents which there may be in existence to explain the resignation of Judge Robson.

GAS PLANTS WILL SOON BE OBSOLETE

Gas plants have had their day and will soon be obsolete according to opinions expressed by representatives of the Midland Municipal Association Mr. Robert Hicks stated that Mr. H. O. Fiske had shown that electric stoves could be operated at a cost corresponding to 65 cents a thousand feet of gas, which is now generally selling at the rate of $2 and in Napanee at $2.50 according to Mr. F. S. Boyes who attended yesterday's meeting. Mr Hicks strongly advised that local comissions managing electric distributing systems should endeavour to install as many electric stoves as possible. Gas plants were heading for the scrap heap.

Mr. Boyes feared that the Hydro-Electric Commission might try to unload th gas plants the Government bought in 1914 with the Central Ontario system.

Napanee was using its gas plant but would not buy it from the Government at any price.

PRISONERS TRIED AND FOUND GUILTY

Six Persons Arrested Early Sunday Morning.

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, April 29.—It is stated that the six persons arrested early Sunday morning in Mill street, County Cork, on suspicion of being implicated in hold-up of bank officials last November, when eighteen thousand pounds sterling were stolen, were tried by a Sinn Fein court and found guilty. Following the trial, Republican army representatives visited the banks concerned offering to hand over the prisoners and furnish evidence of their guilt on certain conditions. Bank officials, it is said, refused to deal with the situation, except through constitutional authorities.

Protect Credits

GREAT BRITAIN WILL MAKE EFFORT ALONG THIS LINE.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 29. — Austin Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has carried his whole list of budget proposals. Motion for the rejection of an increase in excess profits duty and corporation tax were defeated in the House of Commons last night by a vote of 287 to 75.

Mr. Chamberlain said it was his duty while trade was prosperous to reduce the vast load of debt which was a potential danger to the country's credit. Nothing was more important at the moment, with British dependents on overseas supplies of food and raw materials that Great Britain's credits should stand high, especially with the United States.

OVERALL FAD IN PETERBORO

STORES HAVE MODERATE PRICED CLOTHING.

The overall fad having struck Peterborough, the next natural thing was that it be noticed by the clothing men either to encourage it or fight it. Evidently the Merrell and Meredith store was ready to cater to the popular demand, for their window this week was an overall and khaki one exclusively.

Wishing to test the feeling of the clothing men the buyer for this store was consulted and he stated that of course a growing demand for overalls would naturally shorten the supply, and one result would be that the working man, who really needed this class of clothing, would have to pay more for his garments. His opinion of the necessity for the movement was negative. Their store had working suits at $25 to $35, and even where a blue serge was wanted prices ranged from $40 to $55, and made to order at $75.00. These he considered were moderate charges in the face of conditions and showed that buying could be done with economy if desired.

THE TREATY MUST BE CARRIED OUT

MISUNDERSTANDING CLEARED UP BY THE CONFERENCE.

Canadian Press:

LONDON, April 29.—Premier Lloyd George, speaking in the House of Commons to-day on the San Remo Conference, said that before the conference there had been some misunderstandings, serious enough in themselves, but made grave by deliberate fomenting on the part of very reckless persons. The Premier stated, however, that every one was satisfied with what happened at San Remo. The conference had dispelled all suspicion that the Versailles Treatey was not to be enforced.

One misunderstanding that had been removed, said the Premier, was that on the part of the French, who no doubt thought Great Britain did not mean to enforce the Treaty with regard to reparation and disarmament. There was no difference of opinion on disarmament, Lloyd George said, but when it came to ordering disarmament there was no one in Germany who seemed to have power to enforce the decree, and that was one of the greatest difficulties the Allies had to face.

"Their guns and airplanes we must get," said the Premier. "We cannot allow these terrific weapons of war to be left lying about."

POLICEMEN USE CLUBS ON RIOTERS

SINN FEINERS GATHERED OUTSIDE WORMWOOD SCRUBBS PRISON.

MANY INJURED

United Press:

LONDON, April 29. — (By Webb Miller).—Increased hostility compelled the early abandonment of last night's Sinn Fein demonstration in front of Wormwood Scrubbs Prison in protest against the confinement of hunger-striking Irish political prisoners there.

Anti-Sinn Feiners stoned the priests who were reciting the Rosary.

There were numerous clashes. Six persons were injured in a struggle for possession of a Sinn Fein banner.

The police charged the rioters, using their batons impartially, and the demonstration was dispersed.

Six hunger strikers were released from the prison late yesterday.

Press and public united in a demand for moderation in the treatment of Sinn Feiners, and there were indications that the Government would heed their warning. The threat of the harbour dock strike in Liverpool was taken seriously in many quarters, although the Labourites claimed the delegation which threatened to call the strike did not represent the authorized trade union movement.

EUCHRE PARTY AT THE LYCEUM

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Literary Society, the progressive euche party held last evening in St. Alphonsus' Lyceum proved to be a most successful entertainment and was attended by about one hundred persons. The rooms in which the affair was held, presented a charming appearance, and were cleverly transformed into a realistic represenation of a Japanese garden by Miss Welsh, who was in charge of the decorations. The prizes for cards were won by Mrs. Thornton and Father Cantillon, each prize being twenty pounds of sugar. Dainty refreshments were served and a pleasing musical programme to which Father McAulley contributed a solo, "Mother Machree" and Father Cote "Annie Laurie." The accompanist for each was Miss Nell McAulley. Miss Grant also contributed a piano solo.

Those Present.

A few of those present were Mrs. J. F. Crowley, Miss Deborah Welsh, Mrs. Justus Dunn, Mrs. T. McGrath, Mrs. Maloney, Miss Maloney, Miss Nellie Simons, Miss A. Simons, Mrs. Wm. WANT THE HYDRO BONDS ENDORSED

Canadian Press:

TORONTO, April 29.—The endorsation by the Ontario Government of Hydro Radial Bonds issued by municipalities between Bowmanville and Hamilton was urged on the Provincial Cabinet by a large deputation from the district concerned at Queen's Park to-day. T. J. Hannigan, Guelph, led the deputation and presented resolutions passed by delegates at previous meetings. All that was asked, he declared, was the same treatment for the above municipalities as had been accorded others. Sympathetic co-operation of the Government was requested.

A STATE OF SIEGE HAS BEEN DECLARED

Railway Workers Struck on Saturday For Higher Wages.

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, April 29.—A state of siege had been declared at Posen, as a result of fighting between police and strikers. Unconfirmed reports say a number of persons have been killed or wounded. Railway workers struck for higher wages and Sunday afternoon strikers held manifestations in the streets, stopping tramway traffic and breaking glasses in stores. According to latest advices the police are in control of the situation.

Prices Decline

EVIDENCE THAT PENDULUM IS ABOUT TO START BACKWARD SWING.

TORONTO, April 29.—Indications that the era of high prices have reached its apex and that from now on the tendency would be towards lower levels, have not been wanting during the last few days. While anything approximating a sudden and decided slump in prices is scarcely to be expected, nevertheless there is satisfactory evidence that the pendulum has swung to its furthest extreme and that in the near future the beginning of a return to normal conditions might be looked for. The indications come from various sources and therefore the movement may be regarded as general.

At a meeting of the Cunard Steamship Company held in London, England, the chairman announced that precautions had been taken in preparation for the advent of lower ocean freight rates. He voiced the opinion that the crest of the wave had been reached and that henceforth any changes made would be in the nature of reductions.

On top of this significant pronouncement come the reports which two Toronto travellers have made to their headquarters offices. One man representing a shoe firm returned from an extended trip with the report that the dealers on whom he had called had practically refused to give him any orders at the prices prevailing. He strongly recommended an immediate revision of price lists with a view to effecting all possible reductions.

The other man is the representative of a firm dealing in cloth. His report stated that his trip, also covering considerable territory, had not netted him a single order, the dealers declining to buy goods at the figures he was compelled to quote.

TRADING ACTIVITY ON STOCK MARKET

SMALL ADVANCES ON BIG ISSUES—STERLING EXCHANGE.

United Press:

NEW YORK, April 29.—Lively trading, mostly by professionals, featured the Stock Market opening to-day. Despite considerable profit-taking, Rails and some of the Industrials showed small advances on large transactions. Steels were dull and Motors and Equipments generally showed an irregular trend.

U. S. Steel opened at 98, unchanged; Reading 89¼; Republic 95, off 5-8; Lakawanna 78 1-8, up 5-8; American Sugar 127 3-4, off 2¼; Vanadium 78, off 1-8; Baldwin 112, up 1; Studebaker 108 3-4, off ½; Southern Pacific 96⅝, up 3-8; Pan American 92¼, off ¼; Bethlehem B 89¾, off ¼; Gen. Motors Certificates 30⅛, off ¼; Replogle 82⅜, up ¼.

Opening Poor.

Throughout the first half hour the market displayed a firm tone, with a sharp advance in Replogle Steel, which carried it close to 85.

Shortly after the opening a general upward movement set in, which advanced many of the leaders from ¼ to a full point. Studebaker ran up to 110¼. Mexican Petroleum, after opening at 168⅛, up 1 3-8, ran up to 176. Strength in the Foreign Exchange Market, 8 per cent. call money, and a general optimistic view of the world's financial situation tended to put new confidence into trading.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

United Press:

NEW YORK, April 29.—Foreign exchange was strong at the opening to-day. Demand sterling opened up at $3.68½; franc checks were up 33 centimes at 16.33; lire checks 21.99; cables 21.88; marks demand 0.0127.

When sewing always save the prettiest scraps for dollie's clothes.

INDEMNITY SUGGESTED AT MEETING

THREE BILLION MARKS GOLD A YEAR—QUESTION TAKEN UP LATER.

A HIGH POSITION

United Press:

LONDON, April 29.—The amount mentioned in the conference of Allied Premiers and foreign Ministers at San Remo as reasonable indemnity for Germany was three billion marks gold a year, the "Daily News" said to-day.

The question of this indemnity will be taken up at the Spa Conference with the Germans, the newspaper understood.

A News Agency despatch from San Remo said before his departure Prime Minister Lloyd George told the Italian correspondents that at the Spa Conference Chancellor Mueller of Germany would hold a position equal to that of the heads of the Allied Governments, enabling him to make proposals and observations regarding the peace settlement.

WILL LOWER THE PRICE OF MILK

WELCOME NEWS FOR PETERBORO HOUSEHOLDERS.

Commencing on May 1 the Peterboro Milk Products Co., Will retail milk at 16 pints for a dollar. Only 15 pints have ben given up till now but the abundance of milk on the market has necessitated the drop. The price for a singe quart will still be 14 cents.

Mr Gillespie anticipated even lower prices for milk and with a fall in milk would come a fall in butter and cheese and milk products. He contended that prices of milk had reached the apex and there was bound to be a fall. "The milk producers have made good money; more than they ever made before and the noise about no money in keeping cows is nonsense.

A return of $1 a day from each cow he said was quite possible if proper care was taken with them.

"We are in competition with other countries now and the high price of milk cannot keep up. He stated that instead of milk going up next fall it would likely take a tumble downwards.

So far as the Examiner could learn no other milkmen have yet lowered their prices. They are waiting to see what the milk producers do in the way of setting a price and until then no definite information can be given.

SEND CITY ENGINEER TO SOUTHERN CITIES

TO OBTAIN INFORMATION FROM LATEST SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANTS.

City Engineer Parsons' horoscope probably shows that he is going on a long journey, for the Board of Works last night recomended that he be sent to New Orleans and Houston Texas, to observe and examine the ultra modern sewage disposal plants in operation in those cities. The suggestion of the trip came from J. A. Dallyn, Provincial Sanitary Engineer, who wrote that the City Engineer would see the newest types of pumps and activated sludge systems. The experience should provide economies in the building of Peterboro's plant.

Ald Gainey said that the Province should bear the cost for the reason that the Provincial Board of Health had ordered the activated sludge system to be installed here. Mr. Dallyn had visited these cities and should provide the necessary information himself.

Mr. Parsons replied that Mr. Dallyn would take the position that he was not a consulting engineer.

"We are only doing it once and we might as well do it right," Ald. Turner remarked and moved seconded by Ald. Morrison that the Mayor be authorized to send Mr. Parsons to the two southern cities.

SCOUT NEWS.

All members of Ashburnham Boy Scouts are requested to meet to-morrow (Friday) night at 7.30 in Mark Street Sunday School. Full uniform must be worn, and a full attendance is urgently requested. By order.—The Scoutmaster.

THIRTY CENTS EOR NEW SUGAR SUPPLY

New Price is Based on the Quotations for the Cuban Crop.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, April 29.—There is every prospect of an early and considerable increase in the price of sugar. The present price, high as it is, is based on the former cost of the raw product in Cuba. Counting all the costs to the grocery store, and basing them on the new Cuban price, a pound of sugar is worth a little over 29 cents. The fact that people are not paying so much is because the refineries are still using the stocks for which they paid the lower price, it was stated. The price, it was said, will soon be 30 cents a pound.

Object to New Bill

TAX ON PUBLIC UTILITIES WOULD AMPLY INCREASE BURDEN ON PEOPLE.

The Swayze bill to tax public utilities was criticized at yesterday's meeting of the Midland Municipal Association on the ground that it was introduced by the Provincial member from Niagara Falls as a general law to remedy a local grievance ,and that as a consequence it would react against consumers throughout the rest of the province. The Association as such did not formally express its disapproval of the measure, but passed a resolution moved by W. J. Ferguson of Lindsay and seconded by Reeve E. L. Vickery of Oshawa, that the separate municipalities deal with the question and, if they deemed it advisable, to memorialize the Government not to pass this legislation.

It was stated that a strong influence behind Mr. Swaze's bill is the desire of the Welland district that the Niagara power development be taxed.

Ald. Gordon was opposed to the principle, although he was aware that Peterborough would obtain the taxes from the Auburn power unit of the Central Ontario system, apart from the taxes from the distributing system of the Utilities Commission. But these taxes were being taken out of the consumers in Peterborough and in the other municipalities in the Central Ontario system.

Mr. Campbell of Kingston, asked why public utilities shouldn't be taxed the same as private enterprises. In fact he appeared to be the only one of those present in favour of the bill, and it transpired that he was interested in a small developing plant to which he referred.

ANOTHER STORE ADDED TO CHAIN

BUSINESS EXPANSION FOR GREENE MUSIC COMPANY.

The business expansion of the Greene Music Company has resulted in another link being added to their chain of stores. The purchase has just been completed of the building and business of the Barrie Music Store, formerly owned and operated by Mr. Art Garrett for twenty years. The store is well situated in the business district of Barrie and has enjoyed for a long time the very highest class trade of that district. Mr. Garrett is held in very high esteem by all who know him, but owing to his family help leaving him, and a wish to retire after a successful business life, has turned the entire good will, stock and building over to the Greene Music Company. Mr. Garrett's influence will be retained as long as possible, but the store management will be put in the hands Mr. R. S. Mason, son of Wesley Mason, manager of the Lindsay store of the Greene Music Company. Mr. Mason has been in the employ of the company for five years and is familiar with the methods and lines carried by them, so is well prepared to take the important post of manager of the new store, As far as is known the same lines will be carried as those over which the company have exclusive control in the rest of their large district. Mr. Greene, accompanied by Mr. R. C. Braund, President of the company, left last night for Barrie to take stock and complete the final management.

In conversation with an Examiner representaive Mr. Greene said that the company realized the buying advantage that an enlarged field and additional stores means to them, and as their selling is all done on a percentage plan, the benefit of their larger buying goes to their customers not only in the new field, but all over their district.

The company is an aggressive one, and Peterborough is fortunate in being the headquarters and centre of its system ,as it is safe to say its progress is not likely to stop at its present stage of development.

ANSON BEST CHANGED HIS CONFESSION

MAINTAINS HIS FIRST STORY WAS TRUE—ATTACKED GIRL.

BROKE DOWN

(Canadian Press.)

PONTIAC, April 29.—Anson Best this morning in the presence of his attorney, Prosecutor Gillespie and a number of newspaper men, repudiated the confession the prosecutor declared he made in the Vera Schnieder murder case.

The prisoner maintained that his first story was true and that admissions made, according to the prosecutor in the presence of several officers were all false and due to his fear of the officers and fatigue from questioning.

Changed Last Night.

(Canadian Press.)

PONTIAC, Mich., April 29.— Anson Best, twenty-one years old, factory worker, last night changed his confession to killing of Vera Schneider, according to sheriff's officers, so as to elminate all allegations of suicidal intent on the part of the girl.

Best, in his original statement, declared he killed Miss Schneider, "because she asked him to." Last night, officers say, he broke down completely and admitted attacking her while they were sitting on a porch of an unoccupied house, where her body was found last Sunday morning.

'I did not kill the girl, or have anything to do with it," said Best this morning. "The story I told the officers when they stoped me there that night was true. I had been out walking and was on my way home. That was all. I had not seen the girl and know nothing of her murder."

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

Go hand in hand. Good eyesight is an important factor in health. Eye-strain usually means nerve strain, and nerve strain lowers resistance to disease. INCREASED WAGES AND EIGHT HOUR DAY FOR CITY LABOURERS

PETITION OF LABOURERS APPROVED BY BOARD OF WORKS—ALD. TURNER URGES NINE HOUR DAY —REQUEST INCLUDES TIME AND A HALF FOR OVERTIME.

MAY PAVE WITH CONCRETE

An increased graded scale of wages for the labourers employed by the city was recommended to the Council by the Board of Works last night. Since last summer the rate of pay has been 45c. an hour, but under the new schedule, which takes effect on May 1st, street sweepers will receive 50c. an hour, general labourers 55c. and concrete and sewer workers 60c.

The resolution, which was moved by Ald. Morrison and seconded by Ald. Gainey, also provides time and a half for over-time, the eight hour day and recognition of the Labourers' Union.

Ald. Turner opposed the eight-hour clause, arguing that the nine-hour day would be a step toward securing greater production and would enable the men each to earn approximately three dollars a week more than by working eight hours.

Ald. Gainey answered that they would be still better off if they obtained the overtime for the ninth hour.

Wages Paid Elsewhere.

A circular letter inquiring from many cities in Ontario what wages they paid brought three replies.

In Ottawa labourers, street sweepers and sewer workers get 59c. an hour, pipe layers 61c., and teamsters $1.25; in Guelph sweepers and ordinary labourers 40c., sewer workmen 45c. and teamsters $1.00; in Kitchener sweepers $100 a month, common and sewer labourers 50c. an hour and teamsters $1.00 an hour.

Ald. Morrison discounted these figures, saying that they would probably all be changed on May 1st.

Ald. Turner's Argument.

Ald. Turner recalled that last year when Mr. R. Sheehy was laying the pavement on Water street he had seen the workmen standing around near the Hamilton company's factory between seven and eight o'clock waiting to begin work. He was agreeable to increasing the wages of the labourers but he contended that they would be better off by working nine hours than eight, thereby getting the money for the extra hour.

"I'd like to see them get all the money that's going," he remarked.

Ald. Morrison—I often work thirteen hours myself, but eight hours have been asked and I'm in favour of granting it.

Ald. Gainey — They'll work nine hours if they get time and a half for overtime. They don't get steady employment the year round and this wage covers only th emonths they can work.

Ald. Turner—You and I work more than eight hours. A man will never get anywhere without working.

Ald. Gainey said that the men on the new Canadian Packing Company's building were working only eight hours and it was also understood that eight hours composed the day for the workmen on the bridge.

Mayor McIntyre presided last night with Aldermen Turner, Morrison and Gainey present.

Drainage Needed.

The Colonial Hide Company complained that there was no drainage for the water that lay at the corner of Haggart and Lansdowne streets in the spring and flooded their property.

City Engineer Parsons advised that the best course of drainage was along the south side of the G.T.R. For this route permission would have to be obtained from the G.T.R. This is a boundary road,and it was decided on Ald. Gainey's motion, seconded by Ald. Morrison, that the township of North Monaghan be asked to pay half the cost of constructing the drain.

No Action Taken.

Mr. John Duignan's complaint that the McDonald Lumber Company had lumber piled on his lots on the south side of Rink street was received.

There are courts in which redress can be obtained," Ald. Turner remarked.

Engage an Architect.

City Engineer Parsons was authorized to engage an architect to prepare working drawings for several buildings that will be part of the sewage disposal plant. One of these is a compresser house at the corner of King George and Lock streets.

May Pave With Concrete.

In a discussion of the paving of George street, City Engineer Parsons intimated that asphaltic pavement would be too costly and that concrete would probably have to be used. Asphalt would cost about $6 a yard and the estimated 10,000 yards to be paved this year would bring the total to -60,000, largely on account of the overhead cost of bringing in an asphalt plant for a comparatively small contract.

Mayor McIntyre suggested buying a plant, but was informed that Sarnia had recently obtained quotations showing that a plant that could have been bought last year for $35,000 was now $50,000.

Concrete pavement on George street would cost $30,000. Mr. Parsons said that a larger concrete mixer would be needed for this work and could be bought for $2,300 or 3,000.

Ald. Turner moved, seconded by Ald. Morrison, that the Council re-advertise its intention to pave George street from the C.P.R. to Westcott street.

Notice will also be given of the intention to build a sewer on George street from Westcott to Romaine street, from King Edward to Princess street, and from Prince street to Lansdowne.

The completion of this work will permit the extension of the pavement from Westcott street to Lansdowne street, which in turn will affect the street railway extension in that district.

Ald. Gainey stated that Sir Adam Beck informed the Railway committee that the removal of the Romaine and Lock street route to Lansdowne and Lock streets.

Request Received.

Mr. S. Cadigan's request for a sewer on the Monaghan road from Romaine street north to his property, was not granted for two reasons. It would have to cross beneath the C.P.R. and it would entail a great cost to the city by reason of the fact that it would be laid on a boundary road.

Wants a Crossing.

Mr. Arthur W. Blade applied for a crossing from the Imperial Oil Company's office on the north side of Perry street to the sidewalk on the south side.

City Engineer Parsons called attention to the likelihood of the sidewalk desired by the Raybestos company on the north side of Perry street extending between Park and Aylmer streets. Mr. Blade's application was therefore referred to the City Engineer, its fulfillment depending upon the interpretation of the promise to the Raybestos company.

FACE PLAYGROUND FOR NEWEST FAD

When one sees a girl in her teens painted and powdered with scandalous prodigality one cannot help pitying the complexion that is bound to be hers twenty years hence. Most women pay too much attention to their faces. Creams, washes, massage, manipulation— the poor faces get no chance.

Perhaps you know a girl who picks up a magazine and reads that such and such a treatment is good for such and such a condition of the face For the next few days she hysterically sets about to put into practice that method

The next week she read about something else in some other magazine, and she launches forth on an experimental period of about a week to try out that particular treatment.

In other words, her face is the playground for all the newest fads. There is probably in the end the tragedy of a worn-looking skin.

Instead of using treatments of all sorts in such rapid succession that one has not had time to act before another is called into use, or so that one counteracts the other, why not pay a bit more attention to the general health. You know, after all, one's beauty is largely due to good health.

If you have a cosmetic-weary face just desist for a while. Stop using creams (except a cleansing one)) and rouge and powder and for a few weeks spray the face with cold water several times a day, perhaps in the morning, before lunch and before retiring. Cold water does wonders for making the skin firm and thus warding off wrinkles. It puts color into the face and prevents the pores form becoming enlarged.

To quote Mrs Symes, "When in doubt what to give your face, give it a rest."

THURSDAY, APRIL 29TH, 1920.

THE GOVERNMENT'S TROUBLES.

The troubles of the Union government are not decreasing, judging by the press despatches telling of dissension over the new taxation proposals to be brought down in the House. The Ottawa reports have it that there has been so much bickering among government members over the different plans suggested that another caucus will be necessary and that it would not be surprising if the Budget were delayed until the arrival of Sir Robert Borden. In this event the session would be prolonged beyond all expectations and might not come to an end until July. If these reports are true the members can be counted upon to exert every effort to increase the sessional indemnity. Already there have been whispers that $1,500 should be added to the present allowance of $2,500, and undoubtedly if the session drags on into the summer months the pressure for a bigger indemnity will become more insistent. With such difficulties as these added to the problem of the leadership, the position of the government is far from an enviable one, especially in view of the fact that no one doubts what would happen in the event of a general election.

THEY DIE HARD

That the chief opposition to the proposed Purchasing Commission comes from supporters of the Government will not occasion much surprise. Any method of conducting public business that interferes with patronage or infringes upon the influence of the sitting member is sure to meet with bitter resistance from the old guard. The report therefore, that between twenty and thirty government supporters are determined to fight the measure to the last ditch is only what was to have been exected. These members will undoubtedly protest vigorously and long, although the declaration that they will not surrender even if a general election should result from their tactics, may be taken with a grain of salt. The supporters of the government will swallow anything, accept any compromise, relinquish any portion or all of their prestige, rather than go into political oblivion, and they have no illusions as to what would happen to them if the people of Canada were given a chance to express themselves by means of the ballot.

The insurgents in opposing the Purchasing Commission complain that too much of the business of governing the country has been entrusted to commissions. Undoubtedly they are right in that contention, but nevertheless the centralization of the buying of Government supplies and the elimination of the present wasteful methods which should follow the inauguration of a Purchasing Commission are strong arguments in favour of the proposal. If capable men are selected for the commission, men with a grasp and knowledge of big business, there is every reason to expect that a much more economical purchasing system can be established. It will be necessary of course to pay handsome salaries to secure commissioners possessing the proper qualifications, but the results should justify the expenditure.

BIGGER PENSIONS NEEDED.

The evidence given by Miss Helen Reid of Montreal, an official of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, before the Special Parliamentary committee on pensions, furnishes a more convincing argument for an increased pension scale than any testimony that has been given, and justifies the claims made by many newspapers that the present allowances are inadequate in view of the cost of living. Miss Reid, whose work in connection with the Patriotic Fund, has thrown her into almost constant association with soldiers' families, quoted a number of concrete cases to the committee that show the necessity of an improvement in the scale and urged a frequent revision of pensions to keep pace with the persistent rise in the cost of living. In Montreal, she declared, nearly 40 per cent. of soldiers' children were found, when inspected, to be poorly nourished. The Patriotic Fund in that city and elsewhere are supplementing the inadequate pensions, but Miss Reid remarks thta they should not be called upon to do so in view of the fact that they had on their lists other soldiers' dependents who were not receiving any government pension or allowance, and yet were, in destitute circumstances. The officials of the Patriotic Fund are anxious to conserve their funds for the relief of these latter cases, and the people who subscribed to the work will undoubtedly endorse that view, feeling that it is the government's duty to make the pension allowances sufficiently large as to enable the recipients to live comfortably without other assistance. Miss Reid, basing her suggestion upon her knowledge of the circumstances of many pensioners' families, recommends an increase all round of twenty-five per cent. in the pension rates. Her proposal coincides closely with the recommendation of the Great War Veterans' Association in regard to pensions.

"STRANDED" SOLDIERS.

The Dominion government might do well to investigate the reports that there are thousands of Canadian soldiers "stranded" in England. One statement places the number as high as twenty-five thousand, which seems to be an exaggerated figure, although there is no doubt that the total is large. These ex-members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, the majority of them of British birth, elected to take their discharge in England rather than return to Canada and technically therefore the Canadian government has no official connection with them. However, there is a moral responsibility that should cause the officials to endeavour to do what can be done for these former Canadian soldiers, many of whom are unquestionably in very unhappy circumstances. They have found it difficult to secure employment, the preference naturally being given to former Imperial soldiers, and the Canadians are, many of them, out of work and out of funds. They are unable to secure their passage back to Canada and their position, according to the reports that are being received, is rapidly growing worse, becoming desperate in many cases. The repatriation of these men is something that might profitably engage the attention of the authorities. Their plight of course is due to their own action in securing their discharge in England, but nevertheless their war record deserves the consideration of the government. It will be a poor advertisement for Canada to have thousands of her ex-soldiers destitute in the British Isles. "The apathy of our government is scandalous in keeping the men here and simply turning them into criminals," is the emphatic declaration of Agent-General Wade of British Columbia, who has taken a great interest in the matter. His opinion is that if the men were good enough to fight, they are good enough to be brought back to Canada, and many of our citizens will agree with him.

THE IRISH REPUBLIC.

Two public meetings recently held in this province—one at Quebec and one at Montreal—afford striking examples of the freedom of public discussion of which Canadians may very proudly boast. At both these meetings speeches were made and resolutions were passed proposing the dismemberment of the British Empire. Nobody protested against the movement. Nobody attempted to interfere with the holding of the meetings. There has not been, as far as we have observed, any adverse comment on the proceedings. Probably there is no other country in the world in which such events would be so quietly permitted. In all civilized countries there is recognition of a right to agitate for reforms within the Empire or nation. But where is the country, other than Canada, in which the constituted authorities and the public generally will serenely view movements openly designed to effect a dismemberment of the nation? It was a movement of that kind that brought on the dreadful civil war in America. He who would to-day advocate, at any place in the United States, the separation of any State or States from the nation would instantly be placed under surveilance, if not arrest. In Ireland, the men who advocate such a policy are in a great many instances finding themselves behind prison bars. On the continent of Europe such men would not long be allowed to remain at large. Here in Canada, in the loyal cities of Quebec and Montreal, public meetings, largely attended and including some men of local prominence, enthusiastically support a proposal for the dismemberment of the British Empire—for that is what the setting up of an Irish Republic means.

In the long fight for Home Rule the cause of the Irish people has been materially helped by sympathy and support received from the overseas Dominions. The House of Commons of Canada, and some of the legislative bodies of the provinces, have repeatedly passed resolutions recommending the Imperial Parliament to grant a liberal measure of Home Rule to Ireland. The value of such aid was often acknowledged. Indeed, in some instances the Dominion aid was deemed of so much importance that delegations came out from Ireland to solicit the action of our legislative bodies. In a few cases the passing of Home Rule resolutions met with some opposition but always the expression of sympathy with the Irish cause were so wide and cordial as to justify the supporters of Home Rule in the Imperial Parliament in declaring that the movement had the cordial support of Canada, and this was very properly regarded as a strong argument for Home Rule. The misfortune is that a fair Home Rule measure of the character then contemplated was not adopted many years ago. Sir Edward Carson and his Ulster friends have a large responsibility to answer for in this connection. They have now come to the point of admitting that some measure of Home Rule is necessary. But the admission comes too late. What would have been gladly accepted a few years ago as a fair settlement of the Irish problem will now be rejected by nearly all classes of the Irish people.

But let there be no misunderstanding as to the measure of Canada's sympathy with the Irish cause. One may well doubt whether the recent meetings at Quebec and Montreal represent the wishes of the majority of the people of the Irish race in those cities. It is more than probalem that the majority stand where they have stood in time past, in hearty sympathy with the movement for constitutional Home Rule—that is, the largest measure of local government that can be obtained by Ireland while still retaining her position as a part of the British Empire. We believe that to be the position of most Irishmen in Canada. But if there is any room for doubt as to Irish Canadian opinion there is none as to the wider Canadian opinion. The Irish movement which the Canadian people through their legislative bodies and otherwise have so cordially supported for many years is not a movement designed to create an Irish Republic. The men who at Quebec and Montreal passed resolutions favoring an Irish Republic are laboring for the dismemberment of the British Empire, and that is an object which has no substantial support among the Canadian people. Canadians still desire Ireland to have Home Rule, but very few of them, we are sure, desire an Irish Republic. —Journal of Commerce.

FOUR BOTTLES OF GIN UPSET BURGLARY QUICKER THAN FOUR POLICEMEN

Profession of Burglary Severely Menaced by Prohibition—May Become Extinct in Time.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Prohibition is interfering seriously with the profession of burglary. The other night two expert cracksmen entered the home of Mrs. Josephine Geddies, St. Nicholas avenue, and did up all the loose valuables in neat bundles ready to carry away. Just as they were about to depart one of them chanced to open a sideboard cupboard door. Inside were four quart bottles, all nearly full. There was one of vermouth, one of whiskey, one of gin, and one of brandy. The burglars decided to linger a little. When they finally left all four bottles were empty. Chanting praise of the flowing bowl at the top of their lungs, the pair staggered downstairs. In the lobby of the apartment house they were stopped by a gathering of citizens attracted by the clamor, and handed over to the police.

It sometimes happens that faith, hope and charity fill the stage to the exclusion of gratitude.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note, well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

EVERETT JUNIOR

CHAPTER CIX

Everett never had been thoughtful—I did not know it was in him. Although I recalled that whenever I had been ill he had been considerate. Perhaps he thought when I was well, I didn't need consideration.

Without my knowledge he had sent for Mother and she came about two weeks before my boys was born. I was so delighted to have her. Now it seemed to me I never should be unhappy again. When I held my boy in my arms I forgot all the mean things that people had said when Everett married me. I forgot his neglect, and was as happy as the day was long.

Mother remained with us until Everett Jr. was two weeks old, then she went back to dad, who never was happy if she were away from him. Everett had hired a competent nurse, and after mother left she took entire charge not only of me but of the baby At first it seemed only natural that this should be so, but by the time baby was a month old I had commenced to resent her rule and Everett's insistence that she should be obeyed.

"He is my baby! I ought to have something to say," I complained. The nurse was a woman about forty-five years old, rather austere, and terribly determined. Dad would have said she was "set in her ways."

She seemed to think it was bad for the baby to be cuddled or rocked And if I started to walk about with him in my arms, she was so shocked as if I had committed murder.

When I spoke to Everett about it, he said:

"You are too young to know anything about raising a child. Miss Lane has been a nurse for years. I insist that you do as she says."

"I wasn't too young to have the boy, if I am too young to have anything to say about him;" I retorted more hurt than angry "And Miss Lane never has had a baby; she doesn't know how dreadfully a mother wants to love and cuddle her very own child.'

"Miss Lane has had wide experience. She has cared for many babies, and the doctor assures me is one of the very best nurses on his list—a long one. I have hired her to remain permanently—that is, until she refuses to stay longer I hope you will be careful not to say or do anything to make her leave us."

"You means she is to stay right along? I thought we would have a nice young nurse, a girl like Hetty, for him when he was a little older."

"I shall run no risks with my son. We shall retain Miss Lane."

Our conversation ended for the time, but my heart was filled with resentment toward Miss Lane, and I so towards Everett. He had said: 'I shall run no risks with My son," just as if the baby belonged entirely to him. He might have said "our son," I thought, my eyes filling.

Was my precious baby to be another cause for unhappiness between us, instead of the joy I had supposed he would be? I loved my darling boy passionately. And to have Everett shut me out by saying "My boy", and to have that woman who didn't know how it felt to be mother of a baby tell me what I couldn't or could do with him, was maddening.

"I won't stand it!" I muttered, yet I knew down in my heart I should have to stand it, just as I had to endure other things in my life because Everet willed I should.

I wondered dumbly if other wives had such emotional ups and downs as I had—if others had to have the sweet periods offset by periods of unhappiness caused by inharmony with their husbands.

To-morrow—Sandra Rebels at Miss Lane's Command.

If love were really blind age would have fewer terrors for the fair sex.

No, the average man doesn't understand classical music—and he is proud of it.

CHOLERA AND TYPHUS SWEEP THE CRIMEA

10,000 Cases of Former Disease Alone Reported by American Red Cross.

PARIS, April 28— Appalling conditions in the Crimea, due to the widespread prevalence of cholera and typhus, are reported in an American Red Cross communique received here from Theodosia, on the Crimean Peninsula. The statement reads:

"Ten thousand cases of cholera now exist among the refugees in the crowded territory of the Crimea, with the number of new cases doubling daily. The death roll from disease had already been brought to appalling proportions by the ravages of typhus. The American Red Cross is making every effort to stem the tide of the epidemic, but during the three weks in which its presence has been noted it has spread with a rapidity defying all measures of repression and now is threatening to penetrate to every corner of the Crimea.

"The crowded and filthy conditions in South Russia have aggravated the disease, and the exhaustion of the refugees by hunger and hardship renders them easy prey."

It is When the Nerves Are Tired That You Cannot Sleep

IT isn't the body that craves rest, but the mind.

When you are bodily tired you can usually fall to sleep at the first opportunity.

But when the nerves are irritated by anxiety and worry rest and sleep seem to be impossible.

The mind seems to be most alert, and you are thinking, thinking, thinking—first of one thing and then of another—often matters of little or no importance. But you simply cannot sleep.

Sleeplessness is the most common and often the first indication of a breaking down of the nervous system.

The object of sleep is to allow the body to rebuild tissue and the nerves to recover tone. Sleep is the ideal condition for this process.

If you cannot sleep you worry, and worry breaks down nerve cells at a tremendous rate, so that instead of laying up nerve force for the demands of the day you are using up the reserve.

The nerve centres are sometimes likened to storage batteries. If you continue to consume the nervous energy in reserve, without paying back, these centres become sooner or later depleted, and you find yourself a nervous wreck.

After a sleepless night you get up feeling tired and lacking in mental energy. Your day's work seems more than you can face, and you become down-hearted and discouraged.

The future is not bright, for you must realize that the natural result is exhausted nerves, paralysis, locomotor ataxia or some form of helplessness.

In Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is found the most natural and the most rational treatment for the nerves imaginable, because this food cure contains the vital substances which go to the building up of the blood and the depleted nerve cells.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does not induce sleep, but it does restore the nervous system, and after you have been using it for a few days you will begin to find yourself resting and sleeping naturally.

MUNICIPALITIES WOULD SHARE IN THE PROFITS

CHIEF ADVANTAGE OF TRANSFER OF CENTRAL ONTARIO SYSTEM FROM THE GOVERNMENT—HYDRO REPRESENTATIVES EXPLAIN HOW THE CHANGE WOULD BE CARRIED OUT.

NO DIFFERENCE IN RATES

The first definite action by the Midland Municipal Association toward securing control by the municipalities of the Central Ontario electric generating and transmission system was framed in the following resolution passed at the meeting in the city hall here yesterday afternoon on Mr. Robert Hick's motion seconded by W. J. Ferguson of Lindsay:—

"Resolved that the municipalities comprising the Central Ontario system request that the Government transfer the properties known as the Central Ontario system to the municipalities to be operated for them and on their behalf by the Hydro-Electric Power commission in the same manner as in the case of the Western Ontario and other systems;

And it is further resolved that the Government of the Province of Ontario be requested to accept as consideration for such transfer, and in payment for the properties, 40 year bonds of the Commission bearing interest at the rate of four per cent.;

And it is resolved further that a representative deputation from the respective municipalities be delegated to present this resolution and ask the Government to give its consent so that bylaws may be submitted to the various municipalities interested to enable them to carry out the same if considered advisable after due consideration by the municipalities

Write for Appointment

The next step toward the accomplishment of the transfer will be an interview with the Government during the current session. Mr. T. H Stinson of Lindsay, secretary of the Association was instructed to write for an appointment and to notify the municipalities of the date set by the Government for the reception of the petition.

Movement Progressing.

Yesterday's meeting was not attended as largely as was expected. Belleville and Port Hope were conspicuous absentees. In the main the discussion was explanatory of the scheme which was outlined two years ago in Port Hope and revised here last November. Upon City Clerk Armstrong devolved the duty of elucidating the project which he and other advocates of it in this district have promoted. His statement was almost identical with that of Mr. L. G. Ireland, who represented Sir Adam Beck and conveyed his apologies for being unable to meet the Midland Association. Mr. Ireland and Mr. T. J. Jeffery, a Hydro-Electric engineer, arrived late in the meeting and presented the Hydro-Electric's position toward the Central Ontario scheme and the municipalities that are interested in it.

Mr. Ireland's Address.

The main difference between the administration of the Central Ontario and the Niagara systems was that the Hydro-Electric Commission was acting as a trustee for the Government in operating the Central Ontario and was the trustee of the municipalities in the Niagara, Mr. Ireland said. There was an appreciable difference, but it was apparent that there was an advantage for the municipalities in having the Commission as their trustee.

"It is possible to conceive a condition in which the system would yield profits, perhaps large profits. The municipalities therefore should get the benefit of the profits. There is no guarantee of profits."

Mr. Ireland said with but a sympathetic government as is the present one there was every reason to expect profits. He gave the assurance that four per cent. bonds would be accepted by the Government, if the municipalities decided to purchase, although rates have recently gone to six per cent. The Commission feels that it needs the support of the municipalities. Under the proposed scheme they would have an equity in the generation plants and transmission lines and full equity in their own distribution lines.

Assume Liability.

The whole question, he continued was whether the municipalities were prepared to assume the financial responsibility in return for the benefits of the profit sharing plan of ownership, and the other advantages accruing. The Commission has no desire to take over the local distributing systems.

Mr. Ireland said that the present Government was distinctly friendly to the Hydro scheme, but if an unfriendly administration gained control it would be easy for them to create difficulties for the Central Ontario system if the present ownership still obtained. They could prevent expansion and otherfise harrass the municipalities.

Will Apply for Legislation

If the municipalities look favorably on the resolution for the transfer, the Commission would apply to the government for enabling legislation and would then approach the individual municipalities which would in return submit a by-law to their ratepayers. Decision rested ultimately with the ratepayers.

Maintain Efficiency.

Mr. Stinson presented the objection of R. F. Elliott of Kingston that at the end of 40 years the plants would be reduced to mere scrap.

Mr. Ireland immediately removed that doubt Renewal reserves would be provided for and, accumulating, would ensure to the municipalities when the bonds expired a plant as valuable and in as good working order as it to-day. This reserve would cover till depreciation and renewals of machinery and materials.

Won't Interfere With Distribution.

To John M. Campbell, chairman of the Kingston Board of Trade, Mr. Ireland said that the Commission did not intend to take over local distribution systems. There was no objection to municipalities having their own distribution plants. The Hydro Commission would assume distribution as a trustee of the municipality in any place in which it was now acting as trustee for the Government, and in which the municipality hadn't its own distributing system.

To Mr. Campbell's question as to whether the rates would be higher or lower under the proposed transfer Mr. Ireland replied that there should be no difference The change of ownership should not affect the cost of operation.

Central's Ontario's Growth.

Last year there was a drop in the power demand after the armistice. Near the end of the year business increased to the extent that at the present time industrial expansion in this district is regarded as most satisfactory. The revenue from the Central Ontario system was now far in excess of revenue in 1916, but it has been offset by higher costs of materials, and the wages to employees have nearly doubled.

Providing for Sinking Fund.

Mr. Vickery of Oshawa pointed out that under the Government's ownership there was no provision for a sinking fund, but when the municipalities gained possession there would be charges for that purpose. He asked Mr. Ireland whether this item would not be reflected in the charges to consumers

Mr. Ireland quoted in reply the business axiom that the unit of cost depreciates with greater production. The increased business from this district would more than cover the annual requirements for the sinking fund.

Will Observe Contracts

Mr. Elliott asked what would become of the contracts made by the Government with Kingston, Peterboro and other places.

"You can assume the good faith of the Commission", Mr. Ireland replied, "and no municipality would be asked to do anything without the approval of the ratepayers and without thoroughly investigating the scheme."

Practical Details of Scheme

For Mr. Elliott's benefit Mr. Ireland explained the practical procedure by which the Commission would pay for plants taken over by the municipalities If a municipality had a $100,000 distributing system it would guarantee to the Commission that there would be no deficit in the operation. The Commission would supply the capital by issuing bonds which would be deposited with the Province as the purchase price of the property. The municipality would make a contract with the Commission for a supply of power the cost of which would be based as at present on the operation, transmission and other charges.

Furnish No Money.

To Mr. Vickery, Mr. Ireland stated that the municipality would not be required to furnish any money, but to give a guarantee. If there was a local deficit it would have to be made up by the municipality in the next year.

Share in Profits.

Mr. Ireland emphatically stated the Commission had no desire to assume local distribution in such cities as Kingston and Peterboro which had now full control of their own affairs. The Commission would supply power at cost and would fix the rates as under the present system. The chief advantage of the transfer ownership was the likelihood of sharing in profits which if earned at present would be retained by the Government and would not be distributed among the municipalities.

Kingston's Dilemma

Kingston finds itself between the Trent power and the deep sea of prospective electrical development of the St. Lawrence river. Mr. Campbell asked whether they should throw in their lot with the Central Ontario system or wait until the St. Lawrence project materializes.

Mr Ireland replied that he preferred not to answer that question without carefully considering it He referred to the St. Lawrence possibilities and said there was every assurance that Eastern Ontario could get all the power it required.

Mr. Elliott had suggested that the Trent system would never be more than enough for local demands.

Wants Flate Rate.

F. S. Boyes of Napanee made a plea for an equalized or flat rate for all the municipalities in the Central Ontario system. Lakefield, he said, was going in with the Hydro on a $30 rate, and facing that price could not hope to compete industrially with municipalities getting a lower rate.

"Where do Napanee, Cobourg, and all the smaller places get off? This power belongs to all the people, who should benefit from it on an even basis."

Mr. Vickery had observed that the quantity of power consumed was a factor governing the price,—the greater the consumption the less the rate. Thus Peterboro, Oshawa and other large centres received a benefit on that count, apart from the factor of transmission costs.

Mr. Ireland replied to Mr. Boyes that the legislation governing the Commission would have to undergo a radical change to bring in the flat rate system. At present power is supplied on the basis of the cost of transmitting it to the particular municipality

City Clerk Armstrong—What difference do the rates make to this project. That question would be the same in either case.

Mr. Boyes felt so strongly on the flat rate idea that he apparently did not vote on the resolution.

Meeting Not Representative

"This is not a representative meeting" he declared. "You haven't ten percent. of the municipalities here", was his sweeping estimate.

"They were all notified". Ald. Gordon replied. "We can't drag them here."

Mr. Boyes moved as amendment that another meeting be called within three weeks at a more central town.

Mr. Simpson pointed out that the Legislature would conclude its session within that time, and to call another meeting would leave no time for applying for the legislation required.

The resolution carried almost unanimously. Before the adjournment Mayor McIntyre who had arrived late from a Board of Trade meeting welcomed the Association to Peterboro, and City Clerk Armstrong paid a tribute to the valuable services of the secretary Mr. Stinson of Lindsay.

Mr. Armstrong incidentally touched upon a congenial weakness of the Association when he said that it had no actual status, and that it had not received the warm support that should have been given by all the municipalities in Midland, Ontario. "Where do Napanee, Cobourg, and

ASSAULT OF MOTHER-IN-LAW NO GROUND FOR SEPARATION

Interesting Judgement in New York's Supreme Court.

(Canadian Press)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Judge Kapper, of the Supreme Court here, has decided that to assault the mother of one's wife does not constitute legal ground for separation. Mrs. Abraham Horowitz brought suit for separation and alimony against her husband. Her counsel told the court that Horowitz had assaulted his mother-in-law, "That is not ground for the wife to obtain a separation," the Judge ruled.

Freckles and Blotches Are Easily Peeled Off

If you are troubled with any cutaneous blemish it is a poor plan to use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides it is much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercolized wax. Applied nightly the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, red blotches or any surface eruption. The affected cuticle is actually absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly into view.

Ask the druggist for one ounce of mercolized wax and use it like you use cold cream. Remove in the morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple harmless, treatment report astonishing results.

STILL A FEW GOOD SEATS LEFT—FINAL REHEARSAL THIS AFTERNOON.

The final rehearsals are being held in the Grand Theatre for "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" this afternoon, and everything will be in readiness for the initial performance this evening.

The local players act as though they had been trained for months and everybody connected with it is sure that it will be the greatest production ever presented by home talent in Peterborough.

There are many little finishing touches that must be given to a big production like this even after they know their parts. All awkward movements must be eliminated, groups must move about quickly and quietly, and delicate adjustment of dresses count a whole lot. This is all included in what Mr. Allan calls the professional finish and these little attentions to details are the very thing that distinguishes his production from others.

Mr. Allan who has been rehearsing daily during the last three weeks, speaks very highly of the material furnished him by the talent committee. The musical numbers of "Fi-Fi" are sure to please all.

You've heard about "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop." And it is a wonderfully pleasing, mirthful musical fantasy. Be sure and see it to-night or to-morrow night—all your friends will be there.

A SANE INTERNATIONALISM

TOPICAL SUBJECT BY REV. H. J. KEITH ON PRESENT DAY CONDITIONS.

Rev. Henry J. Keith, of Winnipeg, who was the preacher in Knox Presbyterian Church on Sabbath forenoon last, paid a visit to the Brotherhood Bible Class in the afternoon, and gave the members a learned and interesting talk on present-day conditions, nationally and internationally, under the caption, "A Sane Internationalism."

Mr. Keith was the prime mover in the formation of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip several years ago, and on his present visit found the class still in existence, and flourishing.

After a formal welcome from the president, on behalf of the members, Mr. Keith told of his pleasure at being once again with the class, and thanked them for the privilege of being able to say something to the members that afternoon.

Proceeding with his discourse, he said:

These times demand that every organisation of peoples and nations bends its best energies in making for stable governments and sane international relationships. The hope of to-day, he said, is in the League of Nations, but this representative body has no smooth road. There is big opposition on every hand; for instance, in the United States it has been opposed for party purposes. Its success, as Lord Balfour said, "depends on moral and religious influences."

President Wilson has spoken on the cultivation of friendliness among the nations, yet he in turn has not much use for the League. We must, however, create an atmosphere to realise it and prevent the cataclysm of the past four and a half years. That period of warfare was the result of insane internationalism—some nations more so than others. We can think of no other worse than Germany. Insane government was the cause of her warfare and downfall.

Secret Treaties

are another cause of much suspicion and distrust, intrigue and spite. Just note the grabbing of Chinese territory by Japan and other countries trading with her — where one seaport after another has been confiscated and lost to China. No wonder there is hatred and suspicion rampant. The leading nations, with ourselves, must create such international relationships that will prevent a recurrence of these conditions and promote goodwill.

Continuing the speaker said the experience of the past four years has brought nations together in a new relationship. We fought beside them and respected them, because we needed them. We learned that greed was not the motive which led the best of them to fight side by side with us, but an understanding of true ideals and of friendliness. Take the Mohammedans, for example, when the Holy War was proclaimed by Turkey. They, principally natives of India, would not rise in rebellion, as Britain had given them liberties and privileges which could be had from no other Power, and they respected this trust, and refused to take up arms against their friends, the British.

Sir Mackworth Young, Lieutenant-Governor of the Punjaub, speaking at a gathering of business men in London recently, said: "As a business man speaking to business men, I am prepoared to say that the work which has been done by missionary agencies in India exceeds in importance all that has been done by the British Government in India since its commencement."

Sympathy and friendliness pay, so we must promote that sort of relationship.

A Sane Nationalism.

in which we recognise and look for the high ideals of citizenship to the general exclusion of which is not always wise. All must share in the responsibilities. We must also get away from that spirit which makes us misname the people of other nations in our midst, if we would have the true spirit of relationhip one with another. To make all feel they are aiming towards the same great goal—having the Christlike spirit, and being responsible for the other fellow's welfare.

Our citizens should be trained in the matter of true patriotism. There should be no flag-waving of the boasting kind, but a sane and deep patriotism, based on facts of our true greatness.

Lord Hugh Cecil recently proposed a new Catechism for the younger generation to learn:

Do you love the kingdom of Great Britain?

Do you love a greater kingdom more? Yes—the Kingdom of God.

These were samples of some of the questions, and the instilling into our minds of things higher would tend to make us greater peoples, since we had God as our example.

Not in the spirit of the American schoolboy who was asked, Who was the first man? To which he replied, George Washington. His mind was taught only so far back as the birth of his nation, so to speak.

We should avoid racial pride, with the idea that we were supermen. This notion in the end might be the nation's downfall—we were all to be on a level as people, with one class only.

Again, avoid unjustifiable ambitions such as world domination and exploitation of our resources and power. The development of an international mind, free from suspicion and hatred, would bring in its train

A Sane Internationalism.

Avenues of contact with all other nations are open, and we use them willy-nilly, such as the telegraph, transportation, wireless, etc., instead of using them for the furtherance of a greater international power towards the betterment of conditions and relations with other countries.

This carelessness is also seen in the daily press, which should comply with a demand for truth in news despatches and give the public sane editorials. Here the speaker quoted editorials and despatches from American papers, which had been contorted as to cause misrepresentation of the true facts, and showing that such contortion might lead to serious complications with Powers. So we should have the true facts published in our press, about everything which interests the people.

Fair trade conditions should also be demanded by us, and the doing away with exploitation, such as has been carried on between Great Britain and other nations, for example, the opium and morphine dumping in China and on this continent. And the establishmet of fair commercial relations would go a long way towards the peace of the world.

From a social standpoint fair industrial conditions should be enforced, giving us clean, pure-air factories, healthier conditions, the abolishing of child labour, and a fair wage for all. Thus would the workers be uplifted and live healthier lives.

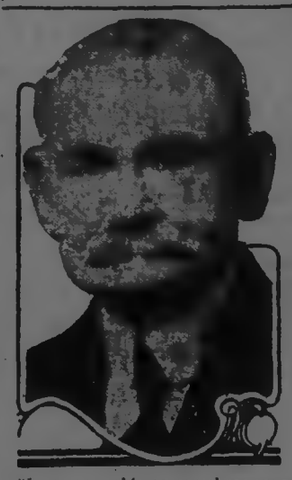
Dealing with the political aspect of the subject, relationships should be straightforward, with open dealing, no lies, and our nation behind their representatives in fair deals on the square and on the level.

Emphasis was laid on the fundamentals of Christian citizenship and through relationship with other fraternities; and by public opinion, promote a sane internationalism that will make the League of Nations a reality and war impossible.

"Forget the class and remember the man;
Forget the price and remember the pearl;
Forget the labour and remember the fruit;
Forget the Temple, and remember God."

The address was listened to with rapt attention, and Mr. Keith gave a brief resume of the Winnipeg Strike and its causes, in an impartial way—for all of which he was thanked by the members of the class.

JOSEPH A. YORK, well-known business man of Portland, Me., who says he feels twenty years younger, and has gained sixteen pounds on four bottles of Tanlac. Declares he can now eat three square meals a day.



"I am now able to eat three square meals a day for the first time in two years," was the emphatic statement made recently by Joseph A. York, a well known business man and a highly respected citizen of Portland, Maine.

"I am now sixty-nine years of age, and in all my life I have never run across a medicine that I consider in a class with Tanlac. I have just finished my fourth bottle and this medicine has benefited me even beyond my greatest hopes. Besides gaining 16 pounds in weight I have been built up and strengthened until I feel all of twenty years younger.

"For the past two years I have been in a miserably run-down condition, and was compelled a short time ago to give up all ideas of business as I was too weak to look after anything. I was nervous, worn out, had no appetite and suffered most all the time with indigestion. Some days I would eat scarcely anything; in fact I was afraid to eat because I knew that I would suffer afterwards. Sometimes I had such severe cramping pains after eating that I would almost die. My nerves were all unstrung and the least thing would worry me, and I never could get a good night's rest. In fact I just lost interest in everything and was greatly discouraged over my condition.

"The ordinary treatment failed to do me any good and as I had read so many statements from people I know here in Portland who had been benefited by Tanlac I decided to give it a trial. And now I know for myself what it will do for I have simply taken a new lease of life. I am now able to eat three hearty meals a day and everything agrees with me perfectly. I eat anything I want and never feel a touch of indigestion. I never thought there was a medicine that could do me so much good and I am only too glad to have the facts about my case given to the public."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock, by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowler's Corners, by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert, by A. J. Scott, in Westwood, by P. Pringle and Son.

Some time ago Mr. Jas. Clark, of Belmont, issued a writ against the township of Belmont and Methuen, claiming damages for not being released from quarantine when he claimed he should have been. Nothing has been done in the action against the municipality, and last month the Township Council put a motion through authorizing its counsel, Mr. G. N. Gordon, to apply for an order dismissing the writ. Mr. Gordon's motion came up before Judge Huycke on Saturday last, when Mr. Clark was represented by Mr. S. T. Medd of Peterborough, and who obtained a stay of proceedings of ten days in order that he be given an opportunity of going into the case in the interests of his client.

FRENCHMEN FEAR DOUBLE ARMY COST

ARGUE THAT THIS WOULD FOLLOW INCREASE OF GERMAN FORCE TO 200,000 MEN.

PARIS, April 29.—If Germany receives the permission she is seeking to maintain an army of 200,000 men a one-year period of military service in France, which is becoming a popular cry, would be impossible. This is the reason: Germany would have an army of regularly trained, long service troops 200,000 strong. France would have an army of 220,000 young men only half trained. To hope to be able to hold her own against the German Army she would have to maintain a three or at least three years' service law. Therefore, if she sanctioned the doubling of the German Army she would be doubling the cost of her own military organization.

This fact is being brought out strongly by all French authorities who have been studying the German request, and it is likely to prove a deciding factor in the settlement of that question, which is by no means so easy as Premier Lloyd George seemed to suppose when he said the other day: "If Germany needs 200,000 men to keep international order she must have them. If our experts thinks she does not, she will not."

To that statement the French reply is: "We do not need as big an army as that for internal control. England does not, even with Ireland to garrison; and America with an area and population enormously larger than Germany's, does not. So why should Germany, whose people are always represented as peace-loving and docile? Lastly, if Germany has an army of that size and of trained troops, we will need to maintain our present conscription law, and the old vicious circle of armies and armaments will begin again."

Marshal Foch, like other French advisers, regards the matter in that light, and is, like them, opposed to the increase asked by the Germans. In this he has changed his views since the conference at Paris last year. Then he advocated that the Germany Army should be left at 200,000, but in doing so he was influenced by considerations which are no longer valid. It is circumstances which have changed, not his views, as he explained to a Matin correspondent.

At that time he advocated for Germany a conscription army with a short term of service. Instead, a long-service professional army was allowed. At that time also he believed that the treaty provided France with territorial and alliance guarantees, which no longer exist. In the present circumstances he declares emphatically that 100,000 men are as many troops as Germany needs, and as many as can be allowed if her neighbors are to live in peace.

LAMPMAN-MACKENZIE NUPTIALS

In St. John's Church, Lakefield, last evening at seven-thirty o'clock a pretty wedding was solemnized when Helen Winifred, daughter of Rev. A. W. and Mrs. MacKenzie was united in marriage to Archibald Lampman, son of the late Archibald Lampman, whose poetical works are well known throughout Canada. The bride looked very charming in a cream taffeta wedding dress which was worn by her mother at her wedding and an Irish lace veil, the gift of her grandmother. She carried a large boquet of pink roses and was given away by her father. Little Miss "Billy" MacKenzie was the flower girl and Mr. Donald Bethune of Toronto attended the groom. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Canon C. H. Hedley, assisted by Dr. Walter Archibald, rector of St. John's Church. During the signing of the register, Mrs. H. G. THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Guaranteed to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that the best nerve food is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

Weak, tired people regain strength and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks.

CAUTION:— While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

BLEACHED BONES ARE WORTH MONEY

(Canadian Press).

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., April 28.—Dry bleached bones are worth $400 for 20 tons f.o.b. cars, at any station in Southern Alberta. Word to this effect is contained in a circular issued by the United Farmers of Alberta. The circular suggests that locals under the United Farmers of Alberta band together for the purpose of gathering these bones, large quantities of which are scattered over the prairies

WAS TAKEN FOR "POMPADOUR JIM"

FORMER PETERBORO PRINTER WHO DIED RECENTLY WAS ONCE INTRODUCED AS CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

The Buffalo correspondence of the Typographical Journal contains the following interesting reference to the late Michael H. Hayes, former Peterborough printer, who died recently at Newark, N.J.:

Another kindly soul has crossed the river in the person of Michael H. Hayes, at Newark, N.J. "Mike" used to make this city on his many trips from Syracuse and points east. The first time I met "Mike" was at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and he had a bunch of Falls printers in tow. 'Mike' at that time wore his hair pompadour and the boys claimed he resembled Jim Corbett, the pugilist. Corbett at that time was champion of the world. The gang was introducing "Mike" as the champion of the world, and he acted the part to perfection.

VACANT LOTS AND HOUSING

MR. SYDENHAM THOMPSON WAS IN THE CITY YESTERDAY.

The Single Tax Association of Ontario and the Tax Reform League of Eastern Canada were represented in the city yesterday by Mr. Sydenham Thompson, the assistant secretary of these affiliated organisations, who was interviewed by The Examiner.

Prominent business men, such as G. A. Gillespie, H. B. Cowan, W. H. Bradburn, Wm. Henry, J. E. Smith, Aldermen Gainey and Gordon, Geo. Ball, F. J. A. Morris, were called upon during his visit.

The local housing situation, that shows a scarcity of at least one hundred houses, could, in Mr. Thompson's opinion, be relieved if the vacant lots in the municipality were forced into use.

The new amendment to the Ontario Assessment Act now being discussed in the Legislature, whereby a municipality may encourage the building of homes by a lower assessment would give Peterborough an opportunity to encourage this very necessary enterprise.

Such well-known books by Henry George as "Progress and Poverty" and "The Perplexed Philosopher," now on th shelves of our Public Library, will be supplemented by "Social Problems" and "Protection or Free-Trade," by the same writer, as a result of Mr. Thompson's visit.

A prominent citizen of this city, who several years ago induced Premier Drury to accept the political economy of the Single Tax, highly compliments the associations represented by this official upon their successful propaganda in Ontario.

It is probable that citizens interested in civic questions, will organise a Ratepayers' Association whereby such problems as assessments and taxation may be considered in the public interests.

STRUCK FOR HIGHER WAGES

BOBCAYGEON, April 29.— That Bobcaygeon does not intend to be in the background but up in the front, was demonstrated on Friday morning, when the first strike was recorded by the men working at the new Government dam. This is not the first strike that we have had. Away back many years ago residents recall that one morning the men of the Mossom Boyd Co. struck, but this strike seemed to be of a different type. It appears that the Randolph MacDonald Co., which has the contract for the dam, had no inkling of what was to take place until the evening before. The men went to the place of their labour as usual on Friday morning, but instead of going to work, decided to strike for a higher wage. They had been getting $3.50 per day for day labourers of ten hours. They asked for $4.50, or 45c an hour.

Mr. MacDonald and his foreman were soon on the scene, and said he would make a raise to 40c, commencing on 1st May. Some half-dozen went back to work, but the rest lay off that day and returned to work the next morning. Some two dozen men were involved.

SPORTING NEWS, VIEWS AND GOSSIP

LOCAL LACROSSE INTERESTS HAD MEETING LAST EVENING

JOHN SUTHERLAND WAS ELECTED MANAGER OF PETERBORO TEAM —A NEW GROUPING.

Johnny Sutherland who has been one of the prime movers in the effort to boost the lacrosse game here, and who was elected treasurer at the organistion meeting, was last night selected as manager for the local team in the intermediate series of the O.L.A. Manager Sutherland will commence his duties at once.

President Todd directed the meeting last night. Plans and problems were discussed and among the decisions reached, was one to start at once and do the club's business in a business way. Following this out, deposit of all the club's funds will be made at the Bank of Nova Scotia and all orders drawn on the treasurer must be properly certified.

The Supplies.

Secretary Johnson was authorized to purchase six pairs of gloves, on which he had secured a very favorable quotation, and to place an order locally for jerseys. He reported to the meeting, the difficulty experienced in getting a supply of sticks, due to heavy buying from a none too bulky stock. But the sticks will be here, and a supply will be on hand for the next important practice on Saturday afternoon. Players having sticks are asked to bring them along; others who have passed up the game and have sticks in their possession and would loan them to the club are invited to give this information to Manager Sutherland, and other officers.

New Grouping.

While the local club has been grouped with Norwood, Campbellford and Hastings, some doubt exists that these towns will be represented in the O.L.A., as reports received show that little has been done there in the matter of organization. It is well known that players are scarce. Secretary Johnson is keeping in touch with lacrosse headquarters at Toronto and it is possible that Peterboro will be given another grouping, probably with Oshawa and a Toronto team.

MERCANTILE BALL LEAGUE NEWS

There is a big demand in the Mercantile League for the services of Scotty Galbraith and Chris Bergoine who will play for Barrie's this season. Another big store in the city is making an effort to prevent them from playing with Barrie's but it is not likely they will be successful. Mercantile teams like many others are not particular about importing players should the opportunity present itself.

POLLYANNA

The Glad Play, "Pollyanna," is as bracing as a mountain climb. It sends the blood about its business of health and gives tone and gladness to the body. It does more and better, by keeping the lamp of good nature burning brightly in the heart, and leading thoughts away from the mean and chilling things of life. The characters of the famous play are brought before us by men and women who are foremost in the theatrical profession, which means an evening of perfect good cheer, for Pollyanna in its glad nature and purpose is the most notable dramatic production of recent years. It radiates the sunshine of living, puts heart into the weary laden and sweeps away the shadows of trouble as the sun does the mist. The magical Pollyanna steps right out of the book we all know about, ringing out gladly the spirits of youth and health, introduces you to all the quaint characters of the New England home, and before you know it, you are under the spell of the happiest and most enjoyable play now before the public.

"Pollyanna" will be presented here at The Grand Opera House, on Saturday, Matinee and Evening, by the Pollyanna Producing Company, who have provided an excellent company of players to interpret it. Miss Lolitta Westman will play the title role, supported by Pacie Ripple, Wallace Roberts, Earla Elverson, Audrey Wood, Augusta Durgeon, Peter W. Maguire, Geraldine Russell, William Daily and others.

ARLIE MARKS

Monday night next inaugurates a week of repertoire of popular comedies and dramas. The plays changed each night and none repeated.

Mr. Lindsay E. Perrin presents Miss Arlie Marks and her Associated Players in the greatest of all New York successes, namely, "The Brat," reproduced in moving pictures, and one of the best comedy dramas ever produced.

"The Brat" is an unfortunate little chorus girl rescued from night court by a noted novelist, who wants her for a type for a new novel he is writing. He takes her to his mother's home and for the first time in her life "The Brat" knows what home comforts, real meals, and life without drudgery mean.

Meantime the novelist discovers that she is a quaint philosopher, full of tender affection and good traits. 'The Brat' is full of snappy lines and dramatic situations and were all plays messages like "The Brat" this world would be happy for it is an original witty play, that is surprisingly human and full of mirth. Miss Arlie Marks as "The Brat" has a wonderful part full of comedy and pathos and ample opportunity to display her versatility and charming personality. Mr. Lindsay E. Perrin has surrounded Miss Marks, with the most competent company available, and special scenery is carried for this production.

The engagement is for one week only, with a popular priced matinee Wednesday and Saturday. Among the plays to be presented are "The Golden Rule," "Girl Out Yonder" and "The White Slave Trader." Announcement of other plays will be made later. Interesting vaudeville between the acts will be a feature.

TOM SAWYER AT THE ALLEN AGAIN TO-NIGHT

"There's a time when the most sedate of us wish that we could play hookey from our duties for a while, be those duties of business or of a social nature. There's a time when any one of us stretches his arms and says, "Well, I wish I could be a boy again just for once—just for a while." It's a natural and wholesome instinct, and it is good to indulge it. A very good way of doing so, and of travelling back to those days of boyhood—or girlhood—is to take an afternoon or an evening off, and see "Tom Sawyer," the delightful photoplay of boy life showing at The Allen Theatre to-night for the last time.

If you have a family—so much the better—take them all. You, sir, and Mother, may sometimes feel that it is a hard thing to understand the youngsters, find them hard to manage even, maybe. Well, the human today in Peterborough is just the same as he was when Mark Twain wrote his wonderful series of stories, which have been translated into every language on earth, German included, and which are now being presented on the screen. And after taking the youngsters to see this picture, and enjoying it with them, you will find that you will understand each other better, and the boy will feel "that it isn't Dad's fault after all, if he is grown up and has to attend to business." And the girls? Well, girls are the same the world over, too, and there is a lot about girls in "Tom Sawyer." If you can't take the youngsters yourselves, tell them to get up a party and go to the matinee.

If the picture can be a cure for tired parents, it can also be a great help to worried teachers—for it is a wonderful story, this, "of all you ever loved or cussed in a boy." Mark Twain described his stories as being without an ax, and preaching no sermon—but the wise old man was wrong, for they do preach the sermon of happiness. Jack Pickford, that clever boy actor, plays the part of Tom Sawyer.

GROVE OLD BOYS BEATEN AT CRICKET

The Old Boys of the Lakefield Preparatory Schools played the school team at Cricket yesterday afternoon, the school team winning by 61 runs to 23. For the school Hamilton made 18 and Bleecker 12. Barnard for the school took eight wickets. The Old Boys were evidently without practice but this bowling of Beresford Hamilton and Leslie McCulloch was good.

IT'S LEAP YEAR EVERY YEAR TO GIRLS OF MANY AFRICAN AND INDIAN TRIBES

The return of a year which leaps forward a day, bringing to them a privilege monopolized by men three years out of four, has no significance for women of many lands, since they enjoy that liberty all the time.

The women of no race possess more freedom in this matter than the Hopi Indians of Arizona. A maiden does not woo the man of her choice, but simply and forcibly states her proposition to the mother without any encouragement on his part.

Her only preliminary proceeding is to do her hair in two gigantic wheels, one over each ear. This is her announcement that she is going are intended to represent the blossoms of a squash vine, symbol of virginity, but to those unlettered in their meaning they resemble huge door knobs set at a rather violent angle.

When some debutante thus announce that they are 'out on the carpet," it is said that as many as six or eight of the eligible young men of the tribe literally take to the woods.

Selects Her Own Victim

After this aggressive young lady has selected her victim and his mother has agreed that he shall be sacrificed, she serves in the house of her future mother-in-law for thirty days grinding meal, very much after the fashion that Jacob of old served fourteen years for Rachel. The poor youth in the meantime does not sit idly by, but weaves her wedding garments.

Among the Batoa of the Uganda Protectorate of Africa, if a girl is not fortunate enough to be asked in marriage in her home town, she goes to another village and offers herself to some man there. A woman is an excellent agricultural laborer and a man is not likely to refuse such a business asset.

The Gala woman of the eastern coast of Africa has the rare privilege among savage and half-civilized people of refusing to marry a man who is undesirable to her.

Princesses on the west coast of Africa, whose children may become future rulers, choose their own husbands. Nor is a princess limited in her choice to unmarried men. She may just as easily decide upon one who has already entered the marriage state, and the poor fellow has to put away his other wives and become her slave.

Gives "Intended "a Bottle.

In Tyrol a girl may express her preference for a man by presenting him with a bottle of spirits. If she is afraid that her procedure has not the indorsement of her parents she may contrive to lower the precious fluid at night from her chamber window.

In North Transylvania a young peasant woman may give a particular swain a tip that he is the "apple" of her eye by going with him in his cart at the time of the harvesting of the oats to help him carry in his crop.

Among the Eskimos of the east coast of Greenland a man captures the girl he wants, but from that time on the usual order of things is reserved. He has to exercise the greatest vigilance to prevent her from eloping with any other man whom she may prefer, as this seems to be her privilege.

In the Northern New Hebridge, a bride who is unhappy seeks the earliest opportunity of running away from her husband and seeking a home with some man she likes better. If her parents cannot induce her to return to the injured husband they usually send him a pig to soothe his wounded feelings.

DIVER WAS KNOWN AS THE HUMAN FISH

PLUNGED AFTER GOLD CUP OF KING FREDERICK.

In the time of Frederick, King of Sicily, there lived a diver named Nicholas, who, because of his amazing skill in swimming and the length of time he could remain under water, was surnamed Pesce, or the "fish."

Pesce had from infancy been used to the sea and earned his living by diving for coral and oysters. He was frequently known to spend as much as five full days in the water without any other provisions than the fish that he caught there and ate, (raw) securing fresh water from the crevices and crannies of the near-by rocks. In fact, so expert did he become that he was appointed a royal messenger and intrusted with letters and packets with which he swam from Sicily to Calabria or among the gulfs of the Lipari islands.

It was Pesce's famous ability to combat all the dangers of the deep that finally led to his death. King Frederick had long been curious to know more of the Gulf of Charybdis, in order to chart the rapid currents of this body of water—currents which, in places, reached the velocity of mill races or miniature whirlpools. Sending for Pesce, the king offered him a golden cup, which was to be thrown into the gulf and to be the property of the diver if he could recover it. Pesce agreed to make the attempt, and after being lost to sight for nearly three-quarters of an hour returned with the cup and an accurate account of the various currents which he had encountered. Wishing to gain still further information, King Frederick offered the "human fish" another and larger golden cup and a purse of gold if he would repeat his exploit further up the coast. But the diver never received his reward, nor was his body ever recovered from the treacherous waters of the whirlpool.

THE HACKING COUGH STRAINS THE LUNGS

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of a cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E.I., writes:—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for sometime. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me, and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ANTIQUITIES RILE SHAW.

Old English Cottages Should Go, He Tells Arts Society.

LONDON, April 29.—George Bernard Shaw declares that the old cottages of England should be destroyed wholesale.

After living in one of the 'literary and artistic' houses with an exalted sense of doing the right thing," he told the Society of Arts recently, "one realizes that all the time one has been living in a sort of architectural hell."

"I am so far modern that I have come to the conclusion that what is wanted is a law that every building should be knocked down at the end of twenty years and a new one erected. That would get rid of old cottages. We have got into the incorrigible habit of sponging on the past.

"Every generation ought to be able to produce its own art and all this worship of the past can only be got rid of by a wholesale destruction of all the amusements of the past.

KNOX MINSTRELS VISIT LAKEFIELD

GAVE EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE LAST EVENING—LAKEFIELD NEWS.

LAKEFIELD, April 28. — The Knox Minstrels of Peterborough played to a capacity house in the Queen Street Theatre on Tuesday night, and delighted the large audience with their songs and music and witty sketches. They appeared under the auspices of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., and the officers and members were much gratified by the response of the Lakefield public.

The first part of the programme consisted of a minstrel show, when the following numbers were rendered:

Opening—"Way Down in Caroline" End Men and Company
"I'll Be Happy When the Preacher Makes you Mine"—Mr. Art White
"When Others are Building Castles in the Air"—Mr. Bob Heatherton
"I Used to Call Her Baby" .... Mr. Ken Anderson
"Peggy" .... Mr. Alex. Segar
"I've Got the Nicest Little Home in Dixie" ....Mr. Jim Turnbull
"I've Lived, I've Loved, I'm Satisfied" .... Mr. Bob Haddow
"Golden Gate" .... Mr. Art Pitchford
"In Room 302".... Mr. Vern Morphet
"Girl of My Dreams" Mr. Lou Smith
"Anything is Nice That Comes from Dixie" .... Mr. Ted Jackson
"As the Sunshine Loves the Rose".. Mr. Gordon Evans
"Are You From Dixie?" .... Mr. Jack Bradbury
Finale by the Company, introducing "By the Camp Fire" .... Mr. Art McLeish
"Alabama Lullaby," and "Dixie Dreams," with solo parts by .... Mr. Lou Smith

The programme was good and much appreciated, especially the local hits of Mr. Vernon Morphet with his village council nursery rhymes which hit the town hall, the fire production and the lighting. The audience roared with laughter and encored him till he responded with a sweet little poem, "Lakefield Light Wont Shine To-night."

Mr. Haddon's solo was an especially good number and was very popular. The second half of the program was shorter and though very good was rather marred by the long delays between the numbers. Mr. Lee contributed two recitations, "Casey at the Bat" and "Casey's Revenge" that were decided hits. Mr. Vern Morphet gave a recitation and concluded with a saxophone solo which ended in a surprising manner. The second part of the programme closed with living statuary by two of the boys representing different phases of athletics.

Held a Debate.

The A.Y.P.A. held a debate on Woman's Suffrage on Monday night. Mrs. T. A. Simpson, led the affirmative and was ably supported by Messrs. S. T. Leggot and C. S. Stenner and Frank Graystock and Miss Ogilive. Mrs. Marling led the negative and had as her supporters Miss Wood, Miss Rhoda Alford and Mr. R. Alford. The principal points brought out by the affirmative were the superior quality and quantity of the brains of the male sex, the probability of the ladies being lured by the vote from their home duties and the lack of geographical knowledge possessed by women and the great danger of the votes of women being too easily swayed by their emotions. So ably did the negative refute these points and support their contention of woman's perfect fitness for the franchise that the judge, Rev. (Dr.) Archbold announced his decision in favor of the negative.

Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. J. M. Twist gave a delightful afternoon tea on Monday in honor of her cousin, Miss Nellie Read, of Peterboro.

DIVER WAS KNOWN AS THE HUMAN FISH

PLUNGED AFTER GOLD CUP OF KING FREDERICK.

In the time of Frederick, King of Sicily, there lived a diver named Nicholas, who, because of his amazing skill in swimming and the length of time he could remain under water, was surnamed Pesce, or the "Fish."

Pesce had from infancy been used to the sea and earned his living by diving for coral and oysters. He was frequently known to spend as much as five full days in the water without any other provisions than the fish that he caught there and ate, raw, securing fresh water from the cracks and crannies of the nearby rocks. In fact, so expert did he become that he was appointed a royal messenger and intrusted with letters and packets with which he swam from Sicily to Calabria or among the gulfs of the Lipari islands.

It was Pesce's famous ability to combat all the dangers of the deep that finally led to his death. King Frederick had long been curious to know more of the Gulf of Charybdis, in order to chart the rapid currents of this body of water—currents which, in places, reached the velocity of mill races or miniature whirlpools. Sending for Pesce the king offered him a golden cup, which was to be thrown into the gulf and to be the property of the diver if he could recover it. Pesce agreed to make the attempt, and after being lost to sight for nearly three-quarters of an hour returned with the cup and an accurate account of the various currents which he had encountered. Wishing to gain still further information, King Frederick offered the "human fish" another and larger golden cup and a purse of gold if he would repeat his exploit further up the coast. But the diver never received his reward, nor was his body ever recovered from the treacherous waters of the whirlpool.

THE HACKING COUGH STRAINS THE LUNGS

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of a cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E.I., writes:—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me, and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ANTIQUITIES RILE SHAW.

Old English Cottages Should Go, He Tells Arts Society.

LONDON, April 29.—George Bernard Shaw declares that the old cottages of England should be destroyed wholesale.

After living in one of the 'literary and artistic' houses with an exalted sense of doing the right thing," he told the Society of Arts recently, "one realizes that all the time one has been living in a sort of architectural hell."

"I am so far modern that I have come to the conclusion that what is wanted is a law that every building should be knocked down at the end of twenty years and a new one erected. That would get rid of old cottages. We have got into the incorrigible habit of sponging on the past.

"Every generation ought to be able to produce its own art and all this worship of the past can only be got rid of by a wholesale destruction of all the amusements of the past.

KNOX MINSTRELS VISIT LAKEFIELD

GAVE EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE LAST EVENING—LAKEFIELD NEWS.

LAKEFIELD, April 28. — The Knox Minstrels of Peterborough played to a capacity house in the Queen Street Theatre on Tuesday night and delighted the large audience with their songs and music and witty sketches. They appeared under the auspices of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., and the officers and members were much gratified by the response of the Lakefield public.

The first part of the programme consisted of a minstrel show, when the following numbers were rendered:

Opening—"Way Down in Caroline" End Men and Company
"I'll Be Happy When the Preacher Makes you Mine"—Mr. Art White
"When Others are Building Castles in the Air"—Mr. Bob Heatherton
"I Used to Call Her Baby" .... Mr. Ken Anderson
"Peggy" .... Mr. Alex. Segar
"I've Got the Nicest Little Home in Dixie" .... Mr. Jim Turnbull
"I've Lived, I've Loved, I'm Satisfied" .... Mr. Bob Haddow
"Golden Gate" .... Mr. Art Pitchford
"In Room 202".... Mr. Vern Morphet
"Girl of My Dreams" Mr. Lou Smith
"Anything is Nice That Comes from Dixie" .... Mr. Ted Jackson
"As the Sunshine Loves the Rose".. Mr. Gordon Evans
"Are You From Dixie?" .... Mr. Jack Bradbury
Finale by the Company, introducing "By the Camp Fire" .... Mr. Art McLeish
"Alabama Lullaby," and "Dixie Dreams," with solo parts by .... Mr. Lou Smith

The programme was good and much appreciated, especially the local hits of Mr. Vernon Morphet with his village council nursery rhymes which hit the town hall, the fire production and the lighting. The audience roared with laughter and encored him till he responded with a sweet little poem, "Lakefield Light Wont Shine To-night."

Mr. Haddon's solo was an especially good number and was very popular. The second half of the program was shorter and though very good was rather marred by the long delays between the numbers. Mr. Lee contributed two recitations, "Casey at the Bat" and "Casey's Revenge" that were decided hits. Mr. Vern Morphet gave a recitation and concluded with a saxaphone solo which ended in a surprising manner. The second part of the programme closed with living statuary by two of the boys representing different phases of athletics.

Held a Debate.

The A.Y.P.A. held a debate on Woman's Suffrage on Monday night. Mrs. T. A. Simpson, led the affirmative and was ably supported by Messrs. S. T. Leggot and C. S Stenner and Frank Graystock and Miss Ogilive. Mrs. Marling led the negative and had as her supporters Miss Wood, Miss Rhoda Alford and Mr. R. Alford. The principal points brought out by the affirmative were the superior quality and quantity of the brains of the male sex, the probability of the ladies being lured by the vote from their home duties and the lack of geographical knowledge possessed by women and the great danger of the votes of women being too easily swayed by their emotions. So ably did the negative refute these points and support their contention of woman's perfect fitness for the franchise that the judge, Rev. (Dr.) Archbold announced his decision in favor of the negative.

Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. J. M. Twist gave a delightful afternoon tea on Monday in honor of her cousin, Miss Nellie Read, of Peterboro.

FEW FAMILIES WILL MOVE IN PETERBORO ON MAY THE FIRST

THE BIGGEST TREK WILL BE TO CHEMONG AND OTHER WATERING POINTS.

Judging from the opinion of Peterborough real estate men, carters and others, May 1, which is the nationally acclaimed moving day will not be marked by any great trek of families from one house to another. "There aren't any houses," one carter said. There is not as much moving going on as last year, but still there are many people moving from one flat to another.

From general indications the transient class of tenant that found it cheaper to move than to pay rent, have almost vanished when the available houses have become fewer and fewer. They have found that if they leave their present abode they may have to take the street, so the rent is paid cheerfully, even thankfully, for having a roof over their heads.

Farmers on Move.

There appears to be a movement of farmers and farm hands into the city, and travellers in the country state that throughout the country loads of household goods are passed heading for the cities. Farmers in the northern townships are migrating to the south and a number of families from back north have recently moved to farms around this city.

At the G.T.R. station it was learned that there was scarcely any moving going on by the railroad, but moving by motor has become so common that long distances are now traversed and they are now able to compete with the railroads.

Go to Chemong.

The opinion of the man in the street is that Lakefield, Chemong and adjacent villages offer great possibilities for the homeseeker with a car. Land is cheap and rents are low, there is plenty of room for a garden and poultry fanciers can carry on their hobby to their heart's content.

"I don't see anything for it but for people to live in tents," said one real estate dealer quite seriously. We have people in by the score seeking houses and flats and can't begin to show them any. Every habitable suite of rooms in the city are occupied and still there are people looking for rooms. The only solution is to camp in a tent. If the city would go ahead and build small two or three roomed, comfortable bungalows it would solve the whole problem. The working men do not want a big six or eight roomed house. A small neat bungalow would solve the problem.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from costiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This with the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

Mrs. Letitia Wainman, Orillia, Ont., writes: "From a child I was always very badly constipated and I can well remember when quite young my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning and I got to dread it. After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FORD CAR FOR SALE

On Market Square

SATURDAY, MAY 1st, 1920

at 11 o'clock

W. J. HANCOCK,
Auctioneer.

CAR DISAPPEARED FROM THE MARKET

Mr. Stewart's faith in the market square as a safe haven for his automobile, has been completely shattered.

Yesterday Mr. Stewart, who resides in Otonabee, left his car standing there—and left it with his mind at rest as to its safe being. He returned between 10 and 11 last night for it, but to his surprise found that his car had taken wings and flown.

At 9.30 one of the police force saw the car being driven away from the market square and up Water street, and when Mr. Stewart notified the police about it last night of his loss, suspicion of the culprits lurked in the mind of the officer who saw the car being taken away.

This morning the automobile was found near the Nicholls' Oval.

The police are following up the case and a conviction may result. the fine for this "joy riding" is from $50 to $200, and after a conviction or two the effect of the joy riding propensities of the young men is remarkable.

BRIDGE PARTY AT MRS. SANDERSON'S

In spite of the disagreeable weather of yesterday afternoon the bridge and 500 party held at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, 369 Brock street, under the auspices of the Otonabee Chapter, I.O.D.E., was a distinct success and attended by a large number of people.

In the hall Mrs. Cortez Fessenden, assisted by Mrs. E. S. C. Huycke, had charge of the "White Elephant" table, while Mrs. A. H. Stratton acted as convenor of the card room.

Those Present.

A few of those noticed who played cards or dropped in to tea were Mrs. Aylmer, Miss Archer, Miss Hugel, Mrs. W. H. Dunsford, Mrs. Manson, Mrs. J. E. Vanstone, Mrs. V. J. MacElderry, Miss Lundy, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. A. Stevenson, Mrs. E. V. Frederick, Mrs Edward Wood, Mrs. A. H. Stratton, Mrs. A. E. Coulthard, Mrs. Gingras, Miss Mary Stratton, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Charles Ackerman, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Roy, Miss Esme Aylmer, Miss Agnes Eastwood, Mrs. Harry Cressman, Mrs. Alex. Elliott, Mrs. Perks, Mrs. D. J. Lundy, Mrs. George Gladman, Mrs. J. Harris McClennan, Mrs. Buchanan, Miss Annie Kingan, Miss Nan Hall, Mrs Sutton, Mrs. D. N. Carmichael, Mrs. Seels, Mrs. John Crane, Mrs. Sangster, Mrs. W. H. Bradburn, Mrs. Wren, Mrs. Frank Whitehouse, Mrs. J. H. Kenwick, Mrs. Killaly, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. J. H. Eastwood, Mrs. H. Stinson, Mrs. F. L. Robinson, Mrs Davidson, Mrs. J. A. Robinson, Mrs. Rose, Miss Margaret English, Mrs. Achilles Turner and Mrs. J. W. MacDiarmid.

The Prize Winners.

At bridge Miss E. Morrow won the first prize and at 500 Mrs. Yenney carried off the honors. In the raffle for the sweater Mrs. R. R. Hall held the lucky number. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Receipts.

In all about $50 was realized from the entertainment.

A SLEEPER ON THE PORT HOPE TRAIN

The local agent of the G. T. R. intimated to-day that the company was considering putting a sleeper on the train for Port Hope, leaving here at 9.19, and make it a through car to Montreal.

This would be a welcome change to passengers who have often to make this trip east.

The original scheme which was under consideration, and which Mr. MacNab believes is now in the waste basket, was to take off this 9.19 train, and put it on the other line going to Belleville.

This step would inconvenience only Millbrook and several smaller places on that line, while it would provide an adequate service that is not possible now to Hastings, Campbellford, and Stirling, and would be of inestimable value to this city for shoppers from that way, who have to leave on the 2 p.m., as it is now.

This service would attract many buyers to this city that now patronize Belleville Outside of these materialistic reasons it would provide a sleeper service through to Montreal, just as this other service will.

Nevertheless there is no prospect that the train will be changed over, and all that will be provided is the sleeper service to Montreal Mr. MacNab said he did not know why the other plan had been sidetracked.

BARRACKS ROOF WAS BLOWN OFF

Canadian Press:

DUBLIN, April 29. — Rush Police Barracks, ten miles from Dublin, were attacked by an armed band this morning. This is the first incident of the kind so near the capital. Available information shows that the sergeant in charge of the barracks received fatal injuries and other policemen were wounded, while the roof of the barracks was blown off.

A large party of armed masked men held up the mail train from Cork for Bantry this morning at Kinsale Junction. The mail bags were taken.

BUCKSAWING CONTEST ON FRI.AY EVENING

Following the assertion of the older contestant "that man should earn his bread by the sweat of his brow," the above resulted.

To demonstrate to those present that he, although upwards of sixty years of age, and busy also with his patients at the Montgomery House, he challenged a much younger boarder of the Montgomery House as to who could bucksaw the greater number of cords of hardwood in one hour. The landlord has placed the requisite wood and his yard at their disposal for the strife, to take place to-morrow evening. The battle starts at five o'clock.

CROP PROSPECTS ARE FAIRLY GOOD

HOG SHIPMENTS COMING INTO THE CITY.

Reports from the country indicate that fall wheat and clover have never looked better, and a bumper crop is expected by most of the farmers.

Seeding has been general during the last week throughout the country.

In the city the backyard gardeners have been busy getting their lots ploughed, and are ready to start their seeding when the weather takes a more general turn.

With seed potatoes at $6.00 a bag, the situation is causing much worry to urban dwellers who grow their own tubers. "They may only be $1.00 a bag next fall, and we won't save much for our summer's work," is the way one person put it.

The scales at the Market this morning were kept busy weighing the hogs of the Farmers Co-operative Club who, after several months' interval, have again begun to ship their live stock.

Many fine specimens of the pork family were weighed, put back into the waggons, and driven away to face the guillotine artist at the Canadian Packing Company.

BIG HOLIDAY IN WINNIPEG ON MAY DAY

THOUSANDS OF MANUAL WORKERS WILL LAY OFF TO-MORROW —EMPLOYERS CALL IT A STRIKE.

SEEK TO IMPRESS

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 30.—To-morrow (May Day) is to be a general holiday for thousands of the manual workers in Winnipeg.

The employers call it a "One Day Strike"—the workers call it a "One Day Holiday."

Whatever it is called, the day will see little work done in the shops and factories, for the workers are going to lay off.

Officials of the Workers' Defence Committee, which organised the demonstrations here and called upon the workers throughout the country to join Winnipeg in the "One Day Holiday," estimate that about 40,000 local men and women will remain away from work.

Stores and offices and the public utilities are expected to function almost normally, for the reason that the workers in stores and offices are not extensively organised, and that those employed on the utilities have not been directed by the union leaders to leave thir work. But all shops and factories, all building operations, and hundreds of other lines of activity will be at a standstill throughout the day.

One Big Union leaders, who, in reality are the instigators of the national protest movement, deny that there is any connection between the "One Day Holiday" in Canada and the "24-hour worldwide strike" called by the European Socialists for the same day, as a general demonstration against capitalism. They say they are taking the holiday on their own initiative, for the purpose of impressing Canada with the solidarity of labour on the question of "the injustice done the Winnipeg strike leaders."

BETTER VALUES THAN OVERALLS

GOOD SUITS CAN BE BOUGHT TO ORDER FROM REGENT TAILORS AT A VERY LOW PRICE.

The overall movement is not likely to get a very strong hold on Canadians so long as a firm like the Regent Tailors offers to make any man a suit or an overcoat to measure for only $27. That is quite a reasonable price, just about what a man would pay before the war.

And if you have any doubt as to the quality of these Suits or Overcoats you have only to step into their store at 326 George street Arcade and see the beautiful line of materials to convince yourself that it is really a wonderful offer. And every garment Regent Tailors makes is fully guaranteed, so that buyers take no chance of disappointment.

The big range of summer Suitings is particularly attractive just now.

EXCHANGES DESIRE OPEN WHEAT TRADE

SEND DEPUTATION TO OTTAWA—AMERICAN GRAIN EXCHANGES ARE AFTER SAME END.

Special to The Examiner.

WINNIPEG, April 30. — Removal of the restrictions on wheat trading, so that open trading may be resumed next Autumn, is to be urged upon the Federal government and parliament this week by representative grain men from Winnipeg and Montreal, according to an announcement at the Grain Exchange last night.

Representatives of the local exchange left for Ottawa last night to take part in the conference.

The official representatives of the exchange are empowered to go to unusual lengths if necessary to bring about the control of the grain business.

If the government decides on an open market, October wheat contracts will soon be quoted on the Winnipeg exchange.

While Canadian grain men are conferring with the government at Ottawa representatives of the American grain exchanges are meeting at Chicago to discuss the same problem in the United States.

ANTICIPATE A COALITION IN WINNIPEG

LABOUR MEETING CAUTIONED NOT TO BE TOO OPTIMISTIC.

ELECTION PROSPECTS

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 30.—The old Citizens' Committee is being resuscitated to form a coalition of Liberal and Conservative parties in Winnipeg to defeat labour candidates at the forthcoming Provincial election.

This was the alarm given by S. J. Farmer, chairman of the Dominion Labour Party at a meeting last evening in the Labour Temple.

Cautioning the meeting not to be too optimistic, Farmer advised the labour party to remain in the background for a while and await developments. He said that although things looked hopeful for the Labour Party, it is certain many Norris candidates will be elected.

The refusal of the Socialist Party to co-operate with the Dominion Labour Party with regard to the selection of the labour ticket, temporarily has upset the plans. The Dominion Party selected ten candidates for Winnipeg, each of whom was tried for offences arising out of the strike of last summer, and it was the intention to apportion these candidates among the various labour bodies.

The Socialist Party refused to abide by this plan, however, on the ground that co-operation with other organisations was contrary to its constitution, and declared it would nominate independent candidates.

It was claimed that R. B. Russell, W. A. Pritchard, ad F. J. Dixon, who will be candidates, are assured of election to the Legislature.

PRICE CHANGES ON THE STOCK MARKET

MARKET NERVOUS AT TO-DAY'S OPENING—THE EXCHANGE MARKET.

United Press:

NEW YORK, April 30.—Fractional price changes were registered by leading issues at the Stock Market opening to-day. U.S. Rubber opened at 78, off ¼; Reading 84⅛, up ⅛; U. S. Steel 94, off 1-8; Crucible 140 ex div., off 3½; Pan-American 90, up ¼; International Paper 71 1-8, off 3-8; Republic Steel 92¼, off ¼; Southern Pacific 94⅛, up 3-8; Studebaker 109¾, up ⅛; Lakawanna Steel 73 3-4, off ¼; American Loco. 92½, off ½; Corn Prods 94 3-4, off ¼; Bethlehem Bonds 88 7-8, off 1-8; American Woollen 118, unchanged; Sinclair 35 1-8.

Speculative attention was centered in Crucible shortly after the opening. Selling with the stock dividend off, this issue changed hands on the initial transaction at 140, but later rallied to 146. The market was nervous, but offerings of stock during early trading was not in large amounts. Steel Common was forced down to 88.5-8, but then rebounded to 09½.

The announcement by the American Woollen Co. of the calling of a special meeting of stockholders to increase the authorized preferred stock from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000 and the common from $20,000,000 to $45,000,000, together with the announcement that $7,500,000 of common stock will be sold at par, resulted in a raid on American Woollen Common. The stock had acted well early in the day, advancing as high as 121, but on the announcements it broke to 114. The reason for the increase in authorised preferred has not been made plain although it was assumed it meant the sale of some of this stock.

This property has a frontage of fifty feet on Whitlaw's creek, which flows into the river between the G.T.R. bridge and the Locks.

Mr. Wilkins suggested that this lot would be suitable for park purposes. It is well wooded and is quoted at approximately $500 an acre. The committee decided not to take any action.

Ald. Gordon moved, seconded by Ald. Whitehouse that $200 be spent in piping part of Central Park this summer under the supervision of Chairman and City Engineer.

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 30.—The press to-day generally regarded Prime Minister Lloyd George's report on the San Remo conference to the House of Commons yesterday as "satisfactory but nothing new."

Northcliffe papers, as usual, jeered the Prime Minister.

The speech [illegible] fair but we have seen many promises blasted since the armistice," the Times said.

(Canadian Press.)

DUNDALK, Ireland, April 30. — Jury at inquest into death of Thomas Mulholland, who was shot on the street here recently, dying shortly afterwards, returned a verdict yesterday that death was due to a bullet fired without justification and with intent to kill, by Sergeant Bustard. THE POLES ATTACKING BOLSHEVIK

THE DAILY NEWS CALLS IT "CRIMINAL FOLLY"—HEAVY FIGHTING.

TOWNS CAPTURED

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 30. — "Poland's criminal folly" in attacking the Russian Soviet armies threatens the decisions made at San Remo with disaster, the Daily News said to-day. "Poland has no resources of her own with which to fight. Let's know who is providing the material for this madness."

Occupied Matin.

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, April 30.—Polish and Ukranian troops, driving towards Kiev, have occupied Matin on the railroad about sixty miles north-west of Kiev. The advance is continuing towards the Dnieper river, except on the southern front, where the Russian Bolsheviki are making a stand along the right bank of the Bug river and are fighting stubbornly.

Bolsheviki are rushing the fifth and eighth divisions from the Caucasus region to reinforce the twelfth Soviet army which has its headquarters at Kiev. In an action which resulted in the occupation of the village of Kozatin, south-west of Zhitoair, the Polish cavalry captured 2,000 prisoners, ten cannons, one tank and the colors of the 38th Bolsheviki dicision. Airplanes, armored trains and automobiles are being used by Poles and crack cavalry divisions have been brought into action. Posen troops, which fought during the great war in the German army, are engaged in the advance.

Wireless communication regarding the Polish offensive, have been sent to Polish newspapers by Press Bureau of the Soviet Foreign Office. It asserts the Bolsheviki are not yet defeated and have not changed their peace intentions.

"In view of Poles and Russian Soviet government have been unable to agree regarding proposed meeting of peace conference at Borisou," the note says, "the Soviet government is willing to meet Polish delegates at Grodno or Biplystok, near Warsaw, if the Poles wil lagree upon a date."

GERMANY WANTS RETAIN VESSELS

CLAIMS SHE HAS HAD DIFFICULTY IN DELIVERY OF VESSELS—WILL TURN OVER LARGE NUMBER SOON.

Canadian Press:

BERLIN, April 30.—The Allied Reparations Committee has replied to Germany's recent request that Germany be allowed to retain to her own use a certain number of ships due for delivery to the Allies under the Peace Treaty. The reply said that although it has been three months since the Treaty became effective, not a single vessel has been delivered, and that the Commissioners cannot possibly consider further proposals until a satisfactory quantity of tonnage is surrendered.

The German Government, in replying, pleads having encountered the greatest difficulty in making the delivery of vessels. One vessel, it says, was sent to the Firth of Forth two days ago, and a large number of vessels are ready to sail in a few days.

BUDGET CHANGES WERE DISCUSSED

SEVERAL NEW FORMS OF TAXES ARE IN PROSPECT.

Canadian Press:

OTTAWA, April 30.—Western members of the Commons supporting the present Government held their caucus to-day to decide on several lines of action in connection with matters to come up in the Budget. By far the most important item discussed was the Budget as it affects tariff. This was proposed to eliminate the duty on small threshers, binders and farm household commodities. In view of this, it is advocated that an excise tax will be levied. After considerable calculation it is figured that through the proposal of the excise tax, the farmer would not pay any more for his goods than at present, while manufacturers would pay more taxes and still enjoy the same amount of protection from similar industries across the line. The feeling generally towards the tariff, it is understood was that it should not be eliminated entirely but lowered to the extent wanted. In regard to the marketing of this year's wheat crop, several farmer members have agreed that national marketing should be discarded so long as the control is also held by European interests.

POTATOES WILL BE OFF THE FAMILY MENU CARD FOR AT LEAST A MONTH

EIGHT YEARS TO DELIVER A LETTER

(Special to The Examiner.)

CORNWALL, April 30.— The speed with which the mails are sometimes handled, was illustrated to-daly when Mrs. Albert Russell received a postal card from her son, James Russell, dated January 7, 1912, from Newmarket, Ontario, where he was then employed. Where it has been in the intervening eight years and three months is a mystery.

Drury Is Cautious

NON-COMMITTAL TO DEPUTATION ASKING GOVERNMENT TO GUARANTEE BONDS FOR RADIALS.

TORONTO, April 30.—No promise was forthcoming from Premier Drury yesterday that the Province would guarantee the bonds for certain Hydro-radial projects, including the Toronto and Eastern. The Premier was cautious. He referred to duplication of lines and the present financial situation without any direct opposition to the scheme, but he did state that he thought work on the Chippawa power canal should be pushed forward, as no economy could result from delay at that point.

The Premier's statements regarding Hydro were made to a large deputation representing municipalities east and west of Toronto, where radials have been proposed and endorsed by the vote of most of the municipalities.

Declaring that he was thinking of the interests of the whole Province, Premier Drury said that as soon as the Government was convinced that the financial situation was such that it would not be loading up the enterprises with an undue burden, and that labour and equipment were not as costly as at present, the Province would be prepared to go ahead.

The Premier said his personal convictions were in favour of the development of the water powers of the Province for the benefit of the people He believed that the Chippawa project was profitable, and, so far as the Government was concerned, that scheme would be rushed to completion. While power was urgently needed, financial conditions must be considered.

Important Conference Coming.

Another factor pointed out by the Premier was that the Dominion Government was operating railways. Sir Adam Beck, he continued, was going to Ottawa next week in connection with negotiations which might have an important effect on the whole radial situation. If the Dominion Government would sell at a price that the Hydro could afford to pay, it would have a very great bearing on whether the Province would go full speed ahead or slow up. Regarding the guarantee of the municipalities' bonds, the Premier said: "You say you are only asking the Government to guarantee your bonds. Can any Government collect from a municipality? It is the Province who is financing the thing, and must finance it finally and take responsibility for it. When we guarantee these bonds it has exactly the same effect on the credit of the Province as if the Province were putting it up."

The Premier said that the Government had no connection with the corporate interests. Broadly speaking, he declared, "they are in the camp against us."

PETERBORO CITIZENS MET LAST EVENING AND ENDORSED A PLEDGE—POTATOES FOR SEED.

OLEOMARGARINE

After a barrage of resolutions, counter resolutions and amendments by the women who attended the citizens meeting called last evening to discuss the High Cost of Living it was finally resolved by the sixty women present to buy no more potatoes for one month except for seed and that they would endeavour to enlist the citizens in the movement; also so that those who have potatoes hand their names to the Secretary of the Board of Trade expressing their willingness of sell a share at a reasonable price for seed purposes

The Purpose.

Mrs. W. R. Harstone who was appointed chairman of the meeting in explaining the purpose of the meeting stated that the Local Council of Women have received repeated requests from irate citizens to take some action in the matter of the high and ever soaring prices. The match however which had lighted the powder of indignation proved the potato, the price of which the people felt was neither justified by shortage or demand. It is considered unfortunate that the price should be so high at a time when the government is urging greater production in conclusion Mrs. Harstone urged free discussion of existing conditions.

The First Shot.

Mrs Arthur Stevenson fired the first shot in the discussion by a brief and comprehensive review of the oleomargarine question. Margarine, she stated would undoubtedly be off the market if some action is not taken. In answer to several of the charges of the dairy interests of the poor food value of oleomargarine Mrs. Stevenson had a large amount of literature proving that all charges were more or less unfounded. The Dominion Analyist, she pointed out has stated that it is as good as butter. Mrs. James Kendry stated that statistics show that the export of butter increased in 1919 when oleomargarine was on the market. The government should encourage the manufacture of it in order that our manufacturers might get the machinery that we may have it fresh. She said that in conversation with Mr. Matthews she had learned that the machinery required in the manufacture was expensive but easy to instal At present she said many of our farm women have discontinued the making of butter and several had told her that it is astonishing what price they could get for cream in Toronto. It pays them to ship the cream direct. "We ought to keep step with the dairymen in the movement," Miss Walton urged.

Finally on motion of Mrs. A. Stevenson, seconded by Mrs. W. R. Morris it was decided unanimously to ask the Federal Government to allow the permanent manufacture and sale of oleomargarine.

The Potato.

Mrs. S. T. Medd opened the discussion of the potato by stating that the papers indicate the boycott idea has not proved satisfactory and that such action merely results in the people depriving themselves to the benefit of the other side as long as there is no embargo placed on potatoes. Canadian women it was pointed out, can

COW PRODUCED 900 POUNDS OF BUTTER IN YEAR

WAS RAISED AND SOLD BY MR. T. J. HETHERINGTON OF PETERBORO COUNTY.

In the Jersey Bulletin and Dairy World for April 14, published in Indianapolis, Indiana, one of the widest read and most prominent dairy papers of the states, mention is made of a local dairyman in an article on the dairy herd at the University of British Columbia established by Professor J. A. McLean in November, 1916. This herd consists of five mature cows, a bull and two heifer calves. The cows are Brampton Lady Vancouver, Oak Park Venus, Lady Jane Champion, Violet of Avelreagh and Lily's Forget-me-not. At the head of the herd is Temisa's Owl's Rogue. The heifer calves are by this sire and from Brampton Lady Vancouver and Oak Park Venus, respectively. These cows were acquired in the late autumn of 1917 and the bull in the Spring of 1918.

The cows were all purchased from British Columbia breeders. Brampton Lady Vancouver was bred by Mr. T. J. Hetherington, of Peterboro, Ontario; the other females were all bred within the province.

The paper says this about this cow which was sold by Mr. Hetherington ten days before the war: Its record for one year is 900 pounds of butter. "Brampton Lady Vancouver was born in 1911. She was purchased for two hundred dollars. She is sired by Brampton Eminent Fox, a son of Arthur's Golden Fox out of Brampton Eminent Gilder. Her dam is May of Dentonia. She is a medium sized low set cow of splendid constitution capacity and dairy temperament. She possesses an udder of splendid shape and quality. Her head is beautifully typical and her quality is a delight to the knowing hand. There is not much tested ability close up in her pedigree, but she herself is proving a splendid feeder and a consistent performer. She finished her first year on R.O.P. in March, 1920, when she had over 12,000 pounds of milk and well over 700 pounds of fat."

EX-KAISER' SON AS A MOVIE STAR

EITEL FREDERIC FAILS TO MAKE LIVING IN AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS.

PARIS, April 30.—Many young German "noblemen," including the former Kaiser's second son, Eitel Frederic, are anxious to become movie stars, according to Winfield S. Sheehan, who has just returned to Paris from Berlin. Mr. Sheehan says that several counts, barons, dukes and princes have proposed to him that they be engaged to act before the screen.

They are at the end of their purses, and, presumably, have heard of the "fabulous" salaries paid to movie stars. Most of these young aristocrats wish to go to California and lead in cowboy and wild west pictures, in which the shooting and riding especially appeal to them.

Eitel Frederic is weary of the automobile business in which he has been engaged, and complains that he cannot make enough money at it to live respectably. Other scions of noble houses mournfully display, in proof that they are dead broke, the old clothes and celluloid collars they are wearing. Some have been driven to live in hall bedrooms.

The most essential requirement of any towel is that it should be soft, and should absorb moisture rapidly. An all-linen towel best meets these requirements.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A long list of don'ts calls forth a whole string of won'ts. And, though the will may be weak, the won't is strong.

If your friends are people whom you can take at their word, hang on to them. If not, get out from under before the crash comes.

* * * *

We used to hear a song something about, "It takes a little rain with the sunshine to make the world go 'round." And it depends on each individual whether that rain in their life will consist of April showers or steady, dismal downpours.

* * * *

Mushy people remind one a great deal of so called spoon bread. It is very soft and yielding, and looks quite tempting from the golden brown crust, but underneath it is quite common and tasteless. It is in no sense a delicacy, and for straight diet, a little will go a long ways. After all, it is only an imitation of the real thing.

* * * *

One's family are often very annoying in warnings, criticisms, and the exercise of authority, but they always stand by you at the showdown. The are ready to back you in whatever you have said or done, until they have positive proof that you are not worthy. Even then, they'll stand by you. Outsiders believe in you because it has never occured to them to do otherwise. Once a doubt is raised and a sacrifice involved, they don't care to take the trouble to support you. But a family is so much a unit of your everyday life that you never realize the large place it fills in your world until you lose it.

Irresponsible people often exercise a strong attraction when you don't know them to well. Anyone enjoys the sensation of being swept along on the tide of freedom, and throwing caution, and everything irksome, to the four winds, when someone else pays the fiddler. If you allow yourself to become connected with one of these fascinating irresponsible creatures you will fall heir to the job of paying the fiddler. Too late you will discover that they have no sense of time except their own; no conception of responsibility aside from their own pleasure, and a habit of dropping things conveniently wherever they last used them.

The usefulness of the telephone to modern business life cannot be over estimated, but sometimes, in some homes, its usefulness in modern home life scarcely makes up for its defects. It is the best little gossip spreader in existence. If there is some choice bit of news that you want the whole country-side to know within thirty minutes, call up some lady or a party line phone and tell her about it. Wait fifteen minutes and some one will call you and tell you the same piece of news but so disguised by frequent repetitions you can scarcely recognize it. Someone in an adjoining town tried to estimate statistically the amount of time wasted by the women of the town in a single morning talking to their friends over the telephone. After working on about one third of the town and finding the time wasted equivalent to something like four months he became discouraged and quit his job. For gossip spreaders and time wasters they certainly are a wonderful little invention.

It is very hard to teach young children the need of sanitation in their lives. They are still too near their babyhood days when everything form a red picture book to a hunk of coal went into their mouths as its natural resting place. When they first began to play with other children, the dread of being outdone taught them to eat dirt, pick up dead things and collect rubbish as a priceless treasure. Out of the last habit grew that pride of ownership reflected even in the things of another. All the careful rearing in the world doesn't always prevent the honor of "sharing and sharing alike" some prized article.

For instance, the teacher said to a small pupil one day:

"Mary, throw out your gum."

"The child seemed distressed and replied, "I can't."

"Why not?" the teacher asked.

"Because," said truthful Mary, "t'aint mine. It's Lilly's."

And in due time Lilly would probably be performing tortuous convolutions with the same piece of gum. Suppose either Mary or Lilly were careless with their teeth, had chronic indigestion, or a developing infectious disease. A mother cannot be too careful about such matters. Every little boy or girl ought to be taught not the sound, but the feeling of cleanliness. This knowledge is only acquired by persistent treatment, because all children are a great deal like the thy little pigs. They appear to thrive in dirt, but only during their younger days, seeming to flourish through perverseness. In later life the inevitably suffer from the effects of early injurious conditions.

In the spring when you're "all in"—fagged out—blood thin, if you will turn to Nature's remedy, a tonic made from wild roots and barks, which has stood fifty years as the best spring tonic—you will find strength regained. No need to tell you it's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, put up in tablet or liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. After a hard winter—shut up indoors, your blood needs a temperance tonic, a tissue-builder and blood-maker such as this "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's.

Sarnia, Ont.—"I was in a very bad condition. I could not eat without feeling distressed. Had indigestion so badly I was always in misery. I had liver trouble as well, and the two just put me down and out for about five years. I had many good doctors but got no relief. I took Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken two bottles I was much improved, and in less then six months I was well. I could eat anything and do my work with pleasure." —Mrs. Annie Marcom, 238 Bernard St.

A SPRING MARATHON.

I'm for a walk in the woods to-day—
Who wants to come along?
Ice-Bound for months, the little brooks
Begin their tinkling song.

In tender green the birch trees slim
Are gaily gossipping,
The maples hang long tassels out
To celebrate the Spring;

Young pussywillows preen themselves—
So softly gray and neat—
And velvet moss its carpet spreads
For pavement weary feet.

The birds are back—the world's awake—
From Winter's thrall set free—
Come, leave dull care at home, and take
A woodland tramp with me.

HOW ABOUT THE CAMPERS?

The Ontario Board of License Commissioners in making a ruling that persons having summer homes in the province, whether they be residents of Canada or of the United States are entitled to import liquor into such homes, has taken a common sense view of the situation. The Ontario Temperance Act permits individuals to import liquor for their own use and to be stored and consumed in their own homes. With many citizens the summer cottage at one of the lake resorts, is their domicile for two or three months in the year, and the commissioners appreciating this fact, have decided to permit them to have liquor in their summer homes. It is not explained, however, how far the ruling goes, nor just what will constitute a summer home in the eyes of the commissioners. In fact there is danger of class legislation in the latitude that is being granted if the privilege is only confined to those who have the good fortune to possess more or less pretentious summer cottages. How about the citizen who does not own a cottage, but who is accustomed each summer to pitch a tent on the bank of river or lake and make his headquarters there for a few weeks' outing under the blue sky? The tent is to all intents and purposes his domicile for the vacation period, just as much as is the bungalow of his wealthier neighbor. Will the commissioners' ruling cover the camper as well as the cottager? The answer will be of interest to many citizens," although with a referendum to prevent all importation of liquor coming soon, the matter may not be of much importance after this summer.

THE PRICE OF POTATOES.

In view of the meetings in Peterborough and most other cities throughout Canada, called for the purpose of considering ways and means to fight the high cost of living, particularly at the present time to endeavor to reduce the price of potatoes, it is interesting to read the farmers' side of the argument. Undoubtedly when the exorbitant cost of potatoes is being discussed by the average city dweller, the full blame for the situation is laid upon the shoulders of the farmers. The official organ of the Ontario farmers hastens to refute the charge.

"Women in many cities throughout the country are boycotting the lowly potato in an effort to reduce its price," says the Sun. "So far the only effect it has had is to increase the demand for bread and other foodstuffs which may be expected to show a corresponding advance.

"The farmer, as a matter of course is blamed for the high cost of potatoes, but we know of farmers who did not grow a single potato last year, owing to their inability to get help. Other farmers grew simply enough for themselves. In some cases the boycotting cry has had the effect of reducing the price paid to the farmers but the long list of middle men standing between producer and consumer have been the only ones to reap any benefit, as the low price has not been reduced to the consumer. The farmer is not the profiteer."

What puzzles the citizen who is asked to pay $5 or $6 a bag for potatoes on the local market, however, is that there is no "long list of middle men standing between producer and consumer" in that case.

THE SESSIONAL INDEMNITY.

The report that there is a movement on foot to increase the sessional indemnities of the members of the Dominion Parliament has, as might have been expected, aroused the ire of the official organ of the U.F.O., the Farmers' Sun, which remarks crisply that the members are not worth the $2,500 allowance they at present receive.

"According to information received from a very creditable source, The Farmers' Sun understands that a movement is on foot among the members of the House of Commons to increase their sessional indemnity to $4,000 says the article in the U. F. O. organ. Last year, by a rather adroit move, they held two sessions in the one year and managed to get away with $5,000.

"The country has a total debt of two billion and must raise an annual budget of between three and four hundred millions to pay the interest on our debt, to pay for the taking over of our railroads, to pay for soldiers' pensions and the ordinary Government expenditures. Canada's annual interest charge is more than $17 per head for every man, woman and child in the Dominion. Surely this indebtedness is sufficient without adding another half million a year, which would folow if the proopsed increase were granted the members of the House of Commons and Senators.

Possibly in no time in the history of the Dominion was the country so hampered with such an incompetent Government as at the present time. They failed miserably to provide leadership during the war and later in the reconstruction period, following the coming of peace. That they have absolutely lost the confidence of the public is shown by the long record of uninterrupted defeats in the bye-elections held. For these men, incompetent in office and minus the confidence of the public, to vote themselves an additional allowance is wholly unjustifiable. If the Union Government, or the Opposition for that matter, wishes to lose the last shred of respect, all they need to do is to vote themselves a larger sessional allowance. They are not worth the $2,500 they are getting at the present time, much less $4,000 per annum."

CONSTABLE MOORE IN KINMOUNT TO-DAY

High County Constable Moore is in Kinmount, to-day in connection with the Inland Revenue case that comes up before Magistrate Langley on Monday.

BOARD MAY INVESTIGATE THE PRICE OF POTATOES

OTTAWA, April 30.—Up to the present time the Board of Commerce has not decided to investigate the price of potatoes. The chairman, W. F. O'Connor, K.C., would not say this morning what reply would be given to the demand of a mass meeting of Ottawa women Tuesday for an inquiry into potato markets and prices. Although he had read the newspaper story of the meeting, the official communication of its result had not reached him yet. He intimated that time would be required to consider an official reply.

At the same time it is doubtful whether the Board of Commerce has the machinery to start and carry on a proper inquiry into the whole affair. They are confronted by issues of more far-reaching importance than potatoes, and their hands for the present seem to be full.

COPENHAGEN, April 30.—The Russian Soviet Commissioner, M. Nogin, in the course of an interview with the Social Demokraten, said that the Russian Trade Commission had arrived at Copenhagen to open negotiations with Great Britain and Denmark.

But, he added, "Gradually so many countries approached us that we are carrying on negotiations for the delivery of commodities in greater quantities than ever offered by any other country in the world."

"We are endeavoring to fix up large contracts with Sweden, Norway, the United States, Spain and Italy. M. Nogin said that a clearing house had been started for this business, assisted by internatinal financiers, with direct co-operation of the Russian Ministry of Commerce."

CONSTABLE MOORE BOASTS OF KILLING NURSES

IN RUHR DISTRICT.

Reichswehr Corporal, a Medical Student, Says All Red Prisoners Were Butchered.

PARIS, April 29.—The following letter, which has been sent, to his paper by the correspondent of the Journal des Debats at Strassbourg, was written by a Reichswehr soldier of the Epp Brigade in the course of the advance against the Communist troops in the Ruhr district.

The writer's name is Max Zeller. He is a medical student, and the letter was written to the personnel of the hospital where he was finishing his training. He wrote:

"Winscherhafen, between Mamm and Dortmund, April 2.

"Dear Sisters and Dear Sick People,—I arrived here this morning, and have at last joined my company. At one o'clock in the afternoon we made our first attack. If I could tell you all you would really understand what these phrases mean. We gave no quarter. Even the wounded were shot. The enthusiasm is enormous, almost unbelievable. Our battalion had only two dead; the Reds between 200 and 300. All who fell into our hands were finished with the butts of our rifles. At the end we gave a bullet, just to make sure.

"During the fight I could think only of the nurses at Station A. What happened was that we shot ten Red Cross nurses. Each of them was carrying a revolver. It was a pleasure to fire on those disgusting creatures. How they cried and prayed! But whoever is found carrying arms is considered an enemy and executed. During the war we were much more polite to the French. What do you in the hospital think of that?

"The people here give us all we want. One can fill one's self up to the eyes with drink in the cafes. My address is Corporal Max Zeller, Student, 11th Company, Epp Brigade, Post Rohra, Westphalia."

The mere fact that some brands of baking powder have the words "No Alum" on the label is not sufficient proof that they are what they are represented to be. Our chemists find a good many have "No Alum" on the outside but large quantities of it inside.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

SANDRA REBELS AT MISS LANE'S COMMAND.

CHAPTER CX

I had commenced to go out again. I felt strong and well, and had never been so happy since my marriage. I had almost forgotten that there ever was a "number one," and that I was "number two." I could even pass Leola's picture without hating her, and it. Everett had commenced to go out again and was not quite so thoughtful and considerate — so I thought. But even so, I had my boy—when Miss Lane did not interfere.

One day I was going for a walk. "Junior," as we called him, had just wakened, but had not yet been bathed. I told Hetty to get his carriage and she could go with me and push him.

"We will go into the park, then I can sit down if I get tired," I told her.

"I am sorry to disappoint you, Mrs. Graham, but it will be impossible for you to take the baby," Miss Lane, who was in the room, remarked.

"Why not? It is a lovely, warm morning. It will do him good."

"I never allow any of my babies to go out until they have been bathed."

I looked at her in amazement. She had said "MY babies" too. Really, it was ridiculous! Junior was MY baby.

"As long as he is My Baby, not yours, I shall do as I think best," I replied with, what I thought, fine dignity.

"Mr. Graham gave me sole charge The child must be cared for as I say, or I shall not stay with him."

"Very well. Suit yourself as to that," I said boldly, but frightened as to what the outcome would be.

As usual I then thought fate was against me. Everett had forgotten some important papers, and had turned back to get them himself rather than send a messenger.

I did not know he was in the house until he came into the nursery to take another look at HIS son.

"You both look veryq solemn. The boy isn't ill?" he said in an anxious voice as he leaned over the bed (Miss Lane wouldn't let baby have a crib).

"He is perfectly well!" I replied, and my voice trembled a little in spite of all my effort to keep it calm. "I am going for a walk, and am going to take him with me in his carriage. Hetty will go to push him," I added, as I saw a look of dissent on his face. "It is such a lovely morning, it will do him good."

"I think so too. But why such sober faces over a walk?"

"Miss Lane has seen fit to say he can't go."

Everett turned to Miss Lane, but before she could speak my indignation got the better of my judgment and I flared:

"You would think me the nurse and her the mother, to hear her talk. It is really too amusing for an old maid to tell a mother what she shall do with her own baby!"

The words were scarcely out of my mouth before I would have given anything to take them back. Everett's face hardened into the lines I knew so well. His lips straightened.

"That will do, Sandra. I am sure you do not realize what you are saying. Because of your late illness Miss Lane will, I am sure, forgive your unladylike outburst. Now tell me what it is all about, Miss Lane." He turned to her as if to ignore anything coming from me.

Her face had flushed, then she had turned very pale at my speech But her eyes, cold and hard, held a look of dislike in them. She never had been actively unpleasant even toward me—simply professional in her manner. I saw plainly that now she would always hate me for saying what I had—before Everett.

"I told Mrs. Graham I never allowed any of my babies to go out until after they had been bathed. She saw fit to take exceptions to my saying 'my babies' and also to my custom."

I was surprised that she had repeated her exact words and thought it might make Everett understand something of how I felt. But he only turned coldly to me and said:

"Miss Lane is in charge of Junior. Whatever she says is best for him, must be done. I must go now Sandra, will you come to the door with me?"

I meekly followed.

"You will apologize to Miss Lane at once, remember, at once!" and without another word, the angry frown still on his face, he left.

POOL OF ASPHALT IS TRAP FOR ANIMALS

A pool of asphalt si miles east of Los Angeles is the most remarkable puddle in the United States, having served for ages as nature's trap to catch all kinds of luckless animals. It is 00 feet in diameter and solid at the edges while softer and thicker towards the middle. It has invited animals to take a short cut across, and once a foot was caught struggles to escape were hopeless.

Since very ancient times the puddle has been a place of burial for countless victims, there being skeletons of elephants, camels, mastodons, saber-toothed tigers, huge cats and antelopes. Deeper down are skeletons of animals no longer known on earth. In the pool are even the bones of birds, eagles and condors, which were doubtless attracted by the animals struggling in the trap. One species of bird represented was that of a gigantic fellow with leg bones bigger than those of a man.

This natural trap has offered valuable instruction to science, it being the greatest opportunity ever offered for the study of the evolution of animal life from ancient times to the present.

OPEN CONFESSIONS

(By H. F. GADSBY)

There is reason to believe that the old-fashioned campaign fund will survive in spite of the statement of account furnished by Gould of Assiniboia. The general verdict is that the campaign fund is inherited in human nature. Men will do a great deal for other men for love—but not everything. Not everything—that is where the election expenses come in.

Mr. Gould's account of contributions and disbursements—the patient's face, as it were, before and after taking—really contains nothing that would throw discredit on the good old way of getting it where you can, and spending it where it will do the most good for the candidate.

It includes rent of halls, travelling expenses of speakers, cab and automobile hire—aeroplanes are not being used as yet—newspaper advertising and other items usually found in expense accounts. I do not see it stated anywhere, but I have no doubt that the brass band that blows its head off for either party got its share, also that the torches for the torchlight procession, the engrossed address, and the fat bouquet presented to the candidate by the little girl with thin legs in white stockings, were all generously paid for. We are used to these trimmings at elections and can't get along without them.

Pared right down to the bone, as Mr. Gould says it was, it is still a neat little account-in round numbers, four thousand dollars which, reckoning pro rata, Mr. Mowat said, would mean a campaign fund for the Dominion of $1,200,000. Western members, looking over the account, tell me that names appear on it as accepting twenty-five or thirty dollars for expenses, whose owners have a hundred thousand dollars or more to their credit. Which goes to show that all is not charity even among the United Farmers. Patriotism and public service are all right, but the laborer, as the Bible says, is worthy of his hire, so let him get away with it even if he doesn't need the money.

Doubtless Mr. Gould did not buy votes, but even if he had bought them the item would not appear in his expense account. Expense accounts are always kept sanitary and if money is used to buy votes, it is not handed to the candidate or his agents who are expected to testify on oath that they know nothing about it. Beyond question Mr. Gould's was a pure election, but if it hadn't been Mr. Gould would still remain unsmirched. The practise, where there is a slush fund, is not to let the honorable candidate's right hand know what the dishonorable, disowned and sinister left hand is doing.

WAYS OF GETTING ROUND.

The old parties who have been dealing with human nature for the last fifty years are not as keen on fifty cent contributions as Mr. Gould. Mr. McMaster, who is perhaps as strict a moralist as any farmer in the House, foresees the possibility of an individual philanthropist who might want to contribute as much as $10,000 for a candidate of high purpose. There may not be many such philanthropists in Canada, but Mr. McMaster doesn't want them barred out on account of any fifty cent limit to the game. He probably represents an overwhelming majority in the House of Commons. He would make $10,000 the limit of any one man's personal contribution to the campaign fund but that would present no insuperable difficulty to the large corporation which would doubtless comply with the law by allocating contributions of ten thousand dollars and less among a number of their stockholdess.

The solemn truth is that campaign funds are always employed on behalf of one interest or another. It comes to one's mind that even such a hero as John Bright—he must be the idol of the free trade farmers—was helped by Liverpool and Manchester merchants with a fund of $7,500,000 to spread their gospel and his, among the voters. What motive could be purer than John Brights' and what campaign fund could have been larger? Similarly Welch's Grape Juice was chipped in half a million dollars to carry prohibition in the United States, not because Welch's Grape Juice was interested in the moral side of the question, but because Welch's Grape Juice knew that, the hard stuff being barred, people would drink more grape juice and Mr. Welch would get back twenty dollars for every one put he put in. That is the way with all campaign funds. They cast their bread upon the waters to have it come back buttered.

Mr. Gould did not deny—indeed he did not have the argument presented to him—that the John Bright fund and the Grape Juice fund were as pure as the driven snow, but he rather implied that all Canadian Campaign funds except those of the United Farmers, the Grain Sowers Association and the Trade and Labor funds, were under suspicion. He seemed to class his fund with the Y.M.C.A., the Dominion Alliance, the Church Forward Movement and other uplift disbursements. He failed to put this point over, the average member of parliament refusing to see any difference between a fund which is employed to elect farmers, and a similar fund employed to elect any other class of the community.

The farmer members of Parliament—the farmers, that is to say, who are loyal to the old parties—made a dead set on M. Gould's, superior pretensions. They argued that the farming interest like every other interest has always had representation in Parliament and that what is sauce for Mr. Gould's goose is just as good sauce for the other fellow's gander. Mr. Gould himself admits that the farmer, who contributes fifty cents to his campaign fund regards him as a candidate and will get his fifty cents worth out of him or recall him for deriliction of duty. What, asks Farmer Best of Dufferin, does this mean—that a farmer owns the candidate because he has bought him for fifty cents! ! ! It looks like bearing the market!

HE RISES TO EXPLAIN.

Open confessions being the order of the day the Hon. Mackenzie King has stated his reason for not going to the war. The reasons were good, but the explanation was quite unnecessary. No doubt Leader King has been goaded into this by jibes covert and overt, but to all such it was his to reply by looking at almost any Cabinet Minister and saying, "Why didn't you go" To which the right and proper answer would be as Mackenzie King's is, "I could do more for the war at home."

I venture to say that Mackenzie King did quite as much to win the war by settling strikes in United States munition factories as did any Cabinet Minister over forty years of age at Parliament Hill, Ottawa. And when it came to people depending upon him, Mackenzie King had more than his share. In fact his domestic troubles were nothing short of a tragedy, which it took a brave heart to sustain.

This baiting Mackenzie King for his war record—which is one to be proud of—has gone quite far enough. The war is over—two years over—it has become history and history let it remain. Mr. King did his full duty—did it better than many a politician who is trading now on what his dead son—or his wounded one did at the front. They speak of their "sacrifices"—sacrifices which they were at least as ready to make as Abraham was to offer up Isaac. It was the sons who went to the war that made the sacrifices, not the politican fathers, who stayed at home and talked about it. They are still talking about it—the sacrifice is looking for votes. The thing has become nauseating. Mark Twain had the same sort of post-morten hero in his mind when he made his famous joke about being "willing to sacrifice his wife's relations."

PRESIDENT BEATTY ON Y. M. C. A. WORK.

In a foreword to an attractive little pamphlet issued by the Railway Y.M.C.A. of Canada, Mr. E. W. Beatty, President of the C.P.R., pays a tribute to the work of this association.

"The high value of the work," says Mr. Beatty, "of the Young Men's Christian Association in the interests of men and boys has come to be generally and properly recognized, particularly on account of its efforts and accomplishments on behalf of our soldiers during the recent world war.

"Among the various spheres of the Association's activities not the least valuable is the work of the Railway Branches which minister to the intellectual, the social, the moral and the physical needs of railway men irrespective of race or creed.

"The inception of this work on the Canadian Pacific Railway dates back to 1906 when the building at Revelstoke, B.C., was erected, and so well satisfied were the Company's officers with the experiment tried there that 9 additional branch associations have since been established. These provide home surroundings and comforts for men in train service when away from home and to many employees located at outlying points they afford the only home facilities that are available to them.

"It is not only that good meals and clean beds and baths are provided, but the educational advantages, the recreational facilities and the opportunities for social intercourse amidst wholesome surroundings must necessarily contribute to the well being of the men and benefit the community in which they live, and the Company with which they are employed.

"The eminently satisfactory results of this work on the Canadian Pacific lines in the past for which I desire to express my admiration and appreciation, have without doubt been achieved through the earnest and cordial co-operation of the Company's employees with the Association's officers and staffs, and with the continuance of their united efforts the future success of the work can, I feel sure, be confidently entrusted to them."

The Railway Y.M.C.A. provided 140,000 beds to railway men and served 328,000 meals in 1919. Its buildings are valued at $580,000.

MILLBROOK CORRESPONDENCE

MILLBROOK, April 29.—The I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs of Millbrook paraded to St. Thomas' Church on Sunday evening. The church was filled to the door, and Rev. Mr. Spencer delivered a very able sermon taking as his text 1st Peter 2, 17: Honour all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honour the king.

Before commencing the service, he welcomed the Oddfellows to the church. He then referred to the order as being one hundred and one years old. It is an ancient and honourable society. His sermon was greatly appreciated by all present.

The singing by the choir and congregation was also hearty, and altogether the service was inspiring and helpful.

Suffered With Boils

Last 5 Years.

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery it at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B.B.B. has been on the market for over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded, or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

THE TRENT WATERWAY

Still Attracting Attention in the United States.

In the March number of 'Country Life', one of the best of American out-door-life publications, Mr. Albert L. Judson, President of the American Power Boat Association, writes an interesting articles on motor boating in connection with the prospects for enjoyment by tourists. In the following quotation the Trent Waterway comes in for a flattering notice. "At noon the next day we are at Whitehall when we enter the lower stretches of Lake Champlain, where the glorious mountains rubbing their green and purple sheen gently against the summer skies, excite our admiration and awe, and add to our feeling of self-satisfaction for having been wise enough to investigate at first hand the pleasures of motor boat cruising. And thus it goes. We may linger long on the lake, loafing, swimming, fishing, eating aboard or at the many excellent hotels, just as our own sweet fancy may command us. Or we may go on through the Canadian canals up to the St. Lawrence, where the motor boat is in its utmost glory, where bad luck can hardly attend our fishing orders, where life is just what we wish to make it from the ultimate in simplicity to socially complex. When we reach the St. Lawrence the whole world is open to our cruising desires. We may elect to navigate the newly opened Trent Canal, in Canada, which has opened to the motor boat man an enormous new territory for his peregrinations, surpassed by none in the world. We may then go through the great lakes to Chicago, thence down the wonder-path of the Mississippi River, around the Florida Keys, and come north by the beautiful and interesting inside route."

Now, Mr Judson, we expect you along this summer and from your visit the fishing, scenery and variety will give you many reminiscences for further articles on this beautiful waterway on your later issues of 'Country Life'.

It will be interesting to know who will be the first in Peterborough to traverse the whole route from Peterborough to Midland.

FLORIDA WATER WAS VERY FULL OF PEP

Crown Attorney Asks For Ruling on Sale of Face Lotion.

ST. THOMAS, April 29.—The Florida water seized by the police in the back premises of Hector Welch, barber, according to the evidence of City Analyst McLachlin at the police court possesed 85 per cent. and pep 48.

At the hearing of Welch before the magistrate the accused testified that the alleged miniature still was used for mixing hair tonic and not for the manufacture of intoxicants.

John Grieves, the chief witness, swore to the purchase of a couple of bottles both as a hair tonic and for an internal bath.

Grieves said he mostly used the liquor as a reviver, his hair at the time being on the prohibitory list. The stuff was sold to him by an assistant at the shop named Lindsay.

Grieves gave the mixture an excellent character as to to its intoxicating qualities, and was corroborated by the city analyst who declared that he was very particular to whom he sold the face lotion.

Crown Attorney McCrimmon did not desire to go to extremes with the accused, but asked that the local authorities take drastic measures to put an end to the sale of this dangerous stuff, which makes men both drunk and demented. The magistrate reserved judgment.

It takes much less philosophy to take things as they come than to part with them as they go.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. Favour, 816 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

GIVE $500 EACH TO THE G.W.V.A. AND 57TH REGIMENTAL BANDS

RECOMMENDATION OF THE PARKS COMMITTEE TO THE COUNCIL—ALD. CROWE HOLDS OUT FOR ONE BAND AND SHOWS HOW IT COULD BE GOT.

Five hundred dollars each to the G.W.V.A. and 57th Regimental bands for two series of ten concerts to be played in the city parks this Summer upon the designation of the chairman, Ald. Gainey, was the recommendation of the Parks committee to the Council last night Ald. Whitehouse moved the motion and Ald. Gordon seconded it.

"I won't move an amendment because I can't get the support in this committee," declared Ald. Crowe, who disagreed with the proposal to divide the $1,000 appropriation for music. According to his plan the Council should engage Mr. Rupert Gliddon to provide the music in the parks by a band of thirty members, including himself, of his own selection, each bandsman to be paid two dollars and the conductor four for each concert at a total cost of $806 for the entire season.

Mayor McIntyre declined to vote, saying that he was not satisfied as how the fund should be disposed of.

"I want to know," said the Mayor, "whether there is anything in what Ald. Crowe says about the G.W.V.A. being on its last legs."

"It depends on whether they want this grant or not," Ald. Crowe replied.

"Well, let's help them," Ald. Gordon suggested, and the motion carried with the votes of Aldermen Whitehouse and Gordon.

What Other Cities Give.

Following Peterboro's obsession of enquiring into problems similar to those arising here, letters received from three cities were read by the City Clerk. Guelph is making only one grant of $1200 for public music; Brantford had nothing to report yet; and St. Catherines gave $1000 last year to the 19th Regimental band for thirteen concerts, and this year is increasing the grant to $1,500.

Asked for $600 Each.

Ald. Gainey recalled the offers of the two local bands under consideration. Each asked for $600 for a series of thirteen concerts.

Ald. Whitehouse suggested that the $1,600 be equally divided this year, and that definite policy be decided upon for next year.

Ald. Gainey—"We could engage each of them to play seven concerts for $350. That would be a total cost of $700, and they could play alternate weeks."

Ald. Crowe—"If you are going to divide I think the Salvation Army should be included."

Referring to Ald. Whithouse's motion Ald. Gainey asked whether the number of bandsmen would be specified.

Not Employing Them.

Ald. Whitehouse—"No, we will see how they treat us. This is purely a grant. We are not employing them. We are not in that position and for that reason I don't think we should make restrictions."

Ald. Crowe—"You are in a position to pay them if you have one band. It would cost $806 and you would have $189 left."

Ald. Whithouse—"Have you heard the 57th band recently?"

Ald. Crowe—"I heard them last Sunday afternoon. They played the "Pique Dame" overture fine. They are a splendid institution. I'm in favour of the leader picking out the best men he can get. He would perhaps want four or five men out of the Veterans."

Ald. Whitehouse—"They haven't appeared publicly you know since the war."

Ald. Crowe—"The leading man with the Aladdin Company is the sole trombonist, and there are other newcomers who have joined them."

Ald. Gordon—"If the 57th is a military band why doesn't the Government support it."

Ald. Crowe—"They won't do it. The band gets only $100, and the men get pay for rehersals and parades at the same rate as when on duty."

TRIAL OF LANDUR, FRENCH BLUEBEARD

PROOF OF FATE OF 11 OF HIS WOMEN FRIENDS IN HANDS OF JUSTICE.

PARIS, April 30.—The trial of Landur, the French "Bluebeard," will probably begin early in June. The prosecution have collected all the necessary evidence, and, acording to rumor, the dossier contains proof of the fate of eleven of Landur's women friends. "Bluebeard" remains as mute as an oyster, but is an ideal prisoner. He gives no trouble, and displays the greatest courtesy and an almost angelic temper during the trying ordeals he has to undergo before the examining magistrate.

It is said that the prosecution will produce expert proofs that the bodies of four women were incinerated in Landur's stove at the Gambais villa, and furnish strong circumstantial evidence that six other women and the son of one of the victims were murdered.

Although all researches have failed to show how these seven were done to death or what became of their bodies, the experts after long experiments and difficult analysis, have proved that the calcined bone fragments found among the heap of cinders om the stove belong to four different women.

The experts burned a leg of mutton and a calf's head in the stove to test its powers of combustion. The former was entirely consumed in forty-five minutes, the latter in half an hour. "Bluebeard" commented on this fact by saying: "It simply proves my coal is good and my stove draws well."

The prosecution seek to peove the murder of seven other persons by producing a quantity of their belongings found in Launder's residences, including lingeries, clippings of women's hair, daintily tied with ribbon, and other personal effects. The prevailing view is that "Bluebeard" shot the women in cold blood between the courses at dinner.

PRICE OF POTATOES CUTS CONSUMPTION

DROPS FROM 15 CARS A DAY TO 10 CARS A WEEK IN TORONTO.

TORONTO, April 30.—The high prices of potatoes and the boycott declared by a number of women's organizations aparently have managed to produce considerable effect between them. The local consumption of the tubers has taken a remarkable drop, the decrease being from the normal rate of 15 cars per day to 10 cars per week. In spite of this, however, the prices appear unaffected.

The suggestion has been made in some circles that the placing of an embargo on the export of potatoes to th United States is the only means of bringing prices to normal levels in Canada. Whether or not this action will be taken remains in doubt, but the fear is expressed that the prevailing high prices will result in a serious curtailment of the planting this Summer. The planting season is only a few weeks off and there is the possibility that the high cost of seed will force many growers to curtail their acreage. If such happens, the situation next Winter promises to be serious.

FORMER KING LUDWIG IS BACK IN BAVARIA

BERLIN, April 30.—Former King Ludwig has returned to one of his castles in Bavaria from Switzerland, where he had lived since the revolution, according to the Morgan Post.

It has been reported for some time that the aged Ludwig had made plans to return to Bavaria this Spring. He completed his 75th birthday last January.

WAS ASTONISHED AT THE CHANGE

HAD SUFFERED FOR TWO YEARS—GAINS NEW STRENGTH AND COURAGE AFTER TAKING TANLAC.

"I am glad to give you this testimonial, for Tanlac has done so much for me," said Mrs. Alphonse Clontier, of 181 Victoria street, Quebec, to a Tanlac representative today.

"For two years previous to taking this wonderful medicine," she continued, "I was in a very weakened state as the result of indigestion and a disordered stomach. The very least thing in the way of heavy food caused me great distress. Bitter liquid would come up into my mouth and the gas would press against my heart and lungs so as to cause palpitation and shortness of breath. I used to get awfully low spirited and at night I could not sleep. Many a time I have spent a whole night without closing an eye and the next morning I would be in a state of utter collapse. I tried many medicines without getting any relief and my weakness was getting greater every day."

"I heard Tanlac being praised by so many people that I decided to try a bottle myself. I am now finishing my second bottle and the change that has taken place in my health is really astonishing. I never would have believed it possible for two bottles of Tanlac to do so much. It has relieved me of all my stomach trouble and I can eat anything I want without the least bit of trouble afterwards. The gas has quit forming and I am no longer troubled with heart palpitation or the shortness of breath. My sleep is now restful and unbroken and in the mornings I get up feeling fine and ready to do my housework. I have regained my energy and courage and can truthfull say that my health is better today than it ever was. My aged mother is also taking Tanlac and has derived great comfort and benefit from its use. I cannot recommend this medicine too highly, and I hope this statement will lead others who suffer as I did from general weakness and a disordered stomach to try Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock by A. C. Deninke; in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert by A. I. Scott; in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

The First Day of Progressive Month at The Cressman Store

Time Worn and Discolored Books and Letters

Often seem of little value, but always they chronicle the experiences of others. Experiences of objectives lost or gained, mistakes or successes. Past experiences are really finger posts that advise and direct. You can follow or disregard.

There are many musty books in the vault of this company that relate interesting transactions in buying and selling. Sometimes we find it necessary to refer to them and are benefited by their advice. By the light of past experiences we direct the affairs of this store and plan improvements that will enable us to serve this community still better, The month of May will be Progressive Month at the Cressman Store.

The Cressman Co., Ltd.

WE call it progressive month because we are determined to make it the most progressive thirty-one days that this establishment has ever known. Not from a dollar and cents point of view—but from a standpoint of service and co-operation. There will be special values too, and these below are a fair example of what the price concessions will be. But the main purpose of Progressive Month is to improve our service and make new friends for this store. : : : :

MANUFAGTURERS BLAME HYDRO FOR THE SHORTAGE OF POWER

HAS SOLD MORE POWER THAN IT CAN DELIVER AND FINDS IT MORE CONVENIENT TO VIOLATE CONTRACTS, ONTARIO ASSOCIATION COMPLAINS.

TORONTO, April 30.—Sir Adam Beck, the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario and the city were the subject of vigorous attacks at the meetings of the Ontario division of the Canadian Manufacturers Association and the Toronto branch at their meetings at the King Edward Hotel to-day. The former were assailed on account of the shortage of power and the alleged violation of contracts and the city on acount of the proposal to tax manufacturers' dividends and the "crushing taxation now imposed.

It was the first annual meeting of the former association, born on October 6th, 1919. Mr. J. R. Shaw, Woodstock, vice-president, presided at the meeting and following his address the election of officers took place when Mr. Shaw was elected chairman and Mr. W. C. Coulter vice-chairman.

The report of the secretary, Mr. H. Macdonald, said that three new branches were organized during the past year, one each at Niagara Falls, Peterboro and Brantford, making five branches, with a total membership of 1,244, of whom 910 were in Toronto.

Permanent Tariff Board.

The executive committee gave a chronological review of its activities since the formation of the division, referring among other things to the Government that a Permanent Tariff Board be appointed. It also asked the Ontario Government that the repeal of the Moratorium Act should be delayed six months after proper notice had been given. Some interesting statistics were given showing that the value of Ontario products were $1,267,000,000 as compared with $2,801,0000,000 for the whole of Canada. Of the former amount $450,000,000 were farm products, minerals $[illegible],000,000, timber $50,000,000 and manufactured, $715,000,000.

The annual product would pay off the entire direct bonded debt of the Province over 22 times and do it each year, the report adds. Such facts led them to regard the future with cheerfulness and hopefulness.

Attack Hydro Commission

A special report of the Niagara Falls Branch dealt with the shortage of power and the curtailment of the supply to the municipalities. They complained to Sir Adam Beck about the large manufacturers not being compelled to reduce their load and were informed that these were under the Ontario Power Company and the commission had no jurisdiction. They said that the small consumers had contracts as well as the large ones, and were told that they could not collect any damages on the contracts and that, therefore, the commission felt safe in disregarding them inorder to meet the emergency. The commission admitted that they could not control the domestic consumption.

"The commission," the report proceeded, "has sold more power than it can deliver and under the above conditions the commission finds it more convenient to violate its contracts with the manufacturers and sees in this the most expedient way to overcome their present difficulties, therefore an autocratic order has been issued and the manufacturers are the ones to suffer."

"The question is," says the report, "are we going to submit without a vigorous protest to the autocratic ruling of a Government commissioner? This commission considers a contract made by itself as one party or assumed by itself as absolutely worthless and is content to relieve itself of it by simply stating that there is a scarcity of power."

The report asks why the commission should continue to make contracts and sell more power when they well knew that they had sold more power than they could deliver. The commission was running its equipment to the extreme limit without reserve equipment. Could any private organization which held its contracts sacred or which knew it was liable for damages for breach of contract afford to take such chances?

"It seems high time," it proceeds, 'to find out if a Provincial Government commission can assume a position of absolute autocracy, disregard its sacred contracts, disclaim all liability for damages in so doing and fail absolutely to take proper and reasonable precautions to hold itself in a position to fulfil its obligations.

The branch submitted a resolution setting forth its complaints and resolving that the matter be brought to the attention of the Power Commission so that it may leave no stone unturned to meet the pressing need of many industries for power.

Another resolution submitted was that the Dominion Government take steps to develop Canada's lignite, peat and other fuel and power resources.

LOCAL GIRL HAD A NARROW ESCAPE

Miss Maud Roddy, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Roddy, 384½ Water street, had a narrow escape from death on Sunday morning at 8.11 o'clock when during the fire at the Union Station at Toronto she was rescued from the building by her temporary roommate, Miss McKinnon.

Miss Roddy, who has been cashier at the Canadian Railway News Company for the past twenty-four years, had come to live in the station building for a few days and was at the time of the fire asleep in her room just above the room in which the fire started. Dashing through the burning building to the room in which Miss Roddy was sleeping and which had been practically cut off by the flames and smoke Miss McKinnon, who had been relieving Miss Roddy, carried her to safety below. "It was a plucky rescue," the fireman commented. In conveying the news of her escape Miss Roddy made light of the whole affair to her mother assuring her that she was all right and back at work on Sunday evening.

HAVE A GARDEN

The time for fun, work, sweat, bugs, weeds, successes and disappointments in gardening is started.

During 1918, boys and girls, men and women of Canada and the United States grew five hundred million dollar bills in their back yards; That would be a real crop; it is the value of all the garden stuff grown in small gardens that year.

If you are going to have a garden this year, why not lay it out according to a plan? Draw it to scale on paper before you start. By this you will be able to buy the quantities of seeds intelligently and to plant in proper order.

Put in one general group small plants like beets, onions, lettuce, carrots, radishes, and parsnips. In another general group put larger plants like corn, tomatoes and potatoes. Spreading ground vines, like melons and cucumbers, which need wider spacing should be put in another general group. The reason for this grouping is that the various plants in a group need similar general treatment as well as spacing.

In making a plan provide space in which to enter costs and yields of the various crops. This will give you a complete record, which will be useful another year. Another helpful use of the plan is that it will guide you in the rotation of next year's crops. For this purpose save your plan for next season.

In the location of a garden, it is not always possible to choose conditions as to sunlight. It is important, therefore, that in the arrangement of the various kinds of vegetables which are to be planted, due care should be given to providing the greatest exposure to the sun for those crops which need it most. Those plants which must ripen their fruits, such as tomatoes and egg-plant, require the greatest amount of sunshine; while lettuce, spinach, kale, and other leaf crops require relatively less. Foliage crops must have at least three hours of sunlight a day and plants which ripen fruits at least five hours a day. This is important.

HEART SO BAD

WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Vatem-a, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines, and took several different kinds but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them. Before I had taken more than two boxes I could see that they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS TO THE REV. AND MRS. DOUGALD BROWN

PLEASANT EVENT AT PARK STREET BAPTIST CHURCH LAST EVENING.

A most pleasant evening was spent by the members of Park street Baptist church last evening when the congregation gathered to bid farewell to Rev. and Mrs. D. Brown. Rev. Mr. Fraser, pastor of Gilmour Baptist church, occupied the chair. A choice programme, consisting of piano and violin solos, duets and readings was given, also addresses by Rev. Mr. Fraser, Rev. J. R. Webb and Mrs. Morrison.

Mr. O. S. Matchett then called upon Rev. and Mrs. Brown to come to the platform, when he read the following illuminated address, which was beautifully framed:

The Address.

Peterborough, April 27, 1920.

Rev. and Mrs. D. Brown,

Pastor Park St. Baptist Church:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Brown,—It was with deep regret that we learned of your intended departure as our pastor and leader for the past five years from amongst us.

We are very thankful that God directed you to us and that we secured your leadership at the time we did.

Your interpretation of His word from Sunday to Sunday and your deep interest in all our church matters has been a great help to us.

We also wish to express to Mrs. Brown the great loss we shall feel in all the different organizations of our church, in which she was so deeply interested, through your removal.

We pray that God's blessing may rest upon you both in whatever vineyard you may be called upon to work in, and may you both be spared to labour together for the Master's kingdom for many years to come. And we trust we may have you to revisit Park street church from time to time when you will receive a warm welcome.

We therefore could not let you go without in some way showing our appreciation of your services, and we would ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of our love and esteem.

Signed on behalf of the Park street Baptist church—

Harry Goodwin, Church Clerk.

John H. Haw, Chairman Deacons' Board.

Oscar S. Matchett, Chairman Finance Board.

James I. Mabee, Superintendent of the Sunday school.

Mrs. Jas. Garside, President Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. W. C. Barrie, President Mission Circle.

Neal F. Porter, President B.Y.P.U.

Mrs. Robt. Wright, Secretary Mission Band.

Ed. Pemberton, Choir.

Well Filled Purse.

At the proper moment a well-filled purse was presented to Mr. Brown by Mrs. Batley, while pretty Miss Eileen White presented a beautiful bouquet of roses and carnations to Mrs. Brown. Another interesting event also took place when Mrs. (Rev.) Brown presented to Mrs. Wilbert O'Neill, a life membership certificate in the Mission Circle for the late Mrs. Armitage.

Mr. Brown very feelingly replied.

Refreshments Served.

The ladies then served refreshments, after which "Blest be the Tie" was sung and benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Webb.

Rev. Mr. Brown preaches his farewell sermons on Sunday next, leaving next week for Scotland, Ont., where he goes with the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

No doubt large congregations will be at Park street church next Sunday to hear Mr. Brown's farewell sermon.

FI-FI OF THE TOY SHOP

Fi-Fi, the extravaganza produced under the auspices of the Belmont Club at the Grand Opera House last night by a capable caste of local amateurs under the directions of Mr. John P. Allen of the John B. Rogers producing company, proved a very enjoyable and clever entertainment that succeeded in thoroughly pleasing a very large audience. The performance was carried through with a very commendable snap and vim and any little stage awkwardness that was developed served as a reminder that the performers were amateurs rather than detracted from the enjoyment of the occasion.

Fi-Fi is distinguished by a clever plot which provides many opportunities for rich comedy, and allows the introduction of dances and drills and other specialties of a highly pleasing nature. It is embellished with a musical score of delightful tunefulness that does not lose any of its claim by reason of the fact that such well known of favourities as Victor Herbert's Toyland Waltz from "Babes In Toyland," and Nursery Rhymes number from "The Gingerbread Man" are introduced.

Bonnie, daughter of a toy-maker is put into a magic sleep by the Sandman and has a wonderful dream in which the dolls and toys in her father's shop come to life. The adventures that befall her and the toys constitute the action of the play and provide an entertainment that is unique and charming.

The work of the principals is uniformly excellent, the caste handling themselves with a nonchalance and ebolness that are unusual in amateur performers. Particularly is this true of Miss Hazel Davidson as the toy-maker's daughter and Miss Helen McLaren in the title role. Miss Davidson plays the part of Bonnie with a deft touch of realism, making the role stand out as one of the features of the production, while Miss McLaren not only does some charming acting as Fi-Fi but adds greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion by her delightful singing. Miss Jean Herbison as "Inkspot" the negro doll and Miss Mabel Patterson as Loosey the rag doll contribute very amusing comedy parts, while Miss Mamie Cottingham as the witch and Miss Daisy Stocker as the Fairy add much to the success of the occasion by their effective work. Miss Greta Lebarr is the singing doll and lives up to her part by rendering several vocal numbers in very acceptable style. Miss Eva Lawless as a Jap Doll, Miss Helen Bulmer as a talking doll, and Miss Helen Rogers as the Doll's Head are all splendid in their respective roles.

The male members of the caste also do yeoman service in making the programme a noteworthy one. Norman Laing and Harold Snelgrove as Lieut. Tinheart and Prince Lolly-Pop the rival suitors for the hand of Fi-Fi are convincing in their roles and Mr. Laing is heard to advantage in several duets. Walter Fitzgerald always good in a comedy role, is amusing as Capt. Barnacle. Robert Langford invests the part of the Man-in-the-Moon, with a pleasing personality and his duets with Miss McLaren were appreciated. Walter Evans' singing of the Sandman's two vocal solos were thoroughly enjoyed last night and the other parts were well looked after.

The little folks who appear throughout the action as Jumping Jacks, Animals, Fairies, Sprites, etc., add a pleasing effect to the stage pictures and the various drills and dances are cleverly given. Deserving of special mention in this respect is the work of the girls in the Letter Blocks number the dance of the Paper Dolls and the Bridesmaid's number in which the solo dance is effectively taken by Miss Edith Price. The little tots who take part in the fairy scene make a picturesque picture.

The whole production is of a high order of merit upon which every body concerned deserves congratulations. "Fi-Fi" is to be presented again tonight and doubtless a capacity audience will see the performance. It deserves one. Following is the caste:

TWO POINTS FOR DE LAVAL IN LAST NIGHT'S OPENING GAME

THE TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED—GUNNERS OPEN THE SCORING—DE LAVAL WIN OUT BY TWO GOALS TO ONE.

There was a very gratifying attendance of football enthusiasts at Exhibitin grounds last evening, when the Machine Gun Section team were the guests of the De Laval Club in a League game. Prompt to the appointed time, the referee started the game, with Mr. W. R. Breyfogle kicking off the ball in the first mid-week tussle. The De Laval had two changes from the selected team and the Machine Gun team had a number of new players.

The Teams.

The teams lined up as follows:

Machine Gun—Flowers, goal; M. Metcalfe and D. Perry, backs; A. Watkins, R. G. MacLeish and Fred Hall, half-backs; W. E. Warman, A. Davis, Dr. Lacey, E. Bell and R. A. Metcalfe, forwards.

De Laval—W. Jones, (capt), goal; A. Hartshorn and W. McDougall, backs; J. Cooper, T. Humpage and W. Brown, half-backs; G. Hartshorn, J. Long, J. Cullen, A. Nichols and E. Abrahams, forwards.

Referee—Mr. Kidler.

Scored in Five Minutes.

Play to begin with was of an uneventful nature, both sides confining play to midfield. The first flutter was caused by the Machine Gun forwards, when E. Bell, accepting a nice pass from Dr. Lacey, shot a beautiful goal into the corner of the goal post and Jones thought it would go over the bar. Through the efforts of G. Hartshorn the play was transferred to the Machine Gun end, but the parting shot was weak. A few minutes later Hartshorn was called up for offside. The exchanges were even until E. Abrahams beat Watkins on the left wing.

Tried Hard to Equalize.

And running full speed with the ball right at his foot up against Flowers who cleared very poorly, and resulted in Abrahams testing the goalkeeper with a low soft shot. Bob McLeish cleared and passed to Davis and Warman, beating McDougall carried the ball into De Laval goal with Jones and Bell trying hard to settle the issue that resulted in Jones clearing. Play was confined to mid-field with each team being called up for offside at either end.

Machine Gun Had Upper Hand.

The layers lost all their vim at this stage, with Machine Gun team having the advantage, for they forced the play that only gave the De Laval goal kicks aplenty. Jones saved three times from E. Bell, who was a whirlwind around the goal. A few minutes later the De Laval raided the Machine Gun goal and D. Perry in trying to get the player instead of the ball gave De Laval a corner kick.

De Laval Equalize.

From the resulting kick taken by G. Hartshorn, Nichols evened up the game, with all the players right in front of the goal. Shortly afterwards Dr. Lacey and Davis carried the ball to the other end, but Hartshorn tackled them and cleared easily. Warman forced a corner-kick a few minutes later, but it was fruitless. Some time later Perry missed the ball, leaving G. Hartshorn an open field who placed the ball right to Cullan's foot and putting the De Laval one goal ahead. At this point Humpage got hit on the eye with the ball that caused his play to suffer. The Machine Gun held the bal down ft the De Laval goal for a long time but they were too slow in shooting and did not part with the ball. Half-time, De Laval 2, Machine Gun 1.

Half Time.

On resuming, the De Laval were minus Humpage for a few minutes, owing to the excessive pain in his eye, but this did not prevent De Laval raiding Flowers' goal—Hartshorn offside. The Machine Gun forwards transferred the play to the other end, where Jones saved repeatedly from Warman, Davis and Bell. A foul against Watkins relieved the situation, but McLeish came back and passed to Bell, Hartshorn playing him off-side.

Missed Open Goal.

Then two attacks led by Bell and Lacey gave Jones a fright, for Metcalfe missed the upright by a few inches and Davis shot close past. Nothing of interest took place until Abraham broke into the limelight again and played havoc with the Machine Gun defence that ended by him shooting past. Play ran from one end to the other with a kick-off and a rush.

Abraham Thrown Down.

Cullen and Abrahams tried hard to increase the goals and on a special effort by the latter, he followed the ball into the goals, Flowers clearing and throwing Abrahams over his leg while the referee was watching other play. The Machine Gun were very successful in getting within the De Laval area, and a very smart shot by Davis was cleverly repelled. The whole team now came up on to Jones' goal, but the De Laval defence held out well against the attack. Darkness was beginning to set in as the game ended, De Laval 2, Machine Gun 1.

Analysis of the Game.

The following table will give an approximate idea of the referee's decisions:

De Laval.

	1st Half	2nd Half	Total
Goal kicks	10	6	16
Goals	2	0	2
Corner kicks	1	1	2
Offside	1	1	2

Machine Gun.

	1st Half	2nd Half	Total
Goal kicks	2	4	6
Goals	1	0	1
Corner kicks	1	1	2
Offside	1	0	1

Notes on the Game.

For the Machine Gun team Flowers performed all right in goal, but M. Metcalfe was far ahead of Perry, who was very erratic in his tactics. The half-back line needs to be reconstructed, although McLeish showed up as the best back on the field. On the forward line Bell was the best and far superior to any other forward on the field. If Dr. Lacey wants to get into the game he will require to get out to practice, that is all he requires. The Machine Gun will have to put in more training.

Made Good Progress.

For the opening game the De Laval have made great progress in getting a fairly satisfactory team together. Jones was the best goal-keeper of the game and put in a hard night's work. The backs worked in harmony alright, but the half-back line were always running back instead of tackling his man. Forward, the wing men were the outstanding, and we will hear more of this forward line after a few more games.

Starring in "The Brat," Nex t Monday Night at the Grand.

TYRONE POWER

That Peterboro theatregoers appreciated the wholesome drama was in evidenced by the patronage which was extended to Mr. Tyrone Power, the eminent English actor, when seen in this city in "The Servant in the House" and it is owing to that tremendous success that Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd. has booked a return engagement at the Grand Opera House, on Monday, May 24th, of Mr. Powers and his excellent company of distinguished English artists, in another great success, "The Little Brother," a drama of love and power, written by two Englismen, Milton Goldsmith and Benedict James. "The Little Brother" is a plea for religious tolerance. The two chief characters are a Jewish Rabbi and a Priest of the Russian Orthodox Church. Each one detests and mistrusts the religion of the other. They are brought into conflict by the love affair that develops between the children of the two households, and the young people are determined not to permit the antagonisms of their two faiths to stand between them. When this conflict of wills is precipitated the Priest and the Rabbi are forced to meet. Then the dramatic interest of the play develops. Years before in Russia the Rabbi had lost his little brother who had been a victim of Russian hatred of the Jews. He discovers that the Priest who hates all Hebrews so bitterly is his brother, who had been brought up by strictly orthodox people. The play handles a big theme in a serious and high-minded manner. It contains plenty of material that will interest thoughtful theatregoers. Mr. Power will be seen in the role of the fanatical Russian priest, a role that suits his dignified and powerful style of acting.

Mr. Power's interpretation of the role of the Priest is a dramatic Tour-de-force, and he will be supported by the same excellent company which appeared here in "The Servant in the House." Two new members will be seen in the cast of "The Little Brother," Mr. Robert Taber and Miss Edna Holland, the gifted daughter of the late E. M. Holland, known and beloved throughout the United States and Canada. Other members in the cast will include Mr. Harvey Hays, who will be remembered when he was seen here as Manson, Mr. Walter Edwin, Mr. Harold de Becker, Mr. J. Irwing White, Miss Alma Chester and Miss Chela Knight.

AT THE EMPIRE

It is indeed a long time since a photo play of such vital, compelling interest, with a plot that throbs with action as "The Long Arm of Mannister" at the Empire to-day and to-morrow has b seen on local screens. Henry B. Walthall as George Mannister, a New Yorker who has met with meteoric success in the street, is an ideal character. In desperation, his enemies revert to underhand methods to get Mannister off the street. Sinclair, a tool of theirs, works to shatter Mrs. Mannister's faith in her husband and by a carefully arranged plan shows her Mannister driving with Madame De La Mere, a society parasite in the pay of his opponents. The wife arrives just in time to see Madame attempt to caress her husband, but from her position it has all the appearances of a real scene.

Believing in her husband's infidelity she goes far away with Sinclair and Mannister follows. The picture opens with Sinclair and Mrs. Mannister in the heart of the desert, both on the point of exhaustion. The setting for this first scene is wonderful. Heat, sand and scrub form a dreary landscape. The two figures stagger drunkenly along. Mannister is close behind. At last the horse, unable to keep up, collapses, throwing them both on the ground within striking distance of a snake coiled up on the desert sand. Mannister with one shot cuts off the head of the loathsome serpent, and with his gun at Sinclair's head forces him to tell the names of the others. Six names he writes down on his pad. His return to the street once more and his gradual elimination of the six, each name being struck off in turn and finally that of Madame De La Mere, who is returned to her husband and family and how he finds his own wife and happiness, forms a plot that is so far different from the usual impossible flabby love stories that one wonders, after watching the plot unravel itself chapter after chapter, with the interest holding through to the very last, why more of these photo-plays are not produced. The story is based upon the novel by the pen of that superior writer, E. Phillip Oppenheim.

A Lightning Bryce serial and a Rainbow comedy complete the programme.

POLLYANNA

On Saturday, matinee and evening, Pollyanna, the glad girl, will be here to greet all who would learn the game of being happy. The flesh and blood Pollyanna will take you by the hand, and show you the way so that the wine of laughter will shine in your face and the world will look like an old friend who has been understood. How will she do this? you ask! Well, you know the story of the book, which has spread gladness around the world like the sun. The play puts before you Pollyanna and her friends in flesh and blood, adding the human touch of voice and manner, and thereby kindling the greater interest of real life. After you meet her the world won't look so bad, and you will be glad. You will leave the theatre with a happier heart than you have known in a sheaf of days, and you will want others to share your gladness and feel the magical influence of this wonderful girl. None of us is so well off that the glad spirit and guidance of the living Pollyanna cannot lead him into greater happiness, and produce kindlier thoughts and feelings than he knew before he met her.

Come to the Grand Saturday night and welcome the glad girl who has brought so much happiness into the world. It will be a great event, and give you a sinking fund of joyful thoughts that will never exhaust.

PLAN TO SUPPORT SULTAN'S FORCES

HAVE OCCUPIED MUDANIA AND WILL SOON TAKE OVER BRUSA.

Canadian Press:

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—British troops, it is believed, plan to support the Sultan's forces in their movement against the Turkish Nationalists in Asia Minor, and even join in an aggressive offensive against Mustapha Kemal. Lieut.-General Sir G. F. Milne, British commander here, has gone to Ismid on an inspection tour, and elaborate precautions are being made by the British along the Anatolian coast of the Sea of Marmora, where they have occupied Mudania, the port of Brusa.

The occupation of this port was effected with the East Indian troops, and it is expected that the British will soon take over Brusa, which is a prominent Nationalist centre. The "underground route" from Constantinople to Anatolia has been through the Marmora ports, which the British now apparently intend to control.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

If the rain should cease, and the sun should shine; and there's no more snow, and it's fair and fine. If the rocket should miss and they don't bean the moon,
We may see a ball game,
Some day soon.

Pity the lacrosse teams of the day. Imagine having to pay $6 for a lacrosse stick not much better than the kind we used to get with a suit of clothes at Gough Bros.

Gordon McClintock is the latest addition to the Thistles. The gentleman is a pitcher, does his hurling from the port side and can shoot 'em around a city block. He has heaved with success in Western Ontario towns.

Dan McCabe is mentioned for the position of manager of the Central League Team. The choice is a good one ,the talent for the line up is excellent, and between the two Freddy Goyer will have a hard time putting oiver any more performances of 18 strike outs.

Alex. Kay, who umpired local games last season and also was in demand for important games elsewhere, has joined the Umpire's Union. It apepars that Mr. Kay will be unable to officiate in the City League this season, the league enjoying the distinction, or whatever you like to call it, of being an outlaw organization by reason of having declined to affiliate with the O.B.A.A.

Central and Queen Mary baseball teams weer disappointed yesterday afternoon when wet grounds prevented the first game in the senior series of the Public School League. The Senior and Junior teams play next Monday. King Edwards and Centrals of the Senior Series play at the former's grounds. King George and Queen Alexandra and Centrals and Queen Mary of the Junior Series meet on the grounds of the first named teams. The junior schedule runs till June 4th, and the senior games three days later.

Ed. Scott, ex-lumberman, and a former slabman, at Lindsay, has had his certificate as plaeyr with Hillcrests of Toronto, passed by the T. A. B. A. Loud wails from Hughesville.

URIC ACID IN MEAT CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rehumatiq twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralise these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes, and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

FOOTBALL IN LINDSAY.

There are many citizens in Lindsay who are interested in soccer, and there are several who would like to see the game promoted.

Just why Lindsay has not taken a keener interest in football is hard to understand, but apparently everybody is waiting for the other fellow to start the ball rolling.

With teams at Oshawa, Peterborough, and other points, the game should also go ahead in Lindsay.—Lindsay Warder.

BASEBALL.

Belleville's representation in the Trent League officiated with the O. B. A. A. means that the city is represented in intermediate series of the Provincial Association, says the Belleville Ontario.

The St. Michael's team will be a feeder for the seniors. As soon as it is definitely decided who will handle the team all players who do not make the Central Ontario team, and who desire to play the game will be given a fair try-out, the idea being to have th beest team possible to represent Belleville in this League.

The Belleville team has five games at home and are looking ior, and also xpect the best support possible from all local fans.—Belleville Exchange.

GOLF FEES.

Mr. F. W. Cowan has again been elected president of the Oshawa Golf Club, with Mr. T. Henderson as secretary-treasurer.

It was decided to raise the fees—gentlemen's fees being increased from $25.00 to $50.00 a year, and ladies' fees raised from $10.00 to $20.00 per year. Out-of-town members will be assessed $25.00 membership fees, and must be stockholders in the club. All fees are to include locker rental.

Visitors' fees have also been raised. Hereaftr visitors will pay $1.00 per day for the privilege of playing, $4.00 per week, $7.50 for two weeks, and $12.00 a month. This was carried by a unanimous vote. — Oshawa Reformer.

"NO PASS" RULE A JOKE.

There is one rule in the good book of base ball that is somewhat of a joke.

That's the clause treating of the intentional pass.

Frank Shaughnessy, leader of the Hamilton M.-O. club, was in Detroit yesterday to see Frank Navin, president of the Detroit Club, and he took advantage of the opportunity to see the Tigers battle against Kid Gleason's white-flosed hirelings.

"That intentional pass rule is a joke," said Frank on his arrival home this morning. "Once in a pinch yesterday the Detroit pitcher deliberately passed Joe Jackson. It was just as plain as in former years, and the umpires, although they must have known what was going on, were helpless to stop it."

The Detroit fans are in the dumps. Their heavy hitters haven't been hitting a lick since the season started. So far they haven't won a game, and if they don't soon pick up in their swatting they'll hang up a record for consecutive defeats. Cobb, Veach and Flagstead, the usually heavy-hitting outfielders, aren't getting respectable fouls, and the infielders are just as slow to get started. By the time the Bengals hit their stride they'll have a great lead to overcome.

Opinion in Detroit right now is that the Chicago White Sox will win the American League pennant again if "Red" Faber comes through. Eddie Cicotte, Williams and young Kerr are pitching great ball, and if the red-thatched gentleman can do his share the Windy City crew are conceded the rag. Cicotte, in spite of the barring the freak "shine" ball, is going as well as ever.

BROKE UP THE SHOW

LAURETTE TAYLOR, ORIGINAL "PEG O' MY HEART," SUFFERS FROM DEMONSTRATION.

LONDON, April 30.—Laurette Taylor's premiere in "A Night in Rome" was broken up last night by an organized demonstration of hooliganism.

United States Ambassador Davis and his wife and David Belasco, in addition to other well-known persons, were present to witness the demonstration against the management, which came from the gallery.

There was persistent and continuous interruption of the performance, the demonstrators being armed with "stink" bombs and "electric" snuff powders. No such scene has been witnessed in London in many years.

Manager Cochran stopped the performance in the second act, announcing he would not permit Miss Taylor to be insulted.

Justice Horridge said: "It was no doubt a Sinn Fein plot, and I fear it will not be the last unseemly exhibition by persons adopting methods of violence to advance their cause."

The majority of the audience was frantic with indignation.

"It was the worst disturbance since the O. P. riots in 1809," says the Daily Express.

"I cannot think the demonstration was directed against me," said Miss Laurette Taylor. "I always found the British appreciative of United State actors and actresses, and a demonstration of this sort is quite unlike England."

A number of prominent English authors and actors have written to the Times protesting against the "unmannerly"-scene enacted in the theatre. They pay a high tribute to Miss Taylor, declaring she has won her way into the hearts of both English and American audiences.

Every London newspaper laments the demonstration and predicts that the perforcance, which is to be repeated on Saturday night, will be a huge success.

SEPARATED FROM FIVE DOLLAR BILL

For attempting to cut a chunk off the pavement at the corner of Charlotte and George Street, a local man was separated from $5 and costs, amounting to $3.10, by Magistrate Dumble in Police Court this morning. He pleaded guilty to the charge of cutting the corner, paid the fine, and left the court, resolved to never use his car for corner cutting again.

IVENS APPEAL WAS DISMISSED

(Secial to The Examiner.)

TORONTO, April 30.—The appeal of Rev. John A Shaw, of Dauphin, secretary of the Manitoba Methodist Conference, in favour of reinstatement of Rev. Wm. Ivens, Winnipeg strike leader, was dismissed this morning by the court of appeal of the Methodist church.

POTATOES WILL BE OFF THE FAMILY MENU CARD, ETC.

save the acute situation for the people who want seed. If they are boycotted as a food they may be saved for seed in spite of Premier Drury's statement that it is the middleman who is responsible for the raise in price we found the farmers on the market asking $6.00 a bag on Saturday. Mrs. Helson said she had bought a supply of potatoes in the fall at $2.50 a bag and the man from whom she got them, offered her $4.50 for them back.

Some women objected to the complete boycott on account of their husbands and sons, but as Mrs. Kendry clearly showed the meeting, the women of Canada must look ahead Those who feel so bad for their husbands and sons at present may have to go without in future. We are risking this if we have a shortage of seed, people she stated.

Mrs. Morris reminded the women that they must bring in a resolution which would be acceptable to the mass of women and it was decided that the resolution stated above covered the ground most acceptably.

An Embargo.

It was decided to ask the Board of Trade to take up the question of petitioning the Federal Government to place an embargo on potatoes.

Some Suggestions.

Several suggestions were made by ladies present as to further matters which may be discussed with purpose of bringing down the H. C. of L.

The lady who made the statement that oleomargarine is not manufactured in Canada, at the citizens meeting last night, wishes to say that Mrs. W. R. Harstone is correct and that it is manufactured in Toronto.

TOO MANY CLOSETS, DR. CLINTON SAYS

CITY SHOULD ORDER MORE HOUSES CONNECTED WITH SEWER.

There are too many box closets in Peterboro, according to Dr. Clinton, District Officer of Health, who made another inspection visit here yesterday. With the sewer facilities provided on most of the city's streets, Dr Clinton declared that there should be comparatively few houses unconnected. He deprecated the leniency that had evidently been exercised toward those persons who were content with outthouses, and intimated that there should be a firmer attitude toward those citizens.

Criticises the House of Refuge.

Dr. Clinton visited the County House of Refuge at Lakefield and was not satisfied with the conditions he found there. There was not the degree of cleanliness and sanitation that should obtain in such a community of old persons.

OTTAWA MILK TAKES DROP OF TWO CENTS

Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, April 30. — Commencing on Saturday, milk in Ottawa will be 12 cents a quart to the consumers instead of 14 cents, as it has been since last fall. A corresponding lower price for cream will be in effect also.

THE BAKING OF GRANDMOTHER'S DAYS.

Grandmother's baking is still a wonderful memory with most people today. For it is but a short time back—25 to 30 years—when all baking was done at home.

Many of the older residents will be glad to know that the Nut-Krust Bakeries Limited have lately opened a bakery here with the avowed intention of supplying the city with bread, cakes and other products, which have the real old fashioned flavor and 'keeping' qualities of grandmother's days. They accomplish this by using only the finest ingredients and no substitutes whatever.

This Nut-Krust Bakery is a link in a chain of Bakeries being opened by the Nut-Krust institution in other cities and towns, and is similar in construction. It presents a very inviting appearance, with its bright, clean snowy-white exterior and the attractive display of bakery within. Inside, white-clothed bakers may be seen working before the wonderful Electric Ovens, the right to use which in Canada is exclusively Nut-Krust's. The floors are tiled in white, and the walls, counters and shelves enamelled in white. It may be truly said that the Nut-Krust Institution lives up to its ideal—"Exacting Clean — Quality Supreme."

The present Nut-Krust Bakery in Peterboro is located at 326 George Street. It is understood that others are contemplated in the near future. told the object of his visit was to

CONTRACTS FOR NEW BUILDINGS

Hayes, 219 Park Street, and the contract for the smaller building, which without the steel will amount to about $15,000, has been signed and the concrete foundation laid ready for the brick work. Mr. Hayes is at present working on the crane run.

The second building, which will run into several hundred thousand dollars, will include the transformer building, the punch press and the annealing building or brass foundry

IN MEMORIAM.

WHATLEY.—In loving memory of Eva Vanora, beloved wife of Mr. Geo. Whatley, 29 Stewart Street, who died at Nicholls Hospital on May 20, 1919.

A loved sister died and left us,
Just about a year ago.
Leaving us to mourn her absence,
As it pleased the Lord to do.

So she rests asleep in Jesus,
Where no trials ever come,
Free from all this world's distresses,
In her bright and heavenly home.

Leaving mother and a husband,
And two little ones behind,
Hoping in God's time we'll meet her,
Who was always bright and kind.

Winnipeg Workmen Usher in May Day With a Big Parade

LEADS THE DOMINION IN NUMBERS—THIRTY THOUSAND IN THE PARADE.

QUIET ELSEWHERE

Canadian Press.

WINNIPEG, May 1. — May day dawned bright, warm and clear to-day, with the greatest activity manifested in Union Labor Circles.

Winnipeg to-day won its name as the One Big Union city, for while five International unions refused to participate in the monster parade, there was a line up in the parade of 25,000 men, which with women and children brought the total in the parade close to 30,000.

As the central metropolis of Canada Winnipeg no doubt will lead in the Dominion-wide labor protest against the conviction of the eight strike leaders.

Commencing with the parade at 10.30 a.m., and a mass meeting in the Board of Trade Building in the afternoon, the local demonstration will conclude with a dance in aid of the Workers' Defence Fund in the evening.

In nearly all large Western towns similar protest demonstrations have been arranged.

The Winnipeg parade overshadows any other procession ever held in the city, the officials of the Defence Fund Committee, which has charge of the arrangements, stated to-day.

IN KITCHENER.

Canadian Press.

KITCHENER, May 1. — May Day came in cold and dreary but in labor circles there is a comparative quiet, there being no strikes or walk outs. On the other hand two crafts commence on a new schedule of wages, per hour and the plumbers and the the bricklayers receiving one dollar steamfitters 75 cents per hour.

Traffic Stopped.

(Canadian Press.)

ROCHESTER, May 1.—All street car traffic was at a standstill to-day, employees at a meeting to-day voting to go on strike. The men demanded an increase of approximately ninety per cent. in wages.

London Walked.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, Ont., May 1.—With but little apparent inconsistence London citizens walked to work to-day or patronized numerous jitneys that are already operating to carry traffic during the street railway strike, which commenced this morning. With this exception May Day, is quiet in London.

In Great Britain.

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 1.—British labors observance of May Day will be the most extensive in history ,it was indicated to-day.

Between six and seven million workers were expected to fail to report for duty, throwing other thousands out of work.

Miners, steel workers and spinners agree to a complete cessation of work for twenty-four hours. Fred Bramley, secretary of the Trades Union Congress Parliamentary committee, said.

Bramley appealed to all workers to observe to-day as a holiday. Numerous mass meetings were scheduled, especially in Hyde Park. Sylvia Pankhurst, G. N. Barnes and other radical leaders were to speak.

In Gay "Paree."

(United Press.)

PARIS, May 1.— The twenty-four hour general strike called by French labor to demonstrate its solidarity, apparently was generally complete to-day.

At 10 a.m. practically all work in Paris had had stopped. Only a few street cars, buses and subway trains on short runs, were in operation.

There was no indication of violence, however, and the city was quiet.

Additional troops were brought in last night, and small patrols kept the streets clear and crowds moving. Police were confident there would be no outbreaks.

The railway strike seemed to have met with a general response, although government leaders believed it would collapse shortly after the general strike was over at midnight.

New York Quiet.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 1.—"An unusually quiet night," was reported by police authorities here to-day, on the alert for May Day disturbances. The entire force of 12,000 men was held in resrve for duty in case of an outbreak.

TROOPS SENT INTO THE RUHR DISTRICTS

Blames the Capitalists for Recent Disorders.

(United Press)

BERLIN, May 1.— The announcement of Herr Severing that troops will be sent into the south Ruhr districts despite previous promises to the contrary has caused considerable uneasiness among workers. Deputy Brass, leader of the Ruhr workers, commending on Severing's statement said:

"The situation in the Ruhr is quiet. No Reichswehr are needed. Appeals for aid, which prompted the government to decide to send troops, emanated from capitalistic quarters."

Street Fights

SEVERAL PERSONS INJURED IN THE DEMONSTRATION.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 1.—Sinn Fein sympathiezrs and opponents engaged in street fight before Wormwood Scrubbs prison last night, and mounted police had to charge the crowd before it would disperse. Stones and clods of earth were hurled and several persons were slightly injured. It was announced to-day that three more hunger strikers had been released making total of thirteen taken out of place during past ten days.

One feature of last night's demonstration was appearance of "Tin" helmets worn by large party of Irishmen engaged in keeping order. Choir of ladies sang Irish songs and Mrs. Dermond, sister of Field Marshal French, addressed the crowd. Disorderly scenes occur almost nightly in neighborhood of prison, but participants are drawn from rougher elements of vicinity and trouble is not attributed to feeling aroused by hunger strike of men confined in prison.

LOCAL WORKERS MAKE COMPLAINT

That the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission having advanced the wages of its employees in what is known as the central division, by $5 and $10 a month, later raised the rentals of dwellings which it has built for its employees by $10, is the complaint made to the Department of Labour by union electrical workers of Oshawa, Trenton, Campbellford, Belleville, Peterborough and Lindsay.

John Noble, a general organizer for the Electrical Workers' Union, and Mr. E. N. Compton stated that they were endeavouring by conferences with Sir Adam Beck, to adjust the grievances of these men, who number one hundred and fifty. The wages schedule which they have presented asks for a 30 per cent. increase in wages.

"There is no ultimatum accompanying the schedule, but it is a delicate situation," said Mr. Compton. Electrical workers from the Chippawa development scheme will meet Sir Adam Beck to discuss wages and conditions. They have not made known their demands, and will meet together to finally draft them before interviewing Sir Adam.

ANOTHER MISSIONARY FROM MURRAY STREET CHURCH

Miss Abbie Garbutt is under appointment as misionary of the Women's Board of the Baptist Convention to foreigners in the great west.

Mis Garbutt, who is the daughter of Mr. William Garbutt, of Douro, leaves for her field of labor early in the present month.

At the evening service to-morrow Mis Garbutt will give a brief address.

At the morning hour the monthly Communion Service will be held, also a reception of new members.

The pastor will preach and will conduct both services.

TURKISH OFFICERS ARE SLOW TO RESPOND

(Canadian Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 1.—On all sides is found evidence that Turkish officers are not disposed to move against Mustapha Kemal, the Turkish Nationalist leader in Asia Minor. Only seven out of thirteen thousand officers known to be in the city have speared at the War Office in obedience to the order to report. Quiet is reigning momentarily in Anatolia, where the Nationalists are under arms. Machinery of two Turkish gunboats anchored in the Golden Horn has been disabled, while several ships carrying recruits to the Sea of Marmora where the Sultan's troops are assembling, have gone aground.

CHANCES ARE SLIM FOR LIFE OF GEORGE COPPEN

COUNSEL RETURNS FROM OTTAWA—STATEMENT BY PHYSICIAN.

(Special to Examiner)

TORONTO, May 1.—Chances are slim for George J. Coppen to secure a new trial.

On his return from Ottawa this morning T. A. Gibson, Coppen's counsel who interviewed the Minister of Justice with T. A. Agar, of Agar and Hughes, and Capt. R. L. Brydges Coppen's spiritual advisor, Mr. Gibson was not enthusiastic.

"The Minister was sympathetic in hearing our argument," stated Mr. Gibson. "He got out of a sick bed to see us and spent two hours and a half discussing the case. He stated he was prepared to give the fullest consideration both on the grounds of a new trial or executive clemency."

An important statemem was issued by Dr. Gideon Silverthorn, a witness for the prosecution, who performed the autopsy on Mrs. Coppen. The statement is as follows:

"I regret very much that the trial of George Coppen for murder of his wife resulted in a verdict of guilty and I can only attribute it to the defence to bring out the true and full meaning of the results of the post mortem examination as disclosed by that report."

Coppen will be hanged on Wednesday next.

BAGLEY CASE WAS DEFERRED TO JUNE 12TH

ACCUSED APPEARED IN THE COUNTY COURT THIS MORNING.

J. Guise-Bagley appeared before Judge Huycke in the County Court this morning on several charges of defalcation. In view of the fact that a telegram was received last night from his brother in England holding out some hope of restitution, judgment was deferred by His Honor until June 12. The second reason for a deferrment was that there are some division court cases pending in which Mr. Bagley may be required as a witness, and the assignee who is meeting the creditors preferred that Mr. Bagley still be held. In a number of the cases the assignee may take action or press claims on Mr. Bagley's books against a number of young farmers for whom Mr. Bagley secured exemption from military service at the time of the M. S.A.

G W. Hatton appeared for the Crown and Mr. F. D. Kerr for the prisoner.

Mr. Hatton consented to the remand on the condition that this be the last, and Judge Huycke asked Deputy Sheriff Hall, the assignee, to have any actions in which Mr. Bagley is involved, completed before June 12.

PRICES OF VICTORY LOAN BONDS ADVANCE

OTTAWA, April 29.—It has been the policy of the Victory Loan Market Committee to revise the prices of Victory Loans from time to time, so as to have them in line with general market conditions, having regard, however, to maintaining the credit of the Dominion at a high point. At a conference with the Minister of Finance to-day, the following prices were agreed upon for the various issues:

1922	98¼	99¼
1927	99	100
1937	101	102
1923	98¼	99¼
1933	99½	100½
1924	97½	98½
1934	96	97

WERNER HORNE HAS GONE INSANE

(Canadian Press.)

FREDERICTON, N.B., May 1.—Sheriff John B. Hawthorn upon his return from taking prisoners to Maritime Penitentiary at Dorchester is quoted as declaring that Werner Horne, former German Army Officer who attempted to blow up international bridge on Canadian Pacific Railway at St. Croix has gone insane. Horne has been working in a tailor shop since he entered penitentiary and has been a model prisoner it is said. He will be deported to Germany if the Berlin Government will take him.

DRASTIC LIQUIDATION OF STOCK SECURITIES

THE MEXICAN SITUATION INFLUENCED THE MARKET—BANKS ARE CAUTIOUS.

Canadian Press.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Drastic liquidation of securities during the week was again primarily traceable to the world-wide scarcity of capital, as attested by further credit contraction at home and abroad.

The petition of the Government for the re-opening of the United States steel case, the American situation, and the proposed heavy tax on war profits were foremost among other developments which expressed the market's frequent moods of pessimism.

Foreign state banks took their cue from the British and French institutions in advancing discounts, and in the domestic fields the strain extended to private banks in various decisions of the country.

Advance Funds.

Western manufacturers of automobiles and accessories entered a vigorous protest against the refusal of the banks to advance funds for the promotion of their business, th ebanks contending that such operations did not constitute "essential credits," as prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board.

Trade conditions continued fundamentally sound, but the railroad strike, with its attendant freight tie-up of fuel and raw material, again materially reduced production in many leading lines of industry.

Bankers continued to elaborate on the increasing need of conservative financing, and numerous projects and enterprises, including several railroad underwritings in quest of capital, encountered unexpected opposition or delay.

Local and New England banks reported smaller offerings of merchants' paper.

NEW TIME

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, May 1.—Commencing to-morrow morning at 2 a.m. when some cities will adopt daylight saving, locally the average Canadian citizen will be presented with a new exercise for his mental faculties in trying to figure out where he is at, in the general mix up of standard, local and railway schedule time by the clock.

Cities of Montreal and Quebec, in fact nearly all of Quebec province, will advance the clock and thereby conform with night saving in the neighboring State of New York. The Maritime Provinces, as a whole will not adopt daylight saving.

Ontario, generally speaking, will also stick to old Solon dictum in the matter of time, although the cities of Toronto, Ottawa, Kitchener, Sarnia and Niagara Falls have decided locally to turn forward the clock. All others with smaller towns and great agricukural community will probably remain on standard time.

VOTE OE THANKS FOR REV. THOMAS

RESOLUTION RECORDED ON THE CHURCH BOOKS.

The conjoined Quarterly and Trustee Boards of the George street Methodist church, at a recent meeting recorded their deep appreciation of the work of the popular pastor, Rev. A. J. Thomas, and left of the following resolution on the church books:

On motion of Dr. E. E. Harvey and Mr. C. E. Smith, it was resolved: "That we the members of the conjoined Quarterly and Trustee Boards of the George Street Methodist Church, at this almost the last meeting of the year, wish to express our appreciation of the magnificent and far-reaching work accomplished by our pastor, Rev. A. J. Thomas, during his pastorate here. We feel that the inspiration he has given us to live and work on a higher plane, will sweeten and enhance our lives and be a constant incentive to nobler and more useful living. Under his care the church has increased not only in membership, but also in spiritual influence. We desire him always to remember that we have deeply appreciated his unselfish devotion to duty, his readiness to use his utmost endeavor to advance every interest of the church, and his personal example of true Christian gentlemanliness. As he goes to another pastorate we wish him God-speed and trust that every joy in life may be given himself and Mrs. Thomas, who has so fully upheld him by her constant and effective support."

Rev Mr. Thomas becomes pastor of St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal, in June, succeeding Rev. Dr. Henderson. He will be greatly missed by the congregation of the Georeg Street church and the community at large to whom he has endeared himself by his untiring zeal in promoting the kingdom of Jesus Christ in the hearts and lives of the people.

"RENT STRIKE" IS THE LATEST STUNT IN CHICAGO—DEFY LANDLORDS.

(Canadian Press.)

CHICAGO, May 1.—Thousands of families in Chicago went on "rent strike" to-day, and refused to vacate apartments, in acordance with the May Day removing order, H. J. Standish, president of the Chicago Tenants' Protective League estimated.

Mr. Standish predicted that 10,000 tenants would defy the efforts of the landlords to evict them.

"Tenants who have been asked to pay exorbitant rents, and who are unable to pay them or to secure other quarters, are fighting with their backs to the wall," he said.

ENTERTAINED THE FI-FI PERFORMERS

At the conclusion of the evening performance of "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" last night the Belmont Club paid a graceful tribute to the principals in entertaining them at a dance and buffet lunch at the rooms. The entertainment went with the same swing and pep which has characterized the organization of the play and everyone had a most enjoyable time. Practically the whole play was gone through with again at the rooms During supper Mr. R. McKee thanked the principals of the play for their hearty co-operation and with their unfailing efforts to bring the play to successful conclusion.

Unlimited credit is reflected upon the different committees of the club for their splendid organization, and upon Mr. John Allen, the producer, who throughout his direction of the play has made fast friends of all with whom he came in contact by reason of his courteous treatment of all concerned.

The club purposes giving each of the children who took part a photograph of the cast taken at the conclusion of the Thursday evening performance.

SEVERAL METHODS OF GETTING COAL

PETERBORO CONSUMERS UP TO ALL KINDS OF TRICKS.

"The public make a lot of noise about the coal dealers playing square while they themselves try every crooked method possible to get an extra supply, and don't care a hoot for the other fellow," a local coal dealer said. He recounted several cases where his men, delivering coal to a man who claimed to be "just getting enough to see him through," found men from other coal companies delivering an equal amount at the house. "Naturally knowing the serious condition some people are in, the men return the coal to the firm and report, but this gives us a lot of trouble in returning the money which has been paid by the purchaser."

Stocking Up.

Time after time, he said, people have come to the office and lied about their coal, insisting that they haven't enough fuel to see them over night, and when our drivers arrive at the house they have found not one but several tons in another part of the house. "We have to size up the customer as best we can," he added.

BICYCLE WEEK OPENS TO-DAY

ONE BICYCLE FOR EVERY FIFTEEN PEOPLE.

The fifth annual Canadian Bicycle Week is being observed from May 1 to 8 throughout Canada. With modern ideas and modern methods throughout the bicycle field and among all bicycling enthusiasts, it has become the established custom to hold a formal opening of the season by the staging of a "Bicycle Week" early in May each year. The plan of conducting a special week for cycling in the spring season originated in Canada, but the feature was soon adopted by the bicycle authorities of the United States, with the result that the celebration is now observed simultaneously in all parts of the North American Continent.

Every effort is made by trade representatives, clubs and individuals to feature the benefits and advantages of bicycling so that the general public will awaken to the possibilities for utility, exercise, pleasure and economy that are incorporated in the use of a bicycle. It has been pointed out that there is grave need for economical practices on the part of many people under present conditions, and it has been urged that the simple bicycle provides a means of salvation for such persons. This applies particularly to those who are compelled to make constant use of street cars. Housing problems are such that many people have been forced to the suburbs or to sections of the city quite remote from car lines. The bicycle in this form of transportation that will prove to be economical and time-saving to suburbanites. Moreover, the saving in car fares soon pays for the investment in a wheel. This is only one of the many phases in which the bicycle is playing an important role at the present time.

The number of bicycles in actual use in Canada is estimated at 500,000, or approximately one for every fifteen people in the Dominion. In some cities and towns, however, there is an average of one bicycle for every family. The annual production of bicycles in Canada reaches well into the millions of dollars, and it is expected that fully 100,000 bicycles will be sold in this country alone during the current year.

PARSON NOT GOOD WITNESS; NOT DRUNK ENOUGH WHISKEY

NEW YORK, May 1.—The Rev. Dr. Roach Straton admitted here that he had never had a Scotch highball in his life before the one he tasted at John Healey's cafe during his recent explorations, and was ruled incompetent as a witness on the subject of whiskey because of incompetence by Commissioner Samuel H. Hitchcock.

The parson admitted his acquaintance with whiskey had been slight since his college days.

His last taste of whiskey previous to his recent tour of alleged vice resorts was five years ago, when he took a small drink of American whiskey for theaaputic reasons. He had heard it was a good cure for a severe cold. x

Mayor of Winnipeg Offers Some Timely Advice on the High Cost of Clothing.

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 1.—Winnipeg citizens are themselves responsible for the high cost of clothing and by careful buying and pocketing some of their pride can bring the cost down to reasonable figures," declared Mayor Charles F. Gray, in an interview, after deprecating what he termed the riot of high buying which is sweeping the city. Thousands of girls in the city, he said, carry their entire earnings on their backs. The men, he said, are not any better and advocated that citizens co-operate to bring the cost of wearing apparel down. By way of illustrating what can be done, he said that he bought two suits of clothes for $35 each. "And they are as good as many $50 suits." His overcoat, he said, cost $35. The hat he is wearing is six years old, and the boots he wears cost $8.50. He declared that as long as the cost of clothing is as high as at present he will refuse to buy the best and asked the citizens to do the same.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Cartarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

THE BAND QUESTION.

Apparently the decision of the Salvation Army Band not to seek a share of the civic band grant has not been successful in producing any satisfactory solution of the band problem. The question was before the committee Thursday night and the only way out the aldermen could see was to divide the $1,000 appropriation between the bands of the G.W.V.A. and the Peterborough Rangers, giving $500 to each. Had the Temple Band remained in the field there undoubtedly would have been a three-cornered division, so that the sacrifice of the Salvation Army musicians has only had the effect of giving each of the other organizations a larger grant, without in any way bringing nearer a citizens' band or an amalgamation of the existing organizations that would have provided the city with the best band available. It was hoped that something could have been done along those lines, but apparently there is little chance this year.

The discussion that has taken place over the question has not, however, been without its value, for it has brought the matter prominently before the public and has doubtless impressed the local bands with the fact that there are many people who are keenly interested in the problem, and the knowledge should act as an incentive to the musical organizations to exert their best efforts during the coming summer.

GREATER PRODUCTION.

In conjunction with the Board of Trade campaign to "clean-up" Peterborough, the Board is also endeavouring to arouse the citizens generally to a realisation of the necessity of back yard and vacant lot gardening on a large scale this summer.

It is a very important matter, and the Board is to be commended upon circularising the city in an effort to emphasise the need of action. Back yard gardens proved their practicability and usefulness during the war years, but unfortunately feeling that the necessity of increasing production had disappeared with the coming of peace, many citizens abandoned their gardens last year.

This summer, however, if there is not to be famine prices in potatoes and other vegetables, it may be necessary to develop back yard gardening to an even greater degree than in 1918. There is a shortage in farm labour to such an extent that many farmers will grow only enough potatoes this year for their own use, and there is sure to be an inadequate supply not only of potatoes but of other vegetables, unless the back yards and vacant lots of the cities are utilised.

The citizens who have not enough ground for gardening can secure a vacant lot for cultivation, the Board of Trade offering its services to obtain the necessary land for those who want to take part in the greater production campaign.

THE NEED OF CAUTION.

Doubtless there is disappointment among the ultra Hydro-radial enthusiasts at the nature of Premier Drury's reply to the deputation which waited upon him this week to urge that the province guarantee bonds for a number of radial projects, but there will be many people who will commend the stand taken by the Premier. Hon. Mr. Drury counsels caution in radial matters and refuses to be stampeded into hasty action, believing the financial situation to be such as to warrant careful investigation, while the government must also be satisfied that there is no unnecessary duplication of existing lines.

The Premier's caution in this respect may prove an asset to the province. It has been one of the weaknessese of the Hyro-Electric project that important undertakings have been assumed with little or no consideration, the enthusiasm of Hon. Adam Beck carrying all before it. There is no need of going further than the Peterborough district to realize that a little forethought and caution in the entering upon of important business transactions may be very valuable factors. The glitter of the promises made by Hydro-Electric enthusiasts can hardly blind Peterborough citizens to the fact that the working out of a plan often bears little resemblance to the preliminary forecasts. For instance the knowledge that municipalities in the Central Ontario system, far removed from the source of power, are being supplied with electrical energy at a figure lower than some of those situated along the rivers that furnish the power, causes speculation as to whether or not more consideration of the Hydro project might have been beneficial.

It is surprising to discover, for example, that Lakefield, situated on a power river, will have to pay $36 per horse power for electrical energy, while other municipalities many miles away from the Otonabee and the Trent, enjoy a rate that is less than half that figure.

Premier Drury is wise in making sure of the practicability of the radial scheme before the credit of the province is pledged. There will be little lost in a careful, calm consideration of the whole question.

CLEAN-UP WEEK.

Every householder in Peterborough doubtless received yesterday a circular containing the programme for the city's clean-up week inaugurated by the Peterborough Board of Trade. The enthusiastic co-operation of the citizens generally is urged in this effort to make Peterborough the most attractive city in Ontario.

During the coming week it should be looked upon as a civic duty to see that the city's gardens, lawns, houses, stores, and factories are thoroughly cleaned and made neat and attractive for the summer months. Nothing advertises a city more than a reputation for cleanliness, and fortunately Peterborough already ranks high in this respect.

Nevertheless, there are many things that could be done to enhance the city's reputation, and upon the individual citizen depends the result of the campaign. If every householder tries to have the cleanest and neatest premises on his street, the result will be a transformation in the city's appearance.

The programme for the week is as follows:

Sunday, 2nd May—Church Co-operation Day. Clergymen will make special mention of campaign. "Cleanliness Next to Godliness."

Monday, 3rd May—Fire Prevention Day. Clean up all waste paper, rags, rubbish, etc., from your basements and attics. All fires are the same size at the start.

Tuesday, 4th May—Weed Day. Rid the lawns and gardens of weeds and dandelions. Trim hedges.

Wednesday, 5th May.—Front Yard Day. Clean walks and gutters. Salt cracks in sidewalks, to exterminate ants. Cut lawns, and plant flower beds.

Thursday, 6th May—Back Yard Day. Clean lanes, repair fences and sheds, screen garbage cans. Put on screen doors and windows.

Friday, 7th May — Paint Day. Paint-up inside and out. A little paint always saves a repair bill. Clean your windows.

Saturday, 8th May — Vacant Lot Day. Rid vacant lots of rubbish. Start a garden plot and have healthy exercise and an extra source of income.

GOOD THING FOR PETERBORO

Chief of Police Greene, of St. Catherines, according to a report from that city, has warned cyclists and others that they must not use horns which give out sounds resembling the whine of high explosive shells. These, he says, have a nerve rending effect on neurasthe returned men whose condition is due to shell shock and other battle strain. No doubt many nervous civilians will also appreciate the abolition of the screeching horns which are enough to shock even those people who pride thmselves on their stout nerves.

THEY RECOMMEND THE BEAVER TRUCK

STRONG TESTIMONY OF ITS SATISFACTORY PERFORMANCES.

The following interesting copy of a letter has been received by the Duffus Motor Sales of this city and should serve as a strong endorsation of the splendid performance of the Beaver Truck, made in Canada:

The Alabastine Co., Paris, Limited.

Paris, Ont., April 9, 1920.

Messrs. Palmer Motor Sales Co., 153 King St. W., Hamilton, Ontario:

Gentlemen,—We are very pleased to advise that the Beaver two-ton truck, which we purchased from you on March 25th, has given perfect satisfaction.

We sent the truck from Hamilton, Ontario, to Cohoes, N.Y. for a crusher weigning 5,400 lbs., which we were in a great hurry to have delivered to our Lime Plant at Elora, Ontario.

The Truck handled the load of 5,400 lbs. from Cohoes to Elora without any trouble whatever; return trip with load being made in four days.

The distance from Hamilton to Cohoes was about 550 miles and from Cohoes to Elora about 600 miles. Many steep hills were encountered in the Eastern part of New York state, but the truck had no trouble whatever in negotiating any of these hills, and as before stated, went right through to Elora without any trouble at all. We are pleased indeed with the performance of this Beaver Truck, and can recommend same to all prospective purchasers of two-ton Trucks.

Yours very truly,
The Alabastine Co., Paris, Ltd.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

ROSE WRITES THAT SHE IS UNHAPPY.

CHAPTER 91.

I returned to the Nursery.

"Mr. Graham insists that I apologize to you, Miss Lane. I do so to please him not because I feel that I am in the wrong."

"Most second wives think that they should rule," she returned calmly, her face without any change of expression, I understood; she was getting even with me for my 'old maid.'

I paid no attention but left the room boiling with rage.

"I'll get rid of her some way; she will see if I don't!" I said to myself as I winked back the hot tears. I wouldn't cry; if I did she might think I was crying because of what she had said. I would never give her that satisfaction.

Just then Hetty brought in the mail. I was delighted when I saw Rose's bold chirography. At least I could forget odious Miss Lane for a time. I had given up all idea of a walk.

"Dear Sandra:" she commenced. "I am so miserable; I must talk to someone ,and there is no one here that I know well enough and I also don't want to make ano unhappy by telling her. But I fee sometimes as if I should go mad. Walter goes out night after night. When I ask him where he has been he refuses to answer or else he lies. He isn't honorable, Sandra. Your husband was right. No woman ever could be happy as his wife. As a sweetheart, yes. Then he was all courtesy ,all thought for my comfort, all seeming love towards me. Now he is so different.

"Do you think I have lost all pride to write you in this way, Sandra? I haven't! I would cut my arm off before I would let the home folks know ,and for goodness sake don't tell Mr. Graham. He is an honorable man, good and kind if he is so much older than you. Do you remember how I used to say you would be unhappy to be number two; to marry 'grandpa?' And you are so comfortably happy now—or you seemed to be when I was there. No one knows how much in love I was with Walter—or thought I was which amounted to the same thing in my case. But I cannot feel that he is true to me. I tried to get rid of that thought, but it is impossible for me to believe otherwise. He escorts women that I do not know to the restaurants and theatres. There may be nothing wrong in all this but I cannot endure it much longer.

"We have moved from the hotel into our own home. I thought he might feel more responsibility as regards me. But it gives him more license. If only I had listened to Mr. Graham. He was older and wiser than I. But we think we know it all—and then pay the piper.

"This is an awful blue letter to send off. Tear it up, Sandra, as soon as you have read it. I wanted you to know how unhappy I was so whatever happened you would understand. For after all we have been closer than other girls.

"I am going off in my looks, Sandra, horribly! Walter tells me so each day. I have cried so much—passed so many sleepless nights, that it is no wonder. I look ten years older than you do and I used to look younger, and everyone said that I was pretty. No one would dare accuse me of being pretty now. I no longer seem to have any interest in how I look, what I wear. Isn't it strange how a man can change a girl? If I thought that Walter loved me nothing would be too much trouble to do to please him, but now that I am convinced he does not nothing seems to count.

"Write me again soon, Sandra, but say nothing of what I have said. Walter might get hold of your letter—he seems to be jealous, although he cares nothing for me. Remember me to your nice old husband and kiss that wonderful baby for me.

"Lovingly, Rose."

"Poor Rose!" I said aloud, then a wave of crimson swept over my face as I thought that had it not been for Everett, I would have received Walter Kemp, and listened to him—which meant less than nothing to him—a philanderer.

"I had a letter from Rose to-day," I said to Everett when he came in. "She is rather blue. She asked to be remembered to you. I think she is lonely off there, away from everyone that she knows,' I added fearing that I had not quite kept faith with Rose because I had said that she was blue.

"I am sorry for the child. Kemp is absolutely without honor as far as women are concerned. She wouldn't be warned so now will have to make the best of things. Did you apologize to Miss Lane?"

"Yes."

"Be very careful not to offend her again. I desire very keenly to keep her for junior."

Next issue: Sandra is once again disturbed by gossip.

THE TEACHER.

You may teach geography in April,
but grammar is a futility.

Alien in my own countree—
Beside the fanciful Summer sea,
The Chinese junks go rollicking by,
The cherry-tree bloom swings sweet on high,
And little birds wing in the far, bright sky—
Yet all of the eyes that dance as they see.
Quietly cold they look at me.
An alien in mine own countree.

They of the elfin shining eyes
Look at me with a delicate scorn,
They laugh with an infinite fine contempt,
Then off to the call of a fairy-horn
Over the hills, dancing the lea.
In the beautiful spring of mine own countree,
They lilt like a song—nor think of me!

Could I but catch the tiniest one
With the gray-sea eyes and the whimsical brow,
And carry him off in a Pirate Boat
To the wonderful Isles, I could teach him how
Up in the hills and over the lea,
In the beautiful Spring of mine own countree
I am a child as much as he!

But—April is here! And there's grammar to learn,
Away from the rainbows—turn, oh, turn!
"What are the principal parts of 'be'?"
Beside the fanciful Summer sea.

The Chinese junks go rollocking by
The cherry-tree bloom swings sweet on high,
And little birds wing in the far, bright sky,
Yet all of the eyes that dance as they see,
Quietly cold they look at me—
An alien in mine own countree.

When she was asked by the immigration inspectors why she did not wish to marry, she replied:

"I came with the intention of marrying the man who was my sweetheart in England during the war, but on the ship I changed my mind because I knew that I could only look upon him as a friend."

Miss Cooper told the officials she had no desire to land in America. The name of the soldier was withheld

WEAK, WATERY BLOOD IS THE CAUSE OF MANY SERIOUS TROUBLES

Pale, Weak Women and Girls, Easily Tired Me and Boys Are Victims of Anaemia—Sound, Robust Health Can Only be Had by Enriching the Blood and Keeping It Red and Pure

CONDITIONS OF THIN, WATERY BLOOD CAN BE EASILY CORRECTED THROUGH THE USE OF DR. WILLIAMS PINK PILLS

Anaemia is so prevalent, particularly among young girls and growing boys, that every mother should know how to recognize its symptoms, for this trouble makes its approach so gradually and so stealthily that it is often far advanced before it is noticed. Anaemia literally means bloodlessness, and it is thought to be due to a lack of sunlight, improper nourishment, and insufficient out-of-door air. It is most common among those who are confined indoors by their occupations and among those who do not eat regularly or do not select a proper diet.

LOOK FOR THESE SYMPTOMS

The one general symptom of anaemia is pallor. The cheeks gradually lose their color, the lips become white. With this loss of color there comes a tendency to fatigue, palpitation of the heart and breathlessness after slight exertion, with occasional headaches. In ordinary anaemic conditionis, including the anaemic that afflicts young girls in their teens, Dr. Williams Pink Pills are all the medicine required. These, with fresh air, sunlight, proper food and a little rest after meals will make recovery complete.

NERVOUS TROUBLES

Many severe nervous troubles have their origin in anaemia. It is literally true that when the blood is weak and watery, the nerves are starved, and there follows neuralgia, sciatica, and nervous headaches. When the blood is made rich and red, these troubles speedily disappear, as is shown by the case of Miss Annie L. Johnston, R.R. No. 1, Listowell, Ont., who says:—"For a long time I was a severe sufferer from nervous troubles, with the result that I grew very pale and weak. Medical treatment did not help me and various medicines had no beneficial effect, until finally a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I began their use and took the pills regularly for several months, with the result that I not only gained in weight, but have recovered my full health and strength. I cannot praise Dr. Williams Pink Pills too highly for what they have done for me."

BLOOD WEAK AND WATERY.

Another case in which Dr. Williams Pink Pills have restored a weak, despondent girl to good health is that of Miss Jessie McLean, Trenton, N.S., who says:—"I was as weak as it was possible for any one to be, and yet be able to go about. My blood seemed to have turned almost to water. I was pale, the least exertion would leave me breathless, and when I went upstairs I would have to stop and rest on the way. I often had severe headaches, and at times my heart would palpitate alarmingly. A good friend urged me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills and I have reason to be grateful that I took the advice. Soon after beginning the use of the pills I began to get stronger, and by the time I had taken seven boxes I felt that I was again enjoying good health. I think Dr. Williams Pink Pills are a blessing to weak girls, and I shall always warmly recommend them."

WEAK AND RUN DOWN

There is no eight-hour-day for the woman in the home. Her every waking hour is filled with household duties and cares, and often, under the strain, her blood becomes weak and watery, and there is a complete breakdown in health. Mrs. Milan Bailey, Utterson, Ont., tells what Dr. Williams Pink Pills did for her in a health crisis. She says:—"Some two years ago I got weak and badly run down, and could scarcely do my housework. I grew so thin that my friends used to comment upon it. At that time my baby was six months old and the care of it and my housework was almost too much for me. It was at this stage that my husband got me a supply of Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and before I had been taking them long we could see an improvement in my condition. For months I had not been sleeping well and my natural sleep returned, and I wasn't so nervous. Then my friends began to comment on my improved condition and tell me how much better I was looking. By the time I had taken six boxes I felt completely cured, and have since enjoyed the best of health. Now I never fail to recommend Dr. Williams Pink Pills when any of my friends are ailing."

A TEACHER'S EXPERIENCE

Nervous exhaustion, nearly always brought on by anaemia, is one of the most serious troubles affecting men and women today. The only way to bring back sound, vigorous health is to feed the starved nerves, which are clamoring for new, rich blood. This new blood can be had through the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills, which fact accounts for the thousands of cures of nervous diseases brought about by this wonderful blood builder and nerve restorer. Through a fair use of this medicine thousands of despondent people have been made bright, active and strong, among these is Miss Bibiane Chlasson, South Beach, Que., who says:—"I am a teacher by profession, and probably due to the close confinement and arduous nature of my duties I became much run down and suffered from extreme nervousness. The least noise would startle me, and my heart would beat violently. Indeed my condition was an unhappy one. I had often heard of Dr. Williams Pink Pills as a cure for nervous troubles and decided to give them a fair trial. I am happy to say that this medicine completely restored my health, and I can confidently recommend it to all suffering from nervous troubles.

KEEP YOUR SYSTEM TONED UP

Keep your system toned up with Dr. Williams Pink Pills and foods that once distressed you will be harmless, exposure will bring no fears of rheumatism or neuralgia and even germ diseases need not be dreaded. Dr. Williams Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the lassitude, the palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves, and the pallor of the face and lips that are the result of thin, impure blood.

Try Dr. Williams Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box from the nearest drug store and begin this treatment now.

You can get Dr. Williams Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TAKES NINETY TONS OF COAL TO KEEP THE FIREMEN WARM

BIG LIST OF WANTS BEFORE THE FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT COMMITTEE — MANY OF THEM THROWN OUT.

A lengthy discussion ensued at the meeting of the Fire, Water and Light committee last night over the repairs and alterations required at the Fire Hall and the meeting was drawn out to considerable length. Alderman Morrison was in the chair, with Mayor McIntyre, Aldermen Jones, Whitehouse and Crowe present.

1. Floors of No. 1 and 2 apparatus rooms repaired.

2. Division in the north stable repaired (No. 2 stall) and a new front in north stable.

3. The front of the south stable raised to allow the apparatus to go under a door large enough to allow the appartus to come from the rear of the south stable.

4. A drill tower erected in the back yard for training purposes and twenty-five feet of ground purchased from Mr Charles Rishor to make the yard large enough for drill purposes. A concrete pavement 65 feet by 20 feet constructed in the back yard for washing of hose. Hydrant placed in yard for purpose of washing hose and other apparatus and charging of chemical tanks.

5. Gasoline tank placed under ground and equipped with pump.

6. Floors in living roms repaired

7. New furnace

After the chairman had read the list of repairs the debate started.

Was that allowed for in the estimates? Any of it? Alderman Crowe asked.

No. We could only recommend to the City Trust that they be made and then it is up to them to deal with it, explained the chairman A new furnace has been needed for years. It burns 60 or 80 tons of coal as it is. It was second hand when they got it and is worn out.

"There is no doubt that those floors need repairing," said Alderman Whitehouse. "It is a case of necessity."

"The floors need fixing alright," said Alderman Morrison.

"I would move that we recommend to the City Trust that the floors be repaired and also clause 2 and 3."

Ald. Whitehouse—What about the drill tower?

Train the Men.

The firemen are interested themselves if the City Trust puts it, said the chairman.

Ald. Jones—What height will that be?

Ald. Morrison—Just as high as we can get the hose. The men must be trained and we have no place to train them.

City Clerk—Will you have room for it without the additional land?

Well, we'll do the best we can.

It was intimated that Alderman Turner was in favour of buying the half acre back of the Fire Hall. If they start to build in ward never get it, said the Mayor.

The members felt they were treading on thin ice in asking the City Trust to buy any more land. The only thing is we must look ahead. The city is growing and if we are ever going to buy, now is the time, Ald. Whitehouse said, at the same time expressing his due regard for economy, and the committee keeping within their appropriation.

Ald Jones—It's a pretty expensive training ground.

The land question was passed over to discuss the concrete platform.

"Concrete will cost us 25 cents a foot," reminded Ald. Jones pointedly.

Ald. Morrison— They're wearing out the hose washing them in front, for they have to haul them through the building, which wears the frabric.

The platform would cost upwards of $165 or $175, stated the Mayor.

The firemen might help to build it, the chairman replied.

I think we might dispense with it, Ald. Jones said.

Ald Whitehouse—I agree with you. Let them wash their hose in front for the present at least.

A gasoline tank a couple of months ago would cost them from $130 to $150 without installation the chairman said. The entire cost might be $200. The department now buy in barrels at a considerable saving, but want a permanent tank.

The price is likely up now like everything else, added Ald. Jones.

Ald. Whitehouse contended that the whole thing in any of the requests was, could they afford it, and wanted to know just how they stood as to their approriation.

The chairman—I think we're keeping within our limit alright.

Aviation Gas.

The Chief was requested to come over to the meeting by the chairman and he explained that they bought their gas at a considerable saving. "We use aviation gas all the time. We have found that it goes farther."

What about the furnace?" asked Ald. Whitehouse.

The Mayor said he would recommend also that a new furnace be bought.

Ald. Jones reiterated that the City Trust would only call on the city for that much next year. It comes out of the city anyway. He held that they couldn't afford it.

Ald. Morrison—Ald. Jones, which is the cheapest, 60 tons of coal or 30 tons? The Council were to put the furnace through last year, but didn't. The chairman said that a representative of a company manufacturing furnaces and heating supplies guaranteed to heat it at about 32 or 35 tons a year with a new furnace.

Ald. Jones admitted if there were such a difference something should be done.

Reminiscing back, Ald. Crowe recalled the installation of the furnace in 1906. "They should last 20 years," he stated.

Chief Grange placed the consumption of coal at 90 tons for this year. Last year it only took sixty to satisfy it. The vociferous appetite of this furance led the aldermen to wonder how much she could get away with next winter.

The Chief laid some of the blame for its increased appetite on the city's mine run coal, which appears to have been nourishment for this ravenous monster.

Ald. Jones—What is his guarantee if the consumption runs over. They're very fond of guaranteeing to make a sale.

Chief Grange said that the company would take the old furnace on the new one. The City Trust has quotations from three different firms.

Ald. Whitehouse — Why haven't they gone ahead. I don't know.

Chief Grange said they could put the tank in themselves and the platform, too. The discussion centred around this latter.

HARRY McAVOY, well-known Los Angeles hotel man who says he spent a small fortune and tried every treatment money could buy without getting relief, until he tried Tanlac. Says he suffered for twenty years.

"In 1900 I suffered a general breakdown and during these 20 years I spent a small fortune searching for health," said Harry McAvoy, with the Alexandria Hotel of Los Angeles, one of the largest and finest hotels in southern California.

"I went to the best specialists in New York, Chicago, New Orleans and Seattle. I tried every medicine and treatment money could buy, but the best I could do was to get a little temporary relief. Finally I gave out completely under the strain and had to quit work altogether. I was terribly discouraged over my condition and felt that I would be an invalid for the rest of my days.

"I had indigestion in its very worst form. In fact, I was a confirmed dyspeptic; nothing agreed with me and I suffered from all the terrible symptoms of indigestion. My heart palpitated so badly I thought I had heart trouble and I would get so weak and faint at times I would stagger and several times I fell flat in my tracks before I could support myself.

"I was absolutely afraid to eat, for it meant nothing but suffering afterward and I would have awful pains and burnings in the stomach and chest. Sleep! Why, I didn't know what it was to get a night's sleep! I would lie in bed a while and then get so restless I would have to get up and walk the floor. I was almost a nervous wreck and couldn't even sit still and write a letter. I lost so much weight and strength I was almost too weak to walk, and I honestly believe no man in this world suffered any more than I did.

"Last September I realized I could hold out no longer, and as I had read a great deal about Tanlac, I made up my mind to give it a trial. Well, sir, it was the greatest and happiest surprise of my life, for I began to feel better right away. My appetite improved, I began to sleep better and my strength gradually returned. So I kept right on taking the medicine and in only a few weeks' time my troubles had all left and I found I had gained 15 pounds in weight.

From that day to this I have positively been in the best health I ever enjoyed in all my life. I never have an ache or pain. I eat anything I want and don't suffer any bad after effects at all; in fact I feel just like a new man and have plenty of strength and energy. My nerves are steady and strong, I never have a dizzy spell and my sleep is restful and refreshing.

"Tanlac has been worth its weight in gold to me and all the money on earth could not buy the good it has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowler's Corner by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert by A. J. Scott; in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

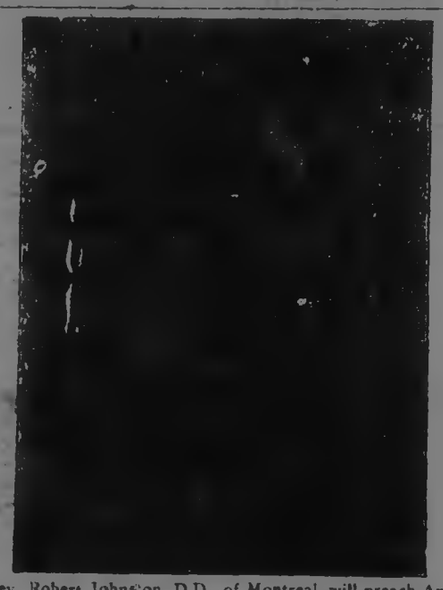
VINOL WILL MAKE RICH RED BLOOD

It Gives You a Hearty Appetite, Aids Digestion and Creates Strength

Your Druggist Guarantees It

This, impoverished blood results in pale, sallow complexions, run-down anaemic conditions, no strength, no energy, and no ambition. The one great remedy for this condition is VINOL, our non-secret, cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with which beef peptones and hypophosphites contained in VINOL acts very quickly in creating thousands of red corpuscles in the blood. It quickens the circulation, increases the appetite, aids digestion, and in this natural manner creates strength, a healthy complexion, vitality, energy and enthusiasm.

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, and to create strength after sickness, there is no remedy like VINOL.



The Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., of Montreal, will preach Anniversary Services on Sabbath next, May 2nd., in St. Paul's Church. Dr. Johnston has been Minister of the American Presbyterian Church in Montreal for a number of years. He is a preacher of great charm and power. St. Paul's have been fortunate in securing him for its Anniversary Services.

Voice Of The People

CLEAN-UP WEEK.

Editor of The Examiner.

Sir.—Kindly permit me to say that I hope the citizens will take up heartily the idea of the Clean-up Week promulgated by the Board of Trade.

A clean, tidy city, which includes tidy yards and premises, makes an instantaneous impression on a visitor that the city is a live one, with enterprising citzens who have a good civic spirit. It also reacts on ourselves and helps to make all feel a greater pride in our city, and increases our self-respect, as well as assisting to provide a healthier atmosphere.

The programme for the week has been published and if all will join in carrying it out, it will be of marked benefit.

The suggestion in the programme to continue the greater production movement is timely, and should also be acted upon.

Yours very truly,

Something We All Do

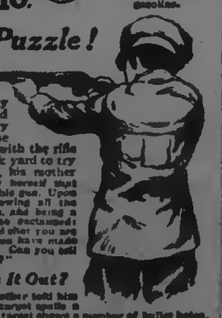
Solve this Puzzle!



FOR Johnny's birthday his mother presented him with a dandy rifle, and Johnny took the four targets that came with the rifle and went out to the back yard to try his skill. Shortly after, his mother came out too to satisfy herself that Johnny knew how to use his gun. Upon examining the targets showing all the holes made by the bullets, and being a quick-thinking woman, she exclaimed: "Why, Johnny, what a good shot you are—and do you know that you have made every target spell a word? Can you tell me what each target spells?"

Can YOU Puzzle It Out?

Johnny couldn't, so his mother told him HOW TO DO IT. Each target spells a word. Each circle of each target shows a number of bullet holes, as you can see by the targets, and each circle represents a letter. The number of holes indicates the position of that letter in the alphabet. For instance: "A" would be represented by one hole, "B" by two holes, "C" by three holes, and so on.

After you have worked out all the letters that are represented in each word, you will find that they are not in their proper order. Put them into their proper order to spell out correctly the names of the four things wanted.

In order to help you, we will tell you that the letter represented by the middle circle of first target is "A," because "A" is the first letter of the alphabet. This is not an easy puzzle, but with perseverance you can work it out—and the prizes are worth trying for.

Copy your answer upon a plain white sheet of paper as nearly as you can, observing penmanship, spelling, handwriting and punctuation (you count if your answer is received). Put your name and address in the top right-hand corner of the paper. If you have to write a letter, or show anything else, put it upon a separate sheet of paper. We will write as soon as your answer is received, and both you and send you a completed illustrated list of the grand prizes that you can win.

THE PRIZES:

First Prize - Genuine Culver Chummy Racer, value	$200.00
Second Prize - Magnificent Gold Watch and Chain, or Girl's Wrist Watch, value	25.00
Third Prize - Genuine Autographic Kodak Folding Camera, value	20.00
Fourth Prize - Solid Gold Ring for Boy or Girl, value	15.00
Fifth Prize - Mounted Picture Machine, with Film, value	10.00
Sixth to Tenth Prize - Self-Filler Fountain Pens, value, each	2.00

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died as PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.
Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.
Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.
Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

THE CHEMONG FLOATING BRIDGE

CORRESPONDENT INVITES COUNTY COUNCIL TO WAKE UP TO THE NEEDS OF NORTHERN TOWNSHIPS.

April 30, 1920.

Editor of the Examiner,
Dear Sir:—

I noticed in a recent issue of the Examiner where your Bridgenorth correspondent said that the people of Ennismore have either got to go around by Fowler's Corners to get to the city or else stay at home. This is certainly a fact. The bridge was broken on the 2nd of April, also the telephone system which crosses on the railing of the bridge. The telephone was repaired yesterday but the bridge is out of commission yet and likely to be for a week or two more. This bridge is an old water soaked wooden structure lying on the top of the water supported by floats, but for the last year or two some of the floats have been washed away leaving it in a very weakened condition. This bridge is broken up more or less every Spring and Fall and is very dangerous to the travelling public.

Sir, I say, as a ratepayer of this county, it is time now that our County Council gave us something more in keeping with the spirit of the times in the shape of a permanent structure. Ennismore is not the only township to use this bridge. There is all the northern townships as well, also the tourist traffic in the summer time which is enormous. Ennismore is only 7 miles north of the city but to go around by Fowler's Corners it is anywhere from 30 to 40 miles according to the locality you live in. Our County Council is in on the good roads system now. One road is mapped out to go out the communication road to Bridgenorth, cross the lake and follow on through Ennismore.

Now will our County Council cross Mud Lake on such a deplorable structure as the present bridge which spans Chemong lake. Or, will they go straight out the Communication road to the water's edge, go straight across (for it is the narrowest point and then go on straight through Ennismore.

The present bridge is situated about a mile down the lake where it will get a full sweep of the wind. I don't know why they put it there. I suppose someone had a "pull." This old bridge floating on the water was good enough fifty or sixty years ago when the country was mostly covered with forest, but like the Hunter street bridge it has outlived its usefulness. We do not ask for a reinforced concrete bridge but we should get a steel bridge set on piers. Or, if that is too much give us one like the city's temporary bridge.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, in advance for your valuable space, I remain.

ENNISMORE RESIDENT.

Stomach and Liver Trouble

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes wilful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of sorts. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal you should take Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They liven up the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Mrs. G. L. Cackett, Enchant, Alta., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have found them good for both stomach and liver troubles. I have told others about your valuable medicine and they have used them with good results.

"They are also good for headache."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SOVIET LEADERS HAVE RUN RUSSIA INTO THE GROUND

Walter Duranty, in a cabled despatch to the New York Times, writes that since Christmas the truth about the appalling weakness of Soviet Russia has been transpiring.

"For, try as they may—and heaven knows they have tried hard enough—the Soviet leaders can no longer hide the fatal fact that they have literally run Russia into the ground," he says. "With all its wealth, its wheat, cattle, horses, and inexhaustible man power, Russia to-day lies ruined and broken. The Soviet system of espionage and terrorism is stronger than ever in its mastery over the army, the civil administration, and the people. But from the practical point of view of running the country, the Soviet regime has broken down.

"When last November Litvinoff at Dorpat refused permission to enter Russia to any newspaper representatives not belonging to "friendly"—that is, extremely radical—journals, it was the obvious inference that he had something to hide. At that time I imagined it to be the misgovernment and tyrrany of the Soviet rule, which undoubtedly existed. But one of the cleverest and best-informed Allied representatives, the British Colonel Tallents, set me right.

"'It is not so much their misgovernment as their weakness that the Bolsheviki are trying to conceal,' he said. 'The outer world has such a bad opinion of them already that anything new it might learn now couldn't make that opinion worse, and might, on the other hand, make it better. They would have nothing to lose and something to gain in that respect. But now, just when they were trying to make peace, they must hide their weakness. The recent victories over Russian Generals have given the world the impression that the Bolsheviki are really strong. It is evidently their supreme interest to capitalise that impression before it fades or vanishes.'

"In the weeks that followed I learned the true history of the Bolshevist 'victories' over Russian Generals, and saw for myself the amazing weakness of the Red Army and its hopeless failure to cope with an inferor number of well-led, well-trained, and well-equipped troops.

Russian Industry Paralysed.

"Meanwhile, parallel to that military weakness an even graver economic weakness was growing steadily greater. To-day trains have practically ceased to run; industry has ceased to function; horse transport does not exist because the horses have been eaten. In cities and towns there is no coal and little food. In a country by far the richest in Europe in wood, people are forced to burn their wooden houses for fuel. That gives the measure of traffic disorganisation. From towns and cities people can and do flee back to the land to escape starvation. On the land they can at least eat and be warm, though life is primitive as in the days of the Tartars.

"But pestilence, bred of famine, dirt, disorganisation, and ignorance, moves more swiftly than they. Not the cities alone are being decimated by typhus, cholera, and smallpox.

"The Soviet leaders have fought hard, but they have failed. They have failed, too, 'to capitalise the impression of their strength before it fades.'"

The employees of the Russell-Townsend Company engaged in working on the Hunter Street Bridge, to the number of about 150, went on strike this morning when the company posted notices offering them an increase in wages, amounting to about 5 cents an hour all round, instead of the 10 cent increase which the men had requested.

Following is the schedule of wages offered by the company:

Labourers, per hour 50c
Ordinary engineers, per hour, 70c

TROUT SEASON OPENS

If you Have Your Own Brook You Are In Luck.

To-day was the first date in the year's fishing calendar, opening the season for brook trout. The chilling wind and snow flurries were more suggestive of a polar bear hunt than of quiet angling for speckled trout along a winding stream in a flower-strewn woods. Of course, if you have the equanimity of W. P. who signs the local weather communiques you are always content and happy in the knowledge that you are giving the people the best weather you can get, and judging by appearances there is as marked an under production of good weather as of any other commodity of which the world is in dire need.

A DISTINCTION

The feminine of "liar" is "fibber."

That's why women make better liars than men.

It sounds paradoxical, but Canon Peter Green says it is so. He was addressing the Liverpool Court on Juvenile Crime.

"A criminal boy,' he said, "is silly. A criminal girl is worse. There is nothing to equal a girl who had got off the right track. Bad boys tell lies which can be spotted, but girls lie connectedly, circumstantially and in a most interesting and probable manner. The crimes of boy offenders convince me that their offences are the outcome not of badness, but silliness and imbecility."

"If a boy at school is found out in a deception he is proclaimed a liar, and boys are trained from early days to despise liars. The term is deemed too harsh for feminine offenders, and the most they are ever found out in is a 'fib.' Girls will continue to fib light-heartedly with never a blush when they are found out. This becomes a habit. And girls fib so efficiently that before long they are convinced of the truth of their own untruths and will add to a story with limitless imagination, never once garbling the yarn, until it reaches a perfectly plousible and possible finish."

MANY TENANTS BUY FARMS FROM DUKE

War Taxes Are Forcing Nobility to Sell.

LONDON.— England's war taxes continue to force many of her nobility to sell parts of their great estates. One of the greatest of these which recently has passed under the auctioneer's hammer, is that of the Duke of Rutland, which is known as Belvoir. The Duke owns about 59,000 acres of which he is selling about 13,000 acres located in the best part of the Lincolnshire hunting district. He explained at a public meeting that the sale was made necessary by the increasing burden of taxation resulting from the war.

Goadby Hall, one of the Duke's properties of 230 acres, was sold privately in the advance of the public sale and 100 tenants have bought from the Duke the farms he had rented to them.

Earl Manver's estate, known as "Holme Pierrpont," at Radcliffe-on-Trent, has been sold at auction for £42,635. It covers 320 acres.

It is reported that part of the estate of the Earl of Londesborough, comprising Raincliffe Woods and Race Course has been bought by a Scarborough financier.

ONION IS SECOND ONLY TO POTATO

The onion is second only to the potato in its value as a vegetable crop. Owing to its varied uses in the home, the comparative ease with which it can be stored and its high nutritive value, it is strictly a staple article of food.

The onion can be grown on a great variety of soils, well manured sandy or sandy loam soils are excellent for this crop, and low muck lands when properly handled produce splendid crops of first-class quality The soil upon which onions are to be grown must be thoroughly cultivated, well drained and contain a considerable quantity of humus or vegetable matter. A sandy soil will require heavy applications of barnyard manure, whereas first-class crops will probably be grown on a muck soil with the use of commercial fertilizers without any barnyard manure.

The onion may be grown in several ways. The method generally followed by commercial growers is to sow the seed in the field as early as possible in the spring. The drills or rows are sown 15 to 18 inches apart, and sufficiently thick to produce 10 to 12 plants to the foot. If one is growing a small plot it would be well to sow somewhat more heavily so that when thinning out, strong vigorous plants may be selected and all the weaklings removed. When growing onions on a large scale of several acres, the seed is sown thinly to avoid the expense of thinning.

Like Blades of Grass.

As soon as the little onion plants appear, the gardener should begin cultivating his crop A wheel hoe, a garden rake, or hand hoe may be used to keep the soil between the rows loose, and remove any weeds that may appear during the season. The little onion plant appears like fine blades of grass.

Another method of growing onions, and one that is particularly suitable to those who are looking after a small garden, is the method of sowing the seed, early in March in a green house or hot-bed, and transplanting to the field or garden the strong healthy plants that have been started in this manner. The seed is sown in flats or boxes, and covered with about a quarter of an inch of soil. By watering carefully not too heavily at any time or irregularly after growth has begun and by giving the young plants all the fresh air possible, one should have sturdy plants fully four inches for transplanting to the field.

Young onion plants ready for transplanting may often be bought at a reasonable price per hundred or bunch, from commercial growers who employ this method of culture They sow considerably more seed than they will require themselves, providing against possible accidents while growing them.

Recommends Internal Bathing for Piles and Constipation.

If people who suffer from constipation, piles and the many ills resulting from accumulated waste in the intestines would realize what the J.B.L. Cascade is doing for thousands of people who are being daily restored to perfect health by its use, there would be a J.B.L. Cascade in every Canadian home.

Mr. E. Nighswander, of Green River, Ont., writes: "I purchased a J.B.L. Cascade from you about ten months ago and consider it the best money I ever invested. For years I have been troubled with constipation, ulcers in the bowels and piles, which all the money I spent on medicines and doctors only relieved temporarily. My J.B.L. Cascade has completely cured these troubles, and I feel it a duty I owe to my fellow-men to endorse the Cascade in the very highest terms. No amount of money could estimate the value it has been to me. No home should be without one.

The J.B.L. Cascade is the only perfected invention for internal bathing. Keeps the system sweet and clean, cures constipation, headaches, rheumatism, and keeps you fit at all times. It is shown and explained by Warne Drug Co.

TAKES NINETY TONS OF COAL

We'll never get it done any cheaper. Ald. Crowe held.

Ald. Jones would not support it.

Ald. Morrison pointed out that in construction work labor counted for about 50 p.c. these days. This would be eliminated and a big saving made.

It was decided to eliminate both the platform and the hydrant from the list of repairs, but the Chief came back strong for the hydrant, which he claimed was absolutely necessary whether they got the platform or not.

The motion of the Mayor, seconded by Alderman Whitehouse, embodied everything except the purchase of the ground and the platform. It was included in the motion that the City Trust and the committee meet and confer on the matter.

The Go-Devil.

The little red buzz-waggon of the Chief's then formed the main centre for discussion. The chairman said the car was literally going to pieces, and Chief Grange corroborated him. It needed new wheels, bearings, radiator and new pistons, in fact needed entire overhauling. The cost would run from $300 to $400. The Chief said she had been driven for three years over all kinds of roads at generally 35 or 40 miles an hour and it had been racked to pieces.

One letter was read from a local car dealer, and several others were on file setting forth the respective advantages of their cars.

Ald. Jones could not see why this old question was being thrashed over again after it had been settled definitely last winter.

We would like to see the Chief get a new car, but we haven't the money. The only thing is to get the old one repaired and if he ever gets another one it will be useful. His motion that the Chief's car be repaired, carried unanimously.

Horses Sold.

Chief Grange, in a report, showed the sale of 3 horses for $475, the purchase of one for $275 and a team for $550. This left a net cost of $350. The Chief intimated he hoped to dispose of the other dobbin at the station when an opportunity presented itself.

A motion carried that the action be approved and that he and the chairman be authorized to sell the fourth horse and purchase another horse and any difference in price be paid when certified by the chairman.

From tentative steps taken at the meeting Peterboroughites in the vicinity of Charlotte and George streets will be able to tell the time in the dark: No, it is no miracle. Just consult the illuminated dial on the market place clock.

Ald. Whitehouse brought up the matter and eulogized the advantages of having it lit up with a coat of paint slapped on for good measure. He told of this clock's satisfactory performance. The cost of repairs for 30 years' service was only $12. He believed the building to be wired nearly ly to the dial.

The wiring would have to be in conduit, said the chairman.

Ald. Jones agreed to look at it and give an estimate of the cost to the Property committee, where the matter properly belongs.

A recommendation from the Utilities Commission to put in new hydrants on Queen and Simcoe streets and Monaghan road was granted

It was moved and carried, that if the committee learned of a qualified man to take over the inspectorship of the Hydro here, formerly held by Mr. Fife, that he be recommended for the position. The motion grew out of a letter from the Hydro explaining why a local man had not been appointed.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LITTLE ONES

Thousands of mothers state positively that Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine they know of for little ones. Their experience has taught them that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them and that they can be given with perfect safety to children of all ages. Concerning them Mrs. Joseph Therrien, St. Gabriel de Brandon, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for little ones. I thought I would lose my baby before trying the Tablets but they soon made him healthy and happy and now I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

"A skin you love to touch"

You, too, can have this charm

No matter what other charms you have, they count for little unless you have the greatest of all charms—a clear, fresh skin.

An authority on the skin has said: "Whatever your difficulty is, you can remedy the trouble, if you will only give your skin intelligent care and attention."

The following treatment brings the blood to the surface and stimulates the small muscular fibres. Begin it tonight and see how it will improve your skin.

Just before retiring, wash your face and neck with plenty of Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. After rinsing your face with warm water, rub a fresh lather of Woodbury's into your skin, using an upward and outward motion. Do this until the skin feels just a little sensitive. Then rinse the skin well in warm water, then in cold, finishing by rubbing for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Always be careful to dry the skin thoroughly."

Make this treatment a regular habit, and in a much shorter time than you would imagine, your skin will take on the greater loveliness that it can have."

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks.

IN THE LITERARY WORLD

The ignorance of the world at large in regard to the proper methods of finding out things in a library is immense. This is not said in any spirit of superiority, because it is a librarian's duty to be able to guide the public, and he or she should be in a position to tell through long familiarity with the books where to lay hands upon the information that may be required. But it is so easy for persons to find out things for themselves if they will only go about it in a way that will enable them to do so. It is a common enough sight to see people wandering about among the shelves looking for books that they are unable to find. The volumes are arranged in a systematic manner, each class by itself, and the card catalogue would soon set one right as to where to look, but there are very many who will not take the trouble to learn how it is worked. Beyond this difficulty looms up another. Many come to the Library for the purpose of hunting up authorities or to verify some date or quotation. They are usually absolutely at sea as to where to obtain their information. For instance, a few days ago search was being made for the proper designation of the thirtieth anniversary of a wedding. The most likely place to find this had been overlooked, and that was the dictionary. Tome after tome had been taken down that could not by any possible chance have contained what was wanted. There are several dictionaries in the market which are almost encyclopaedic in their range and many a difficulty could be solved if people consulted their pages before looking elsewhere.

Interesting Book.

I have been reading a very interesting book within the past week, entitled "Eccentricities of Genius." The author, Major Pond, was at one time in the Lyceum business in the United States and in his day introduced many speakers and lecturers from England to the American public besides acting in the same capacity for many of his own countrymen and countrywomen. His book is full of interesting anecdotes concerning men and women who thirty or forty years ago were in the public eye. He throws a very remarkable light on characters like T. DeWitt Talmage, and P. T. Barnum, the famous showman. Neither of them appears in a very favorable light in his pages. Talmage was apparently a money-grabber and Barnum a heartless and soulless individual. But he has many kind words to say of most of those he writes about. It is interesting to learn from his pages that Anthony Hope obtained his first entry into literature through the kindly offices of the late Robert Barr, who happened to see some of his writings. Barr was at the time editing the Idler with Jerome K. Jerome. He was so much taken with Anthony Hope's writing that he asked him how much he would take a thousand words. Anthony Hope answered by asking "would a pound be too much?" Barr replied, "I will give you several pounds a thousand," and thus he was started on the road to success. But the most peculiar and interesting thing in the book is Major Pond's account of his lecture tour with Dr. Cook. Major Pond writes, "Dr. Cook has not only made an enviable reputation for himself but is personally one of the most charming of men. He is as modest and unassuming as he is accomplished." This was written before the unassuming traveller's chimerical conquest of the North Pole. Major Pond finishes his eulogy by grandiloquently saying, "Among polar explorers I do not regard any one as more bold, more to be depended upon for accuracy of statement, or whose scientific training better fits him to rightly appreciate the value of each new fact discovered than Dr. Frederick A. Cook, our fellow-countryman."

Religious Section."

The section devoted to Religion is really the least resorted to by any patrons of the Library. I think one reason for this is that the idea is prevalent that it is devoted entirely to sermons. Nothing could be further from the truth. There is a certain sprinkling of these among the books but the term Religion comprises a good deal outside of Homiletics. This subject is only one of very many that come under the title of Religion. There is Natural Theology, for instance, which takes in Atheism, Deism, Pantheism, Evolution, Theosophy and many other philosophical flights. It deals with Religious history and also with Mythology and with the thousand and one things that lie between these two extremes. If one does not care therefore to dip into the teachings of pulpit orators there is an ample field for reading in other directions. But we have many a preacher's works in the Library which, if we may not all agree theologically with his views can at any rate be perused with delight for their perfection of style and beauty of language. Porteous' lectures on the Gospel of St. Matthew, although they were delivered 120 years ago are just as applicable to the minds and hearts of men as they were when they were uttered. His thoughts on War might have been delivered yesterday, for he shows that through all ages lust of gain has been the torch that started most of the great world conflagrations. There are two volumes of Spurgeon's Sword and Trowel and admirers of that great preacher will find an abundance of good things in these books. He was one of the men whom Major Pond was utterly unable to induce to enter the lecturing field. His chapter on Spurgeon is not the least amusing thing in Major Pond's book. There are sermons to suit every denomination and essays on every form of ethical outlook. A new set of valuable books was added to our shelves a short time ago in the shape of ancient Hebrew literature, comprising the anocryphal books of the Old and New Testament. The religious section has suffered less from depredations than any other in the Library, but we have had occasion to mourn the loss of one or two volumes in the course of the years. These may perhaps be termed pious thefts, but it opens up a field of conjecture as to whether the end justifies the means. If the food that people steal has a beneficial effect on their systems why should not the same hold good of one's moral nature when applied to the theft of nutriment for the soul?

IS POETERY PLAYED OUT?

One of the latest anthologies published is entitled "Georgian Poetry, 1918—1919" by E.M. In receiving this little volume the critics are almost unanimous in bemoaning the fact that there is little trace of real poetry in the volume. They are beginning to wonder whether real poetry is played out. One critic, writing in John O' London's Weekly, a literary periodical published in England, expresses his views of the subject as follows:

"The book could have been shorter without much loss. Is it necessary to believe that every two years we produce two hundred pages of poetry. In 1918-1919, to judge from this selection, we have produced barely twenty. What, we ask first of all, has Ralph Hodgson been doing to have written nothing worthy of inclusion? Surely his worst is better

INTEREST IN CHURCH UNITY

Throughout the country there is a constantly increasing interest in the proposed steps towards a closer union of the Protestant churches. No book is more timely or more useful in a consideration of this question than "Approaches Towards Church Unity" edited and written by Newman Smyth and Williston Walker, with chapters by Bishop Brent and Raymond Calkins. Four men of national reputation have here combined to produce an uncontroversial compilation of historical precedent and opinions dealing with church unity. The publishers announce that the work is now in its second printing.

WORK ON THE COFFER DAM IS NOW UNDER WAY

Work has been commenced on the western cofier dam at the new bridge and the pile diver is under way today driving the piles for the dam. The donkey engine and pile driver are erected on the old rock foundation of the old bridge and have a good solid base on which to work.

The forms for the eastern arches are under construction and already serve to give some idea of the size of the new bridge, when one looks across the river and imagines the central arch in place. The height of the new bridge and the sensation of walking across it may be gained by walking along the top of the eastern arches.

Full advantage is being taken of the fine weather the last couple of days and not a man is idle.

LEAP YEAR DANCE WAS BIG SUCCESS

The Leap Year dance of the Peterboro Caledonian Club was held last evening in the Woodmen of the World Hall, when well on close two hundred people from Auld Scotia gathered together to celebrate the Leap Year in true Scottish fashion.

The dancing started at 8 o'clock, and continued well on into the small hours of the morning. The music was furnished by Mrs. Bugg and Mr. John Pirie, also Piper Thom rendered bagpipe music to the foursome and eightsome reels, and the Highland scottische.

During the evening, Mrs. French, Miss Duthie and Mr. John Smith sang appropriate sentimental songs.

Mr. Henry appeared in a comic costume that gave the audience something new and had to respond with an encore. The "Goal-keeper's Ghost," recitation by Mr. Wm. Thomson, is always appreciated the more he recites it.

The dance finished with all gathering together and singing "Auld Lang Syne." The street cars conveyed all home to their respective abode.

Brandram's Genuine B.B. WHITE LEAD

THEY used it for the stage-coach of olden days in England—we use it in Canada today. Compare it with any other white lead or white paint, and you will decide that your house—or anything you wish to have truly white and remain white—must be painted with this brand which has survived as the leading white lead for nearly two centuries.

Thinned with linseed oil and turpentine, it makes a perfect white paint. Combined with coloring matter, it makes the satisfactory tinted paint of any shade. It is the basis for that finest of ready-mixed paint, B-H "English" Paint.

Made in a modern Canadian factory, and by the same process as was employed for its manufacture by its inventor in England, it is today the only survivor of all the patented white lead processes of that earlier generation. It has survived because it results in a white lead of exceptional fineness, whiteness and durability.

Barn and Silo Roofed with Brantford Asphalt Roofing.

Resists Fire, Sheds Water, [illegible] Long

Flying sparks and embers from a burning building often cause roofs near by to catch fire, especially in a dry, hot season. Under like conditions, roofs covered with

Brantford Asphalt Roofing

are in no danger from flying embers, because any that fall on Brantford Asphalt Roofing die out harmlessly. Build a bonfire on a roof of Brantford Asphalt Roofing and the fire will not spread and the boards underneath the roofing will be protected in a surprising manner.

If a fire starts in the interior of a building Brantford Asphalt Roofing acts as a retardant and keeps the fire from spreading. Fire chiefs and insurance companies endorse its use in the most congested cities.

Brantford Asphalt Roofing does not absorb water, but sheds the heaviest rain with ease. Acid proof and alkali proof. Reliable, durable, economical. Three weights—60 lb., 70 lb., 80 lb. per square.

Brantford Rubber Roofing is the same quality as Brantford Asphalt, but has a smooth, rubbery surface instead of the sand. It is particularly suitable for verandah decks and floor coverings. Three weights—40 lb., 50 lb., and 60 lb. per square.

Leatheroid Roofing
Slightly lower quality than Brantford Rubber Roofing. Used for same purposes. Has a leathery surface. Exceptionally good roofing at a low price. 35 lb., 45 lb., and 55 lb. weights.

Standard Mohawk Roofing
is made of the same materials as Brantford Asphalt Roofing, but is lighter in weight. A thoroughly reliable roofing at a low price. Tested for years and has given entire satisfaction. Sanded on one side. One weight—40 lbs. per square.

Climax Sheathing Paper

Dear Miss Rhodehouse:—

Your friends and associate workers in the Punch Press Department have learned of your intention to sever your connection with this department. We will miss your smile and happy jests, but nevertheless we congratulate you upon your preferment with Mr. Frank Millard, also of the Punch Press. We know you will prove yourself worthy of your high calling in entering upon the state of matrimony and we hope you will enjoy many years of happy wedded life.

And now on behalf of your friends, permit us to present you with this cabinet of silver as a token of our love and esteem. May it prove useful in your home and continually remind you of the happy associations of the past.

We all join in extending to you both our very sincere respects and good wishes.

Signed on behalf of the employees of the Punch Press Department of the Canadian Gneral Electric Company.

A GRANT FOR THE CARPENTERS

A MEETING OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

By a motion of Alderman Harry Gainey, seconded by the Mayor, at the meeting of the Finance Committee held yesterday afternoon, Local 219, the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, were given a grant of $100 towards the entertainment of the Provincial Convention to be held here soon.

Those present at the meeting were: Alderman Turner in the chair, Mayor McIntyre, Aldermen Gainey and Hamilton.

A report was read from the Relief Officer of an indigent patient sent to the hospital.

A letter was received from W. G. Green, tax collector, pointing out his allowance for help was by the calendar year instead of for the roll of the year and asking the $64.50 for expenses incurred on account of the roll for 1919 be paid out of the allowance made last year. It was moved that it be received.

It was moved by Alderman Gainey, seconded by the Mayor that the Chairman examine the accounts and report for the payment of those that are properly certified.—Carried.

SPORTING EVENTS ON THE HOLIDAY

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR A GOOD PROGRAMME.

The Exhibition Board has just held a very important meeting when arrangements were completed for the holding of a Demonstration on Victoria Day, May 24th. A programme of considerable merit, including horse races, grand stand attractions, sports and games, will be put on.

It is the intention of the Board to be active again this summer in giving the public entertainments on the holidays, for those who remain at home, and as an inducement for those in other towns and villages surrounding Peterboro, to spend the day in the city.

The grounds are for the pleasure and the enjoyment of the public, as has been shown already, with the introduction of the Soccer Leagues, and other sports from the city, which are already making extensive use of the grounds. The Exhibition Board wish the grounds to be used the year round if possible, by the public of Peterboro and they are doing everything they possibly can to make it a popular place of amusement.

POLLYANNA

"Pollyanna," is at the Grand today. Hundreds of thousands have read Eleanor H. Porter's joyously optimistic glad-girl stories, now blended into a buoyantly joyous comedy by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, who is an expert and popular dramatist, author of successful plays for May Irwin, Henriette Crossman and Billie Burke. Pollyanna is an orphan child, who humanizes all sorts of gloomy ,despondent persons by sheer force of magnetic personality, quaint expressions and happy example.

It is a play to be seen without embarrassment and its appeal is equally strong to the young and to the mature. Comedy, sentiment, romance, and a thrill of the dramatic are blended in "Pollyanna."

The Pollyanna Producing Company present the company playing it. Lolita Westman, a fascinating young comedienne, is the glad girl at 12 and 17. Others are Pacie Ripple, Wallace Roberts, Earla Elverson, Audrey Wood, Augusta Dungeon, Peter W. Maguire, Geraldine Russell, William Day and others.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

Cobourg Star: Baseball sports have been having a few work outs, and with the opening of the town league next week the season will be under full swing. Lindsay opens the season in the C.O.B.A., here on May 24, and to get off to a good start by a win the team will have to put in hard practice. With Manager Mulhall at the helm Cobourg should make a better showing this season.

Most of the teams in the league, if rumors are true, will have outside help this season. So far Cobourg has made no attempt to 'ring in' and will rely on home talent. If baseball is to go ahead the home brew way is the only way. The other way has been tried in Cobourg quite often but the results were not any too satisfactory—financially, or in the standing of the club at the end of the season

MANAGER HENDRICKS HAS TO PAY $400 FINE

CHICAGO, May 1. — President Hickey of the American Association to-day fined Jack Hendricks, manager of the Indianapolis Club $400, and suspended him for ten days, for causing the game with Louisville last Sunday to be forfeited in the seventh innings. The game broke up in disorder when the spectators began hurling cushions on the field and it was necessary to call the police.

RIVERSIDE PARK IMPROVED.

Last week the centre field of River side Park was freshly graded and improved by the addition of carefully arranged layers of fresh material, where the play ground had been badly worn by constant use. The improvement will be much appreciated by ball players and visitors to the Park. The work was done by Mr. Jas. O'Keefe, a practical land worker who is experienced in landscape repairing.

WIFE TICKLED NECK OF STERN DIPLOMAT

Former Russian Official Ask For Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Kittenish antics of his wife drove him almost to distraction. Alexandre Khodjayan, former official of the Russian Government, says in a suit for divorce pending here.

They were married in London, and he took his bride, Blanche Khodjayan, to Petrograd, where, he declared, she "jazzed up" an official party Great was his embarrassment, Khodjayan recites, when his wife tickled the neck of a great dignitary who sat next to her at a banquet of high officials in Petrograd. There ensued, according to his complaint, "great whispering and merriment, but poorly concealed among the 30 officials to the intense humiliation of the plaintiff."

For that he forgave her, Khodjayan asserts, but when she called on him while he was in a hospital here and displayed fancy silk stockings she had purchased, to him andall others in range, it was much too much. She was wearing the hosiery at the time, he says.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 1.—Experiments with the wireless telephone between Winnipeg and Selkirk are being carried on to test the practicability of this means of communication with isolated points in the far north, according to an announcement by Prof. R. Installation of the wireless telephones will be started early next year if the experiments prove the value of the instruments in the northern climatic conditions.

NO ORIENTALS ARE DESIRED

Stewart, B.C., Puts Ban on Asiatics.

(Canadian Press)

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 1.—"No Orientals are desired in Stewart." So states a sign placed conspicuously on the wharf at Stewart, B.C., by the Stewart Citizens' Association, officials of which assert that they are looking to the welfare of the town, according to Mr. Morris Soskin, who has just arrived here from Stewart. Mr. Soskin says there is every indication that there will be a great influx into the town this summer. Special vessels have been chartered to carry machinery to the mines there. Many old Alaskan miners are on the scene.

MISS ARLIE MARKS

In presenting Miss Arlie Marks and her Associate Players, Mr. Lindsay E. Perrin has surrounded his star with the most capable company of players that could be procured to produce the various plays in her extensive repertoire. The opening play, 'The Brat," has been conceded to be the greatest success ever known in New York city, playing there for over 200 nights to capacity audiences at prices never less than $1.50. If a comedy may be rated by the quantity of laughter it evokes from the audience, then "The Brat" must be one of the drollest of comedies ever written. It must be understood, however, that it is not all laughter, but it touches the serious side of life, and the character of "The Brat," as portrayed by Miss Marks, appeals strongly to the sympathies and is stronger than a sermon.

Among the players is the veteran, Mr. Tom Marks, well known in Peterborough, who has always pleased his audiences. Interesting vaudeville different to the usual "stunts" will be a feature. The plays will be changed at every performance and none repeated.

Popular prices will prevail and matinees Wednesday and Saturday will give all theatre-goers a chance to see a variety of splendid plays.

AT THE ALLEN

Louis Benninson makes his way on laughs in "Oh Johnny, Oh Johnny", —in which Louis Benninson makes his screen debut—and which will be seen for the last time to-day at the Allen. Might also be called "The adventures of a cowpuncher in a long island country house". It is essentially a comedy and not to be confounded with the western Melodrama type, of entertainment, laughs, 'thrills" galore.

HOPE TO SECURE RARE MANUSCRIPTS

NEW YORK, May 1.—Now that allied troops occupy Constantinople, keen anticipation prevails in British antiquarian circles at the prospect of the discovery of priceless manuscripts.

When it is recalled that the gifts which Louis XIV. sent to the Sultans at Constantinople remain done up as they were sent, it is hoped that manuscripts of immense value to history will be found.

This hope is supported by the fact that in the seventeenth century, Ambassadors to the Sultan constantly returned with Greek manuscripts of priceless worth. The allied troops now in the Turkish Capital are the first Christian soldiers to be quartered there since the fifteenth century.

STRANGE RECOVERY OF HIDDEN GOLD

On April 10, 1843, eight laborers were employed in grubbing up trees at Tufnell Park, Holloway, and during their labors they discovered two jars containing nearly four hundred sovereigns in gold. They divided the money and one of them spent his share but soon afterwards Mr. Tufnell ,the lord of the manor, claimed the whole of it as treasure trove. There is a complex law, partly statute and partially civil, relating to the recovery of treasure for which the original owner does not apply, and according to the circumstances of the finding, the property belongs to the Crown ,to the lort of the manor or to the finder or to two out of these three. While the eight laborers were puzzling over Mr. Tufnell's claim the real owner stepped forward and told a singular tale. He was a brass founder, living in Clerkenwell, and said that about nine months before, while under a temporary mental delusion, he one night took out two jars of sovereigns with him and buried them in the field at Tufnell Park. Being able to prove these facts his claim to the money was admitted. In other cases the burying of treasure results not from any delusion but from the ignorance of the owner as to the better mode of securing it.

HEROES GRAVES KNOW NO RANK

LONDON, April 29.—The War Graves Commission has decided unanimously on absolute uniformity of headstone for the graves of every man and woman who was killed or who died in the war. A plain design in Portland stone has been selected, recording the name, regiment and rank, symbol of religious faith and the inscription which Kipling chose :"Their name liveth forevermore," with room at the foot of the stone for an inscription limited to 66 words, to be personally chosen by those nearest to the dead. The principle of equality ,whether for Field Marshal or camp follower, has the approval of the Government.

Kipling and Winston Churchill, with other members of the Commission, addressed a meeting of the Army Committee in the House of Commons to-night. Kipling, with intensity of feeling, spoke in favor of absolute equality. He said the main object had been to aim at dignity and simplicity and a sense of abidingness

Mr Churchill said t the whole sprit of the army was in favor of equality and uniformity.

To Keep the Face Fresh, Clear, Youthful

More important than the cosmetic care of the complexion is its physical care. [illegible] the face clean, fresh, you [illegible] nothing better than cosmetic mercolized wax. It absorbs the dull or faded worn-out skin particles. Cosmetics simply add wholesomeness to the complexion. That's the difference. By all means acquire the mercolized wax habit. It's so easy to get an ounce of the wax at the druggist's, apply at night like cold cream and wash it off next morning. There's no detention indoors, the old skin coming off so gradually no one suspects you are using anything. When in a week or two the alluringly youthful, rose-like underskin is fully in view — well, you won't want, or need, a make-up complexion after that. It must be apparent that this process means complete riddance of all cutaneous blemishes, like freckles, blotches and blackheads.

EVANGELIST FAIRBAIRN

Preaching last night from 2 Corinthians 6:2; "Behold now is the accepted time, Behold now is the day of Salvation", said, this was an inspired message, an important truth to which all should give heed. He spoke of the shortness of life — and how sin shortens life, making the race weak physically, giving illustrations and incidents of this.

Also that "now" was an opportune time; the older people get the more fixed in character, the less likely to change.

Also the danger of the Holy Spirit withdrawing His wooing influence and people go over the dead line as in the case of King Saul who lived 7 years after spirit of God left him.

EMPLOYERS' REPLY TO LABOUR LAWS

PRESIDENT OF MANITOBA EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION SEEKS LAW PROTECTING EMPLOYERS.

(Special to Examiner)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 1.—Imposition of a heavy fine or imprisonment for union workers who discriminate against or intimidate non union-wirkers will be sought by H. B. Lyall, millionaire Iron Manufacturer, and president of the employers Association who have been considering labor laws now before the Parliament at Ottawa.

This is a response made by the employers association of Manitoba to proposed legislation to be submitted to the House of Commons which provides a penalty of $1,000 fine or six months imprisonment for any employer who dismisses or in any way prejudices against an employee either because he belongs to trade union or desires to become member of such organization.

PRESENT CASES TO PARLIAMENT

LOCAL SECRETARY ASKED TO AID IN WORK.

The Vocational and Advisory Board of the Soldiers' Aid Commission has been asked to use its endeavors, through the local secretarys of the several branches throughout the province, in an endeavor to collect information to be presented as soon as possible to the committee of the House of Commons now in session on the question of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

Any cases where it is claimed that an injustice has been done to a deserving man, or where there are legitimate complaints or grievances with regard to vocational training, may be handed to the local secretary of the Soldier's Aid Commission, F. H. Dobbin, at the City Building (over Drummond's store.) Following receipt of information a thorough investigation will be given ,with a view to the complete re-establishment of the disabled soldier.

It is asked that prompt action be taken as time is short in which to present cases, and so uphold the hands of those who are moving in this mater for the benefit of the returned soldiers.

Poisoned By Gas While in a Well

FRANK CARLSON FOUND RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Saskatchewan Man Who Suffered All Summer Claims That His New Lease of Health is Due to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Livelong, Sask., April 30.—(Special)—Most enthusiastic about the benefit he has received from using Dodd's Kidney Pills is Mr. Frank Carlson, a well-known and highly respected resident of his place.

"I was gassed in a well on my farm 25 feet deep," Mr. Carlson says. "I was nearly dead. I was treated for a whole summer for my trouble, but did not get better.

"Then I read in a little almanac about Dodd's Kidney Pills. I had no idea they might benefit me, but was willing to try anything. To my surprise the improvement in my general health was so great, and my kidneys were so much better, that I feel like advising everybody to use Dodds Kidney Pills. I would not be without them."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys and enable them to do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the sovereign remedy for sick kidneys.

HOME RULE BILL TO BE SUBMITTED

FINAL DEBATE WILL START IN THE HOUSE ON THURSDAY.

A DEMONSTRATION

(United Press.)

LONDON, May .—Final debate on Prime Minister Lloyd George's new bill for home rule in Ireland was scheduled to start in the House of Commons Thursday. The government proposes to bring the bill up for final vote within twenty-five days.

Irish agitators continued their efforts to obtain defeat of the bill, declaring it never would be accepted by the Sinn Fein. Another demonstration was staged in front of Wormwood Scrubbs jail last night. More than 5,000 persons participated it was stated. Ten hunger striking Irish prisoners have been released since Saturday. In Belfast thirty-four hunger strikers were released Saturday and the remaining forty last night. The majority were so weakened from their self-imposed starvation they had to be taken to hospitals.

THE WEATHER

There was a total eclipse of the moon last evening, and the sky being clear, the spectacle was viewed by many. No better proof of the rotundity of the earth could be desired than the shadow cast by the earth on the moon during a total eclipse. A new and interesting division of the seasons hereabouts, based on the average temperature and other weather phenomena, and aside from the dates established by the almanac, is here given: Winter, from Nov. 26th to March 9th; Spring from March 10th to May 20th; Summer, from May 21st to September 10th; and Autumn from September 11th to November 25th. May 4th is the average day of the last spring frost. The season this year is farther advanced than last year, but not so far ahead as 1918.—W. P.

A Cabinet Meeting to Consider Strike Will Be Held To-day

WILL PRODUCE THE PLAY THIS EVENING

Newspapers Predict an Ovation for Popular Actress.

(Unted Press.)

LONDON, May 3.—Laurette Taylor's play, "One Night in Rome," written by her husband, Hartley Manners, was to make its second appearance here tonight after being broken up by rowdies last Thursday night.

Producer Cochrane declared that no special precautions would be taken to prevent the disorder, since he was confident that the clique which stopped Thursday night's performance would not again attempt trouble.

The newspapers predicted an ovation for the actress, who returned to London after a weekend at the seashore.

The Actors' Association passed a resolution of sympathy and regret, which was sent to Miss Taylor.

GOVERNMENT LEADERS CONFIDENT STRIKE MOVEMENT WILL BE SHORT LIVED—NORMAL TRAFFIC.

(United Press.)

PARIS, May 3.—The Cabinet was to meet to-day to consider the strike of transportation marine workers and miners. Government leaders were confident the movement would be broken they said not more than one fourth of the railway men were out. Miners in several districts voted to remain at work despite decision of the national body to support the railway strike. Dock and marine employees in several ports, however, had joined the strike movement. Dock workers announced their strike decision yesterday at Marseilles. Other classes of marine workers also joined the walk out.

The Government claimed normal railway traffic on all main lines, and most branch lines in the north and east. Officials said enough coal was available to keep trains running three weeks but they did not believe the miners would stay out that long.

ISSUED MANIFESTO

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, May 3.—Strike situation in this city was generally stationary at north and east stations this morning Only about fifty percent of usual number of trains being in operation. Virut anlkfyof eirrdu;uc

Virtually no freight trains were moving during forenoon. General labor federation last night issued manifesto declaring it will continue struggle and disclaiming all responsibility for present events. It says it will not cease to defend general interests of nations and urges certain "indispensable measures which events since armistice have proved necessary."

The manifesto recapitulates programme comprising national economic council, an international commission to apportion raw materials an international fleet under League of Nations to bring down freights, re-organization of railroads and other measures. It concludes by affirming that execution of this program would have prevented all ills from which country is suffering and would have brought wealth and prosperity.

Two Men Escaped

IRREGULARITY IN PAPERS FREE TWO PRISONERS.

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL, May 3.—Joseph Labrie, sentenced to life imprisonment, and his brother, Emile Labrie, sentenced to twenty-five years in penitentiary by Judge Desy at Sherbrooke, were this morning freed by Judge Dubois on account of irregularity in the papers committing them to prison. The papers did not mention the full name of the men they killed or that of the crime. They were found guilty of manslaughter in connection with the shooting of Charles E. Chaz near Sherbrooke.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR FINE WAS IMPOSED

Oliver Barr appeared before Magistrate Langley in the County Police Court to-day following the remand of a week ago, for a preliminary hearing.

J. O'Brien appeared for the accused and consented to a conviction on the first charge of having in his possession a still contrary to the Inland Revenue Act if the second charge of manufacturing, and any other charge against Barr, were dismissed. The second charge was dismissed.

Magistrate Langley gave him the minimum fine of $100 with costs, which amounted to $146.93—more than the fine. The fine and costs were paid.

It is understood there may be several more charges against people in that vicinity under the same act and by a series of extractions the law will be brought home to them.

DELEGATES HOME FROM MEETING

Seventy-five Women's Auxiliaries of the G. W. V. A. were represented at the convention of the different branches in Ontario held in Toronto on Saturday. Representing these 75 Auxiliaries were 91 delegates from far and wide over Ontario, and general satisfaction was expressed at the result of the convention. Morris, who has been most active in the work here, as President of the Provincial Command, and Mrs. McLeod of this city, was elected as secretary. Mrs. Devey, although nominated for the treasurership, retired in favor of another nominee.

BOLSHEVIK FORCES ARE RETREATING

POLISH TROOPS ARE DRIVING FORWARD IN THEIR OFFENSIVE.

NEAR KIEV

(Unted Press.)

LONDON, May 3. — The Polish troops, driving forward in their offensive against the Russian Bolshevist armies, hoped to celebrate the Polish national holiday by the capture of Kiev, one of the most important cities in Russia, and the capital of the old government of Kiev, Warsaw despatches said.

The Bolsheviki defeat in some sectors has assumed the proportions of a route, the Poles claimed.

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, May 3.—The Bolsheviki forces have backed up against the Dneiper River, and are preparing to resist the Polish and Ukrainian efforts to take Kiev, towards which General Pilsudski's men are fighting their way from three directions.

Stubborn fighting is going on in the open country along the Telrow River in the vicinity of Malin.

Chinese mercenaries are being used by the Bolsheviki to stem the Polish advance, said Saturday's official communique.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WARSAW, May 3.—Polish forces occupied Kiev on Sunday, according to extra editions of the newspapers here to-day.

General Pilsudski, president of the Polish State, led the troops into the city, the newspapers say.

Winnica and Zhmerinka, approximately 50 miles south-west of Kiev, have been retaken by the Poles and Ukrainians after three days fighting. The Reds have been driven across the Bug River.

CARE FOR HEALTH OF BRITISH PUBLIC

Specialization in Diagnosis for Ordinary Practitioner is New Plan.

LONDON, May 3.—British medical science has entered upon a more determined effort than ever before really to understand the symptoms of disease. It is held that the symptoms have hitherto been studied with too little care and continuity.

With the co-operation of the Ministry of Health the leaders of the profession throughout Great Britain are endeavouring to excite the interest of general practitioners in the new school of medical investigation and thought.

It is realised that the specialists in Harley Street and elsewhere are too remote from the people to get early and first hand acquaintance with their symptoms, and it is purposed to enlist the aid of the rank and file of the profession in addressing skilled attention to the first manifestation of disease. Diseases of the heart or what are now diagnosed as disease of the heart will be given special study.

It has been found that many treatments based upon the theory of cardiac trouble have been ineffectual, for the reason that the heart symptoms indicated disorder arising from some other source such as a sensitive appendix or a septic tooth.

Dizziness will be explored in all its peculiarities in the hope of striking at its primary causes. Everything possible will be done to stimulate general practitioners to an acute sense of their responsibility for public health and wellbeing.

"BELLS OF BLUE."

Ring on, ring on, ye bells of blue!
The woodlands far and near Proclaim the theme your music tells—
The glad springtime is here.
Ringing, singing,
The glad springtime is here.

Sing on, sing on, ye bonnie birds,
Upwinging to the sky;
Your throbbing hearts responsive know
The time for love is nigh.
Winging, singing,
The time for love is nigh.
—H. Faulkner.

(This poem was recently received by Mrs. Soward, wife of Rev. Edward Soward, of this city. Her sister, Miss Faulkner, who lives in England, has been blind for some years.)

The Woolsack, upon which the Lord Chancellor sits in the House of Lords, is a large square bay of wool, without back or arms, and covered with red cloth. The object of the Woolsack, which originated in the reign of Elizabeth, is to keep in mind the fact that wool is a source of our natinal wealth.

Sir Oliver Lodge Talks With Spirits On Tenth Plane

CONVERSATION COVERS EVERYTHING BUT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING AND THE PETERBORO CITY COUNCIL.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, May 3.—One of the sensations of Sir Oliver Lodge's tour of Canada developed here when the famous scientist sat for an hour at a ouija session. A girl of twenty, Miss Oliva B. Taft, at the working end of "Wee Gee," confounded the psychic research master with the answers registered from a spirit on the tenth plane to questions framed by Sir Oliver.

Sir Oliver asked many scientific questions that were palpably beyond the knowledge of the medium, and received direct and logical answers.

The tripod worked with lightning-like rapidity, spelling out the words so quickly that it was difficult to record them without the use of shorthand.

The entity presuming to talk to Sir Oliver through the girl claims to be existent on the tenth plane—so far removed from the earth in the process of evolution that he cannot approach very close to material matter operating through the medium's mind by mental concentration.

"I am afraid you are too far removed from the things I am concerned with," said Sir Oliver finally, after a lengthy conversation with this unusual personage who, while willing to discuss material matters in which Sir Oliver is interested, preferred to deal in spiritual things.

Sir Oliver questioned the "board" on such things as the relation of mind to ether, the connection between mind and matter, how one operates on the other, the density of ether, its connection with gravitation, the construction of the spiriutal body, material incarnation, the subliminal self, the entrance of the spirit into the body at birth, etc.

THE DRUMMERS MET TOGETHER

HELD INFORMAL BANQUET AT THE EMPRESS.

Last Thursday on the occason of the meeting at the Empress Hotel, of nine "ambassadors of commerce," each representing a different dry-goods house, the boys forgot business and entertained each other at an impromptu dinner in the hotel, which proved a huge success

Mr. Bob Gray, a representative of the W R. Broek Co., Ltd., who was appointed chairman of the evening, in addressing his fellow travellers, announced the time has come when Bolshevism should be introduced into the general travellers' working day, and suggested as a first step, the cutting down of the general travellers' day from 18 to 16 hours aday. He concluded by proposing a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. George and Mr. Chris Graham for the excellent repast furnished.

Mr. Bert Mockler, Gault Bros.' representative, in a witty speech, said he was delighted to be among his old friends and remarked that the extreme good fellowship existing amongst the drygoods men of Eastern Ontario, was something unique, and had never been in evidence more than at the present time.

A Programme.

During the evening, during which humorous imaginary telegrams arrived intermittently from well known travellers, a splendid programme was given to which Mr. George Adamson, representative of the Alphonse Racine, contributed a story: Mr. Joe Kerr, representative of the Minnes Ltd., Kingston, a number of Robert Service selections; Scotty Reid, representative of the Gault Bros., of Montreal, a number of tenor solos; Mr. Jim Massey, representative of the Hodgson-Sumner Co., a splendid baritone solo; George Dane, representative of John MacDonald and Co. Ltd., a "fur coat" story: Alex. Munnoch, representative of the Gordon MacKay Co., Ltd., a few reminiscences of the front. Mr. Saver, representative of the Alphonse Racine Co., Ltd., was, as the junior traveller just starting over the ground, welcomed, with the wish by the chairman that he get along finely.

Public Attracted.

The programme was augmented by a solo by Ald. Frank Whitehouse, who dropped in with several other city men who were attracted by the excellence of the programme and the evidence of good fellowship.

SHOULD HAVE BEEN - A "JOHN COLLINS."

Joseph Collins, a beef iron and wine adict, was fined $10 and $4.10 costs for being intoxicated in public place by Magistrate Dumble this morning. He found beef iron and wine lightened his spirits one day and his pocketbook the next.

A STATE WITNESS COMMITS SUICIDE

Threw Himself From the Fourteenth Floor of a Building.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, May 3. — Tony Tazio, thirty years old, detained by the Department of Justice as an important witness against a number of radicals involved in bomb outrages of last June, committed suicide to-day by hurling himself from a window on the fourteenth floor of a Park Row of fice building. Tazio is believed to have evaded his guard by obtaining permission to go to the wash room. He leaped from the window clad only in his night clothes. Department officials said he had confessed to a part in the June plottings and was an important witness.

Members Win Out

WILL GET INCREASE IN SESSIONAL INDEMNITY.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, May 3. — With at least two weeks of work and probably three still ahead of the Legislature, indications are that the members' request for an increased indemnity will be granted. It is understood that the government is considering the matter with a view to offering $2,000 as a compromise between the present allowance and the $2,500 asked for. The majority of members, it is expected, would be willing to accept such an offer if it were made. As seventy-nine members of the House signed the round robin which was presented last week, the government is likely to comply with the wishes, rather than risk the possibility of the matter being brought up in the House and forced through despite the government opposition.

SPRING SEEDING WELL UNDER WAY

Seeding in the country is well under way and one farmer from near Millbrook, reports that he has all his seeding done.

Throughout the townships the farmers are all on the land and excellent crops are looked for. Reports indicate that the roads are in a little better condition than other years but nevertheless there are many rough spots.

Farmers using the Gravel Road have been complaining of the condition of the road just as you come around by the Little woods, and look to the city to do something. From descriptions it would seem that the ruts are big enough to hide in; but this is probably an exaggeration.

CANADIANS ORDERED TO GO TO WORK

LIKE "PULLING TEETH" TO GET ANY MONEY FROM THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

THE EVIDENCE

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 3. — While the Canadian Patriotic Fund is assisting veterans of the United States forces in Canada, "it is like pulling teeth" to get aid from the American Red Cross for ex-soldiers of the Canadian army residing in the United States, asserted C. H. Bonner, executive secretary of the Vancouver branch of the Canadian Patroitic Fund, giving evidence before a Parliamentary committee on pensions here this morning. Mr. Bonner said that, particularly in Seattle, ex-soldiers or their families who needed a start to re-establish themselves, were being told by the American Red Cross to "get out and earn alivelihood." American women were aided by the American Red Cross, while Canadian women, living beside them, were told to get out and find work, Mr. Bonner said. Many of the discharged men from the service in British Columbia, said Mr. Bonner, were Americans enlisted in California for inland water transport or engineering services.

DECORATING CHURCH OF SACRED HEART

The evening devotions during the month of May will not be held at the Church of the Sacred Heart this year on account of the work of alterations and decorations that will begin this morning. The pastor, Rev. J. J. O'Brien strongly urged the congregation yesterday to observe this custom by evening prayers in the home following grace after supper. There will be no interference with the masses on Sunday, and the first Friday devotions, and it is expected that the daily morning mass will be held at seven o'clock.

This is the first time the church has been renovated since it was built. A net work of scaffolding will be erected for the artists who have been engaged to do the decorating

Sydney, N. S.—A large order for rods and bars has been secured from the Japanese government by the Dominion Steel Corporation, which will keep the rod and bar mill in operation for a long time to come.

Edmonton, Alta.—A new market for the Alberta potato crop was opened up recently when a first consignment of a carload of this vegetable was sent to San Francisco.

Winnipeg, Man.—The first paper bag manufacturing company in the west will be established here in the near future. The Western Canada Paper Bag Co. is at present being organized by A. Seabrook, and equipment costing $50,000 being purchased for the plant.

Charlottetown, P.E.I.—With the slogan of "Spend your vacation in Canada" being taken up everywhere, Prince Edward Island is looking forward to a large holiday traffic and a great influx of visitors.

Virden, Man.—Dairying is making rapid strides in Manitoba. In 1912, 50 cars of creamery butter were imported; in 1913 the number dropped to 35; and in 1914 to 30 cars. In 1918, 50 cars were exported; in 1916, 68 cars; in 1917, 96 cars; in 1918, 176 cars; and in 1919, 150 carloads left the province.

St. John's, Nfld.—The Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who has just returned from the United Kingdom and Europe, states that great interest in Newfoundland affairs is being taken in England and that capitalists are more inclined than ever to embark on the exploitation of the colony's natural resources.

Halifax, N. S.—Arrangements have been made to employ a wireless equipped fisheries protection cruiser during the coming season for the purpose of scouting mackerel in order that fishermen may be advised of the arrival of schools, their location, approximate size and direction and movement.

Prices were proportionately higher than at the New York and St. Louis Sales, beaver bringing as high as $106 each, moleskin $1.50, muskrat $7.50, wolf $48.25, white fox $70.00, fitch $3.30, lynx $62.50, fisher $345.00, silver fox $1,225.00.

Victoria, B. C.—Canadian Holstein cattle are highly regarded in Australia, according to H. A. Simmons, who recently delivered a small herd of these cattle there. He claims that the Holsteins bred in the Antipodes are not as good as the Canadian bred stock and is making preparations to assemble another herd for export.

Regina, Sask.—More settlers are coming into Saskatchewan from the United States this spring than at any time since the outbreak of the war, according to figures which have been received by local C.P.R. officials. While this influx is considerable, it is said by these same railwaymen to be nothing to what may be expected later in the summer. During the first three weeks of the month twenty settlers arrived here from U. S. points on their way to land they had taken up. Five carloads of settlers' effects were registered at Portal as passing through to points in the province and twenty-three cars to Alberta points. Settlers are also coming through Kingsgate and Emerson, the traffic at the latter place being particularly heavy and as many as 45 carloads of effects passing through the port of entry in a day.

Dyed lace is used to tone in with very brilliantly colored silks.

A great many varieties of apron fronts are shown in dresses.

HUGE CHEMICAL INDUSTRY OPENS AT TRENTON, ONT.

$2,500,000 COMPANY ABOUT TO BE FORMED, COMPRISING BEST KNOWN CHEMICAL MEN IN CANADA, TO OPERATE CONCERN THAT WILL MARK INDUSTRIAL ERA IN THE DOMINION.

TORONTO,—(Special.)— The establishment of an industry on a scale so wide and extensive as to create a new era in the industrial life of the Dominion will be an accomplished fact within the next few weeks through the undertaking which is being launched by Chemical Products Limited at Trenton, Ontario.

The capital stock of Chemical Products, Limited, consists of $2,000,000 cumulative participating preference stock of $100 par value and bearing interest at the rate of 8 per cent. This stock will be preferred as to both assets and dividends. After the payment of dividends equivalent to $8 per share upon the preference and common shares, it is provided that the directors may declare and pay further additional dividends equally per share upon the preference and common stock out of any surplus or net profits. The common stock consists of 100,000 shares (no par value).

Products of the Company.

Some idea of the enormous enterprises which Chemical Products, Limited, has embarked may be gathered from the fact that it has purchased the big chemical plant which was erected at Trenton, Ont., by the Imperial Munitions Board for the manufacture of explosives and will operate it on a large scale for the production of both industrial chemicals and pharmaceutical preparations. The plant formerly at the Toronto factory is being assembled at the Trenton site for the latter purpose ,although it will be supplemented with additional equipment in order to obtain larger production.

The outstanding feature of the new industry is that it will embark upon the production of acid phosphate for agricultural purposes to the extent of approximately 75,000 a year, and will export any surplus over the requirements of the home market. Other products will be aspirin to the extent of 1,500,000 pounds yearly; 5,000 pounds yearly of salicylic acid; between 5,000 to 6,000 tons of refined nitrate of soda. The above are the four main products which the company will manufacture when it goes into operation.

The plan will be 255 acres in area and is close to the 3 transcontinental railway systems, each of which is connected by side lines to the plant.

The Directors and Management.

The executive officers and management of the company comprise men who are outstanding either in connection with the chemical industry or manufacturing in general in Canada and the United States The President is R. J. Copeland of Copeland-Chatterson, Limited, Toronto. The other directors are D. H. Sanson, President of Dominion Linens, Ltd. and Flax Spinners, Limited, of Guelph, Ont., Vice-President of William Neilson, Limited, and a member of the firm of Graham, Sanson & Co., investment bankers, Toronto; R. J. Cluff, President of Chase Tractors Corporation, Limited, and of the Galt Brass Company, Limited; T. P. Birchall, Vice-President of Chase Tractors Corporation, Limited, and of Loew's Theatres; J. C. Graves, Vice-President and General Manager of the Saginaw Chemical Company, Saginaw, Mich., and formerly General Superintendent of the Dow Chemical Co., Midland, Mich.; T. E. ;O'Reilly, President of T. E. ;O'Reilly, Limited, chemical brokers, and formerly President of Chemical Products of Canada, Limited; Mr. W. H. Vanwinckel, Vice-President of the Aniline Dyes and Chemical Incorporation, New York, and formerly Sales Manager of the Dow Chemical Company.

AN ILLUMINATING REJORT.

In May and June, 1919, a Special Mission of twenty members of the Association of British Chemical Manufacturers visited the German Rhineland and, so far as permitted, investigated existing cogditions in chemical production. Some thirty-nine works were visited and the report presented is illuminating and suggestive, revealing the basis of German efficiency in production.

The report directs attention to the "providence in production" of the German system, where co-ordination between manufacturers ensures the elimination of waste by the utilisation of by-products and emphasised the fact that the British manufacturer must "give heed" to this feature if he is to compete with his German rival. The secret of German efficiency is revealed in this matter of co-ordination and in this phase the observations of the Mission are instructive. Scientific methods are credited with German efficiency and thoroughness rather than any genius for research or discovery.

In commenting on th report, the Pharmaceutical Journal says:

"In the larger works the high general efficiency is the resultant of the complete and co-ordinate combination of a number of experts, the wise and liberal use that is made of leaders in science and industry, the intelligent interest taken in chemical industry, and the effective appreciation of its value and of the status of the technical chemist by the lay community and the unstinted outlay of money in laboratories, libraries, and technical staff. At Leverkusen, besides all the control departmental laboratories, there is a separate palatial building for the scientific staff. The main library contains between 50,000 and 60,000 volumes and 60,000 to 70,000 dissertations, and also complete sets of every journal published in any part of the civilised world dealing with pure, applied, textile, and pharmaceutical chemistry. There is also a separate patents section, with its library of all the published chemical dyestuffs and pharmaceutical patents, which are regularly filed and indexed.

"The impressions and inferences of the Mission are summed up in the statement that while the German ascendancy in chemical industry is not due to any unique Teutonic faculty, it has undoubtedly been obtained through honest work, and is deserved.

"Where comparisons were possible, it has been ascertained that greater intelligence has been exhibited in English works, the processes in use having been carried to a higher level of efficiency than that reached in Germany."—Canadian Pharmaceutical Journal.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE NEW CORPORATION

PLENTY OF CAPITAL AVAILABLE FOR DEVELOPMENT PURPOSES.

(Special to The Examiner.)

MONTREAL, May 3. — Although definite announcement has not yet been made, it is generally anticipated here that Roy M. Wolvin, president of the Dominion Steel Corporation, will be the first chief executive of the $500,000,000 British Empire Steel Corporation.

D. H. McDougall, president of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, it is understood, will also occupy an important place in the administration of the big consolidation.

When seen yesterday, neither of the two presidents would confirm or deny the reports mentioned.

Mr. Wolvin, however, was enthusiastic over the prespect of the new organisation, the possibilities of which, he stated, were unlimited in their scope.

"I am tremendously pleased with the result of the negotiations," he stated. "It means that we are to have at our disposal plenty of capital to develop our plants and properties in Nova Scotia, and at Sydney particularly."

D. H. McDougall, president of the Nova Scotia enterprise, who has been close to the interests behind the ambitious consolidation, stated that the successful culmination of the negotiations was of incalculable importance to New Glasgow and to the Dominion at large.

PROSPECTING IN NEW MINING AREA

TEST WELLS FOR OIL DEPOSITS NEAR COCHRANE.

(Special to The Examiner.)

COCHRANE, May 3.—Much prospecting and exploring work is to be done this year in connection with the discovery of iron ore deposits on Belcher and other islands in the James Bay region.

Recently E. Leduc left here for Pagwa en route for Belcher Island, and he plans to remain there until March next. He took along with him the necessary machinery for drilling and other work in connection with the ore deposits.

During June two parties, representing large interests, are expected to go to the Belcher Islands. They will be accompanied by an experienced geologist.

Early in June will see rigging going into the prospective oil fields north of here, when the C. M. McCarthy interests plan to put down a number of test wells.

PETERBORO BONDS ON THE MARKET

HOUSING COMMISSION STILL IN THE PAPER STAGE.

Debentures will be offered for sale in May or June, says City Treasurer Adams in a letter to the Monetary times. There are two issues that must be disposed off soon, as follows: $260,000 6 per cent. 30-year for high level bridge; $240,000 6 per cent. 30-year, for public school building. These debentures will be straight term, will have coupons attached for half-yearly interest ,and be payable in Peterborough, Toronto and Montreal. In addition the city council is considering the issue of $200,000 6 per cent. 20-year debentures for housing purposes. A housing commission has been appointed and it is expected that at the next meeting of the council some definite action may be taken.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKETS

(Unted Press.)

NEW YORK, May 3.—The stock market to-day was jumpy, and traders were evidently nervous. The opening was irregular, and shortly after a short drive was made with quick recoveries During the first half-hour, large selling orders forced the U. S. Steel down to 94 1-2, American Woollen to 107 1-2, and Crucible to 141 1-2.

Then large buying orders suddenly made their appearance, and Bethlehem B. Jumped 4 points to 92. Lackawanna, after selling off to 78 1-4, rallied to 81 1-2.

Prices were generally irregular at the stock market opening to-day.

Crucible opened off 1-2 to 145, Central Leather 72 1-8 off 1-8, Reading 85 up 3-8, Studebaker 109 1-4 up 1 1-4, Replogle Steel 81 12 up 2 1-4, Baldwin 114 up 1 3-4, Corn Products 95 1-4 off 1-2, Mexican Petroleum 170 up 1, U. S. Steel 95 1-8 up 1-4.

Call Money.

Before noon the announcement was made that call money was renewing at 9 per cent. against a renewal rate on Friday of 8 per cent. The bears thereupon decided that money was going to be high for the current week and again sold stocks.

Crucible was particularly weak and sold off 9 points from the opening to 136. On two occasions the stock broke three points between sales.

During this raid Bethlehem Steel held up comparatively well, the B stock retaining a position above 90 1-2. American Woollen, after its early sinking spell, also rallied, holding around 109. This stock was sold freely to-day in consequence of the woollen strike.

GOSPEL HALL NOTES

Mr. Chas. Innes of Toronto, preached at all the services yesterday last night he took his subject from Isiah 59: showing man's sin as God sees it in all its horribleness.. The audience was not left there as he showed from the same chapter God's own remedy provided in Christ on the cross. An atonement for the very sins that man was guilty of.

Mr. Innes will speak every night this week All are invited.

MRS. M. E. Proctor, who says she is so grateful for what Tanlac has done for her that she wants the whole world to know about it. Declares her complete recovery after so many years of suffering seems too good to be true.

"I am so grateful for what Tanlac has done for me that I want to tell the whole world about it," said Mrs. M. E. Proctor, of 717 W. First Street, Los Angeles, Calif., when speaking of the splendid results she had obtained from the medicine. "To think that I should have suffered for so many years, and spent hundreds of dollars in vain efforts to get relief and then find complete relief after taking only four bottles of Tanlac, seems too good to be true.

"Yes, indeed; for years and years I suffered terribly from stomach trouble. Everything I ate seemed to form gas and so affected my heart and breathing that I would have palpitation and would turn purple in the face in my efforts to get my breath. These attacks caused me intense suffering and were so bad that I was frequently confined to my bed and would have to be attended by some member of the family for fear I should succumb during one of the attacks.

"I got awfully thin and was so weak that I had to give up all household duties. I often went for two weeks at a time without getting a good night's sleep, and as a consequence became very nervous and low-spirited In fact, I was a confirmed invalid and my friends did not expect me to live very long.

"I sat reading the paper one evening when my eye caught the statement of a lady who had suffered with similar trouble to my own and telling how she had been wonderfully helped by Tanlac. I sent for a bottle and started taking it and the results have been most surprising.

"My appetite is splendid now and I can eat most anything without any distress afterward. The gas has stopped forming, and I no longer have palpitation or that smothering feeling. I sleep sound all night long and get up feeling rested. I am in better health to-day than I have been for forty years, and I feel years younger.

"I don't believe there ever was as good a medicine made as Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowlers Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

A MOTHER ADVOCATES OVERALLS FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS

WOULD SEND HER BOYS TO SCHOOL IN OVERALLS IF OTHERS WILL DO THE SAME.

A mother of 4 growing and very active boys and girls in discussing the Overal Fad this morning, made the remark that if a start was made whereby young boys going to school would dress in overalls or the combinations overalls and smocks that can be obtained in the stores selling boys' clothing she thought it would be much more sensible.

Considerable of her time is spent in putting knees in stockings whether they are new or old ones, and in playing at school or going to and coming from school they get their clothes dirty and soiled making a great deal of cleaning.

This mother is going to put overalls on her children any way and if other will send their boys to school in them she will do likewise.

MEAT CUTTERS ARE STILL OUT

MEN SAY THEY ARE NOT ASKING FOR COFFEE,

Asking a 5 cents per hour increase, a guarantee of 40 hours per week and time and a half for over time the union men at the Canadian Packing Company plant and stores walked out on Saturday, May 1st. Under present conditions the employees work for 48 hours before their over time commences and the advance asked is claimed by them to be only in keeping with the general labor schedule about the city.

The men are indignant over a current rumor that they are asking for coffee in working hours and claim that there is no foundation for the statement that such is being asked.

A COMPLACENT WAITER.

The temporary waiter looked the part to perfection. He was tall and slim, and bowed quite gracefully. Mrs. Smith-Jones, who had employed him to impress her friends, felt quite elated. He gave a real "tone" to her party.

But there's always some cloud in the sky, isn't there? As the waiter handed a plate of soup to Uncle Walter, the old gentleman eyed him angrily.

"Look out, you idiot!" he stormed. "Don't you see you've got your thumb in my soup?"

"That's all right, sir!" replied the waiter casually. "It ain't burning me. It's not nearly as hot as it looks."

SUNDAY CONCERTS.

The evident enjoyment of the citizens who gathered in the G. W. V. A. Hal yesterday afternoon to hear the excellent concert given by the Veterans' Band, suggests the desirability of arranging a number of band concerts for Sunday afternoons during the summer months. A programme of sacred and standard music would be appreciated by many citizens, and doubtless the local bands would be glad to arrange such concerts, if the Council in deciding the band grant question would suggest that a series of Sunday programmes be given. The concerts could be held at an hour that would not interfere with the Sunday schools—as a matter of fact the majority of the churches have Sunday school in the morning during the hot weather, and there is no doubt that the opportunity of hearing good music would be welcomed by the people generally. Many Ontario cities have such an opportunity in the summer months, three or four concerts being given on Sunday afternoons, and everywhere they are most popular. There seems no reason why Peterborough should not be similarly favoured for the bandsmen are willing and there are splendid parks available.

A NEW PENSION SCALE.

Reports from Ottawa that the special Committee on Pensions are fully convinced that the present pension scale is inadequate and that substantial increases will have to be made, will be welcome news to many pensioners. It was difficult to see how th committee could have arrived at any other conclusion in view of the evidence that has been given before them and taking into consideration the concrete cases of suffering and hardship that must have come to the attention of the individual members in their own districts. The testimony of many witnesses was that the allowances so far given have been inadequate in the face of the high cost of living, and the committee, it is reported, are in accord with that view and are prepared to recommend to Parliament that the scale be increased. The advance to be suggested, according to press despatches, will be a twenty-five per cent. increase on the present rates. That is, a totally disabled private who at present receives $720. will have his pension increased to $1,000 a year. The Great War Veterans' Association in their recommendations suggested a minimum of $1,200, but apparently the committee are not prepared to go that far, choosing to accept the twenty-five per cent. increase advocated by officials of the Canadian Patriotic Fund. The new rates may not please all returned men, but they are a considerable improvement on the old scale.

BEAUTIFYING THE CITY.

In endorsing the clean-up week, inaugurated by the Board of Trade and which commenced to-day, His Worship Mayor McIntyre urges the citizens to co-operate, remarking that "a celan, tidy city, which includes tidy yards and premises, makes an instantaneous impression on a visitor that the city is a live one, with enterprising citizens who have a good civic spirit." Mayor McIntyre is quite right. Visitors invariably size up a city by its outward appearance and if the citizens of Peterborough enter enthusiastically into this week's campaign, they need have no fear of the impression that the city will make upon strangers during the coming summer. It is expected that the number of tourists who visit Peterborough in the next few months will be the largest in the history of the city, for the scenic beauty of the Trent waterway has been extensively advertised and the opening of the canal will bring many launch owners here, while motorists from a distance will also be constant visitors It is more than usually important that the city shall put on its finest appearance for the summer. The Board of Trade's programme for the week is not, of course, intended to be a hard and fast schedule, but is merely a list of suggestions published for the benefit of the citizens. To-day, for instance, was announced as Fire Prevention Day, and the people were urged to clean up all waste paper, rags, rubbish, etc., from basements and attics. If that important task has not been already performed, it should not be neglected, for this simple precaution may avert a disastrous fire. To-morrow the citizens are asked to clean up their gardens and lawns. Many have done so already, but a walk around the city shows that many premises would be more attractive if the suggested programme for to-morrow were to be carried out.

THE HYDRO INQUIRY.

Of the greatest interest to Peterborough is the appointment of a committee of the Legislature to "devise a more equitable system of distribution and a more uniform cost for Hydro power in the province." It is a little difficult to prophesy as to the extent the committee will go in this matter, but undoubtedly there will be a vigorous attempt to force a flat rate on Hydro power— a movement that has been in the wind for many months and that bids fair to take material form now that a committee has been appointed to inquire into the whole matter. Municipalities situated at a distance from the source of power are complaining that they are being discriminated against in the matter of rates and naturally want a uniform rate adopted, but on the other hand why should those places which are so fortunate as to be situated close to sources of power have to give up such advantages? The agitation for uniform power rates is about as logical as a demand for uniform freight rates. All municipalities cannot expect to be on the same footing in the latter respect and yet there are centres clamoring for the former concession. Towns situated on the Great Lakes have the advantage over their rivcals located on the inland rivers in the matter of shipping by water during a large part of the year. On the other hand the inland towns, or many of them are closer to power sources and this advantage counter balances the other. If Hydro power were supplied at a flat rate throughout the province, the lake ports would be on equal footing in regard to electric egergy and leave the inland centres far behind in the matter of shipping facilities.

OLEOMARGARINE.

In asking the government that the bars against the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine be permanently removed, the meeting of local women the other night adopted a sensible and logical course. The opposition to oleomargarine, both in and out of the House of Commons, is foolish where it is not selfish, and many people will agree with Hon. W. S. Fielding in his contention that the government should not temporize with the question by extending for a year the time in which the substitute for butter can be imported and manufactured and for a year and a half in which it may be sold, but rather should remove the restrictions permanently. The claim is made by opponents of oleomargarine that the dairying interest would be effected, 'ruined" some extremists put it, by the permanent legalization of oleo. Those who advance that opinion are ignoring the fact that there are no restrictions in regard to oleomargarine in Denmark, the greatest dairying country in the world, while there is not the slightest evidence that the dairymen have suffered because the sale of butter substitutes has been permitted in Canada for the past two years. With butter at its present price, it is beyond the pocket books of many citizens, and they should have a chance to secure a substitute. Barring oleomargarine would not make them buy butter—it would simply have the effect of making them do without either. There is no logical reason why those who like oleomargarine should not be allowed to get it, provided the public is safeguarded to prevent oleo from being sold as butter. With that protection arranged, any objection to the butter substitute is based on ignorance or self interest. Incidentally it is interesting to note that most of the opposition to oleomargarine and to the government resolution, came from members of the government, assisted by a few of the farmer members. The Liberals were solidly for removing the restrictions, and Mr. Michael Clarke, leader of the Agrarian group, and R. H. Halbert, U.F.O. member for North Ontario, both supported the resolution extending the time for the manufacture and sale of oleo.

A SCHOOL QUESTION.

The House of Commons had an interesting debate last week on a resolution expressing, in very general terms, the opinion that there should be a Dominion Bureau of Education. While the right of the Provincial Legislatures to enact laws respecting education was fully recognized, several members argued that there should be a Dominion authority to review the various educational efforts and endeavour to give them such a direction as would make for uniformity in many respects, and particularly to promote unity within the Dominion rather than the Provincialism which, it was thought, would naturally characterize educational work conducted entirely under Provincial authority.

There is much force in the argument that there are educational matters in which there should be common interest in all parts of the Dominion. Perhaps there is some truth in the view that the present system keeps in mind the considerations of Provincial interest rather than those affecting the Dominion at large. Uniformity in the use of some of the books that are placed in the hands of the children in the schools might be productive, in a wider degree than is at present observed, of a large Canadian spirit. The co-operation of educationists in the various Provinces is to be desired. But there is much reason to believe that these good ends can be better promoted by the organization of educational associations than by any legislative action at Ottawa.

Effective centralized educational work could hardly be done under our present constitution. The British North America Act, which is the constitution of Canada, places the work of education in the hands of the Provincial Legislatures, subject only to an appeal to the Federal authority in certain cases which do not arise in the present discussion.

The B.N.A. Act is not like the law of the Medes and Persians. It can be amended. It has been amended already, and there will be further amendments. But stability is a very desirable thing in the written constitution of a country. Frequent changes are to be discouraged, and changes should be made only in cases where there is a clear and almost unanimous call for them. It cannot be said that there is such a demand, in relation to the system of public education.

Desirable though it is in many respects, uniformity is sometimes sought to be established where it would serve no good purpose. In countries of large area there are likely to be varying conditions which cannot be best met by the enactment of unifrom laws. Even geographical and climatic conditions may require a variation in laws and regulations. If within the given area there are variations of race, language and creed, the obstacles to uniformity of law are increased. It is because of these varying conditions that the Federal system of government has been devised. The very essence of that system—the thing of which its advocates have always boasted—is that laws must be enacted to meet conditions as they exist in different parts of the territory to be governed. The United States, for example, could not have been created and maintained as a nation if a Legislative union—a centralized Government and Legislature making the same laws for all parts of the country—had been insisted on.

The same may be said of the Canadian Dominion. The convenience, and the advantage in other respects, of a Legislative union were so obvious that some of the statesmen who framed the constitution made strenuous efforts to bring the several Provinces into such an union. It is generally known that Sir John Macdonald was a strong advocate of Legislative union, and only yielded to the argument for the Federal system when he found that union under the centralized scheme was impossible. Certainly, it is clear to everybody now, that in a country such as ours uniformity of laws is not practicable; the maintenance of the union is only possible through a system which allows the several provinces to mould their local laws in accordance with the local conditions that exist. This principle, true in all things, is particularly true in relation to the question of education, concerning which there are wide differences of opinoin in the Dominion.

For these reasons an alteration of the British North America Act to bring the question of education within the jurisdiction of the Parliament of Ottawa does not seem to be desirable. But there is no reason why there should not be conferences and co-operation, not necessarily of an official character, between the educational authorities and leaders of all the Provinces, with a view to making the education question one of Dominion wide interest, and bringing about harmonious action where such is practicable without invading the sphere of Provincial authority. —Journal of Commerce.

HAD ECZEMA
For Over 28 Years

Eczema or Salt Rheum manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust is formed, and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat is almost unbearable.

The success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in skin diseases of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties, and we know of no other remedy that has done or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Mr. James Walker, 152 Niagara St., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I have been using Burdock Blood Bitters for some months past, and find it an excellent remedy for skin eruptions. I have suffered with eczema for over 28 years, and have tried almost everything you could think of. I was recommended to use Burdock Blood Bitters, and I am now clear of my skin trouble. It is certainly a good remedy and I shall recommend it to all my friends."

OUIJA BOARDS MADE BY MILLIONS

BRIDGTON, Me.— The pine trees of Maine contribute to the magic of the ouija board for in Bridgton a woodworking shop is busy from morning till night making pine boards into the small table of the ouija, called the traveler, on which the fingers rest when talking with the spirits. In fact, the peculiar charm of the Maine pine is communicated to the mystic, illusive quality of the ouija and adds its part to the general fascination of this wonderful medium of the spirit world.

The last order of the shop is for half a million of the little travelers, five men beside the proprietor being employed, and for several years past the entire output of the shop has been the ouija board travelers. The small, heart-shaped board and the tiny legs are made by special machinery, which can turn out a great many in a day. The name Ouija has been printed on those previously made, but the latest design has a tiny glass inserted in the wood.

The pine trees must be of the best and they are obtained from the woodsmen in the vicinity, the logs brought to the shop, where they are sawed into boards from which the special machinery cuts them into the heart-shaped travelers which have brought so many secrets from the spirit world. It is believed by some that the pine trees, which have been caressed by the soft breezes of summer and buffeted by the wild storms of winter, have made the spirit of the elements a part of themselves and have passed this magic on to the ouija heart.

ACCIDENT TO THE CANON BALL EXPRESS

TRAIN EXCEEDED THE SPEED LIMIT ON PORT HOPE LINE.

The Port Hope mixed, which leaves Lindsay at 6 a.m., met with an accident on Friday morning at Carmel station, near Port Hope. Seven cars left the track, completely blocking traffic. Lindsay auxiliary was called to the scene. As a result of the accident train No. 95 from Port Hope was an hour late last night.

The Port Hope Guide has the following reference to the accident:

Three freight cars and two pasenger coaches left the rails and the freight cars overturned into the ditch, a distance of ten or twelve feet. These cars were loaded with pulp wood and were badly smashed. The baggage car and the passenger coach remained upright, but the latter was just on the balance and another foot wuld have hurled it over the embankment with serious results to the passengers. Most of the passengers were High School students and they were transferred to a freight car and had a jolly ride to Port Hope. The auxiliary from Lindsay is busy clearing up the wreckage An engine and two coaches have been running from here to the wreck and transferring passenegrs to and from the regular trains.

HIGHER FOOD VALUES

Rice and Macaroni Cheaper Than Potatoes on Present Basis.

In seeking a substitute for potatoes as they soar out of range the following schedule of food values may serve as a helpful guide:—

	Rice	Macaroni	Potatoes
Calories per lb.	1,630	1,640	380
Proteid, per lb	7.8	11.7	2.1
Fat per lb.	.4	1.6	.1

On this basis it was stated that macaroni, especially the sun dried Italian product was cheaper and more nourishing than potatoes. The mineral salts which are found in potatoes can be added artificially to the macaroni by boiling it in lime water, hard water and so forth. The value of macaroni depends of course upon the quality of the article. There are good brands and also brands that contain less nutriment. But with a reputabe make that costs from 12 to 15 cets a pound, macaroni as a food is cheaper and more nourishing than potatoes. It has much greater dietetic value than the potato which is 90 per cent. water.

Rice has had such a rise in price that as a general substitute for potatoes it is too dear although in nutritive value it is far superior. But even it is cheaper than potatoes at $6.00 a bag.

The comparison of prices showed that with potatoes selling at $6.00 a bag, that is six cents a pound; macaroni at 14 cents; and rice at 18 cents, potatoes are a luxury, for they are ruinously above both the other foods in the two principal constituents, fat and proteids, and the resultant calories. It takes 4 1-3 pounds of tubers to produce the calories that are the result of one pound of macaroni. At six cents a pound it means that it costs 26 cents to produce the same number of callories that can be obtained from macaroni at 14 cents a pound. The difference is rather startling to the housekeeper.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS.

By JANE PHELPS

SANDRA IS ONCE AGAIN DISTURBED BY GOSSIP.

CHAPTER CXII

I answered Rose's letter, comforting her as well as I could. Had it not reached me at a time when Everett was cross with me because of my attitude toward Miss ane, I think I might perhaps have written differently. I remembered afterwards that some things I said might be construed that I too was unhappy, that my husband wasn't all I wished he were. I had kept all my troubles to myself ever since I had married; I had no intention of telling any now, especially as my present troubles were so slight compared to what I had considered the others —when I first married. But one expression which I had used I regretted. I had said:

"Don't think you are the only person in the world who has trouble and is unhappy; for you are not." Of course she might take it as a generality; again, she might think I was writing of myself. I thought of something Everett had said to me when we were first married.

"Give your confidence to no one except your husband, Sandra. You will save yourself many regrets if you remember this advice. It may be a relief at the time to tell your troubles, either real or imaginary, but in the end it always brings regret, often embarrassment."

I really had followed his advice, in that I had kept my own counsel in many ways. Often when tempted to tell of something which had disturbed me, or to write to Mother when I felt lonely and neglected, I remembered what Everett had said and waited. Invariably I had been glad I had done so.

I had not felt any happier about Miss Lane. She had adopted a manner of hurt silence toward me, never speaking unless I spoke to her unless it was unavoidable. I tried to ignore her as much as possible—as much as she did me. But it is hard to have your baby in the hands of someone with whom you cannot talk of his cunning ways, his beauty, etc. As often as possible I took Hetty and we would go to the park with him. Then I was really and truly happy. Hetty and I would admire him to our heart's content, gloating over him like a couple of misers. Hetty disliked Miss Lane even more than I did, I think, altho I never had mentioned my feelings to her.

"She thinks no one knows nothing about a baby but her, and she wants more waiting on than anyone else in the house," Hetty sputtered—common complaint of servants when a nurse is employed, I have since discovered.

"I guess she does know a lot, or the doctor would not have spoken so highly of her," was my reply.

"There is no reason why you should not go." Everett said impatiently. He had asked me if I would like to go to the theater, and I had demurred because of Baby. "Miss Lane is perfectly capable of taking care of Junior."

"Very well, I can go if you wish it" I had not forgiven him for making me apologize to Miss Lane, and my answer was ungracious.

"I do wish it! Look your best."

It seemed as if I never was to have any joy in my life. Gossip had made my marriage almost an unhappy one for years, by talking of Everett's first wife; and now gossip was trying to take away my joy in my darling boy. That the gossip, of either sex, was a person of no importance I had yet to learn. I could not help attaching a certain meaning to what I heard. Once I heard Mrs. Gray say:

"There's never much smoke unless there is a little fire," when she referred to something Hetty told her. ison, that fat Mr. Leveridge came

Therefore when, during intermis- over to speak to us, and he congratulated me at again being out, and turned to Everett to say in his oily manner something about the baby, I listened intently. He said:

"Well, Graham, I suppose you feel vindicated now because you married Mrs. Graham. I expect you are as proud as a peacock over the youngster. Can't say I hope he will resemble you. He will be far better looking if he looks like his lovely young mother, instead of an old has-been like you." He chuckled at what he evidently considered a facetious remark. But Everett had flushed painfully, and I heard him mutter:

"The d— fool"! As Everett never swore, I knew he had been very much annoyed I had been made distinctly unhappy. It was the same old thing. Everett had not married me because he loved me.

Faint and Dizzy Spells

Weakness and Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women become run down and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—"I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."

EGYPT AS AN AIRPLANE JUNCTION

Speaking at a recent meeting of the Royal Geographical Society in London, Sir Frederick Sykes dwelt at length upon the extensive projects which Great Britain has under way for the development of commercial aviation. During the eight months of last year which began with May 1 he declared that the total number of hours flown by their machines engaged in civil aviation, exclusive of the competition flights from England ot Australia, amounted to 8,368, that the number of flights exceeded 35,000, that the mileage almost reached 600,000, and that the exact number of passengers carried was 64,416. Also that during that period there occurred 18 accidents, causing the deaths of four pilots and one passenger and injuries to six pilots and ten passengers. These figures show a ratio of one accident to nearly 33,000 miles flown.

In the development of her aerial system the speaker said that Egypt must for a long time be the "Hub," or the "Clapham Junction" of the routes to India, Australia and Cape Town, the heart of the system. There are various complications awaiting slution before the utmost freedom of communication will be possible between England and France, problems international, meteorological and technical. Malta probably will be made an intermediate landing place between London and Alexandria. Aviators find the weather conditions stable on the whole between Egypt and India, and while the sea voyage from Port Said to Bombay requires nine days under normal conditions, the distance is made through the air flying only in daytime in four days. To reach Bagdad from Cairo by the routes now used requires three or four weeks; the fliers do it in ten hours. Through the co-operation of the Dutch government in Holland and the governor-general of the Dutch East Indies, an air route from India to Australia is likely soon to be opened. The routes from Egypt to the Cape and from Egypt to Australia have been plotted, stations have been constructed, and experimental flights have been made to the down under land while that over Africa is now under way. The last link of the world chain which England expects to forge will be that between London and Montreal, across the Atlantic. Reading attentively the long address of this authority the dreams of Tennyson, Jules Verne and Kipling do not seem so very far distant after all.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

SEES SAFETY IN CHEMISTRY.

England Must Establish Industry Equal to Germany's, says Professor.

LONDON, April 29.—Lecturing on "Chemistry and the War," Professor Francis, Dean of the Faculty of Chemistry, in Bristol University, said recently that in fine chemistry Germany's position was immeasurably superior to that of England. The ammonia future of Europe, he asserted, lay with Germany, which was in a position to supply essential fertilizers to the whole of Europe.

"The safety of our Empire depends on our establishing an industry such as Germany's," he continued, "and it must be established irrespective of preconceived notions about fiscal policy. The most alarming out come of the war is the new chemical arm—an advance comparable to that of the firearm over the bow and arrow, with possibilities infinitely greater. If it is possible to create fog for any length of time the nation that first discovers it has the rest of the world in its pocket."

THE SCHOOL OF PAIN.

This is the hard school kept by Pain,
With pupils sad and white,
While some shed tears like falling rain,
From dreary morn till night.

Some knit the brow and clinch the fist,
And fill the heart with Hate,
And some cross languid wrist on wrist,
And say this is their fate.

But those who study very hard,
And learn that Pain can bless,
Are sent out in a leafy yard
To play with Happiness.

SPECIAL ANNIVERSARY SERVICES YESTERDAY AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

DR. ROBERT JOHNSTON, OF MONTREAL, PREACHED TWO EXCELLENT MESSAGES.

Yesterday at both morning and evening services the seating capacity of St. Paul's Church was taxed to the utmost when Rev. Robert Johnston D.D., of Montreal, preached two eloquent and instructive sermons, the occasion of his visit to the city being the celebration of the anniversary of the church.

"God's Persistent Love", was the subject of the inspiring message preached by Dr. Johnston at the evening service and the text used by him Malachi 1. verse 2; "I have loved you saith the Lord." which text, the speaker said, was not only the dominant note of the book of Malachi but of the entire Old Testament. Through the 400 years which followed the prophecy of Malachi, unillumined by a vision of God or the voice of prophecy that same message stole through the silence. Due to the fact that Malachi is one of the two prophets, who belong to a period of reconstruction the message is peculiarly suitable to to-day. The question which naturally arises is what were the conditions existing in the Promised Land in which Malachi laboured. We find with a careful study of Malachi a city restored in which the feasts of former days had been re-established, yet withal we find that there was a form or religion with very little of its spirit, and great attention to sacramental observance without the spirit. It was a day of ritualism and of formalism; a day with much outward sign which satisfied the people This was the spirit which created the condition. And so we find the people of Malachi's day attending to external worship but with nothing of that which makes for the worship of God. They had given everything and yet had withheld that which satisfies the heart.

Conditions of To-day.

And so, the speaker continued we have the same condition to-day and there is just one way to correct it. Are you, he asked trying to escape God to-day, taking devious ways of avoiding thinking his being captor of your soul would mean its imprisonment? You cannot avoid his love. He will search till he finds your soul. Mr. Johnston appealed to the congregation to say as the student who stood before the picture of the Man of Galilee. "If there is anything you want count on me."

Throughout the four hundred years till that quiet night of Galilee his message "I have loved you" is the message which throbbed through the ages still rings through the world and to-day in the world's sickness, and sorrow it cannot fail.

Special Music.

The music at both services was especially good, both the work of the choir and organist being keenly appreciated.

A DANGER SIGNAL— TENDER AND BLEEDING GUMS

Healthy teeth cannot live in diseased tissue. Gums tainted with Pyorrhea are dangerously diseased. For not only the teeth are affected, but Pyorrhea germs seep into the body, lower its vitality and cause many ills.

Pyorrhea begins with tender and bleeding gums. Then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the poisonous germs that breed in pockets about them.

Four out of five people over forty have this disease. But you need not have it. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection. And keep Pyorrhea away by using Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For The Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress—if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy, the teeth white and clean. If you have tender or bleeding gums, start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

GEORGE STREET CHURCH SERVICES

The quarterly sacramental services at George Street Church yesterday were observed by a very large number of the members. These were not only the last to be administered by Rev. A. J. Thomas, but also until next September. The love feast at ten o'clock was attended by a goodly number. Between 60 and 700 members partook of the Lord's Supper at 11 o'clock. There was also a reception service for new members. 140 adults being received into full membership on profession of faith and by letter and 32 into junior membership. It is interesting to note that during the past three years over 500 have been received into membership. This is the splendid record which Mr. Thomas leaves behind him, due to his untiring zeal in winning souls to Christ. In his evening discourse Mr. Thomas dealt with the subject of "The Elements of True Friendship," taking his text from Proverbs 18, 24: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." Without our friends life would be like a wilderness. The genius for friendship has been a characteristic of mankind throughout all the ages. The friendship of David and Jonathan was cited as one of the finest examples of friendship that has ever been known between mankind. The average individual realises but little how much he owes in his material success to the power of friendship. No one is quite the same after having had the association of a powerful soul in friendship. If a man such as Phillip Brooks could have an influence such as he had over those who came into his presence, what must be the influence of the Lord Jesus? Since Friendship is so important it is well for us to ask ourselves by what standard true friendship should be judged. Congeniality, sincerity, fidelity, unselfishness, and moral principle are some of the things we should look for in true friendship. There is something which is even better than all these, however, a common devotion for the Lord Jesus, a great passion to do the will of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. In concluding his remarks, Mr. Thomas admonished his congregation to bear four points in mind: 1, to cherish the friends that have been tried and tested throughout the years; 2, to be very cautious in our choice of friends; 3, to give our friends and everybody the very best we have; 4, always make a friend of Jesus. "Jesus is ever seeking friends," said Mr. Thomas. "It is our privilege to enter into that holy fellowship and communion if we consent to the terms which Jesus laid down when He said 'Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you.' Let us live in His presence, let us open our hearts to Him, and let us devote our energies to His service."

BRISTOL. — There was serious rioting here to-night as the result of agitation by 6,000 unemployed ex-service men agains tthe employment of women on the tramways.

SMALL FIRE IN A GEORGE ST. STORE

At 8.25 last night a fire alarm from Box 23 brought the Sunday evening George street promenaders and the people just out of church in droves to the vicinity of the fire which was caused by the breakdown in the generator in the cellar of Grant and Thorpe's store, causing it to overheat. The fire caused more excitement than damage. The damage was entirely confined to the generator, which is out of business to-day. The power was shut off in the generator and the fire was soon over, to the evident disappointment of the crowds, that were looking for something sensational.

CABINET CRISIS INVOLVES ITALY

By Camillo Cianfara,
(United Press.)

ROME, May 3. — A new cabinet crisis involving Premier Nitti was regarded probable here to-night. The crisis it was said, would come from the attitude of the National Council of the Catholic party, which has voted against Nitti because of dissatisfaction over his internal and foreign policies. The Council accused Nitti of partiality toward the Socialists, permitting ostracism of the "white" labar unions and of passivity toward provokers of disorder. The Premier also was blamed for his failure to settle the Adriatic controversy during the recent San Remo conference.

WHEN MOTHER WAS A GIRL.

My mother says when she was just my age
She always did what she was told to do;
She never sulked nor stamped her feet with rage—
I think her memory must be bad. Don't you?

At breakfast time her hair was always brushed,
Her face and neck and ears were clean and sweet;
But when YOU oversleep you are too rushed
To make yourself so very, very neat!

She says of course she loved Grimm's Fairy Tales,
But thought geography was just as nice.
She really loved to practice chords and scales!
She never ran away from dogs and mice!

She says they never spanked her more than once
For making just the same mistake (like me!)
But if that's so, why am I such a dunce?—
Her memory must be bad, it seems to me!

CLOSES SON IN ORDEAL OF PROFESSIONAL HONOR

Doctor on Mission to a Patient Would Not Turn Back to Aid His Dying Offspring.

GENEVA.—A French doctor named Tissot, who lives at Bonneville, near Geneva, was confronted with a terrible ordeal involving his professional honor.

Dr. Tisson received a telephone call from a neighboring village informing him that a patient suffering from influenza was in a serious condition. He started immediately, but his carriage was overtaken by a messenger, who said that the doctor's son, 17 years old, had fallen into a ravine while collecting alpine flowers and had fractured his skull The boy's condition was described as critical.

The physician, after hesitating for a few moments, drove on to his influenza patient. On returning home he found his son dead.

FOREIGN WEEK AT THE Y. W. C. A.

This is Foreign Week at the Young Women's Christian Association. Girls in China, India and Japan want the boarding homes, gymnasia, Bible classes, clubs, swimming pools and smmer camps that the Y.W.C.A. offers. They want the good times, the comradeship and all the best things that go with the Association. And so this week the girls of the Peterborough Association are giving, and getting their friends to give, in order to help send the Y.W.C.A. to the girls of foreign lands. Working under Miss Brownscombe, Miss Payne, Miss Pryce and Miss Thompson respectively, are four teams of girls, each selling shares in the foreign work at ten cents a share and each trying to outsell the other. Some people ask, 'What will be our dividends from these shares?" To-morrow night, at eight o'clock, Miss Rose Beatty, the national foreign secretary, is going to speak on the girls of foreign lands, and will tell just what the dividends from these shares will be. Everybody is welcome at this meeting.

EVANGELIST KENNEDY AT CLARINDA, IOWA, U.S.A.

The following is taken from the Clarinda Herald, Clarinda, Iowa, regarding a recent campaign there, conducted by Evangelist Kennedy and Miss Clara Kidd, both of our city:

The three weeks' union revival meetings have closed. Sunday was to have been the closing day, but Mr. Kennedy, by request of pastors and people, stayed over Monday night to preach his sermon on "Christ's Second Coming," and the house was crowded to bid farewell to the evangelists. An exceedingly kindly spirit prevailed, with everybody and many kind words were said by the pastors and people regarding their work. In a substantial way the committee in charge showed their appreciation in handing the evangelists a cheque for over $800 for their services. We believe Mr. Kennedy has few equals in the field to-day as a Bible teacher, and Miss Kidd's songs were always enjoyed by our people. The meetings were far-reaching. Meetings were held in shops, factories and schools during the day. Then large delegatins would gather at night at the church. Some nights an overflow meeting had to be held in another church. High school night abut 250 young people came in a body, and many sought the Lord, All the co-operating churches ogt a great spiritual uplift, as was shown in the large attendance at the prayer meetings Wednesday night. Mr. Kennedy and Miss Kidd have left many friends behind them here. They open next in Winnipeg, Canada. We wish them God speed.

Litter and dirt in backyards bear evidence of the months of sleet and snow. The weather beaten fence and woodwork about the house are the worse for wear, and the Rugs, Carpets, and interiors of Homes are proofs of many hours spent indoors. Transforming the ugly with a touch of colour, and what a drab old world it would be without the enlivening influence of pretty tints to please the eye.

This Store was put in order some months ago, but we are never satisfied. Always we are making an alteration here or there in an endeavour to make this a more pleasant place to shop in.

REV. DOUGALD BROWN PREACHES FAREWELL MESSAGE YESTERDAY

CONCLUDES A FIVE-YEAR PASTORATE AT PARK STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Yesterday morning at Park street Baptist church Rev. Dougald Brown preached his farewell sermon, taking as his text Hosea, 7: 1, "When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephrai mwas discovered, and wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without."

Rev. Mr. Brown was deeply moved in saying farewell to the congregation of whom he has been pastor for five years. He said it was always difficult to leave a place and people. Associations formed were many and far-reaching, but to be friends everywhere could not be expected. He had always endeavoured to warn his congregation against sin and to exhort them to faith in Jesus Christ and hence his last message would be a warning against sin. His power, however, he went on to say, was limited and he was not infallible, but his great desire had always been to benefit the people by preaching the gospel.

The Great Promise of God.

The great promise of God, Mr. Brown said, was contained in the quotation, "He has given his angels charge over you," and we should be loyal to Jesus Christ. Religion was a rare thing and the world had become so entwined about us that it was difficult to tell who was a Christian and who was not.

Sin a Disease.

Sin, Mr. Brown stated, was a disease, malignant and deadly in its effects, an open wound. No wound could be healed unitl it had been probed. Probing was pleasant neither to the physician or the patient, but it was very necessary. Truth was the probing instrument of the Great Spirit and cut like a lance. Sin was like leprosy, when healed in one place it broke out in another and robbed the body of its beauty, the mind of its vigor and the soul of its devotion.

"What Profiteth a Man—"

Ephraim ,as the text showed, Mr. Brown continued, was false politically and religiously. He lied to his king and his God. He was false in worship and false in profession. When we became false in principle and practice we were in a bad state. Sin was the fuel of gossip and religion was the basis of social, moral and spiritual life. The day of the death of the soul was more to be feared than the day of the death of the body, for as Christ said, "What profiteth a man if he gain the whole world and lose his soul." Sin was the great cause of lost health and position and decayed intellect and was lit on fire of hell."

His Last Message.

In concluding, Mr. Brown said he would not forget this church, but would pray for it. Its members must draw together and do so through love of Christ. He believed in Park street Baptist church and knew of no other church in the city with the same field and opportunity. His closing advice was to get together in Jesus' name, do things for His sake, and fight sin, high. God sent the "Dayspring," but the "Dayspring" also came. Light, beauty, joy and activity, all come with the "Dayspring." But the day will gorw brighter. "At even time it shall be light," and earth's evening shall melt into the morning of eternal day.

"The Sentry on the Wall" was the evening subject, and the text was "Watchman What of the Night?" Isaiah, xxi:11. Note the following points of discussion.

First—Isaiah stands on the wall of Zion looking through the glass of prophetic vision. The modern preacher is also on the wall. What are the signs of the times Isaiah? What seest thou modern watchman? What is the news from the pulpit to the crowd?

Second—Who are asking "What of the Night?" (a) The utterly careless, indifferent and Godless; (b) Some ask with contempt, this question; (c) Some ask the question with honor and despair; (d) Others ask the question with breaking heart.

Third—The Watchman faced the burning question. He uttered threat and promise alike. He fearlessly called men to repentance.

Fourth—As men of God it is ours to watch on the wall. To stand at our post, and sound the news. A man may so accustom himself to say "All is Well," that some day he may slip into hell with a false optimism on his lips; yes, and drag others with him. As long as we try to make ourselves believe that things are ship shape, we will never make much move to make them better.

NOT WITH VAIN TEARS

Not with vain tears, when we're beyond the sun,
We'll beat on the substantial doors, nor tread
Those dusty highroads of the aimless dead
Plaintive for Earth; but rather turn and run
Down some close-covered byway of the air.
Some low sweet alley between wind and wind,
Stoop under faint gleams, thread the shadows, find
Some whispering ghost-forgotten nook and there
Spend in pure converse our eternal day
Think each in each, immediately wise:
Learn all we lacked before; hear, know, and say
What this tumultuous body now denies;
And feel, who have laid our groping hands away:
And see, no longer blinded by our eyes.

PUMPS AIR INTO BRAIN

John Hopkins Surgeon Discovers a Method of Locating Obstructions.

BALTIMORE, O., —Dr. Walter E. Dandy, associate in surgery at John's Hopkins Hospital, has discovered a process by which purified air is pumped into the channels of the human brain Thus making possible a study of the living brain, something that has been the dream of scientists for generations.

The discovery is of great importance, making possible the exact location of brain tumors which, after having been located, can be removed.

In every case where it has been used the method has been successful in locating tumors and other brain obstructions within a hairbreadth.

One af the remarkable features of the discovery is that it is most efficacious when only a local anaesthetic is used. At first Dr. Dandy used a complete anaesthetic. Then he tried an anaesthetic designed only to kill the pain of boring through the skull and into the ventricle. It was discovered that the patient felt no ill effects and was able to give assistance to the surgeon.

CHILDLESS WOMEN

Please Read This Letter And See What Normal Health Will Do For You.

Berwick, Ont.—"I had organic trouble, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Medicine all my troubles passed away. I was made strong and well and have been ever since. Now we have a fine baby boy six months old, and I know that I would not have this baby and would still be suffering if it had not been for your remedies. My husband and myself say that your remedies are worth their weight in gold, and I recommend them to my friends. One of my aunts is taking them now."—Mrs. NAPOLEON LAVIGNE, Berwick, Ontario, Canada.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is its ability to correct sterility in many cases. This fact is well established as evidenced by the above letter and hundreds of others we have published in these columns.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

When Buying a Watch Think First of Quality

THE FIRST COST of an inferior Watch is a long way from being its last cost.

Watchmakers nowadays receive high wages. Their bills are apt to be large for time spent in trying to repair low grade watches. It is far better to buy a Guaranteed Watch from us, and save repair bills.

FINE CONCERT BY THE G.W.V.A. BAND

THE VETERANS' ORGANIZATION DELIGHTS AUDIENCE WITH CHOICE PROGRAMME AT SUNDAY RECITAL.

The great progress that has been made by the band of the Great War Veterans' Association was strikingly illustrated yesterday afternoon, when a splendid concert was given in the G. W.V.A. Hall, under the direction of Bandmaster Walter Hughes, late of the 93rd Band, C.E.F., and Baudmaster W. H. Peryer, ex-bandmaster of the Eastern Ontario Reserve, C.E.F. A number of invited guests, including members of the City Council and members of the G.W.V.A. and their wives were delighted with the programme, and the playing of the band, which numbered forty men, was a revelation to those who have not had the pleasure recently of hearing the organization. The form shown was enough to warrant the prediction that the people of Peterborough will have a series of most enjoyable concerts during the summer months and to cause considerable speculation as to why anyone should fancy that the Veterans' band was "on its last legs."

The band has developed greatly during the past winter and its programme yesterday demonstrated an evenness of tone and a sureness of attack that were remarkable. A varied and most artistic programme was offered and each number was successfully presented. The biggest number was the grand descriptive military fantasia, "For King and Country," involving the national airs of the allied countries as well as many of the military songs that have been popular in the British Empire during the war. The selection was given an effective and spirited rendition, the band arising to the patriotic fervour of the selection. The ever popular overture, "Lutspiel," was played with a full appreciation of its possibilities, and the bright tunefulness of the potpouri of revue hits, "Joyland," was rendered with the necessary vim and snap. One of the gems of the programme was the serenade, "Nights in June," which the band played with admirable restraint. The number was written by Bandmaster Peryer, and was one of the most enjoyable of the afternoon. The striking concert waltz, "Destiny," and two dashing marches, "On the Quarter Deck" and "Col. Bogey," were the other band numbers, and all three were given a sparkling rendition.

An individual triumph was scored by Bandsman Frank Robinson, who played the popular "Roses of Picardy" as a cornet solo in a manner that won him an enthusiastic encore. He showed himself a thorough master of his instrument in this selection, and it is hoped that there will be many opportunities of hearing this artist during the summer months.

The whole programme was a delightful treat, and the audience thoroughly enjoyed every number. The concerts in the park this year will be eagerly awaited by those who were fortunate enough to be present yesterday.

WEALTHY N. D. FARMER AND FAMILY MURDERED; BABY IS ONLY SURVIVOR

Arrest of Two Men Suspected of Crime is Expected in Near Future.

TURTLE LAKE, N.D., April 30.—The arrest of two men believed responsible for the murder of eight persons on the farm of Jacob Wolf, near here, is expected before night MacLean country officials said today. John Bretton, farmer, gave good descriptions of two men seen walking away from the Wolf farm Thursday afternoon, the day the murders are believed to have been committed. Deputies and neighboring farmers were scouring the district in search of the pair.

Robberry is believed to have led to the murders. The house had been searched. The bodies of Mrs Wolf, three other daughters and a hired man were thrown in the cellar. The body af Wolf and two other children were found burried under a pile of hay in a cow shed nearby. All but one had been killed with a shot gun used at close range. One was killed with a blow from a hatchet.

The shot gun was found in a puddle a mile from the farm. The stock had been detached and was floating. It was new. Deputies today were trying to trace the sale. Wolf, neighbors said, had often told of keeping large sums of money in his home.

Little Emma Wolf, eight months old, is the sole surviving member of the family. She is heir to the $30,000 farm. Neighbors are caring for the baby, who had practically recovered from exposure for nearly 40 hours by an open window.

ABYSSINIA KNOWN AS FIRST HOME OF COFFEE.

Abyssinia was the original home of coffee and the original discoverers were the Abyssinia goats, says Floyd W. Parsons. The coffee berry as a drink for humans was discovered as a French monk noticed that the goats were unusually frisky after eating the whole coffee berries. The first coffee house on record was established at Mocha in 1285. Coffee houses were introduced into Constantinople in 1554 and were largely patronized by literary men. Some time later, however, the Turk Government shut down all the coffee houses in the country, believing that coffee harmed the human system. A wave of public protest forced the government to re-open them.

Coffee was introduced into England by Pasqua Rosee, a Greek servant who learned to make Turkish coffee in Constantinople. He opened a coffee house in London in 1652 telling the British people that the new drink "so closes the orifice of the stomach and fortifies heat within it that it is very good to help the digestion. It much quickens the spirits and makes the heart lightsome. It is good against sore eyes and the better if you hold your head over it, and take the steam that way. It suppresseth fumes and therefore is good against the headache."

Until the end of the Seventeenth Century coffee had been grown only in Arabia, but the Dutch then took the seeds to Java, and from there to the West Indies. Now it is grown generally throughout the civilized regions of the tropical world.

A lady in turning a street corner in a busy thoroughfare the other day ran against a little beggar boy and almost knocked him down. She graciously begged his pardon and said she was very sorry.

The poor lad was astonished. He looked at her for a moment in surprise, and then, taking off about three quarters of a cap, he made a low bow and said, with a broad smile spread over his face: "You can hev my parding, miss, and welcome, and the next time you run agin me you may knock me clean down and I won't say a word."

Chateau de Ramezay One of Montreal's Historic Relics

The running of the sands of time alone can give the proper perspective and value to historic buildings. Societies spring up to preserve these relics of the past.

Perhaps the most famous of these memorials of the past in Canada is the Chateau de Ramezay in Montreal, which has remained almost untouched since the days of the old French regime. It was built in 1705 by Seigneur Claude de Ramezay, eleventh governor of Montreal. Here he kept open house with his wife, whose hand was the reward of his gallant sortie with 200 men in aid of Quebec in 1690, when the Count de Frontenac, governor of Canada, treated off the English fleet of Sir William Phipps.

The Chateau stands in what was once the fashionable part of old Montreal, amid mansions and gardens that merged into the neighboring forests. To-day the homes of Montreal have forsaken the busy waterfront and climb, their charming gardens still clinging to them, up the slopes of Mount Royal.

From the days of de Ramezay the Chateau has been the scene of many historic assemblies. Its roof sheltered not only the governor-generals, their suites of fair women and brave men and their illustrious guests, but fur traders, scouts, militia leaders, and Indians.

In 1745 it passed into the hands of the Compagnie des Indes and as Indie House became the centre of a great fur trade, filling this picturesque and important role for nearly twenty years.

In 1763, after the cession of Canada, it was again the residence of the governor, and invitations to receptions held there during the following century are still in existence.

The Chateau was headquarters for the army of the Continental Congress in its fruitless effort to hold Canada for the thirteen colonies. After Benedict Arnold failed in his treason he retired to Montreal and stayed there for a time. Benjamin Franklin lived in the Chateau when he visited Montreal in 1776 in his effort to persuade the French Canadians to join the new nation to the south, but his was a vain hope. During his stay there he established the Montreal "Gazette," which is still running. Needless to say, he did not found this paper for the purpose of propaganda.

After 1849, the Chateau was for thirty-five years used for government offices. When the government removed to Ottawa, the city presented the Chateau to the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society for a museum, and as such it is unique. Its collection contains all sorts of things ranging from crude homemade utensils fashioned by the clumsy hands of frontier habitants to portraits done by world-renowned artists. One of the most priceless things among the thousands contained in the Lemoine hall, hung in the chateau there in 1776,

THE PASSING STRANGE.

Since moons decay and suns decline
How else should end this life of mine?
Water and saltness are not wine.

But in the darkest hour of night,
When even the foxes peer for sight,
The byre-cock crows; he feels the light.

So, in this water mixed with dust,
The byre-cock spirit crows from trust,
That death will change because it must.

For all things change; the darkness changes,
The wandering spirits change their ranges,
The corn is gathered to the granges.

The corn is sown again, it grows;
The stars burn out, the darkness goes,
The rhythms change, they do not close.

They change, and we, who pass like foam,
Like dust blown through the streets of Rome,
Change ever, too; we have no home.

Only a beauty, only a power,
Sad in the fruit, bright in the flower
Endlessly erring for its hour.

But gathering, as we stray, a sense
Of Life, so lovely and intense,
It lingers when we wander hence.

That those who follow feel behind
Their backs, when all before is blind,
Our joy, a rampart to the mind.

—John Mansfield, in the Yale Review.

HOW'S YOUR BLOOD?

Pimples and Eruptions Mean Bad Blood

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a temperance remedy made of wild roots and barks, such as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is and has been for nearly 50 years. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

In place of the impurities, the arteries and veins gradually get fresh vitalized blood and the action of this good blood on the skin means that pimples, boils, carbuncles, eczema, rash, acne and many skin blemishes will disappear. Then you must remember that when the blood is right, the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys become healthy, active and vigorous and you will have no more trouble with indigestion, backache, headache.

Get Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day at any medicine dealers, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10c for trial package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont.

BRAMPTON, ONT.—"A few years ago I was in a nervous and run-down condition and felt greatly in need of a tonic. A friend who was being helped by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advised me to try it, too. It helped me from the very start and eventually restored me to perfect health. I feel in a position to praise the 'Golden Medical Discovery' very highly and take pleasure in recommending it to all those who are at all nervous, weak or run-down."—Miss. ESTHER PEARSON.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"POLLYANNA".

"Pollyanna," the comedy based on the novel of the same name by Eleanor H. Porter, was the offering at the Grand on Saturday and seemed to please a rather small audience. Some of the characters and the New England "local colour" were overdrawn but the comedy proved amusing and the "glad game" as expounded by Pollyanna Whittier was worth thinking over.

The plot centres about Pollyanna Whittier, the daughter of a poverty-stricken Ozark Mountain missionary, who has inspired his little daughter with the ideal of perennial gladness which she terms the "glad game". In the little New England village where she goes to live with her aunt after her father's death, she brings gladness into the lives of all, turning all the pessimists into optimists, reuniting her Aunt Polly and her girlhood sweetheart, Dr. Ghilton, banishing the cynical gloom of the wealthy John Pendleton, the one-time suitor of her mother, and finding a love of her own in Jimmy Bean, the runaway orphan whom Pendleton had adopted through her influence.

Miss Bianca Robinson was a refreshing bit of sunshine in the title role. Anne Blonde was effective in the part of Aunt Polly, while Pacie Ripple as John Pendleton and James Kyrle Mac Courdy as Doctor Chilton, the two bachelors disappointed in love did excellent work. John King John and Frank B. MacDonald as Jimmy Bean at the ages of 12 and 17 respectively were the juveniles.

BRAVES AND ROBINS BATTLE 26 INNINGS EACH SCORING ONCE.

BOSTON, May 3. — The major league record for the number of innings in a single game went to smash Saturday when for 26 innings and three hours and 50 minutes the Boston and Brooklyn Nationals battled to a 1 to 1 tie on Braves' Field. Joe Oeschger, for Boston, and Leon Cadore, for Brooklyn, stayed in the box for the entire distance.

The previous record was made on September 1, 1908, when the Philadelphia Americans defeated Boston 4 to 1 in 24 innings. On that occasion Jack Coombs was in the box and was opposed by Joe Harris.

Oeschger allowed only nine hits, struck out six men and gave five bases on balls. Cadore was hit safely fifteen times, struck out seven men, and gave four bases on balls.

You'd startle your tailor if, when you wanted a suit of clothes, you asked him to submit a bid in competition with a dozen other tailors.

"Why," he would say, "this is ridiculous. This man knows what kind of a suit of clothes I give him. He knows he can depend on the quality of the material, the make, the fit. He knows me, and has proved my work. Some fellow around the corner may underbid me—but what will he deliver?"

You don't buy tailoring that way. No man does. You know your tailor you rely on him, you trust him, you give him your work just as long as he turns out good work at prices that are fair.

Do you buy your printing as intelligently? Do you make it your business TO FIND A GOOD PRINTER as you do a good tailor, and then rely on his experience, his ability and his judgment?

Men who do, get good printing. Men who buy printing here and there, wherever the price is shaved closest, are the ones who have printing worries

THE WAR VETERANS DROP TO THE CELLAR POSITION IN FOOTBALL LEAGUE

A FAIR ATTENDANCE PRESENT—COLD WEATHER IS A HANDICAP—C.G.E. TWO GOALS TO THE GOOD AT HALF-TIME—VETS TRIED HARD TO SCORE—FIGHT ON THE FIELD—C.G.E. 4, G.W.V.A. 0.

IT WAS RATHER A ROUGH GAME

Once more an attractive League fixture has been spoiled by the inclement weather conditions, the visit of the G. W. V. A. team to the C. G. E. grounds to play off their game, owing to the other pitch not being in proper shape, was made under unfavorable weather conditions.

The G.W.V.A. have had no luck in their games, for after having selected a team, some of the players did not appear and that necessitated a complete re-arrangement.

The C.G.E. had one change from last Saturday, Young filling Bestard's place and Bestard taking Turner's centre half position, who reported himself sick. When the teams lined up the wind was blowing hard:

C. G. E. — J. Naples, goal; B. Mason and J. McDonald, backs; A. Parkins, H. Bestard and S. Young, halfbacks; A. Mauders, C. Hotson, A. Gash, J. Williamson and Ed. Bartley, forwards.

G. W. V. A. — Sid. Whatley, goal; W. J. Hawthorne and N. Jones, backs, A. Burrows, D. Ryan and A. Edwards, half-backs; S. Curtis, F. Monks; H. Norman, F. McKinley and A. Piggott, forwards.

Referee—Mr. A. Bates.

The Game.

The War Vets. won the toss and kicked down the field with a slight advantage in the wind. Gash set the ball in motion and the ball went to Curtiss who travelled down the wing, only to be relieved of the ball that went to Gash who bested Whatley. Another attack by C. G. E., in which Jones mis-kicked, Gash and Williamson made for the ball, that ended in Whatley getting there first and clearing easily. Give and take play was in evidence for a few minutes, until Curtis and Monks beat McDonald on a nice combination, passed to Norman who missed the upright.

An Offside Goal.

The play was even for a little while. A break through by the C. G. E. forwards left Gash and Hotston with the ball and the latter was offside; he was right behind the two backs and the Vets claimed offside, which the referee ignored. Hotson shot the ball into the corner of the goal; Whatley made a good attempt to stop it.

This success gave the C.G.E. great encouragement and it was a battle between the Vets defence and the whole C.G.E. tea m,for they were all gathered into the Vets' half of the field. Jones and Hawthorne put up a great defence and kept the C.G.E. forwards away from Whatley who was called to clear once. Gash shot into the centre of the goal and Whatley running out fisted the ball back again. A foul against Williamson brought the Vets. nothing. The game ran from end to end for about ten minutes.

Kid Kicked the Ball.

On a visit to the Vets' goal, the C.G.E. forwards were all lying close on the defence and from a shot by Gash ,the ball was travelling past the upright until a youth behind the goal kicked it back into play. Whatley was sure the play was finished but to his great surprise he saw the ball roll through the goal. The referee called the boy over and after consultation gave a goal kick.

The next flutter occurred following a pass from Curtiss across the C.G. E. goal; Piggott lifted the ball into the far corner from Naples, who cleared very poorly. McKinley and Parkins made for the ball and throughout the tustle Parkins hit the ball with his hand, the Vets claiming a penalty, but the referee was away up at centre field when the incident occurred, and paid no attention to it. The play ended with Norman shooting high over the bar.

Tactics Rough.

This decision of the referee caused an ill feeling between the players and on a raid by Manders and Hotson on the right wing, Jones had to concede a corner kick, because of unfair tactics against him. From the resulting corner kick nothing happened.

At this point of the game, Norman had to receive the attention of the players when he collapsed, but he soon recovered. No doubt the C. G. E. were playing the better game up till now and kept Whatley busy for a long time.

A Lucky Goal.

Half-time arrived with the C.G.E. two goals ahead.

HALF TIME.

On resuming after a welcome respite, the Vets' team attacked in great style. Piggott beat Parkins on the run, crossed to Norman, who was slow in accepting the opportunity to score. McDonald cleared. A few minutes afterwards McKinley and Bestard collided while trying to get the ball. Both of them received slight injuries which stopped the game. Edwards frustrated an attack by the Manders and Hotson wing. The right wing was more successful the next time, for they bewildered the defence and Gash lying uncovered lifted the ball high over the bar, with nobody but the Vets' custodian to beat. A good chance came to the Vets a little while later to transfer the play to the other end but the Vets seemed to be dead with Hawthorne, Jones and Edwards alive, and Whatley playing the whole game himself—kicking, fisting and clearing repeatedly. A corner kick was put behind by Manders.

Vets Revived.

A certain liveliness on the Vets left promised some results, for Piggot was playing a great game, and got a corner kick of McDonald who many a time in his endeavour to clear would kick the ball far into the touch and putting off time. Foul against McKinley for handling. Just afterwards Piggot again had Parkins and Bestard in queer street, for he carried the ball right up into the C.G.E. area but Norman spoiled the opportunity to score by hanging on to the ball. The C. G. E. raided Whatley's goal but Hawthorne returned the ball with a beautiful kick. Burrows beat Young and along with Curtiss made for Naples but McDonald cleared. The War Vets now had all the play but they could not get the necessary goals. A foul was awarded the Vets for McDonald touching the ball with his hand but it brought no results for them. Ryan took the kick; the referee put the C.G.E. forwards back to the 6 yard line, the ball went through the whole defence, striking Naples, and bounced back into play.

Piggot forced a corner kick—it was fruitless. At last "Ted" Bartley got a kick at the ball and travelled down the wing, shooting close past the up-right. The C.G.E. tried hard to keep the Vets away from their goal, and another foul was awarded to the Vets that gave McDonald an easy clearance. The ball went to Bartley, who shot right across the goal, where Mander and Hotston missed an open goal. "Wag" shot past a few minutes lates. At the other end Piggot and Norman made a raid on Naples with Piggott shooting high over the bar.

Vets Got Discouraged.

The Vets tried hard to open the scoring after having most of the play only to witness Manders lashing the ball across to Gash, lying uncovered gave Whatley, no chance whatever. The Vets tried to make amends for this reverse but the play was confined to mid-field. On an individual rush by Gash he increased the score to 4 goals.

Fight on Field.

On the ball being kicked off, the game continued, with Williamson and Ryan having a nice tackle, and Ryan getting the ball. He carried it up the field with Williamson in close attendance and in his endeavour to stop Ryan frequently kicked him, then lost his temper and struck Williamson on the face with his fist; both went to the ground in one another's arms. The rest of the players rushed over and separated them. On restarting Hawthorne was hurt and became practically useless. Till the end Whatley was saving his goal from every angle.

The game ended with the C.G.E. still pressing. C.G.E., 4; War Veterans 0.

NOTES ON THE GAME

The spectators that witnessed the game on Saturday were provided with an exhibition of splendid goalkeeping by Sid Whatley. He has had previous experience with Southampton in the Southern League, England.

Edwards of the Vets, was a thorn in the right wing of the C. G. E.—Manders and Hotson—and to the surprise of the C.G.E. supporters, spoiled their combination many a time.

Bestard and McDonald gave a good account of themselve at back, leaving little to be desired.

At half back Young showed good form and for a lad of 17 deserves to get a regular position in the team. Bestard did not allow Norman too much room to move in.

For the Vets' half backs Edwards carried off the honours. Ryans also did much good work.

Forward Piggott was the star turn, his footwork being captivating and judicious. He got very poor support from McKinley.

Hotston, the clever inside right of the C. G. E., drew out every ounce of football from Manders that brought all the goals.

"Ted" Bartley was a passenger most of the game. He received two kicks at the ball during the second half.

Saturday was an unlucky day for the Vets. They should have been awarded a penalty when Parkins hit the ball with his hand in the goal The C.G.E. got two lucky goals during the first half and the foul kick taken by Ryan in the second half went through the whole defence and hit Naples, who happened to be standing at that spot.

The unlawful tactics used by Williamson and a few more of the players on the field does the game a lot of harm. Gentlemen, play the ball—not the man!

If the game is to make progress in this city, the football Association will have to weed out the referees. Do not allow any team to have a certain choice. The referee on Saturday let too many unlawful things go—such as tripping, knee work, clicking of heels and tramping on the toes, go on.

DE LAVAL GRABBED ANOTHET GAME IN THE LOCAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

LONE GOAL MADE BY THE CADADIAN WOOLENS WAS A RARE PIECE OF WORK.

Captain beat Captain in the feature play of the De Laval vs Canadian Woollens football fixture at Nicholls Oval on Saturday afternoon. De Laval won the game by three to one, all the goals being scored in the second period, and Canadian Woollens got their lonely tally a few minutes before the end. To the maroon and gold crowd, that shot made by Captain Jack Cridland, was as good as a dozen ordinary scores, and the play will go down in 1920 soccer history as one of the neatest of the season.

A Good Game.

With five minutes to go, after a battle against the toughest kind of luck, Canadian Woollens were ready to give anything for a score. Time and time again, well-directed plays against the De Laval goaler had gone for nothing. Goaler Jones, who is also captain of Dick Evans' fond hopes, blocked the way. He stopped every old kind of a shot, and one after another play executed by the hard-trying northerners failed to find the objective. But at last the jinx was broken. Getting the ball while his team was fighting bitterly twenty-five feet out from the De Laval goal, Captain Cridland caught the opposing back division off their guard and rushing in with the ball outgeuged Jone who left his post, and a neat and accurate shot did the rest. It was great revenge after an afternoon in which the great work of Jones held the Canadian Woollens from making the score close. They deserved a tie.

Well Equiped.

Another feature of the contest, was the splendid playing conditions. To many of the De Laval players, Nicholls Oval was only a name. After a few minutes preliminary workout, they were ready to give the Oval it's due by declaring it to be one of the finest ground they had ever seen. And the visiting team had to admit that Canadian Woollens had it on all the other teams in the matter of equipment, the goals fitted with regulation nets being a big improvement over those at the Exhibition Park. This equipment was purchased from funds placed at the disposal of the Canadian Woollens Athletic Club, by the firm.

Two Changes.

Referee Day got the teams away well on time, the team at home presenting the same eleven who opened the season a week ago and were beaten by Canadian General five to nothing but Captain Cridland moved up to the line. De Laval with a win over the machine gunners to their credit, had two changes on their line up, Hillman and Hartshorn being used on the back division, where McDougall and Brown did duty last Thursday evening. The first period was uneventful, neither team being able to score, but soon after the second period opened, De Laval got the ball through. Canadian Woollens supporters maintained it was a fluke-y one, the wing really doing the trick, Nicholls however, gets credit for the goal By the time the period had been well advanced De Laval had added two more on shots by Hartshorn and Abraham, while a fourth went unrecorded as Referee Day ruled an offside on the play. Then towards the end of the game came Canadian Woollens great and successful attempt to beat Jones.

The Line-Up.

The teams were:—

De Laval—Goal, W Jones; backs, A. Hartshorn and Hillman; half backs, Cooper, Humpage and Hartshorn; forwards G. Hartshorn, J. Long, Cullan, Abraham and Nichols.

Canadian Woollens—Goal, Wetton backs, Barton and Styles; half backs, Montgomery, Jackson and Clarke; forwards, Clark, Baldwin, Cridland Reid and Jones.

JAKE SOLOMON ORGANIZES NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE

Mr. Jake Solomon, who organized the Central Ontario Amateur Baseball League last year, which made such a good shwing and won the Ontario honors, has started to organize a new league, which may be known as East Peterborough B. B. League, with Indian River, Norwood, Keene and Lakefield. Any other teams wishing to enter in this league will have to get in touch with Jake, as a meeting will be called shortly.

It is understood that the trophy given by Mr. Thompson, ex-M.P.P., will be donated to this league.

MANY LACROSSE PLAYERS WERE OUT SATURDAY

Another satisfactory lacrosse practice on Saturday afternoon on the Exhibition Park strengthened the assurance that there is plenty of material for a good intermediate team here this summer. The cool weather was altogether satisfactory to the twenty odd players, including the youngsters, who would probably have found a regular May day trying so early in the season. One of the old nets was set up in the west half of the park, and the players put in a profitable afternoon.

George Robertson was out for a little while just by way of encouragement, to show his interest in the game, and also for the old joy of feeling the ball flip into his stick again.

George Mein made his first appearance since that almost forgotten era before the War ,and stayed for the entire season. He had a real day around the nets, and displayed flashes of his old-time form.

Vic Hamilton was another of the old boys, all of whom find a thrill in the game they adorned in their palmy days.

President Todd was on hand with the manager, Johnny Sutherland.

Lou McCoy was back with his pals, and with him was his cousin, Jim McCoy.

Others in the practice game were Ed. Dillon, Fred Goodfellow, Haight of Wingham, a promising player, Creighton, Lawson, Dunford, Tudhope, Scriver, Donovan, Sandy Whitney, Len Johnston.

Will Practice Regularly.

Arrangements are being made for evening practices. The new nets are here and the new sticks were used on Saturday.

The lacross players are apparently deeply interested in getting a team together. Most of them are just making acquaintance with one another, and if there are any others in the city who know the game and want to get into it, they will be warmly welcomed.

Material Is Good.

Watching the swift passing in Saturday's practice brought back, after the long period of action, almost forgotten memories of the powerful attraction lacrosse held upon the public years ako. There are some neat stick handlers here right now, and they may rest assured of a big following if they round out into the team of which they have given every promise in their first two workouts.

Interest in lacrosse will share in the revival that sports of all kinds are undergoing this gear, and an enthusiastic following will not be lacking if there is a game or two to inspire it.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

At a meeting of the Junior Athletic Association, held in Lindsay, a temporary schedule was drawn up for the baseball season. Eight teams are expected. O.R.B., L.C.I., Simper Fidelis, Bona Fide, Tuxis Square Scouts, St. Paul's and Holy Name Society.

The games will commence to-day, and will continue with about three a week until the middle of June.

Port Hope Guide: Things have not been running as smoothly as they might be with the local baseball club, and at a meeting some changes were made in the list of officers. Bob Chalk has been appointed manager and a playing committee of V. Bradburn, J. Rowden, R. Chalk was also appointed.

The baseball players and management must learn that without harmony and co-operation the best ball players in the world would make little headway.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH.

There used to be a brilliant but erratic left-handed pitcher in the National League—he is dead now—who changed teams frequently because of his habits. He would drink beer—a great deal of beer. Fipally he joined the New York Giants, a provision of the contract being that he stay away from neighbourhoods where schooners foamed. He kept the pledge a long time—for him; he kept it nearly two weeks. Then he began slipping away from his hotel at nights and breaking training.

The late John T. Brush was the principal owner of the Giants at that time. Despairing of trusting in the pitcher's pledges, he struck upon the expedient of hiring a private detective to trail the thirsty southpaw in his nocturnal wanderings and keep tabs on him. At the end of the first week the detective had a report to make. Before hearing it, Mr. Brush had the accused summoned to his private office in order that he might be heard in his own defence.

The detective began reading from his notes:

"Last night I followed Mr. Blank"—naming the offender—"to a saloon at such and such a number on Sixth Avenue. He drank four beers there and ate a dish of spring onions at the free-lunch counter. He then went to a saloon on the opposite corner. He had six more beers and ate some more onions. He then—"

"Mr. Brush," broke in the southpaw indignantly, "that guy's handin' you a pack of lies—I didn't eat a single onion!"
